DAY FOR PRAYER IS OBSERVED BY MISSIONARY MEET

Contributed
Women's Missionary Federation of Medford met in the First Methodist church Friday to observe the World Day of Prayer. In the absence of Mrs. Fred Weatherford, vice-president, Mrs. E. E. Wilson acted as chairman for the morning services. Mrs. N. E. Coe gave the devotions in a most impressive and inspiring message on the meaning of prayer. Business session followed, with election of officers: President, Mrs. E. E. Wilson; secretary-treasurer, Mrs. E. E. Wilson. Dr. Verkuyl of Philadelphia gave a most timely message for all Christian workers to follow toward the better Christian life. Rev. and Mrs. Long brought a beautiful message in song, "Teach Me To Pray Lord."
Mrs. Bancroft, a national worker in the Presbyterian church, gave inspiring and helpful thoughts on the special world day of prayer. At noon a delicious luncheon was served in the Ladies' parlors. Mrs. Eva McNary presented the noon hour devotional program. Mrs. J. Albert Shepherd gave an illustrated talk on the life of Christ.
At two o'clock the regular program for the day was given. Mrs. N. J. Wiley, president of the missionary societies of the First Methodist church presiding. Rev. Long led the devotions, the different churches taking part in the program.
A pageant representing the different phases of missionary work both on the foreign and home fields was ably presented by the members of the Nazarene church. Appropriate musical numbers were given throughout the morning and afternoon programs by Rev. and Mrs. Long, Mrs. Don Platt, Mrs. Georgia Holloway, Mrs. Elsie Strang, Mrs. Thelma Cunningham, and Miss Lois Herman.
There were about one hundred and fifty present during the two services. This was by far the most successful meeting held by the federation, and as the years go by it is hoped all people interested in this great world movement will participate in these services.
At this time we wish to thank the Mail Tribune and KMED for their splendid cooperation in bringing notice of this special program before the public.

SOCIETY and Clubs

Garden Club Will See Colored Slides

A showing of colored slides on home gardening will be a feature of the program being planned for the Thursday evening meeting of the Medford Garden club at the Hotel Medford at 7:30.

A cordial invitation is extended by members to anyone interested in growing flowers and shrubs, and in helping to make Medford a beautiful city, to join the group and become acquainted with the aims and efforts being put forth.

The competition for the best flower arrangements brought by members to each meeting has so far proved very interesting, with truly individual and beautiful results, stated Mrs. C. C. Darby, president of the club.

After the showing of the slides at the Thursday meeting, Mrs. Darby will welcome questions on flower garden problems in general discussion. Important business will be brought before the meeting and voted upon.

Wednesday Study Club

The regular meeting of the Wednesday Study club will be held on March 4th at the Girls' Community club rooms. Mrs. J. P. Lawrence will speak on "Vital European Problems" and Mrs. J. R. Crews will review "Grand Tour."

American Legion Auxiliary

Monday night, Feb. 24, the auxiliary held its Americanism program. Georgia Holloway, Americanism chairman, had charge and provided an interesting and entertaining evening for all attending. Dorothy Pace and her refreshment committee, Margaret Kerr, Pearl McCredie, Mrs. Johnson, Gladys York, Georgia Holloway and Lorena Leach served delicious sandwiches, cookies and coffee. The table was decorated in a patriotic motif.

The Americanism radio program was arranged by Katharine Larison. The opening number was "Trees," the national theme song of the auxiliary. This was followed by a short talk on Americanism and a reading, "The Americanism of George Washington," by Van Dyke. The program closed

The W. C. T. U.

Mrs. Necla Buck of Salem, national lecturer and field worker for the W. C. T. U., will be guest speaker at a bi-county institute to be held in the Presbyterian church in Jacksonville, Tuesday, March 3.

The morning session opens at 10:30 with Mrs. Eva McNary, leading the devotional period. County President Mrs. Augusta McCormick will preside at all sessions. Mrs. M. Russell will talk on official papers. A covered dish lunch will be served at noon, each lady being asked to bring a covered dish and table service.

Mrs. Shepherd will open the afternoon meeting at 1:30 with an illustrated devotional talk. Mrs. Buck is a talented and inspiring speaker and her addresses will be of interest to all who hear her. Mrs. Paul Byers will review the prize book. Numbers by Ashland musicians will be presented at both sessions.

A cordial invitation is extended to all who can attend, especially the afternoon meeting. Those who can take cars or who desire transportation, call 988-L.

Rev. J. B. Loug who is conducting evangelistic services in the Baptist church, will speak especially to members of the W. C. T. U. Friday evening, March 6. All members are urged to attend.

Eagle Point P. T. A. Chicken Dinner to Swell Nurse Fund

EAGLE POINT, Feb. 28.—(Sp.) The Eagle Point P. T. A. on March 4, will serve another of the chicken dinners for which the organization has gained a great reputation in the past four years. Proceeds for the dinners go to carry on P. T. A. projects, this year's affair will aid in giving the Eagle Point school and community the services of a trained nurse one day each week.

The dinner will be served in the grade school building from 6 to 7:30 p. m. and will include creamed chicken on hot biscuits, potatoes, a vegetable, salad, dessert and coffee. A nominal charge will be made.

THIRTY-THREE years of unqualified and unquestioned leadership in style, quality and dollar-for-dollar value have enabled us to accurately choose apparel for southern Oregon and northern California people. It is natural that they should look to this long-established store for service that is RIGHT... We have considered this reputation, that we have achieved for leadership, a sacred trust... it has been and will be jealously guarded—the utmost in style; the perfection in service; the maximum in quality and value plus the ever-present warmth and friendliness of the atmosphere of this store and courtesy of our staff will be maintained for another thirty-three years as it has in the past third of a century—that is our pledge upon the occasion of this anniversary!

Toggery Bill's Anniversary Message—
May I express to the people of southern Oregon and northern California my sincere appreciation for the splendid patronage they have accorded The Toggery during the past year—and the past thirty-three years! It has been my aim for this institution to advance with the development of "A Great Country"—to maintain a leadership in this community that spells finer service and greater values for Toggery patrons. That the policy of this store—quality, style, value, service and courtesy ALWAYS first—is right is indicated by the steady expansion of our business. Upon the occasion of The Toggery's 33rd anniversary, I pledge to my loyal friends and patrons a steadfast adherence to this policy!
