Bing Crosby in Thursday Show

Adapted from the stage success that made a record year's run on Broadway, "Anything Goes," with Cole Porter's famous song hits, comes to the Craterian theater tomorrow with Bing Crosby, Ethel Merman and Charlie Ruggles in the leading roles of the screen version of the famous hit. Also featured in the cast are Ida Lupino, Grace Bradley, Arthur Treacher, Robert McWade and Matt Moore among others. Crosby plays the part of a broker who finds himself aboard an ocean liner, with the borrowed passport of a public enemy in his pocket. Charlie Ruggles, in various disguises, assists him to find a beautiful girl he believes to be in distress and at the same time keep out of the clutches of the law. Between them the two of them, and the assistance of the other leads, they manage to keep in perpetual hot water, enlivening the film no little bit. Comedy, fast-paced throughout, proves to be the motivating theme of the show, but with Cole Porter, ace song writer, author of various tunes in the picture, there are naturally many song numbers, including the ever-popular "You're On Top."

The W. C. T. U.

The W. C. T. U. meets Thursday afternoon at 2:30 in the Baptist church parlor. The program will be one of special interest as Rev. J. N. Long, evangelist at the Baptist church, will lead the devotional service and give an address. Mrs. Long and Mrs. Norman Gail will be heard in solos. Those who have not yet heard Mr. Long are urged to attend. This will be an open meeting and all are welcome. Rev. Long will speak promptly at 2:30.

Rialto's Star

Claire Trevor and Ralph Bellamy have the featured roles in "Navy Wife," which plays at the Rialto theater today and Thursday. The film, which features for the first time the woman's side of navy life, was adapted from Kathleen Norris' popular novel, "Navy Wife" tells the story of a young nurse who loses her heart to a navy physician, still in love with the memory of his dead wife. Bellamy offers marriage to Miss Trevor, however, so that his crippled daughter may have a home and mother. As the story progresses, Miss Trevor learns that, instead of one rival, the dead wife, she has two. The second is a beautiful, exotic woman, played by Kathleen Burke. Just as their marriage is about to end in tragedy, a surprise-filled climax brings them understanding and happiness. Warren Hymer, Ben Lyon and Jane Darwell are also in the cast.

Card of Thanks.

I wish to take this means to thank my company and employes and many other friends for sympathy and kindness they have shown in my recent accident, and for the flowers that have been sent in. It is my many business friends who find it is impossible to visit, because of business hours, I will be glad to have them call at their convenience, as I will do here for some time yet. Will be glad to see anyone as often as they would like to call. It is impossible for me to find words to express my thanks for the hospitality I have received here.—Max M. Overstreet, Room 929, Sacred Heart Hospital.
