Everything is in readiness for the Jackson county farm economic conference at 10 a. m., February 20 in the courthouse auditorium, according to R. G. Fowler, county agent. Nine committees of growers with a total membership of sixty have been working for more than two months gathering data and considering problems relating to production and marketing of commodities under consideration. Assisting these committees in their deliberations have been representatives of the extension service of Oregon State college.

"Out of this economic conference we hope will come a sound program to guide future agricultural development of the county, worked out by practical and substantial farmers after due consideration of all the facts," stated H. E. Conger, general chairman yesterday. "While more than sixty representative farmers from practically all communities in the county have been serving upon committees, this program will be more representative of the larger number of farmers who participate in its making. For this reason it is our hope that we will have a large attendance on both days of the conference," Mr. Conger concluded.

Both production and marketing problems will be given consideration. An effort will be made to arrive at a conclusion as to what lines of agricultural production might be expanded at this time in view of the local, national, and international situation and what lines might better be left alone.

Committees which have been working for several weeks include the following: Horticulture, truck crops, dairying, livestock, soils, farm crops, agricultural economics, turkeys, and poultry. In this broad program there will be something of interest to practically everyone who operates a farm in the county, and interested persons are invited to participate in the conference.

The final program which was completed this week by General Chairman Conger and County Agent Fowler, general secretary, is as follows:

Thursday, February 20

10:00 a. m. Opening remarks by H. E. Conger, general chairman.

10:15 a. m. The outlook conference, its origin and objectives, by Wm. L. Teutsch, assistant county agent leader, Oregon State college.

10:45 a. m. Jackson county agriculture and some of its problems, by R. G. Fowler, county agricultural agent.

11:00 a. m. General conference directed into commodity groups. All interested persons are invited to attend these group meetings and should participate in the group in which they are most interested. Chairmen of groups are as follows: Horticulture, B. C. Ward; soils and irrigation, Stephen Ny, Jr.; truck crops, Otto Bohnert; dairy, J. R. McCracken; farm crops, Arnold Bohnert; livestock, E. W. Kubli; poultry, Mrs. J. R. McCracken; turkeys, G. E. Osterhout; agricultural economics, A. E. Brockway.

12:00. Recess.

1:15 p. m. Separate group meetings continued.

Friday, February 21

9:30 a. m. Separate group meetings continued to give final approval to typewritten reports and affix signatures.

10:30 a. m. Groups assemble in courthouse auditorium—H. E. Conger, general chairman, presiding. The General Outlook for Agriculture, Land Utilization and Farm Credit, by A. S. Burrier, land planning consultant, resettlement administration.

11:00 a. m. Report of farm crops committee, poultry committee, and turkey committee.

12:00. Luncheon.

1:30 p. m. General assembly for consideration of reports of following committees: Horticulture, soils and irrigation, dairy, livestock, turkey, truck crops, agricultural economics.

Plan Future Meets Plan Future Meet At Saturday Lunch

Permanent organization of a Medford chapter was definitely assured at a meeting Saturday afternoon of those interested in forming a local branch of the American Association of University Women. Fifty-five guests gathered for luncheon at the Hotel Medford with Mrs. Robert Hart acting as temporary chairman.

Committees appointed were: Constitution committee, Mrs. Doris Bar and Miss Helen Winters; nominating, Mrs. Allen Perry and Miss Marjorie Kelly; program, Mrs. Ernest Roestel and Mrs. Richard Payne; arrangements for the next meeting, Mrs. L. Sanders, Miss Maurine Carroll and Mrs. Wilson Watt; membership, Mrs. Moore Hamilton and Mrs. Hilding Bengtson.

Miss Minnie Holman, a member of the association's branch at LaGrande, Ore., who is visiting friends in Medford, addressed the club, telling of various phases of the LaGrande chapter.

The next meeting was set for the third Saturday in March, when the program will include election of officers and the adoption of a constitution.

The following meeting in April will see the installation of officers, at which time it is expected that a number of state officers will be in Medford to direct the proceedings.

Elks Planning Dance For Saturday Eve

February's social activities are expected to come to a point during this week with affairs in honor of George Washington's birthday forming the principal diversion.

Fitting climax to the week will be the George Washington Birthdays dance now being arranged by the Elks club for Saturday evening at the temple. The dance committee announces that decorations for the affair will be very special, in keeping with the day, and that good music is assured.

Guests for the evening will be Elks and their invited friends.

Rotary Women To Meet Wednesday

Mrs. William Holt will be hostess to the Women of Rotary at her home, 11 Corners Court, Wednesday afternoon. Luncheon will be served at one o'clock. Mrs. W. H. Reichstein will assist the hostess.

American Legion Auxiliary

This evening the executive committee will meet at Myrtle Wright's home. Those having scraps of print cloth suitable for quilt blocks are requested to bring them.

Friday afternoon and evening the auxiliary gave two public card parties in the Baldwin Piano Shoppe. The committee in charge was Maude Coddling, Irene Humphreys and Maizie Daily. Dorothy Pace was refreshment chairman. Many thanks are due these girls for making the parties a success.

COURT UPHOLDS RIGHT TO SELL SURPLUS POWER

"power" is power produced in excess of purely governmental needs.

Authority Provided

Hughes asserted authority to dispose of property constitutionally acquired was specifically provided in the constitution itself.

"The constitutional provision," he ruled, "is silent as to the method of disposing of property belonging to the United States."

"That method, of course, must be an appropriate means of disposition according to the nature of the property."

"It must be one adopted in the public interest as distinguished from private or personal ends, and we may assume that it must be consistent with the foundation principles of our dual system of government and must not be contrived to govern the concerns reserved to the states."

"As to the mere sale of surplus energy, nothing need be added to what we have said as to the constitutional authority to dispose. The government could lease or sell and fix the terms."

In an opinion by Justice Brandeis joined by Cardozo, Roberts and Stone, it was contended that the suit should have been dismissed because of lack of jurisdiction.

McReynolds Surprises

Disseminating Justice McReynolds read a dissenting opinion. No indication had previously been given that the ruling was not unanimous.

He delivered the dissenting opinion in the famous "gold clause" cases last term.

McReynolds said he objected to the extent of the government's activities.

"I think," he said, "the trial court reached the correct conclusion and that its decree should be approved. If under the thin mask of disposing of property the United States can en-

NEW AIR PROGRAM FEATURES CRATER

Crater lake is to be featured as part of a series of radio programs sponsored by the U. S. department of the interior to acquaint the traveling public with the attractions of the national parks.

The series, called "Treasure Trails," will be broadcast each Saturday afternoon from 5:30 to 5:45, eastern standard time, over the NBC blue network.

The programs depict the adventures of a typical American family touring the national parks. Helen Ault and Lansing Hatfield play the leading roles with the support of a large cast. An orchestra provides incidental and descriptive music.

The action of the first program of the series, broadcast last Saturday, took place in Yosemite national park, California.

CALL GRAND JURY TUESDAY MORNING FOR CRIME CASES

The grand jury has been called to convene tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock, for the consideration of eight or ten criminal cases. District Attorney George A. Coddling said today, it also predicted that the session "will be rather lengthy." A number of matters before the body for several weeks will be disposed of.

The grand jury is composed of George Treddler, Central Point, foreman; Nellie R. Madden, Ashland, secretary; Frank Ditsworth, Trail; Joan A. Hendrick, Central Point; William Anderson, Ashland; Robert Galloway, Gold Hill, and John A. Opp, Jacksonville.

February term of the circuit court starts Monday, February 24, when ordinarily a new grand jury would be drawn. The present grand jury may be continued, or a new one drawn, in the discretion of the court.

A petit jury of 31 names has already been drawn from the general jury list for the year. Additional names will be drawn to replace those who for various reasons, are not eligible for service.

Circuit Judge H. D. Norton, after a week spent holding court in Josephine county, returned to the local bench today.

Health Officer

DR. A. N. JOHNSON, county health officer, obtained his degrees at the school of medicine at College of Medical Evangelists, Los Angeles. He later was in the health departments of Los Angeles county and San Bernardino county.

not be able to get off until Wednesday.

The officers who arrived yesterday were Capt. Leo H. Dawson, commander of the 57th service squadron; Capt. John Egan, flight commander of the 17th squadron; Capt. F. J. Coleman, flight commander of the 94th squadron; Lieut. D. W. Hutchison, station signal officer; and Lieut. M. C. Woodbury, station supply officer. All of them are stationed at Selfridge field and like their five predecessors here they came west by train to pilot the new ships back to their Selfridge field via San Diego, El Paso and St. Louis.

The ten pursuit planes are now in the hangar at the municipal airport where the public may inspect them at close range.

"We should be glad to have the people look over the ships if they care to," Col. Royce said today.

It was estimated that about 1,000 persons inspected the planes yesterday. The airport was crowded in mid-afternoon, all available parking space being filled.

The ten army officers are to attend the wrestling bouts at the armory tonight as the guests of Max Peirce, W. H. Fluhrer, Fred Heath, Jr., and A. H. Banwell.

The claim of victory, with the distances and points given as captured, brings out that the Italian advance now has reached a point five miles behind Antalo—which the Italians captured last year, early in the war. Later the fascists withdrew from Antalo announcing they were "consolidating positions."

The Ethiopian government also announced a success. It stated that 4,000 Italian native troops had deserted from their commands on the southern front and gone to the British colony of Kenya.

DIGESTION is often overtaxed by our tense...hurried existence!

HERE DELICIOUS FOODS TEMPT APPETITE—the famous Gold Coast Dining Room (where) at the Drake Hotel in Chicago. And here the fragrant, delicate smoke of Camels rises while Erik, famous maître d'hôtel, watches alertly over all to see that no wish goes unfulfilled. "So many of our guests smoke Camels," Erik says, "for they have found that choice tobaccos add to the pleasure of the meal. Camels are tremendously popular—a leading favorite here."

Smoking Camel Cigarettes Aids in Assuring Natural Digestive Action

"Hurry—hurry—hurry" seems to be the order of the day. People get caught in the lockstep of modern life. Tension finds the weak spot, so often—digestion. It has been shown that smoking Camels improves digestion... wards off the consequences of hurried, nervous living. Camels stimulate digestive action. They promote the feeling of well-being and good cheer so necessary to the proper assimilation of food. Camels set you right! And, in smoking Camels for digestion's sake, you may enter a whole new world of smoking pleasure. So turn to Camels. Expect an enticing mildness. Enjoy the appealing flavor of costlier tobaccos! They never tire your taste!

COSTLIER TOBACCOS

Camels are made from finer, MORE EXPENSIVE TOBACCOS—Turkish and Domestic—than any other popular brand.
