Episcopal church. The entire evening is to be devoted to a three act drama, "The Rock," a play based on the interesting character development of the disciple Simon Peter.
Final touches are being added to the sets by Robert Christianer who has been directing the play. The performance is indicated as an outstanding evening of religious entertainment.
Following is the cast:
Simon Peter, Don Cooke; Arina, his wife, Mary Cummings; Deborah, Arina's mother, Mrs. Ridgeway; Magdala, Mabel Huckabee; Agur, a physician, Robert Christianer; Pandira, a Greek, Lester Fay; Titus, a Roman, Don Huckabee.

Eagle Pt. Plans Easter Cantata
EAGLE POINT, March 28—(Sp.) A choir composed of singers from the community under direction of Yetta Olson will present an Easter cantata, "The Thorn-Crowned King" at the Eagle Point Presbyterian church, Sunday, April 5, at 8 p. m.
The singers have been devoting a good deal of time to rehearsals in order to give a finished performance of this beautiful cantata. Those who enjoyed the one last year will be interested to know that this is one even more beautiful.

Mrs. Cook Speaks To B.P.W. Group
An individual character analysis for each person followed the talk on the subject presented by Mrs. Florence Cook at the social meeting of the Business and Professional Women's club last Tuesday evening.
Hostess for the evening was Mrs. Maude Sulder at her home on North Orange street. Members and guests found Mrs. Cook's presentation and discussion of her subject of great interest and declared the program to be one of the most entertaining of the year.
Box lunch refreshments were served later in the evening. Also part of the program was the group singing which added much to the enjoyable informal atmosphere of the gathering.

Church Auxiliary Officers Elected
Mrs. E. Finley entertained members of the Ladies' auxiliary of the First Baptist church at her home on Ross Lane Tuesday at an all-day session.
Luncheon followed a short business meeting in the morning. Principal event of the afternoon was the election of officers for the coming year. Mrs. N. A. Mead was elected president; Mrs. D. W. Roberts, vice-president; Mrs. J. E. Lester, secretary; Mrs. Don Platt, treasurer; and Mrs. B. F. Neff, pianist.
Most of the day was spent in White Cross work. An announcement was made of the missionary program being arranged for next Thursday evening. The program will be preceded by a covered-dish supper for congregation members and their friends.

Chorus to Rehearse at M. E. Church for Dubois Composition
All members of the chorus are urged to be present at 4 p. m. today in the Methodist Episcopal church auditorium for rehearsal of Dubois' "Seven Last Words of Christ."
The performance of this work on Good Friday evening promises to be of unusual interest to music lovers of the community. It is the first time the composition has been given in this part of the state. Approximately sixty singers have been rehearsing in preparation.
The accompanists, Eva Hazelrigg Marsh and Sebastian Apollo, are well known among Medford musicians and assure an interesting and effective accompaniment on the organ and piano. The soloists are also known locally for their abilities. Mrs. C. H. Paske is singing the beautiful soprano passages, Ralph Waldron and W. P. Brooks, the tenor and baritone numbers.
The entire performance will be under direction of Don Huckabee, organist and choirmaster at the Methodist church and organist at the Craterian theatre. He brings a fine talent in direction to the program and is working it rapidly into concert condition.
The performance, free to all who wish to attend, has been scheduled for 8:15 p. m., April 10. A cordial invitation is extended to all lovers of choral music to plan to attend.
An exceptionally fine evening is being prepared for the service of Easter Sunday night in the Methodist Episcopal church. The entire evening is to be devoted to a three act drama, "The Rock," a play based on the interesting character development of the disciple Simon Peter.
