Details Announced For Sparrow-Firth Wedding March 7

Principal among events of the spring social season will be the wedding of Miss Frances Sparrow and James Firth of San Francisco, which will take place at St. Mark's Episcopal church the evening of March 7, at 8 o'clock. Rev. E. S. Hartman will read the ceremony.

The bride-elect has selected her sister, Miss Harriet Sparrow, as maid of honor and Miss Marion Hankin of Portland, a cousin of the groom, will be bridesmaid.

Kenneth Firth of San Francisco, brother of the groom, will be best man. Ushers have been announced as F. D. Clark of Stockton, Cal., and Howard Osborne, W. W. Aldrich and James Hayes, all of Medford.

Miss Sparrow is the daughter of Mrs. Alex Sparrow of Kirgland farm, and Mr. Firth is the son of Mrs. Grace Firth of San Francisco. The betrothal was announced late last fall, and since that time the bride-to-be has been much feted by her many friends.

Howard School to Be Hostess to Daddies

Daddies of the Howard district school will be guests of honor at the Founder's day program being planned for Friday evening, to start at 7:30. Speaker for the evening will be Mrs. Maybelle Church. A special candle-lighting ceremony will honor Founder's day and refreshments will be served.

Clebs Return From San Francisco

Yesterday saw the return of Lieut. and Mrs. William B. Clegg and Lieut. Philo D. Smith, who arrived last evening from San Francisco. The group has spent the past several days vacationing in the bay city, Lieutenants Clegg and Smith enjoying a leave from duties.

EX-ELK RULERS WILL OFFICIATE IN FUN PROGRAM

Tonight is to be Past Exalted Ruler night at the Medford B. P. O. Elks lodge, with past exalted rulers filling all the chairs in what is expected to be one of the biggest events of the year.

A business meeting preceded the party, at which time the Moses Vera and Neva Childreth were initiated into the order.

Mrs. Grace Guyer, assisted by her committee, served refreshments to more than 40 members and friends late in the evening. Arrangements for the affair, which members feel to have been the most successful and outstanding of the year so far, were made by Mrs. Dorothea Nelson, patriotic instructor of the tent.

Lenten Season Slows Activities

Social activities during the next weeks are expected to be somewhat curtailed as usual during the Lenten season. Plans for large or formal affairs are being postponed until later, although restrictions are not so stringent in recent years as formerly, and many informal gatherings and quiet affairs will probably be arranged.

This season is always a more or less slack one for social activities, even among those who do not observe Lent, it being midway between winter formality and spring affairs. Vacation trips, winter sports and afternoon luncheons and bridge form the major activities of the season.

Kabeles Honored At Dinner Monday

Covers were laid for 60 guests at the dinner arranged by the congregation Monday evening to say farewell to Rev. and Mrs. George P. Kabele of the Zion Lutheran church, who left yesterday morning to make their home in Fresno, Cal.

Rev. A. M. Knudsen of Portland, president of the Pacific Lutheran synod, was the principal speaker for the evening. Rev. and Mrs. Kabele were presented with gifts from the congregation, the Luther league and the Sunday school.

D.A.R. Notes

Tickets to "Mister Hobo," in which George Arliss plays the leading role, are being sold by Crater lake chapter, D.A.R., for benefit of the student loan fund. The play will appear at the Craterian theater March 1, 2 and 3, and tickets thought from the chapter will be good for any one of the three dates.

Tickets may be obtained from Miss Sara VanMeter, any member of the D. A. R., or from the Medford Pharmacy and Young's Drug Store.

AD IN MAIL TRIBUNE GETS DISTANT RESULT

The far-reaching influence of Mail Tribune advertising was proved today to the satisfaction of the Hawley Transfer company.

The company was in receipt of a letter from Mrs. R. W. Dusenberry, 444 Orchard avenue, Bellevue, Pa., near Pittsburgh. Mrs. Dusenberry said that she contemplates moving to Medford next summer and as she had seen a Hawley advertisement in the Mail Tribune, decided to write and ask about rates for bringing her furniture from the east.

Impressed by the response, the Hawley company telephoned the Mail Tribune and said: "We thought you'd like to know how far your ads travel."

FINAL DEBATES SLATED TONIGHT

Final debates in the southern Oregon conference division, which includes Medford, Ashland and Grants Pass high schools, will be held this evening at the Senior high school auditorium at eight o'clock, when the Medford negative team meets the Ashland affirmative. The opposite teams of each school debated this afternoon in Ashland.

Medford high school is now eliminated from the competition, having lost her two debates with Grants Pass Tuesday afternoon and evening, the first 3-0 and the second 2-1. Dolph James, ex-high school debater, acted as chairman for the evening debates held here.

Grants Pass and Ashland split their debates yesterday, with Grants Pass holding the edge in points. In case of a tie between Ashland and the Cave City teams, the winner will be decided on a basis of points.

SIN OBSCURES CROSS ASSERTS EVANGELIST

Evangelist Long, speaking to a full house at the Baptist church Tuesday night, said the reason why the cross cannot be seen nor its power felt is because of sin in our churches. "In order to have contact with God things must be right. A small sin can separate us from God."

Wednesday night Mr. Long spoke on prayer and gave reasons why prayers are unanswered. Tonight Mr. Long will speak on "The Greatest Work in All the World." Tonight is B. Y. P. U. and men's night. Friday night will be "Crucifixion" night. It will be a triple cross service with three crosses illuminated and a rag picture of the crucifixion. Mr. and Mrs. Long will sing "The Old Rugged Cross." Rev. Long will speak of John 3:15 and in the evening on "Two Doors." There will be special music morning and evening.
