Young Couple To Be Married This Evening at Home

In a simple home ceremony this evening Miss Margaret Warner, popular daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Warner, will become the bride of Nelson Potayth, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Fursty, of Santa Rosa, Calif., at the Warner home on South Oakdale.

The Episcopal ceremony will be read by Rev. E. S. Barltan from a prayer book belonging to the bride's great-grandmother. The wedding party will greet the guests preceding the informal ceremony.

Miss Warner will be given away by her father and attended by her sister, Mrs. Maxwell Becker, as matron-of-honor. Gordon Donely will be best man.

Yellow daffodils and white tapers will form a springlike setting for the wedding. The bride will wear a gown with full skirt and sleeves of white silk net and a fitted white tulle bodice, a coronet of orange blossoms encircling her head. As her going-away costume, the bride will wear a suit of small blue and white checks with a white fox collar and navy accessories.

Mrs. Becker, formerly Miss Winifred Warner, will be gowned in a fitted yellow tulle dress with a flared skirt.

Mrs. Gordon Warner, sister-in-law of the bride, will cut the wedding cake in the informal reception which will follow the ceremony.

Out-of-town guests for the wedding include Clark Miller, Edward Sullivan and Arthur Foster, of Santa Rosa; Gordon Donely, of Portland; Mary Louise Elrod, of Corvallis; and Jack Milne, of Eugene.

The young couple will make their home in Santa Rosa after a honeymoon.

Flowers in Pairs On Suit Lapels

PARIS—(AP)—Flowers bloom in pairs for tailored suit lapels but take care to differ in color. Red and white piques combine to make daisies—black and red leathers to suggest asters. Jade green and ivory white in perforated knit join forces to evolve some Chinese-looking blooms.

Study Club Hears Oriental Problems

Members of the Thursday Morning Study club report an especially interesting meeting this week which covered another phase of the subject, "The Orient and Its Problems and Policies," which is being taken up in a series of discussions.

Mrs. Mark Wright reviewed "Riding the Tiger," by Harry Carr, a book telling of the author's experiences while traveling through the Orient. A paper on "Conflict of Policies in the Far East" was read by Mrs. E. H. Hurd, who presented a large amount of material and research on the subject.

Next meeting was announced for April 9 in the back studio of the Baldwin Piano Shoppe.

Pocahontans Enjoy Session and Dance

Initiation was the principal event of the business session of Pocahontans lodge Friday evening, when Nancy Johnston was taken into the organization.

Gifts were presented to Ruth Daily Sarah Tule, Dorothy Watkins, Harriet Watson, Rose Singler, Mildred Ward, Leda Nordquist and Le Roy Stagg in observance of their birthdays.

Conducting business were Past Chiefs Blanche Rinsberger, Mabel Quackenbush, Wilma Hayes and Jack Moore. Past chiefs appointed to preside at next month's meeting are Mabel Quackenbush, Blanche Rinsberger, Bernice Sears and B. J. Lawrents.

After the business session, members and their invited guests were entertained with a dance, to the music of Dickey's orchestra. Success of the evening was due to the work of Velma, Zula Belle and Richard Singler, Florence Rush, Peggy Purdin, Gladys Hammin and Frank Rush.

Mrs. McCollum Hostess to Club

Mrs. Anna McCollum was hostess to the Don't Worry club Wednesday afternoon for luncheon at her home. Mrs. Jo Iversen assisted the hostess.

Games were played by guests during the afternoon.

CRATER LAKE D. A. R. CANDIDATES ELECTED AT STATE CONCLAVE

First Medford woman to receive the honor, Mrs. B. G. Harding was this week elected state regent of the Daughters of the American Revolution at the state conference held in Portland Tuesday and Wednesday.

Also elected was Mrs. M. M. Morris as corresponding secretary.

Result of this election will center interest in Medford as all executive business of the organization will proceed from here. Term of office is two years. Medford D. A. R. members are enthusiastic in their belief that the two Medford women will uphold their offices in the traditionally fine manner.

Mrs. Harding's membership was transferred to Crater Lake chapter.

Mrs. B. G. Harding

from Capitol chapter, Washington, D. C., November, 1924. Besides two terms as recording secretary, corresponding secretary, treasurer and director and as a member of various committees. She was state registrar in 1932-33, also state chairman of genealogical records and a member of the national registrars and genealogical records committees. She has just completed a term as first state vice-president and as chairman of the southern Oregon district.

While chairman of genealogical research, Mrs. Harding made a valuable contribution to research work in that field. From a photostat copy she copied and indexed the first Oregon census (that of 1850) and had four copies typed and prepared in book form for reference. Mrs. Harding also holds an office in the state chapter of Daughters of Founders and Patriots of America, and is a member of the Eastern Star and other local social and cultural clubs.

Mrs. Morris is a charter member of Crater Lake chapter and has ably filled the offices of regent, vice-regent, secretary, registrar and director and has served on many committees. She has also recently completed a term as senior president of

Invitations Issued For Fuson-Davis Wedding April 19

Invitations have been issued to 150 relatives and friends for the wedding of Miss Clara Mary Fuson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Fuson, and Russell Delzell Davis, son of Mrs. J. A. Maddox, of Klamath Falls, which will be an event of April 19.

The ceremony will be solemnized at the William Vawter residence on West Main street, with Rev. William Hamilton, formerly rector of the St. Mark's Episcopal church here and now of Yreka, reading the ceremony.

The bride will be attended by her sister, Miss Anna Mae Fuson, of Hollywood, best man will be Raymond Davis of Seattle, brother of the bridegroom. Five o'clock in the afternoon is the time chosen for the wedding.

Robert Emmons will play the wedding march for the bridal party, and William Vawter will sing. A small informal reception will follow the ceremony, after which the couple will leave on a honeymoon. They will make their home in Medford.

Miss Fuson has spent almost her entire life in the Rogue River valley, and has a large circle of friends. Numerous affairs are being planned in her honor preceding the wedding.

Mistletoe Groups Planning Sessions

At a recent meeting of the Mistletoe camp, Royal Neighbors of America, plans were discussed for the convention to be held in Grants Pass one day between May 8 and 9.

A special request was made that all members be present for the special drill April 2. All officers and those who wish to be on the drill team are asked to meet at the K. P. hall Monday afternoon at 8:30.

The Mistletoe club met Wednesday afternoon for dessert luncheon at the Girls' Community club. Hostesses for the afternoon were Mrs. Margery Pearson, Alene Pearson, Clara Hodgkins and Calla Geer.

A welcome was extended to Mrs. Austin, a new member. Committee for the next meeting will be Joan and Mrs. Frances McConochie, Ora Manning, Mrs. Austin. The meeting will be held the second Wednesday in May at the Girls' Community clubhouse and will be a dessert luncheon.

Benefit Party For Flood Victims Planned

Hostesses Monday evening will be members of the Phoenix Thursday club, who will entertain with a benefit card party Monday evening at the Engle hall in Phoenix.

Returns will be turned over to the Red Cross flood relief fund. Playing will begin at eight o'clock and prizes will be awarded for bridge, pinocle and five hundred.

Those in charge state that this is an excellent opportunity for residents of southern Oregon to contribute to the worthy cause of providing relief for flood sufferers in eastern states.

The local Society of Children of the American Revolution.

Mrs. Morris is a native daughter of Medford and has always been identified with the city's educational, civic and cultural interests.

Guetzlaff To Play On School Program

Of particular interest to music circles is the announcement that Fritz Guetzlaff, pianist, talented student of Rosa Blackmore Willett, will appear in a twenty-minute recital at the Southern Oregon Normal school tomorrow morning.

He will appear at the 9:45 assembly of students in the school auditorium. On this occasion, Mr. Guetzlaff will play an interesting group by the Spanish composer Albeniz: Tango, Cordova, Leyenda and Seguidilla.

This program is being greatly anticipated by the students, and it is expected the usual audience will be augmented by the presence of a number of townspeople of both Medford and Ashland.

Jacksonville Club Relief For Needy Told At Meeting

Miss Claire Hanley was hostess to the Jacksonville H. E. G. at her home Wednesday afternoon. It was announced that the club is helping with funds for the flood stricken area in the east and is also sewing for and helping a family with five children under school age.

Refreshments were served by the hostess, assisted by her aunt, Miss Alice Hanley. After the tea hour, the guests were shown about the beautiful gardens and flower beds.

It was announced that the next meeting, an all-day session, will be conducted by Mrs. Mabel Mack, who will discuss the subject of home decoration.

Guests for the afternoon were Anna Wendt, Lula Plak, Edna Jones, Emily Meyers, Katherine Earl, Pay Peters, Mattie Meachem, Louise Brockway, Ann Hartley, Reva Henspeter and Emma Conger.

Lenten Luncheon Planned by Group

Members of the Sunny Sister circle of the First Presbyterian church will be hostesses Tuesday afternoon when they entertain with a Lenten luncheon at the church.

All those who have not been contacted by the committee in charge are issued a cordial invitation. Members of the circle are asked to bring handwork to the church at 10 o'clock that morning, preceding the arrival of guests for luncheon.

Reservations may be made by calling 754-J or 356-Y.

Wenonah Club Planning Frolic

Velma Singler will be hostess to the Wenonah club at her home, 27 Rose avenue, Thursday afternoon at one-thirty for a covered dish luncheon and business meeting.

Announcement is made that the club will sponsor an April frolic at the Redmen hall Friday evening, varied entertainment being planned for the event. The usual business hour of the lodge will begin promptly at seven-thirty Friday evening due to the entertainment following.

Professor Hussong Will Be Speaker At Club Meeting

Professor E. M. Hussong will be the principal speaker at the meeting of the Medford Garden club planned for Thursday evening at 7:30 in the small dining room of the Hotel Medford.

Professor Hussong, who has been an instructor in the senior high school for a number of years and is well-known elsewhere as a botanist, will present a diversified discussion of wild flowers found in Oregon. He has spent a great deal of time studying the wild-plant life of Oregon, and his appearance is expected to be of great interest, not only to club members but to all interested in the subject.

At last month's meeting, a general vote conceded the award for the best flower arrangement to Mrs. Dorothy Goff, hers being chosen from six unusual arrangements. This is the third time Mrs. Goff has been awarded the honor during the spring season. Many more arrangements are expected for Thursday's meeting.

Anyone interested in flowers is extended a cordial welcome by the club.

Mrs. Sleeter, on P. E. O. Program

Mrs. R. B. Hammond was hostess to ladies of chapter AA, P.E.O., at her home Wednesday afternoon.

Preceding the business meeting, Mrs. R. W. Sleeter presented what all present felt to be a most interesting and informative discussion of "Early American Glass."

Tea was served later in the afternoon by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. W. E. Tunny.
