CRATER SNOW IS HIGH IN WATER

Analyses of snow in Crater lake national park show an exceptionally high water content for this time of year. It is disclosed in a tabulation submitted today to David H. Canfield, superintendent.

Six tests made of snow at Annie Spring showed a water content ranging from 41 to 48 percent. The snow ranged in depth from 101 to 120 inches.

At government camp three tests were made in snow from 133 to 137 inches deep. The water content ranged from 40 to 46 percent.

The snow in the whole park is now equivalent to about 395,800 acre feet of water, it was calculated by J. Carlisle Crouch, chief ranger.

The water content of snow is of paramount importance as a source of supply for irrigation reservoirs, it was explained.

MANY CLAIMANTS FOR WILD HORSES AFTER ROUND-UP

bagged a gray mare estimated at 30 years of age. Despite her years she put up a brisk battle before entering the corral. Investigator Hartin classified the veteran of the range as "not worth much."

Ranger Port stated that glimpses were caught of the outlaw band, "still jittery from the crowd Sunday. They are badly scattered, so we will leave them alone for a week or so. By that time they will be bunched again," said Ranger Port. There would be another round-up, but without publicity, Port also said.

One resident of the Applegate district, by whose home autos travelled Sunday to the Muddy Gulch corral, informed Investigator Hartin he counted 240 autos. It was the heaviest travel on the road in the memory of the informant.

Webb did not make public his legal opinion in the matter at the time, but phrased it privately in a letter to Arthur G. Arnold, secretary of the Los Angeles chamber of commerce. Instead of releasing it as an official opinion.

"As between states, rights of citizens to ingress and egress has generally been recognized and upheld," Webb declared, adding that full recognition of this right was guaranteed in the articles of confederation and later in the constitution.

The practice of appointing Los Angeles police deputy sheriffs in border counties, which has created dissension and turmoil at some points, is not proper, Webb asserted. Since only electors of a given county property could act as its officers.

For a week the men engaged in filming daring exploits in the air for "Devil's Squadron," a drama of test pilots starring Richard Dix and Karen Morley.

Before departing this morning the men expressed their appreciation of Medford's hospitality and declared they would remember the Rogue River valley whenever air scenes are required for a picture. They were especially grateful for the service extended them at the airport where most of the scenes were taken and where they kept their three planes.

ASHLAND MAY SHIFT CHAMBER LOCATION

Discussion and tentative plans toward changing location of the Ashland chamber of commerce office was made at a meeting of the board of directors yesterday noon. President Frank J. Van Dyke was authorized to appoint a committee to study various phases of the plan.

Favored among the suggested sites was that of on or near the Plaza, those present indicating a preference for headquarters near or adjacent to advantages of the city, including Little Park. Among the proposed plans was that of erecting a new building in the center of the Plaza area, with the aid of the city.

OPINION OF STATE ATTORNEY IGNORED BY POLICE CHIEF

exercise proper power in those counties. "As for the legal right of citizens to pass over state borders, my men are instructed to seek among incoming persons those who may have criminal records or otherwise can be classified as undesirable."

SAN FRANCISCO, March 17.—(P)—Attorney General U. S. Webb disclosed here today he informed the Los Angeles chamber of commerce a month ago the "border patrol" of Los Angeles police set up to keep undesirable itinerants out of California was a violation of United States citizens' constitutional rights.

Webb did not make public his legal opinion in the matter at the time, but phrased it privately in a letter to Arthur G. Arnold, secretary of the Los Angeles chamber of commerce. Instead of releasing it as an official opinion.

"As between states, rights of citizens to ingress and egress has generally been recognized and upheld," Webb declared, adding that full recognition of this right was guaranteed in the articles of confederation and later in the constitution.

KIN IN ASHLAND TOLD OF TRAGEDY

News concerning the murder of Alaire and Lenore Eliason, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Rose Eliason, formerly of Ashland, and the suicide of Louis Czaba, hired man of the family, March 14 at their home in Lethbridge, Canada, was received by Ashland relatives Sunday morning.

The telegram telling of the tragedy was received by Mr. and Mrs. George N. Kramer, Mrs. Kramer is a sister of Rose Eliason. Ashland relatives stated that Czaba had been with the family eight years, and was trusted completely. He allegedly murdered the girls, set fire to the new home and immense barn just completed, and committed suicide.

Mrs. Eliason is the daughter of Mrs. G. T. Payne of Ashland and she and her son spent the past summer at the Payne home, visiting a number of other relatives and friends. Both Mr. and Mrs. Eliason were reared and attended school in Ashland, and have made numerous visits to southern Oregon since taking up their residence in Canada.

A second telegram stated that the funeral and interment would be in Lethbridge. Mrs. Kramer and Lara Eliason, brother of the murdered girls' father, Mrs. Payne and Mrs. Oscar Rickell, of Roseburg, sister of Mr. Eliason, left yesterday for Canada.

Rialto Thursday

Action pictures of the sea have always proved among the more popular with theater audiences everywhere. Tomorrow and Thursday the Rialto theater will have one of the best of this type, "Hell Ship Morgan," its cast headed by Ann Sothern, George Bancroft and Victor Jory.

The film, a stirring drama of the emotions that rage through the soul of a man, infamous captain of a "hell ship," when he learns his love is unrequited, has the tempestuous sea as a smashing background. Bancroft plays the title role—a brute among men but a "softy" where women are concerned; Ann Sothern is the girl about whom the battle rages, and Victor Jory is the third member of the triangle, whose presence aboard ship brings on the mutiny—and the fight for the girl.
