Slagle-Knips Rites To Be Solemnized In Friday Ceremony

Miss Ethel Slagle, bride-elect, has announced that her sister, Miss Bethel Slagle, will attend her as bridesmaid next Friday evening when her marriage to William Knips will be solemnized at the home of her mother, Mrs. W. L. Miller, in an 8 o'clock ceremony.

Bernal Stead will act as best man for the groom, who is the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Knips. Invitations will be issued to only a few friends and relatives of the couple. A small reception will follow the ceremony.

Both bride and groom are graduates of Medford high school and were prominent in student affairs. Miss Slagle has been complimented with a number of pre-nuptial affairs arranged by her many friends since the announcement of the engagement a few months ago.

The young couple will make their home here.

Missionary Group Session Wednesday

About sixty-five members and guests were present at the Wednesday afternoon meeting of the Christian church Missionary society, conducted by Mrs. Lillian Gantner, president.

Mrs. Julia Gregory had charge of what members found to be a very interesting program, which included a paper on "Geography of Argentina," read by Mrs. Mildred Balderstone. Continuing the same subject, Mrs. C. C. Pierce presented a paper "Disciples of Christ in Argentina."

A pre-Easter prayer service was observed, the theme being "That We May Share," led by Mrs. Gregory. Devotionals being read by Mrs. Hattie Saunders. Songs by Mrs. Pierce and Mrs. Pines completed the program, which was followed by refreshments.

FIRST LADY'S EASTER GOWN

For her Easter wardrobe Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt had this chiffon gown made from a prize-winning design by Hilda Jones, New York Negro school girl. The designer drew her inspiration for the pattern from mustard greens used by her mother in cooking. The background is pale pearl gray, the dashing design a bright green combined with an almost purple blue. The suede belt and cluster of flowers at the throat are of the same purplish blue. Charter Members To Be Honored Saturday At Ashland Meeting

Ashland will be the hostess city next Saturday when members of Zulema temple, Daughters of the Nile, gather to celebrate the fifteenth anniversary of the organization of the temple.

Charter members will be entertained as honor guests at a covered dish luncheon at twelve-thirty in the Masonic dining room.

Appearing on the afternoon program at two o'clock will be Mrs. P. B. Herman, of Grants Pass, second queen of the temple, and Mrs. W. H. McGowan, of Medford, third queen, who will entertain with reminiscences of early days of the organization.

Other charter members will relate experiences of the chapter and the temple patrol of Medford will appear in a skit. Also on the program will be Mrs. J. B. Graham, of Klamath Falls, who will sing.

The Klamath Falls Nile club will be guests of the temple honoring their secretary, Mrs. Mae Balstger, who is a charter member and organizer of the club.

Business of the day will include the formation of plans and appointment of committees for the spring ceremonial of Zulema temple scheduled for May 10 in Medford.

Mrs. Charles L. Woods, queen of the temple, will preside at the session and have charge of arrangements.

Lenten Luncheon Attractive Affair

One hundred and fifteen guests were present at the Lenten luncheon at the Presbyterian church Tuesday afternoon, the affair being one of the most charming of the current season.

The ten tables were centered with unusually beautiful arrangements of spring blooms. Hostesses were Mesdames G. B. Alden, J. A. Perry, Oliver, D. W. Luke, Howard, Sr., A. J. Hanby, J. H. Cochran, A. R. Clement, Frank Albert and O. H. West, Mrs. Frank Roberts, Mrs. Ralph Sweeney and Miss Elizabeth Burr.

Providing a pleasant diversion during luncheon was the musical program which included two piano solos by Miss Helen Evanson and solos by Miss Hope Hammond and Harry Thurman, accompanied by Katherine Genter, Philip Henneman played several piano numbers.

Adding beauty to the table silver was the tea service which was a wedding present to Miss Burr's mother from her father. It is now 74 years old.

Joint hostesses

Entertain at Tea

Hostesses Friday afternoon were Mrs. George Hennelman and Mrs. Roland Hubbard, who entertained with a bridge tea at the Hennelman home on West Main street.

Six tables were set up for play in rooms in which numbers of spring flowers bloomed with a yellow and coral decorative motif.

Scoring prizes went to Mrs. George Gates, Mrs. Walter Olmstead, Mrs. Fred Bayliss, of Hill, Calif., and Mrs. Emerson Merrick.

Presiding at the tea table late in the afternoon was Mrs. James Campbell, mother of Mrs. Hennelman.

Medford Guest

Leaves for Home

Mrs. Emory Conklin of Pacific Grove, Calif., was among Medford visitors returning home this week. She has been the guest for the past three weeks of Mr. and Mrs. H. D. McCaskey at their home on the Old Stage road.

Mrs. Conklin is Mr. McCaskey's sister.

Group Arrives For Week Of Vacation

Arriving yesterday morning from Ross, Cal., was a group of young Medford misses attending Miss Katharine Bronson's school there, who will spend the Easter holidays with their parents in Medford.

In the group were Miss Charity Hart, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Hart, and Miss Alicia Ruhl, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert W. Ruhl.

Also arriving were the Misses Jean and Helene Salade, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Salade, Jr., who brought with them as their guest Miss Georgia Richardson, a schoolmate of the group.

The vacationing students will spend the ensuing week here, leaving next week end to continue their studies next Monday morning.

Club Activities Events of Week

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Walden were host and hostess to members of the P. L. club and their husbands last Monday evening at the Walden home.

Scoring prizes awarded during the evening of cards went to Mrs. Bud Aldridge and Willard Cave. Refreshments followed what members termed a very enjoyable evening.

On Wednesday evening, club members were entertained by Mr. and Mrs. Charles Pickle at their home in Phoenix at dinner. Guests included Mr. and Mrs. Eber Weed, Mrs. Walter Bergman and Mrs. Carrie Rickett.

As Mr. and Mrs. Pickle will celebrate their golden wedding anniversary during the month of April, the club presented them with a gift. Other features of the evening observing the event. Cards formed the evening's diversion.

May Day Dance April 30 Planned By Elks' Lodge

Advance preparations are being made by the Elks' dance committee for what is planned to be one of the most outstanding social affairs of the spring season.

The event will be a May Day dance the evening of April 30, with guests to be Elks and their invited friends. An orchestra of 10 pieces will play for the dancers, and the extensive decorations are being planned by experienced decorators.

The committee has announced that the numerous entertainment features of the evening will include a surprise comedy-inspired affair whose actors will be prominent business men of Medford.

Other unusual items are being planned for the outstanding program. Members of the committee state that if present plans are arranged, of which they have no doubt, the affair will be a major event on the club calendar of social activities.

April Frolic Is Termed Success

"Entertainment for All" was the theme around which was built the April Frolic, arranged by the Wenonah club Friday evening.

Included in the evening's entertainment were a short play and program; a clarinet solo by Dorothy Lawrence; saxophone solo by Janet Rush; a saxophone and clarinet quartet, Helen Rammin, Dorothy Lawrence, Janet Rush and Eugene Hayes.

Helen Rammin appeared in a tap solo, and a number of other features made the evening a highly enjoyable one, members report.

General chairman for entertainment was Harriet Watson, with Wilma Hayes in charge of refreshments.

Mrs. Halverson

Guest of Parents

A Medford visitor is Mrs. Edna Merritt Halverson, who arrived last week from her home in Mound, Minnesota, to be the guest of her mother and father, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Merritt.

Mrs. Halverson expects to remain over the Easter holidays before returning east.

Musicians, Music Will Form Topic For Study Program

A program on "Music and Musicians" has been arranged for this week's meeting of the Thursday Morning Study club in the Baldwin recital hall at 9:30 Thursday morning.

Beethoven and his works will furnish the subject for a paper by Mrs. Frank Grey, and Mrs. Rawley Moore, pianist, will demonstrate contrasting moods of the great composer in sonata form. Miss Constance Moore will play the rondo movement from Beethoven's sonata "Pathétique."

Mrs. E. C. Mulholland will present a musical travelogue through European capitals. Interpreting and illustrating Mrs. Mulholland's presentation will be operatic numbers from "La Traviata" and "Louise," sung by Elbow Mae Wilson-Gail, who will also sing Grieg's beautiful "Solveig's Song" and others. Mrs. Carlton James will accompany the singer.

Delightful piano compositions from Mendelssohn, Chopin, Sinding and Schubert, played by Mrs. Moore and Constance Moore, will complete the travelogue.

It is announced that members may bring guests to hear this unusually interesting program.

Will Accompany Students' South

Moving south today are Mrs. Warren Patton and Mrs. C. Bease Bralley, who are accompanied by the Misses Doris and Helen Patton, returning to their studies at Mills college after a spring vacation the past week.

Mrs. Bralley and Mrs. Patton will spend a few days in San Francisco before returning home.

Pythian Club Ladies Entertained Thursday

Following the short business session at the Thursday evening meeting of the Pythian club, three tables of bridge were in play, scoring prizes going to Mrs. Harry Roseburg.

Hostess for the evening was Mrs. Ida Cole.

Valley School Pupils To Present Operetta At School Wednesday

Valley school pupils and teachers are in the midst of elaborate preparations for an Easter operetta in three acts, "The Adventures of Goldilocks," which is being directed by Miss Mary Louise Foster, director of the school.

All pupils of the school, from kindergarten up, will appear in the production, which is to be presented at the school Wednesday morning from 11 to 12 o'clock.

Of interest is the setting of the third act, the home of the three bears, the nursery tale which furnishes the theme for the operetta, the scene having to be changed from the forest background of the second act. A folding set of a typical fairy-tale house was constructed by those in charge for this final act in the tale of Goldilocks.

Musical accompaniment for the songs and dances will be by Mrs. James Stevens.

State Officers To Make Visit

Most important business to come before the meeting of the auxiliary of V. F. W. announced for tomorrow evening at eight o'clock will be the discussion of plans for the entertainment of state officers who will be here April 20.

Making their official visit at that time will be State Department President Hazel Walton and her chief of staff, Cecile Porter. President Lillian Hukill, of the local group, asks that all members be present at tomorrow evening's meeting.

Andersons Back After Vacation

Returning this week were Mr. and Mrs. O. M. Anderson of Spring street, who spent a vacation visiting in northern cities. Among stops made by the Andersons were Corvallis, Salem, Portland, Tacoma and Seattle.
