

MARY E. GREGORY BELOVED PIONEER CALLED TO REST

In the passing of Mrs. Mary Elizabeth Owens-Gregory the family loses a well beloved member, and the community another member of one of its old and widely known pioneer families.

After a brief illness, Mrs. Gregory passed away at her home near Central Point, at 3:00 a. m. Sunday. Had she lived until the first of May she would have been 72 years of age.

Mary Elizabeth Owens, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Owens, was born at Holton, Kansas, May 10, 1864, her parents pioneers in that then new state.

When but one year old she crossed the plains with her parents, the family locating at Harrisburg, Oregon in 1865. There they lived until 1885, when they came to Jackson county and the Owens family settled in the lower valley.

Her marriage to Henry L. Gregory took place in 1887. The first ten years of their married life was spent in Klamath county, but in 1897 they returned to the Rogue river valley and purchased the farmstead which has been their home ever since.

To this union were born three children: Mrs. Cora True, of Ashland; Mrs. Grace Sellers, of Central Point, and Loren Gregory, who passed away in 1929.

Mrs. Gregory is survived by her husband, Henry L. Gregory, her two daughters, four grandchildren, Mrs. Mildred Cutler, Salem; Keith Gregory, Table Rock; Lucille Sellers and Elaine Sellers, of Central Point.

There is one great grandchild, Gregory Cutler, son of Mrs. Mildred Cutler, Salem, Oregon.

Four sisters and three brothers also survive, with one brother, the late James Owens of Medford, recently deceased.

They are Mrs. Alice Perrin, and Mrs. Zuda Balch, Eugene, Oregon; Mrs. Lydia Brown, Dallas, Oregon; Mrs. Agnes Head, Central Point; Calvin Owens, Harrisburg, Oregon; John Owens, Medford, and George Owens, Petaluma, California. Other than these, a wide circle of neighbors and friends unite with the family in mourning her loss.

Mrs. Gregory's death will be a distinct loss to the community for she was interested and active in every movement for its greater happiness and well-being.

Working with the Baptist church when but a young girl, her life has been one of consistent Christian living.

The Rev. Mr. Millard, an old friend of the family will conduct the funeral services, which will be on Tuesday, at 2:30 p. m. from the Peri funeral chapel.

Interment will be in the family plot in Central Point cemetery.

FINES TOTAL $60 IN CITY'S COURT

Judge Allen D. Curry of city court this morning meted out fines totaling $60 on charges ranging from "being drunk in a public place" to "failure to report an accident." Earl Johnson, a WPA workman, was fined $10 for being drunk in a public place, and W. P. Pierce of Weed, California, paid a like fine on a similar charge.

Tom Parker, arrested on a disorderly conduct charge, was fined $10 on his plea of guilty, as was Mrs. Josephine Mitchell. The two were arrested following a fracas in a local beer parlor.

Louis Verschoor, 36-year-old father of seven children, now on six months probation out of circuit court on a charge of burglary, pleaded guilty to disorderly conduct and was fined $10.

R. M. Wheeler, charged with failure to stop at the scene of an accident, was fined $10. The charge was filed Saturday night after Wheeler's auto had struck two parked machines at the corner of Fifth street and Riverside avenue.

Eight models will display spring and early summer costumes in a style revue at Mann's Department store on the main floor Wednesday afternoon, April 1, beginning at four o'clock featuring garments fashioned from fabrics available in Mann's piece goods department.

Smart colors in cotton, silk and woolen will be included in the special showing of coats, suits, sport frocks, formal and dinner dresses, according to Mrs. Charles Campbell who is directing the fabric fashion event. Millinery and correct accessories will be from Mann's up-to-the-minute stock. Clothes for children are also going to be modeled Wednesday afternoon.

Be correctly cosseted in an Artist Model by Ethelwyn B. Hoffmann.

Newmans Return To Make Home Here

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Newman have returned to Medford after residing for the past several months in San Francisco. Mrs. Newman arrived about two weeks ago and was joined by her husband this week-end.

The Newmans plan to make their home here in the future. Mrs. Newman will be remembered as the former Miss Doris Bundy. The couple were married here early last fall and went immediately to the bay city. They are being welcomed back by a large number of old friends.

Benefit Party At Phoenix Tonight

A benefit card party planned to aid the flood relief fund has been arranged by the Phoenix Thursday club for this evening at Engle hall in Phoenix.

Announcement has been made that playing will start at 8 o'clock, with prizes being awarded for bridge, five hundred and pinocle. A cordial invitation is extended the public, those in charge feeling that this is an excellent opportunity for southern Oregon residents to aid eastern flood sufferers.

Civic Meeting Planned by Club

A civic meeting for members of the ladies' auxiliary of the First Baptist church has been announced for Tuesday. Mrs. Mary Strickland will be hostess to the group at her home, 407 Beatty street.

The meeting is called for 2:30. Mrs. Maybelle Church will be guest speaker for the afternoon.

Miss Roberts Here for Week-end

Visiting here is Miss Dorothy Roberts, who arrived late last week from San Francisco to spend the week-end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Roberts.

Miss Roberts has been in the bay city since January, attending school there.

McCaskay Guest Leaves for Home

A Medford visitor recently was Mrs. Elmore Conklin, who has been a guest at the H. D. McCaskay home on the Central Point road for the past three weeks.

Mrs. Conklin, who is a sister of Mr. McCaskay, returned last night to her home in Pacific Grove, Cal.

Special Meeting Planned by Club

Announcement is made by the Mistletoe club of a "Pollyanna" party being planned for the regular meeting April 8 at the Girl's Community clubhouse.

Covers will be laid for members for a dessert luncheon at 1:30.

Mrs. Biddle To Portland

Leaving last night for Portland was Mrs. Margaret Biddle, who has been the guest of her sister, Mrs. Gordon Vorhies, for the past month.

Mrs. Biddle will spend a short time in Portland and will then return to Medford to spend several weeks at the Voorhies home before returning to her home near Klamath Falls.

Brewers Leave On Eastern Trip

Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Brewer left on the northbound train yesterday morning for a visit to eastern states. They were accompanied by their daughter Barbara.

The Brewers expected to be gone for several weeks.

Mrs. Snider To Los Angeles

Among Medfordites leaving over the week-end was Mrs. Maude Snider, who left by train last night for Los Angeles. She expected to remain about a week in southern California.

Mrs. Gates to Portland Yesterday

Leaving yesterday morning was Mrs. W. A. Gates, who will spend several days as the guest of friends in Portland. She expects to return about the end of the week.

Study Group to Meet Thursday

Announcement is made of the meeting of the Washington school P-T. A. study group Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Mrs. Lois Young will conduct the meeting.

NAME MRS. FARLEY AS BEST DRESSED IN PUBLIC LIFE

NEW YORK, March 30.—(AP)—Fashion designers picked a new list of "best dressed" women today.

The list, prepared by a poll conducted by Emil Alvin Hartman, director of the Rockefeller Center Fashion Academy, names as leaders in their respective fields:

Kay Francis—The movies. Princess Ketto Mikeldize—Sports. Mrs. Helen Willis Moody—Society. Jane Pickens—The radio. Sheila Barrett—Night clubs. Mrs. James J. Farley—Public life. Helen Gleason—The opera.

Ika Chase—The stage. Previous winners of the fashion academy wards, among whom were Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt, Gladys Swarthout, Constance Cummings, Irene Bordoni, Ina Claire, Mrs. Harrison Williams, Betty Morris, and Mary I. Brown, were not eligible for the selections this year.

Hartman's announcement of the list commented on the varied preferences of the eight named.

The princess favors simple clothes and avoidance of jewelry unless it is real.

Mrs. Farley, wife of the postmaster general, was described as personifying the mature type of woman, and one who has been able to "edit" her wardrobe with excellent taste.

ELKS WILL FEAST AT INSTALLATION

On Thursday of this week, April 2, the Medford Elks lodge will hold installation of incoming officers for the ensuing year. A big free dinner will be served at 6:30, with the lodge session following.

After the installation ceremonies a special program with entertainment features will be presented. The dinner will be cooked under the personal supervision of P. C. "Sodypop" Big-ham.

One of the largest crowds of the year is anticipated.

NAZARENE CHURCH RAISES $1500 FOR BUILDING PROJECT

The Church of the Nazarene raised $1500 at their fourteenth anniversary Founders day program Sunday, for the new church project, located at Holly and First street.

Ten new members were received into church membership, with several others to follow who could not be present. This addition to the church brings the number up to 90 having been added to the church in the past 21 months.

Only two or three charter members of the church remaining on the rolls today, were present at the commemorative day exercises. Mrs. Eva Morrison, senior member of the charter class, spoke briefly of incidents related to the organization of the church.

Mrs. C. H. Herman contributed to yesterday's program as a charter member, relating some of the sacrificial phases particularly that of Rev. C. M. King who figured principally in the organization of the local church. Mrs. Robert Beer the other charter member was not privileged to be present.

Fred M. Weatherford pastor-evangelist who spoke yesterday on "A Challenge to the Sacrificial Power of the Church," said that several prominent citizens of Medford outside the church have figured in the offering for the new church. The pay-as-you-go plan adopted by the church is meeting with a favorable response by the citizens of Medford who are interested in the moral and spiritual upbuilding of its life, he said.

Using as his text Matt. 16:19, "Upon this rock I will build my church and the gates of hell shall not prevail against it," also John 21: 15-17, he said "Immediately following the great confession of Peter, which included the Messiahship and Sonship of Christ, Jesus said 'Upon this rock I will build my church.' Here Christ tells us of the founding of His church, and the principles upon which it was founded, namely, the Messiahship and the Sonship of Christ."

There were three souls seeking the Lord on profession of faith during the day.

M'COLLOCH TALKS HERE TOMORROW

Claude McColloch, Klamath Falls attorney and candidate for Democratic national committeeman, will address the regular weekly meeting of the Jackson county Democratic central committee at headquarters, 133 West Main street, at 8 o'clock tomorrow night.

In making the announcement Ralph O. Stephenson, committee chairman urged a large attendance of Democrats and anyone else interested in the party.

Mr. McColloch is the only Democrat in southern Oregon to file for national committeeman a post now held by Representative Walter Pierce who will not seek re-election. Mr. Pierce will concentrate his efforts upon being re-elected to congress.

The Democratic central committee today placed signs around Medford urging all voters to register so that they might vote in the coming campaign. The signs were placed in every county precinct outside the city yesterday. They are non-partisan, advising all voters to register.
