Young Couple Wed In Quiet Ceremony On Friday Evening

In a simple home ceremony at eight o'clock Friday evening, Miss Ethel Stagle became the bride of William Knips at the W. L. Miller home on Vancouver avenue.

The bride was given away by her mother, Rev. W. H. Baird performing the ceremony. The couple took their vows before the fireplace in a room lavishly with pink and white and daffodils with pink and white predominating colors.

The bride wore a pink crepe suit and carried tallman roses. Her sister, Miss Bethel Stagle, also wore pink as bridesmaid and carried roses. Miss Betty Lee played the wedding march.

Out-of-town guests included Miss Leabel Miller, of San Francisco, and Miss Clarice Barker, cousin of the bride, from Marshfield. About thirty close friends and relatives of the young bride and groom were guests at the ceremony and informal reception that followed.

Pocahontas Lodge Plans Card Party

Activities of Pocahontas lodge this week centered around the dapper arranged Friday evening. On the committee in charge were Harriet Watson, Gladys Lawrence and Bud Lawrence.

Plans are being made for another in the series of public card parties set for next Friday evening. Contract and auction bridge and pinochle will be in play.

Card arrangements are in charge of Dorothy Dickey and Florence Rush while refreshments are in the hands of Gladys Dooms as committee chairman.

Out-of-Town Guests Entertained by Club

Mrs. Stewart Armstrong, of Oakland, Calif., was the honor guest at a recent party arranged by Mrs. Arthur Hess and Miss Helen Williams for members of the P. L. club.

Mrs. E. D. Scriber is entertaining members of the club this morning at an Easter breakfast at her home, 60 Rose avenue, in honor of Miss Hazel Casady. Miss Casady is here for the Easter week-end as the guest of friends and relatives. Her home is in Marshfield.

Many Visiting For Easter Holiday

Medford visitors over the Easter holidays include Miss Beulah Gore, who arrived Friday evening to spend the week-end at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Gore. She plans a short visit in Klamath Falls before returning to her present home in Portland Monday.

Going out-of-town for the holidays were Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Taylor and daughter Miss Lucille Taylor, who are the guests of friends in Klamath Falls. Miss Juaneese Butler left recently for Seattle to spend the Easter vacation. She expected to remain away a week.

Lutheran Ladies Celebrate Birthday

On Thursday afternoon, Mrs. Harry H. Young entertained the Ladies' Aid of St. Peter's Lutheran church in the parsonage. During the afternoon Mrs. Katherine Peterson of 1110 West Fourth street was pleasantly surprised with a pound shower on the occasion of her 75th birthday anniversary.

Fourteen guests were present. The group enjoyed the presence of Mrs. William Meahan of Boone, Iowa. Mrs. Meahan is visiting with her daughter, Mrs. E. C. Tams of 203 Elm street of this city.

Mrs. Coverstone To Head Crater Guild

Mrs. Ethel Coverstone was elected president of the Crater Lake guild of the Presbyterian church at the meeting Monday afternoon at the home of Miss Fredricka Brommer.

Others elected were: Vice-president Mrs. Veri G. Walker; secretary, Mrs. Helen Holt Wilson; and treasurer, Miss Fredricka Brommer. At the close of the business meeting, book reviews were presented by Miss Winifred Andrews, Mrs. James Grigsby and Mrs. Wilson. Mrs. H. M. Weishaar led the devotionals.

Refreshments were served by the hostess assisted by Mrs. Carl Brommer and Miss Ruth Clement.

All members of the guild are asked to note that as a result of an amendment to the constitution enacted at this meeting, the guild will henceforth meet only once a month, the first Monday of each month. The next meeting will be May 4 and will be the annual music meeting at the home of Mrs. Lawrence Pennington on the Jacksonville highway.

Business Women Change Meeting

Announcement is made that, due to conflicting dates, the semi-monthly meeting of the Business and Professional Women's club will be held Monday evening at 6:30 at the Hotel Medford instead of Tuesday, the regular date. Dinner will be served in the small dining room at 6:30.

Appearing on the evening's program will be Mrs. J. P. Lawrence, who will present a paper on international relations. Election of officers will be the principal business of the evening, and all members are particularly urged to be present in view of the election. Members are requested to call 62 for advance reservations.

GIRL SCOUT HEADS WILL BE HOSTS TO NATIONAL OFFICER

The Girl Scout local council met in regular session April 8, with 12 members and two visitors present. Mrs. Raymond Driver was welcomed as a new member of the council and Mrs. R. E. Carley, captain of the Roosevelt troop and Kate Janney, lieutenant of the Washington troop, were welcomed as special guests.

In preparation for the coming of Miss Esther Ansel, national staff member, April 28 and 29, to confer with council, leaders, local director, and troop committees, the personnel and training committee has been organizing troop committees among the various troops of the district. The committee has met with a fine response from those contacted, thus feeling that the women of Medford and neighboring districts are supporting the Girl Scout organization in a commendable way.

A troop committee is a group of three to five adults interested in the welfare and continuity of a particular Girl Scout troop. They are formed with the purpose of relieving the captain of certain auxiliary responsibilities so she may receive the maximum of her main responsibilities of working and playing with her troop.

The five committees so far organized are: Roosevelt: Mrs. H. H. Pringle, Mrs. Ralph Dippel, Mrs. David Rosenberg, Mrs. C. W. Ashpole. Phoenix: Mrs. Raymond Furry, Mrs. Mabel Stanciff, Mrs. Geo. Drake, Mrs. Leda Nordquist, Mrs. Marjorie Wilcox. Jackson: Mrs. Stanley Jones, Mrs. Harry Olson, Mrs. Chas. Thompson, Mrs. F. F. Burk. Washington: Mrs. G. Q. Dalbrink, Mrs. Geo. Henselman, Mrs. L. P. Older. Senior high: Mrs. N. A. Mead, Mrs. Don Platt, Mrs. Ralph McKay.

More definite announcements concerning plans and program of the coming two-day conference with Miss Ansel will be made later, arrangements being left to a committee composed of Irene Humphrey, Gladys Heyland and Mrs. O. B. Morrow. Council members attending the meeting were Mrs. Wm. Holloway, Mrs. R. E. Green, Mrs. Jack Heyland, Mrs. J. C. Boyle, Mrs. G. O. Humphrey, Mrs. R. C. Van Valzah, Mrs. O. B. Morrow, Mrs. Gordon, Mrs. E. B. Pickett, Mrs. Raymond Driver, Mrs. Vera Humphrey.

St. Mark's Guild Planning Party A bridge tea is being planned by ladies of St. Mark's guild for next Friday afternoon. Playing will begin at two o'clock, according to the announcement, and place for the event is to be the parish house. A cordial invitation is extended the public.

In charge of arrangements are Mrs. Atlanta Satchwell, Mrs. C. W. Ellis, Mrs. Charles Strang, Mrs. H. G. Wilson and Mrs. Marta. Table reservations may be made by calling 1586-X or 892-L.

Mrs. Harding Leaves For Washington, D.C. To Represent D.A.R.
