

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

Visiting Here—Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Knudson of Klamath Falls are spending a few days in Medford visiting friends and making business calls.

Business Visitor—Transacting business in Medford today was C. F. Tracht of Spokane, Wash. He expects to return north tonight.

To Nebraska—Among those leaving Medford tonight will be Mrs. Ida Wright, who will board a northbound train for Chester, Neb.

Reames North—A. Evan Reames, Medford attorney, left by train last night for Portland where he will make a short business visit.

To Portland—S. M. Tuttle, manager of Southern Oregon Sales, Inc., left by train last night on a short business trip to Portland.

In Ashland—C. B. Cordy, assistant county agent, spent Tuesday transacting business at the Ashland Chamber of Commerce.

Townsend Meeting—Regular semi-monthly meeting of Medford Townsend club No. 1 will be held at K. of P. hall tomorrow evening, commencing promptly at 7:30.

Reserve Officers Meet—Rogue valley chapter of the Reserve Officers association will meet at 7:30 tonight in the Medford armory. The C. and G. S. map problem will be studied. Capt. Marion C. Wright will be instructor.

To Address Institute—John F. Doerr, Jr., naturalist of Crater Lake national park, will address the Teachers' Institute in Jacksonville tomorrow afternoon. He will speak on "Recreational Education in Our National Parks."

Meeting Tonight—Executive council of the Young Democratic club of Jackson county will meet at 8 o'clock tonight in headquarters, 193 West Main street. Several important matters are to be decided, Jack Murray, president, stated.

Undergoes Operation—Mrs. C. A. Burkhardt of Grants Pass underwent a tonsilectomy at the Osteopathic clinic and hospital this morning. J. J. Hargett of Grants Pass was receiving medical treatment, having been admitted to the hospital yesterday.

State Aide Here—M. J. Melchior, field representative of the World War Veterans State Aid commission, arrived here last night from Salem for a business visit of several days. He conferred today with Carl Y. Tenswald, commission agent for Jackson county.

From Crater Lake—Bernie Hughes, ranger in Crater Lake national park, returned to his post last night after spending the day here on business. He was accompanied to Medford by Martin Palmer, chief mechanic of the park service, who will remain here for a few days.

New Trailer Received—A new 12-ton trailer, with dual wheels and pneumatic tires, has been delivered here to the Crater Lake national park service. It will be used in transporting heavy equipment about the park and between separated areas under park administration.

Eagles' Social Dance
Tomorrow night, 9 o'clock
Eagles' Hall
Jacksonville Orchestra

Crouch is Speaker—J. Carlisle Crouch, chief ranger of Crater Lake national park, this afternoon addressed the Teachers' Institute in Eagle Point. He spoke on "Prehistoric Americans and Their Relation to the Present." Data for his address were gathered in southwestern states.

Retiring from CCC—Dr. John J. Haruff, surgeon for Camps Prescott and South Fork, is retiring from the Civilian Conservation Corps to resume private practice in Hollister, Cal., where he formerly resided. His resignation from the CCC will become effective March 30.

Grange Party Planned—The ways and means committee of the Roxy Ann Grange today announced a card party to be held in the Grange hall on Spring street tomorrow evening, starting at 8 o'clock. Bridge, five hundred and pinocle will be in play and all those who enjoy cards are invited. Refreshments will be served.

Eagles Dance—A dance for members and their families and friends will be held by the Fraternal Order of Eagles at the West Main street lodge hall tomorrow night. The Jacksonville orchestra will provide the music. The dance will follow the business meetings of the lodge and its auxiliary at 8 o'clock. John Hyde is chairman of the dance committee.

Snow at Crater—Two additional inches of snow fell in Crater Lake national park last night, bringing the ground cover to 134 inches. It was stated in the daily broadcast from headquarters this morning. Some rain fell this morning, pointing to excellent skiing conditions in the park over the week-end. All state highways and park roads, excepting the rim drive, are being kept open, the broadcast said.

PORTLAND, Ore., March 26.—(AP)—Trustees of the Statu Memorial Congregational church announced the dismissal of the Rev. Ezra S. Gerig as pastor. Walter Brown, trustee chairman, said the pastor's "temperament was unsuited."
Followers of Rev. Mr. Gerig said he will resume preaching at a "church of the Great Commission" to be established here.

Craterian Star

Wallace Beery is cast in the role of the swigging but lovable Uncle Sid whose alcoholic habit has kept Aline MacMahon a spinster maiden instead of his wife in "Ah, Wilderness," the comedy-drama of American family life opening a three day run at the Craterian theater today.

Others in the cast of this widely-praised production include Lionel Barrymore, Eric Linden, Cecelia Parker, Spring Byington, Charles Grapewin, Frank Albertson and Helen Flint.

In Roxy Role

Beautiful Dorothy Wilson, with Preston Foster, Alan Hale and a supporting cast of 5,000 bring "The Last Days of Pompeii" to the screen of the Roxy theatre today and Friday. One of the oldest love stories in history, the film is a spectacular drama of a pagan city that laughed in the face of impending doom.

Helpful Neighbors
ESTACADA, Ore., March 26.—(AP)—Sickness never stopped spring planting on the farm of C. H. Duncan. Neighbors got together and in two days plowed, harrowed and seeded the farm.

Famous Dance Team Coming to Craterian Sunday

Following the precedent set by such shows as "Rose Marie," "A Midsummer Night's Dream," "Klondike Annie" and, opening today, "Ah, Wilderness," the screen's ace dancing team of Fred Astaire and Ginger Rogers comes to the Craterian theatre Sunday in "Follow the Fleet" as another hit show in and Dance. "All My Eggs in One Basket" and "Let Yourself Go."

Coming Sunday

Jay Clarke, internationally famous mentalist, will open an engagement at the Rialto theatre Sunday, appearing on the stage for matinee and evening performances to answer personal questions concerning business transactions, love affairs, etc.
Coming here from San Francisco, where he has just completed a record run of 42 consecutive weeks in various theatres about the Bay district, including four weeks at the Orpheum and two weeks at the Paramount theatre in San Francisco, holdover engagements at the Senator in Sacramento, the Oakland theatre in Oakland and other big theatres of like calibre. Jay Clarke has established a reputation of being one of the most popular acts of this type to appear on the coast.

ROSEBURG, Ore., March 26.—(AP)—Coroner H. C. Stearns said the death of Leonard McComas, 44-year-old WPA worker whose body was found in a street here last night, was due to a self-inflicted bullet wound. The widow and daughter survive.

George O'Brien Here Friday

Instead of riding a loping horse over the plains, George O'Brien is riding the iron horse over the singing rails in his new adventure picture, "Whispering Smith Speaks," which will play at the Rialto theatre tomorrow and Saturday.
Swift-paced and filled with the zest for adventure that has made O'Brien a film favorite, "Whispering Smith Speaks" pictures the adventures of a rail-road magnate's son when he undertakes to become a rail man himself.
With O'Brien are Irene Ware, Kenneth Thompson, Frank Sheridan and a host of others.
