Pomona Grange

(By Mrs. Gertrude Haak.) Pomona Grange.

We are sorry that illness has prevented these items from appearing sooner.

Last Pomona meeting had an attendance of over 300 Grangers throughout the day in K. P. hall. Roy Ann Grange was host.

Morton Tompkins, overseer of the State Grange, and also on the legislative and agricultural committees of the State Grange, was an interesting speaker on the measures of the election. He also spoke on matters of vital interest to Grangers during the closed session.

Moore Hamilton, Jackson county representative, also spoke on the measures.

During the lecture hour, which was public, some very fine music was enjoyed. Miss Jeanette Gore led in community singing with Mrs. Mable Sims at the piano. Miss LaMurre Beck of Roy Ann Grange played with a solo, accompanied by Roberts Ward Bell.

Students of Southern Oregon Normal contributed to the pleasure of the listeners with a vocal trio, Barbara Holt, Joyce Banish and Genevieve McGee, accompanied by Alberta Youcum; and a piano solo by Alberta Youcum.

Two songs by members of the Roy Ann Grange concluded the musical treat.

Mrs. Florence Drake, chairman of the good of the order committee, presented the prizes in the subordinate Grange membership attendance contest. The prizes went as follows: First, Phoenix Grange; second, Live Oak Grange. First prize for largest percentage of paid-up Pomona members from any subordinate Grange went to Phoenix Grange. Gold Hill Grange, one of the newest Granges in the county, lost this prize by only a fraction of one percent.

Mrs. Susie Maust announced district and judges in the Pomona Grange efficiency contest for subordinate Granges as follows: District No. 1, Bellview, Talent, Phoenix, Central Point and Roy Ann Granges; district No. 2, Eagle Point, Lake Creek, Upper Rogue, Enterprise and Live Oak; district No. 3, Gold Hill, Upper Applegate, Applegate, Jacksonville and Sams Valley.

The judges are Warren Patterson, C. P. Clarence Davies, E. P. Wm. Foley, C. P. Frank Hensperger, Jacksonville; Ray Ward, Phoenix; Henry Carter, Bellview; Mrs. Nora Wait, Live Oak; Mrs. Lee Port, Upper Applegate; Jerry Fitzgerald, Sams Valley.

This contest is to be judged in June in each Grange, the Grangers will be notified in advance. The judges will be instructed by a State Grange leader at some local place.

The Pomona went on record opposing the present truck license law which doubles the previous tax on small trucks or pickups.

They also oppose the legislature giving the speaker of the house power to appoint a committee to pass on all bills coming before the house, thus establishing a precedent that may endanger the freedom of the people if allowed to stand.

The Pomona recommends to all farmers selling livestock to out-of-state buyers that they accept only checks on local banks, or cashier's checks on local banks, or cashier's checks that some sellers have had a very hard time collecting on some of the checks issued.

Mrs. Ethel Hookersmith was appointed chairman of the home economics committee.

Good of the order committee: Olive Floyd, Helen Carter, H. J. Fleischer, Henry Conger, Arnold Bohner and C. C. Hoover gave a very interesting report of the year's work as regards selling of livestock, seeds, grain, etc. The above-named and Geo. E. Dunn and Perry Watt comprise the Pomona committee which heads a county committee including the chairman of each subordinate Grange agricultural and marketing committee.

A very interesting report on rural electrification districts was given by E. E. Nealon. Others speaking on the same subject were W. A. Johnson, Geo. Wertz and L. R. Conk's of Josephine county.

J. E. Albright, new 4-H leader for the county, was an interesting speaker.

Pomona Grange meets at Sams Valley, March 14, at 8 p. m., and at Wimer, with Enterprise Grange, April 25, in an all-day meeting.

Grange council meets with Phoenix Grange, April 15, at 8 p. m.

Please keep these dates in mind, and arrange for a large attendance.
