Visiting Daughter—Mr. and Mrs. D. L. Jones of the Little Applegate district visited a few days this week with their daughter, Mrs. A. W. Sullivan of Ross Lane.

New Teaching Post—Miss Betty Benjamin, who graduated from the Southern Oregon Normal school at Ashland at the end of the winter term, has accepted a position as teacher at Broadbent, in the Coos Bay district.

Receiving Treatment—C. T. Hawkins of Grants Pass arrived here Thursday to undergo treatment at the Osteopathic clinic and hospital.

On Business Trip—Mr. and Mrs. Ernest J. Smith left this morning for Lakeview on a short business trip. They are expected to return tomorrow.

Fish Man Here—P. B. Hawley, superintendent of the U. S. bureau of fisheries, left last night for Oregon City after spending a short time here transacting business.

Fabrick Away—Glenn Fabrick was among Medfordites going out of town last night, his destination being Portland where he will make a short business visit.

At Headquarters—Capt. Harold H. Capers, commanding officer of Camp Oregon Officers, conferred yesterday with officers at CCC headquarters here.

Next to Portland—Porter J. Neff, Medford attorney, left by train last night for Portland where he is to transact business pertaining to his legal practice. He was expected to return Sunday.

Class Meets Monday—Parent-education class of the Roosevelt school will meet in room 8 at 2 o'clock Monday afternoon. Anyone interested is invited to attend these informal group meetings.

Kelly to Salem—Col. E. E. Kelly left last night by train for Salem where he was to attend a monthly meeting of the World War Veterans State Aid commission, of which he is a member.

Employed in G. P.—Mamie Long is now employed at the Warehouse Cleaners in Grants Pass. She was formerly with the Pantorium Dye Works here, having held the position for nine years.

Dixie Club Meeting—The Dixie club will meet at 2:30 p. m. on Saturday, April 4, in the home of the Misses Annie and Katie Kelleher, 1019 South Oakland avenue. Mrs. Rose Schiefelin and Mrs. John Peter will assist the hostesses.

Facing Traffic Charge—Paul Gysin of the Central Point district was arrested yesterday by city police, charged with violation of the basic rule of driving when he allegedly drove through the intersection of McAnisley road with the north Pacific highway at 55 miles an hour. He was cited to answer the charges in city court at 11 a. m. Saturday.

Snow at Park—Snow was falling to the accompaniment of a stiff wind in Crater Lake national park this morning when the daily broadcast was made from headquarters. Three inches of snow had fallen during the night, making the ground covering 136 inches deep. Both roads were in operation, keeping all wheels, excepting the rim drive, open.

George Raft Coming to Rialto

A new star team of irresistible lovers tops the film horizon as George Raft and Rosalind Russell step out arm-in-arm together in the grand new comedy romance, "It Had to Happen," playing at the Rialto theater three days starting Sunday. Leo Carrillo, Arline Judge, Alan Dinehart and Arthur Hohl are also featured in this story of a man who fought his way up from the bottom to win a glamorous girl, then threw away everything he had won to keep her.

As a special added attraction at the Rialto theater Sunday, Jay Clarke, internationally famous mentalist, will open a week's engagement, appearing on the stage for all shows, matinee and evening. Not to be classed as a "mind reader," Mr. Clarke's forte is answering questions of a personal nature, whether pertaining to love, travel or business transactions.

Fred Astaire in Sunday's Hit

Nimble-footed Fred Astaire, who comes to the Craterian theater Sunday for a three-day engagement in "Follow the Fleet," his new song and dance vehicle in which Ginger Rogers is co-starred, has his own interpretation of the "Sailor's Hornpipe," which he demonstrates in the film.

OLYMPIA, Wash., March 27—(AP)—The state supreme court today declared the 1935 corporate net income tax law unconstitutional.

Western Thriller on Roxy Bill

Thrills and chills, week after week, with one of the greatest stories of the west ever told will start tomorrow at the Roxy theater. It is "Rustlers of Red Dog," starring John Mack Brown, and is considered the most sensational picturization of the winning of the great silver "The Covered Wagon." "Rustlers of Red Dog" is a chapter serial, one episode will be shown each week for 12 weeks. Gene Autry in "Tumbling Tumbleweeds" is the feature playing with this first episode of "Rustlers of Red Dog."

Trials Nears End—Closing arguments were underway this morning in circuit court in the trial of Boyd Hamilton, Applegate district resident, charged with the larceny of livestock. The case was expected to be in the hands of the jury by mid-afternoon. A large crowd, including many residents of the Applegate district, comfortably filled the spectators' section of the courtroom.

On Sick List—John Rosdill, popular CCC lightweight boxer of Camp Prescott, was today confined to the company's infirmary with a throat ailment. He is under the care of Dr. Elias H. Porter, camp surgeon. He has been conducting classes in boxing at the camp and will resume his instruction as soon as he is discharged from the infirmary, unless he is able to leave for the east Sunday for discharge, officers said.

Assumes New Post—Miss Wilma Rubenstein today began her new duties as stenographer of the Rogue River national forest service in the federal building here. She arrived by motorcar last night from Portland where she was employed in the U. S. regional forester's office. She replaces Miss Edith Funk, who asked to be transferred to the upstate office so that she might be near her father who is ill in Portland.

Sheriff Improves—Sheriff Syd I. Brown, injured in an auto accident near Yreka, Cal., early Tuesday morning when the car he was driving hit a soft shoulder on the Pacific highway, was reported today as improving. The sheriff was ordered by Dr. J. C. Hayes, attending physician, to take a couple of days' rest. Sheriff Brown sustained a bad cut over one eye, a slightly wrenched knee and chest bruises.

Change Meeting—Ester Church Leake, director of the Jackson County Teachers' chorus, announced this morning that the rehearsal of the chorus and the Medford Gleemen will be held Sunday at the high school auditorium at 12 o'clock noon, instead of 2:30, as previously stated. The chorus will also rehearse tomorrow morning in the courthouse auditorium at 10 o'clock.
