BAR LOBBY PROBE FROM GLIMPSE OF STRAWN CO. WIRES

WASHINGTON, March 2.—(AP)—A court order temporarily restrained the Western Union Telegraph company today from supplying the senate lobby committee with messages sent by Silas H. Strawn's law firm. Strawn charged the investigators with "illegal and unconstitutional methods." The Chicago attorney, whose firm is Winston, Strawn & Shaw, is a former president of the Chamber of Commerce of the United States, and is a member of the Republican finance committee. He said a blanket order for his firm's telegrams amounted to a "fishing expedition." Justice Jesse C. Adkins of the district of Columbia supreme court granted the temporary injunction and set the case for hearing Thursday. The enjoining order will expire Monday. Chairman Black (D., Ala.) of the lobby committee commented "to say the least, it's rather well timed," but refused to state the nature of evidence sought from Strawn's firm. "It may be that there is a few other telegrams similar to those we have had today will come up," the senator added, referring to telegrams sent by a subsidiary of the Cities Service company. Strawn acted as the committee requested its investigation of activities directed last session against passage of the utility holding company law. Strawn said in a statement the firm had nothing to conceal but that he objected "to having our private affairs and the affairs of our clients subjected to such an unreason-able and unconstitutional search and seizure."
