COUNTY BRIEFS

Reese Creek

RESESE CREEK, March 17.—(Sp.)—How's school this week? Fine, thank you. While they are on their last mile of school work, the going is still good. Students and teachers are all working hard for the last final touch before the closing exams. Wednesday, Shady Cove school came down and played baseball with the Reese Creek students, taking home the proverbial bacon. There is always some satisfaction in every loss. They won't be able to do it next time.

Foots Creek

FOOTS CREEK, March 17.—(Sp.)—Mrs. Pierce Dauga entertained the Live Oak H. E. club Saturday afternoon, March 12. Those attending from here were Mrs. Geo. Hutchins, Mrs. Wm. Badley and Mrs. R. L. Miller. Mr. and Mrs. Wm. and her son and wife of Seattle have purchased the Sam Chishold property and are now located there. Mr. and Mrs. Louis Lingren of Gold Hill, accompanied by Mrs. Lingren's mother, brother and sister of Portland, visited at the Ed Koester home Friday.

Pomona Grange

Pomona Grange met with Sams Valley Grange March 14. There was a large crowd and nine subordinate Granges were represented. Upper Rogue had a large group out who were cordially welcomed. Very good reports were given by the agricultural and other committees, and there was interesting discussion of matters of interest to farmers. Initiation in the degree of Pomona was planned for some time in May or June. All masters are urged to work for a large class in this initiation, which will be the only initiation by "fall". Many are signing up. Gold Hill Grange, less than a year old, is surely going strong.

Antelope

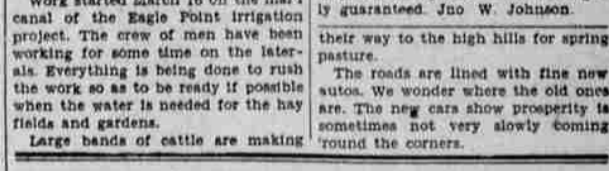

ANDERSON CREEK, March 17.—(Sp.)—Everyone was sorry to hear of the serious illness of the little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donica and hope she will soon be able to be back to school. Mr. and Mrs. W. Shaw of Ashland were dinner guests of Mrs. E. Mays Sunday. Edward Smith spent Sunday night and Monday with his aunt, Mrs. Shaw. Charley Skeeters was up on the creek Thursday. F. C. Casey came home Friday from Roseburg for a few days' stay at his home. Mr. and Mrs. Green were out to the valley Thursday. F. M. Centers, Mrs. E. Mays and daughter, Mrs. Belle Centers and Edward Smith were in Medford Saturday.

THE GRANGE

Lake Creek Grange met in regular session March 13. In spite of the Friday, the 13th, Jinx, a good-sized crowd ventured forth and enjoyed a very pleasant evening. Russ Moore, executive committee chairman, gave a report of his investigations on fence prices and offered to donate timber from his own land for posts, which the Grange decided to cut and haul on Sunday afternoon. Reed Charley, fencing committee chairman, gave a report on the purchase of material for treating the posts. Lecture hour opened with a report of the late recreation meeting, by Lecturer Mabel Brown. A pencil and paper contest, requiring a knowledge of state of the United States and the geography of Oregon, occupied the members for some minutes. Other features were: Assembly songs with sketch of Arthur Chapman, by Mabel Brown; reading by Mary Moore; song by Dorothy Selantey, with piano accompaniment, by Lucille Milliken; reading by Myrtle Charley; accordion selections by Russ Moore, with Mrs. Moore at the piano; reading, by Ella Meyer; solo, with guitar accompaniment, by Wallace Bagdale. Some time was spent in practice of an officers' seating drill, with Mary Moore as lady assistant and Reed Charley as assistant steward, to lead the officers. Very satisfactory progress was made.

ONTARIO, Ore., March 17.—(AP) Little change was noted today in the condition of William E. Lees, Sr., Ontario attorney, who was shot in the abdomen during a hotel lobby quarrel Sunday. Hospital attaches said he is "getting along pretty good," but added that he is not yet out of danger.

WINDOW GLASS—We sell window glass and will replace your broken windows reasonably. Trowbridge Cabinet Works.
