Sheep Stealers Wait Sentence... SALEM, Ore., March 25.- (AP) Robert Harold and John Anderson, brothers, who confessed in circuit court yesterday to the theft of 171 sheep from 10 individuals in Marion and Polk counties, remained in jail today while Judge L. H. McMahon pondered what sentence to impose.

The youths, 22, 21 and 20 years of age respectively, told the court they took the sheep because of their strained financial circumstances and because of the necessity of supporting their mother.
