COUNTY BRIEFS

Sams Valley

SAMS VALLEY, March 27.—(Spl.)—The Ladies' club annual banquet was held Thursday evening at the auditorium where the members entertained their husbands and families. After a short program the crowd joined in recreational games directed by Miss Ruth Bigham. Bounteous refreshments of ice cream and cookies were served in the kitchen near the midnight hour.

O. T. Wilson received a telegram Sunday advising him of the sudden death of his brother, Justin, at Santa Barbara, Calif., Sunday morning. Justin was a resident of this district for about ten years, leaving in 1916 to make his home in California.

School was closed March 19 for part of the day when the students witnessed "Midsummer Night's Dream" at the Medford theaters.

The sudden death of John Duggan Saturday night came as a shock to friends and acquaintances here. Mr. Duggan had resided practically all his life in Sams Valley where sympathy is extended his two sons, Charles and Owen, his brothers and sister and other relatives.

The first battle with Jack Frost this season was enacted Tuesday night, when a smudge was lighted in the Van Hoevenburg orchard, to protect the pear crop.

The seeding of grains will soon be completed in this district where work is being rushed while the weather permits.

Mrs. Steve Wilson visited Sunday with "Grandma" Wilhite at Eagle Point.

Mrs. O. R. Tresham returned last week from a ten days' visit with relatives near San Francisco.

Lake Creek

LAKE CREEK, March 27.—(Spl)—Twenty-two ladies were present on Thursday at a meeting of the Community club held at Mrs. Henry Meyer's. As the club had no unit work scheduled for that day, Mrs. Ella Tyrrell demonstrated the making of angel food cake. She made two cakes, which the club members pronounced perfect.

The Grange will give another dance Saturday night, March 28, with the Rogue Elk orchestra furnishing the music.

Among those from here who attended the dance at Rogue Elk Saturday night were Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Ragsdale, Mr. and Mrs. Reed Charley and Mr. and Mrs. Roy Grigsby.

Big Applegate

BIG APPLEGATE, March 27. (Spl.)—Geo. Hoffman, resident of Thompson creek for 45 years, reached his 81st milestone Thursday, the outstanding event of the day coming in the surprise visit of his daughter, Mrs. Emma Jordan of Sacramento, who had not visited here for 19 years. Mr. Hoffman was honored with a dinner at the home of his son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Hoffman, at which Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hoffman of Steamboat also were guests. The aged man lived in Germany until he was 16, when he came to California to live with relatives. His friends speak of him as being "quite a boy" in consideration of his good health and ability to cut wood, build fences, and do other kinds of heavy labor. Mrs. Jordan left Sunday for Weed, where she will spend a few days before returning to her home.

Mrs. Merriam Worthington of San Francisco, who is making an extended visit here, spent the week end in Ashland as a guest of her sister, Mrs. Clyde Young. Mrs. Worthington also visited her mother-in-law, Mrs. Martin Stevens, at Talent.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Lovel of Griffin Creek motored here yesterday and were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Hartley.

Miss Leah Evans and Miss Leah McKee, students of Medford high school, spent the week end here with Miss McKee's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd McKee.

Among local teachers attending "Midsummer Night's Dream" at Medford last week were Mrs. Wallace Haskins and Miss Eleanor Maule. About fifteen pupils from Applegate school attended, as did Orden Phillips and Donald Caldwell from Beaver Creek.

While on a business trip to Klamath Falls, Mrs. Cora Crump of Eugene spent the week end here with her son, Harold Crump.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Winetrout of Grants Pass spent Sunday here with the former's sister, Mrs. Fred Benedict.

Lester Smith, employed for a number of years in the county engineer's office at Medford, left the first part of the month for Yuma, Ariz., where he has employment as timekeeper for a construction company working in connection with the All-American canal being dug there. Mr. Smith stated in a letter to his parents here, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Smith, that the thermometer reached 101 degrees soon after his arrival there. Mrs. Smith may join her husband later.

Mrs. J. G. Ayres and daughter, Mary, arrived by train from Portland Saturday to spend the week end here with Mrs. Ayres' son, Carl, who is teaching at the Little Applegate school.

Baseball in miniature style has commenced here in games waged between grade schools, Beaver Creek having defeated Uniontown Friday by a score of 4 to 5.

Lee Port, Jr., returned to Oregon State college Sunday after spending the spring vacation at his home here. Mr. Port arrived too late to attend the nation-wide horse roundup staged last week, but having become imbued with a real spirt of the west when he heard of the horse affair over a coast-to-coast hookup through a San Francisco broadcast, contented himself with roping the gold fish at Star ranger station.

F. J. Spauding of Medford has started logging operations on Little Applegate, having purchased timber from Mrs. Mary Purcel. Two trucks are making regular trips to Medford with logs.

Mr. and Mrs. K. K. Kubli of Portland were guests of Mrs. Maud Kubli here Sunday. The Portlanders spent several days in southern Oregon, making the Hotel Medford their headquarters. Mr. Kubli made several trips to Gauls creek, where he owns the Golden Standard mine.

The Upper Applegate Grange, in presenting its first program before the public Saturday evening, played to an appreciative audience. A fine selection of musical numbers was given, in addition to "Goose Money," a one-act play consisting of 10 characters. "His Soul," a one-act farce, also was given by the Applegate extension unit. Mrs. Bertha Haskins, lecturer of the Grange, wishes to express her thanks to all who helped make the program a success.

Mrs. Frank Miller and daughter of Williams Creek spent Sunday with friends here.

Henry Walters of San Francisco, who made many acquaintances during his visits here with his sister, Mrs. Fred Offenbacher, left a few days ago for a 100-day tour around the world. Leaving by water for the Hawaiian Islands, China and Japan, Mr. Walters will continue through Europe, where he will spend some time visiting an aunt and other relatives at Kustadt, Germany, his native country. Having sold his automobile, Mr. Walters expects to purchase another car on his return through Detroit.

Otis Buck and a friend from Alturas spent the week end here with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. R. Buck.

Residents of Little Applegate have expressed particular gratitude for the fine work of the county grader in their district, saying that more than the usual amount of work is being accomplished on the road there.

Long Mountain

LONG MOUNTAIN, March 27.—(Spl)—Mr. and Mrs. Jack Stowell entertained with a dinner at their home Sunday honoring Mrs. Stowell's and Mrs. Ruth Haley's birthday.
