Dance March 7 Planned By Club

Hosts next Saturday evening, March 7, will be members of the Officers' club, who will entertain with the fourth in their series of monthly dances at the Hotel Medford. Dancing will start at 9:00 o'clock.

Guests for the evening will be officers of the various services, technical agency personnel and their civilian friends. Arrangements are being made by Capt. Albert T. Anderson, Lieut. Roy Craft and Lieut. Robert W. King.

At a recent meeting of the Officers' club, members elected Capt. Herman J. Meiring, executive vice-president; Lieut. Theodore P. Coates, treasurer; and Lieut. Robert W. King, secretary.

Church Societies Have Joint Meeting.

A joint meeting of the Missionary circle and the III Triangle of the First Baptist church was held in the church Tuesday evening. A covered dish dinner preceded the evening's program.

Reports of the World Fellowship session held recently in Forest Grove were given by three of the delegates, Miss Dorothy Cady, Mrs. Helen Curry and Neal Curry.

Miss Marjorie Gregory and Neal Curry, presidents of the two organizations, presided over the business session and Miss Grace Hermonson had charge of the program on Mexico. Scripture was read by Irvin Doty and papers presented by Louise Ladd, Edna Dale and Dorothy Monteth. Miss Marguerite Luman was presented in a vocal solo, accompanied by Miss Mildred Buckles.

Bridge Luncheon At Hotel Yesterday.

A large number of Medford matrons and bridge players were entertained at luncheon yesterday afternoon at Hotel Medford, with Mrs. Lucille Rickard, bridge authority, presiding.

Following luncheon, guests adjourned to the mezzanine floor, where several tables were in play during the afternoon. Mrs. Rickard presenting a lecture of playing phases.

Past Matrons to Lunch Monday.

Mrs. Harry Nordwick will be hostess to the Past Matrons' club of Reames chapter, O. E. S., at her home, 819 Reddy avenue Monday afternoon for a dessert luncheon. Luncheon will be served at 1:15.

Following luncheon, several tables of bridge will be in play during the afternoon. All members and visiting past matrons are extended a cordial invitation. Those unable to attend are requested to call the hostess at 726-L.

Mrs. Reames Back From Visit.

Among returning Medfordites this week is Mrs. A. Evan Reames, who arrived by train this morning. Mrs. Reames has spent the past two weeks visiting in Portland, where she was the guest of her mother, Mrs. Edward J. Laning.

Organizer Leaves After Official Visit.

Mrs. Minnie Card, state organizer of the Degree of Honor Protective association, returned to her home in Portland this morning. She has spent the past several days in this city conducting official business connected with the organization, officiating at several ceremonies during her stay.

Miss Throckmartin Celebrates Birthday

EAGLE POINT, Feb. 28.—(Spl.)—Miss Eleanor Throckmartin entertained thirteen invited guests, with a dinner and dancing party at her home in Eagle Point last Saturday evening, the occasion being her eighteenth birthday. She received many beautiful and useful presents and best wishes for many more happy birthdays from her guests.

The color scheme of the dinner table was carried out in blue and silver. After the dinner, the party went to the "Oasis" where they danced until midnight, then went back to the Throckmartin home, where they had a delicious midnight lunch before departing for home. All voted it one of the happiest parties they had ever attended and one they would long remember.

The guests were as follows: Margery Paley, Donna McRhea, Irene McLaughlin, Dorothy Price, Lovette Dearmond, La Vern Dalenbury and Velma Smith; Harold Green, Vernon Hank, Robert Prentice, George Stevens, Ross Haglan and Gerald Morningstar.

Guild Planning Birthday Party.

Plans are being made by the committee in charge for an unusually interesting and varied program to make a successful and enjoyable evening for members and guests of the Crater Lake Guild of the Presbyterian church when they entertain, with the annual birthday party in the church Monday evening.

Every member is urged to attend and to bring a guest, as this is one of the outstanding social events planned by the organization during the year. Successful affairs in previous years lead those in charge to expect the same for this year's party.

Executives Meet Thursday Evening.

Executive officers of the Degree of Honor Protective association met last evening at the home of Ida M. Wilson, juvenile director. Following a business discussion, Mrs. Minnie Card, state organizer who has been visiting the chapter for several days, talked to the group.

The next regular meeting of the association has been announced for March 5 at the Eagle's hall at seven-thirty in the evening. All members are urged to attend.

Nile Patrol To Have Party.

Members of the patrol of the Daughters of the Nile are perfecting plans for the benefit card party scheduled for Tuesday afternoon at the Masonic temple at two o'clock. A cordial invitation is extended the public.

Arrangements are being made by Mrs. Albert E. Peasley, Mrs. Paul B. Hynning, Mrs. Archie Mansfield and Mrs. Lyle Wilcox.

Edith Smith Weds William Rose Yesterday.

At seven-thirty yesterday morning, Edith Smith became the bride of William Rose at the Sacred Heart Catholic church, the ceremony being performed by Rev. F. W. Black.

The couple were attended by Mrs. Vera Plymale and Larry Schade. Mr. and Mrs. Rose left after the ceremony for a week's honeymoon. Upon their return, they will make their home on the Jacksonville highway.

own barracks and held ground in the heart of Tokyo.

Army Heads Confer Gen. Sado Araki, a supreme war councillor and one of the most powerful men in Japan, conferred frequently with General Kaahii concerning the maintenance of martial law and the rebels' situation.

They were joined at these councils by Gen. Benjuro Hayashi, another supreme war councillor.

High naval officials conferred late into the night at the ministry of the navy.

Chuji Machida, the minister of commerce and industry, who is also acting minister of finance, went to the palace to talk with Kurahel Yuasa, the minister of the imperial household.

Tokyo newspapers predicted that the next cabinet would be "powerful in authority and national composition, headed by a man of lofty personality and irreproachable reputation." They did not, however, suggest probable candidates.

Lieut. Gen. Yotaro Nakamura, director of the inspectorate-general of military education, was reported assigned to the post of inspector-general of the army, made vacant by the assassination of Gen. Jotaro Watanabe.

Imperial princes again conferred "before the throne" in the presence of the emperor at the imperial palace, their original force joined by Prince Asakira Kuni and Prince Teuanyoshi Takada.

Details of any decisions at the night conferences were not communicated to the public.

Mrs. Stowers Leaves for Home.

Returning to her home this morning was Mrs. Parker Stowers, who left by train for Wenatchee, Wn. Mrs. Stowers has been a Medford guest for the past three weeks, having visited at the Eugene Thorndike home.

At First Bapstist Church

A pleasing feature of the evangelistic campaign now being conducted at the First Baptist church by the "Singing Longs" is the singing and playing of Mrs. Long (above). Rev. J. B. Long and Mrs. Long have attracted large crowds during the past week with their messages and music.

CCC HEAVIES TO FIGHT FOR ELKS

Robert Barth, 180, Camp Steamboat, heavyweight battler who appeared in an exhibition bout here recently, will meet Andrew Sinchak, 180, Oregon Caves, in the main event on Tuesday evening's CCC boxing card at the Elks' temple.

Barth fought Johnny Dutcher, 183, Wimer, in the exhibition, and the two heavies are training for a six-round main event to be staged on the March 17 card. Meantime, Sinchak has made his appearance in the heavyweight picture and has asked for a bout. He hails from Chicago and has had 35 previous fights, so he should be able to make a good showing against Barth, runner-up in the Minneapolis Golden Gloves tournament last year.

Several important bouts will be staged on the new Elks-CCC series. Nat Lombardo, 130, Oregon Caves, is to tangle with Johnny Rosdill, 118, Prescott, in another feature event.

The card will star at 8:30 Tuesday evening and six good bouts are promised. Four elimination cards will be held, with the final being staged in a big outdoor card some time in May.

DEATH OF SCOTTI GOES UNNOTICED BY ITALIAN PRESS

appeared as an obituary notice inserted by friends in the newspaper Mattino of Naples. The paid notice stated that Scotti "in his glorious lyrical career held high the prestige of Italian art on the stages of the world."

Scotti was without a family and he leaves only distant relatives here. Some years ago he bought a small mausoleum in Naples cemetery, and it was there that he was interred.

Antonio Scotti was unique in years of stardom in opera. He received ovations for 43 years, in every corner of the globe where grand opera is sung.

He was in his 24th year when he made his debut at the old Royal Opera at Malta, singing in Aida. Previous to that time he had been intended for the priesthood by his parents. He was born January 25, 1866, in Naples.

GRAND JURY'S REPORT DUE EARLY NEXT WEEK

The grand jury, George Treichler of Central Point, foreman, which has been in session since last Tuesday investigating eight or ten criminal matters, will report early next week, District Attorney George A. Godding reports. The body is scheduled to recess over tomorrow and complete its work Monday.

The grand jury so far has returned but one indictment. It was against Boyd Hamilton of the Applegate, charged with larceny of livestock. With the completion of the work of the grand jury, the criminal docket for the February term of the circuit court will be made. The court has also announced that a new grand jury will then be drawn.

873 DOG OWNERS PROCURE LICENSE

Up to noon today 873 dog owners of Jackson county had procured 1936 licenses, according to the county clerk's records. This is approximately half the same number issued for the same period last year. More than 2900 dog licenses were issued last year.

March 1 has been announced as the last date for purchase of dog licenses without penalty payments.

The license fee is $1 for male dogs and spayed female dogs and $1.50 for female dogs.

Under the Oregon law, 80 per cent of the dog license fund is received by incorporated towns and cities, and is used by the county in the payment of claims for sheep killed by dogs.

The county clerk's records show that the dog licenses issued to date are evenly divided between city and county.

Each Tonga Islander is taxed $10 a year to provide medical and dental care for himself and family.
