'THE TOGGERY' TO MARK 33RD YEAR IN BUSINESS HERE

Contributed

To those of us who have lived for many years in the Rogue River valley, and especially in Medford—to those who have watched the steady and dignified growth of the business district, The Toggery in Medford stands for much more than just our leading men's clothing store. It exemplifies the sure, onward growth of our community.

This store, for one third of a century, has stood on our principal street, meeting the needs of the male populace, and as those needs grew, just so has this store kept pace, until now "The Toggery" stands a splendid metropolitan store for men, offering them the finest possible in merchandise and service.

Wm. F. Isaacs

On the first of March, thirty-three years ago, "The Toggery" was founded and it has continued under the same management throughout the years. This handsome store, located in the same block in which it started, is a beautiful, modern, up-to-the-minute establishment, and one of which any city might well be proud.

Just as every business house bespeaks the spirit of the hand which controls and guides it, so "The Toggery" exhales an atmosphere of friendliness and cheer to each one who enters its doors. The spirit of helpfulness, the eagerness to serve and make happier all who come to his place of business, is exemplified in the personality of "Toggery Bill" Isaacs. It is the spirit which animates him; no worthy cause, no one in ral need has ever appealed to him in vain. It is this which makes "The Toggery" what it is—a store unique among stores, being the expression of the owner's life work, and to which he has given his best, never satisfied but ever studying ways and methods to make it better and better.

The man who enters "The Toggery" feels this friendliness and desire to serve emanating from each member of the staff. It is just the same with laboring man, or banker, the same if one comes to buy a pair of work socks or a fifty dollar suit, for "The Toggery" is a store which caters to no one class of people, but to every class. A store for the people, each person and individual equally important to please.

A word or two about the personnel: Arthur Hess, fourteen years with "The Toggery" and now buyer and manager of the furnishing goods department, has made so many friends that little need be said as to his importance of the store. Delous Cox, who will be remembered from former association with "The Toggery" will return to Medford and after March 10th will be in charge of the shoe department. His many friends will be glad to hear of his return to the store. B. C. McKenna, buyer and manager of the clothing and hat department, is becoming a regular authority of what the well-dressed man will wear. Dick Woodcock, assistant to all departments, is another valuable member of the staff. Mrs. Birdie Coggins has charge of the fitting department, where every garment is perfectly fitted and she is as particular as the customer. Mrs. Coggins is ably assisted by Miss Adabee Seiler. Both Mrs. Coggins and Miss Seiler have had years of experience. Miss Thelma Humpton is secretary to Mr. Isaacs and has charge of the office.

As to "Toggery Bill" himself—from the time when he was a boy, "Toggery Bill" has fished the waters of the famous Rogue river, year by year becoming more proficient in the canny and difficult art of casting the fly. Today he stands an acknowledged champion of the sport, winning all tournaments into which he has entered. Fishermen and sportsmen of note have sought him out, and many is the notable he has entertained at his beautiful "Rock Lodge" on the banks of the Rogue.

In civic affairs, "Toggery Bill" has always been in the forefront of every movement leading to the improvement of the city. As a member of the chamber of commerce, for many years serving on its board of directors enthusiastically aiding and abetting every endeavor tending to the betterment of his loved city, he has ever been unflagging in his activity for its welfare. Always prominent in musical circles, he has been influential in bringing concert artists to our city, and in every way by his support has contributed to Medford's artistic and cultural growth.

Toggery Bill's love for, and loyalty to his home city and the Rogue River valley, is well known and has endeared him to the people of this community. High or low, he knows and loves them all, and is "Bill" to them. No greater praise can one bestow. And on this, the 33rd anniversary of "The Toggery," we extend congratulations to this store of friendly service and high quality, of which Medford is proud, and to its beloved founder—"Toggery Bill."

Westminster City council has invited employers in that district of London to send members of their staffs to a series of lectures arranged by the British Red Cross on "anti-gas precautions and first aid for air raid casualties."

MAHONEY SPEAKS IN CITY TUESDAY

Willis J. Mahoney, mayor of Klamath Falls and spirant to a seat in the United States senate, will be principal speaker at a meeting to be held in K. P. hall Tuesday night under the sponsorship of the newly formed Jackson County Townsend Central Bureau, it was announced yesterday by R. S. Griffin, secretary. L. R. Johnson, state Townsend speaker, will also address the meeting.

Because of this program Townsend Medford Club No. 2 has postponed its regular Tuesday meeting. The central bureau plans to open offices here this week.

Mr. Mahoney has whole-heartedly endorsed the Townsend plan for old age pensions and is receiving the tentative support of Townsend organizations for the nomination as United States senator. Senator Charles L. McNary, Republican incumbent, recently incurred the wrath of the Townsendites for asserted equivocation on the Townsend plan.

WARMEST DAY OF WINTER REPORTED

Yesterday was the warmest day of the winter and prospects were that the balmy weather would continue at least over the week-end.

The mercury yesterday reached a maximum of 65 degrees, highest since last October 27 when it climbed to a peak of 68. Maximum Friday was 59.

Mail Tribune "Ad" Causes Spencer to Buy From Own Firm

"Suburban home. Approximately 2 acres; 6-room house, garage, poultry house; 2 miles from Medford."

The foregoing was part of a classified advertisement inserted in the Mail Tribune the early part of the week by Brown & White, realtors.

When the property was listed Clinton Spencer, salesman for Brown & White, became greatly interested. It appealed to him as a property on which he could give an eloquent sales talk. He thought about it and he talked about it. When he read the ad in the Mail Tribune he dreamed about it.

Yesterday Brown & White announced the sale of the property. It was bought by Clinton Spencer!

The property is at the end of Kings highway. It was part of the Mary-Mac orchard, a large tract formerly owned by Jonas Wold and acquired by Walter Leverette.

The house is to be reconditioned by Mr. Spencer, who now resides with his family at 1530 West Main street.

When the reconditioning is completed Mr. Spencer and his family will take possession.

"Nothing like an ad in the Mail Tribune for getting results," Mr. Spencer commented.
