

"Flying Dutchman", Last Minute Entrant, in Emigrant Regatta

FLUHRER, LOCAL SPEEDSTER, GETS FAST, NEW BOAT

Parker Bundy Also Enters 20-30 Club Events Today—Six Races Listed.

Looming as a dark horse entry in today's speedboat races at Emigrant lake is Heinie Fluhrer, Medford baker, sportsman, flyer and water racing pilot, who is expected to hand in his entry before the starting gun at 1:30 this afternoon. With 23 boats entered last night and a possibility that 10 or more will be entered during the morning, Fluhrer will be pitting his skill and recklessness against the some of the "skippers" of the country.

Although the local Gar Wood refused to divulge his plans yesterday, it was learned that he has imported a fast, sleek hull from California as a mount for today's events. He has done all of his practicing at late evening and early morning in an effort to regain the deft skill which placed him as one of the most sensational drivers in the races held at the lake a few years ago.

Another local driver who is expected to turn in a fast, well timed race is Parker Bundy, who has entered a hull so light that he has had to build in extra ballast to bring the craft up to racing weight specifications.

Racers from all three coast states tracked into the city last night, and this morning will be giving their last time ups to boats and motors. The 20-30 club, sponsors of the event (which is to be the first ever sanctioned by the National Outboard association in this part of the state), yesterday announced that the gate will be open early so that those who care to witness the trial runs may have an opportunity of doing so.

The announcement was also made that the course will be restricted to racing hulls and local citizens are asked not to bring cruisers or other non-racing craft onto the water. In keeping with specifications of the National association, all of the events will start promptly on time.

A warning gun will be fired five minutes before each race, and the starting gun will be fired on the minute.

There are to be six races, each race to be run in two heats of five miles each, totaling 60 miles in all. Officials from Portland will be on hand with timing devices and all times turned in during the afternoon will be official, the first time that a driver on Emigrant lake has been eligible for a national title.

Prizes will total $470, with ribbons and other awards to be made. To those pilots who are eliminated by spills into the chill water, a "helldiver" ribbon will be presented by way of consolation. According to those most familiar with racing on such courses, spills will probably be plentiful. A power boat, manned by officials familiar with such situations, will be at the dock, warmed up and ready to flash to the aid of capsizee craft.

Weather conditions are expected to be ideal for the afternoon, and the largest crowd ever to witness speedboat racing in southern Oregon is expected. Parking accommodations are available for thousands of autos. It was assured yesterday, and no trouble in that direction is anticipated. Sloping hills along the course provide a natural amphitheatre for the spectators, and everyone is assured a good view, the committee in charge stated.

For those not familiar with the route to the scene of the contests, the 20-30 club has issued the following directions:

Take Pacific highway south out of the city, past Ashland and to one mile north of the Klamath Falls highway junction. The lake, formed by a dam across Emigrant creek, lies on the left side of the highway, facing south.

The opening pistol will crack promptly at 1:30 o'clock this afternoon.

PORTLAND NOSED OUT BY OAKS, TO LEAD COAST RACE

(By United Press)

Jimmy Tobin, the Pacific Coast league's most confident hurler, who still is certain he'll win when he's half a dozen runs behind, survived a four-run, Portland barrage Saturday to beat the Beavers and keep Oakland on top in the league race.

Tobin kept chucking them hard after Portland's four-run spurge in the third inning, and his mates pounded three Beaver moundsmen to win. The winning run crossed in the sixth.

Oakland needed the victory for the Mission Reds, close on their heels, grabbed a ninth-inning victory from Los Angeles by an 8-7 score. Hits by Al Wright and Harry Rosenberg produced the winning marker with two out in the last inning. Hollis Thurston, after an unsteady start, kept the Angels away from the plate in the last four innings to earn the win.

Seattle lost ground in its chase after the Oaks by bowing to Sacramento after nine straight victories. The score was 3-1 and it was the best-played game of the day in the circuit. Phippen, Sacramento hurler, gave four hits and got three himself to give the tall-enders one of their infrequent wins.

The San Diego Padres turned on the San Francisco Seals to pound out 25 hits for the most lopsided win of the year, 23-4. Manager Frank O'Doul of the Seals tried out a number of rookie hurlers and Frank Shellenbach's men found them easy pickings. Five hurlers perished to the peak for the losers in the slaughter, which began in the first inning with a four-run attack. San Diego scored in every inning.

tea the business of campaigning for pensions.

Robert E. Clements, resigned national secretary, Dr. Townsend and his brother, Walter, Hollywood hotel employe, were the only three members and directors at first, he said.

Then Walter was induced several months ago to give up his directorship.

"Walter and I, as a majority of the members, then amended the by-laws to provide for a larger board of directors and called a meeting March 9 at Kansas City," he said. "Mr. Clements didn't respond. The directorate was enlarged to five and we took in more members."

Last week, he continued, a meeting was held in Baltimore and the directorate enlarged to nine. He made no answer to a query as to whether these changes assured him working control of the body.

His brother was approached recently by a private detective, he said, who flashed a "government badge" and presented a telegram signed "Pel, Chairman" which declared that he would have to drop his connection with the corporation to avoid prosecution.

"Walter thought it was putting him up against a legislative committee and prosecution so he signed a resignation," Dr. Townsend said, "but that will never stand up."

"I'm tremendously distressed it ever came up. Fraud was certainly practiced."

He named the man he said was responsible for the "fraud," then withdrew the specification and asked he not be quoted.

INDIAN BROOM IS TANFORAN WINNER
SAN FRANCISCO, April 10.—(AP)—Indian Broom jumped into the lead and led all the way to win the $10,000 Marchbank handicap, a mile and a furlong, in 1:57.3, bettering the world's record of 1:48.1, at Tanforan track. Top Row was second and Azucar third.

Indian Broom left the field easily behind, winning by seven lengths. A crowd of 25,000, largest of the season at Tanforan, saw the world's record performance.

The winner, favored next to Top Row in the betting, paid $7.40, $2.60 and $2.40 in the $2 parimutuel. Top Row, the favorite, paid $2.40 and $2.20, and Azucar $2.60.

INDIAN BROOM IS TANFORAN WINNER

The American race shapes up as a four-club affair with the Boston Red Sox, strengthened by practically all of the Philadelphia Athletics' stars of former years, quoted second at 2-1.

The New York Yankees, perennial runners-up, and Cleveland Indians are rated 4-1, although that price will be hammered down if either club shows promise during the early stages of the campaign.

In the National league, the scrappy St. Louis Cardinals are rated 2-1 followed by the New York Giants, who flopped two years running in the stretch. They are held at 3 to 1.

Two of the National favorites—Chicago and St. Louis—open against each other in St. Louis. The Brooklyn Dodgers, a collection of misfits who are rated the "dark horse" team of the circuit, start the season against the New York Giants. Other initial clashes are Boston at Philadelphia and Pittsburgh at Cincinnati.

The Detroit Tigers open defense of their title in Cleveland. The Yankees meet Washington. St. Louis plays Chicago and Philadelphia, with practically an all-rookie team, travels up to Boston.

Potentially, all of the pennant com-

CUBS AND TIGERS FAVORED TO WIN IN MAJOR RACES
Season Opens Tuesday—Cards To Meet Chicago First—Red Sox Runner-Up.

NEW YORK, April 11.—(UP)—Sixteen major league clubs, almost half of which confidently are eyeing the gold and glory that goes with the world series, start the 1936 baseball race on eight fronts next Tuesday.

The Chicago Cubs and Detroit Tigers, winners last year, are slight favorites to hammer down the stretch in front of their seven rivals in the 154-game race—but only after what baseball experts believe will be the severest pennant scraps in more than a decade.

The Tigers, seeking their third straight American league flag, are 8-5 favorites to repeat while the Cubs, who won the National league title with a record-shattering 21 game winning streak, are quoted the same in their circuit.

CUBS AND TIGERS FAVORED TO WIN IN MAJOR RACES

STANFORD UNIVERSITY, Cal., April 11.—(UP)—Making a clean sweep in two events and taking the first two places in seven others, Stanford university's track and field team today decisively defeated U. C. L. A. representatives, 99 1-3 to 31 4-5.

The middle main event also promised whirlwind action when the jaiting "sonenberg" George "Wildcat" Wilson, former all-American football ace, and Frankie Peck, headlock artist from San Francisco, come together. In a bout between the two several weeks ago, Wilson eked out a victory when he outsonenberged Peck as the San Franciscoan attempted the table-turning stunt of starting the flying tackles first. In tomorrow's struggle Peck has vowed to crunch Wilson's skull from the start of the match, allowing no chance for Wilson to butt him.

The opening battle pits two local favorites in a rematch from last week's card, handsome Frank Taylor and former all-American guard from Utah, Danny Savich. The two produced a momentous struggle in their last bout, Savich winning by way of the sonenberg route. The flying tackles also accounted for one fall against him when Taylor leaped into the air and crashed Savich to the mat with a scissor about the midriff. Savich says that he will not be caught in the same trap again.

The two opening trays will be under the Australian system of six 10-minute rounds, or the best two out of three falls, with the main event to be under the American system of two out of three tumbles or one hour's time.

Mack Lillard has announced that there will be no rise in prices.

ROJANS TRAMPLE BEAR TRACK MEN
EDWARDS FIELD, Berkeley, Cal., April 11.—(UP)—Dean Cromwell's U. S. C. track and field squad today overwhelmed its most formidable dual meet competitor in defeating the University of California team by a 93 to 38 score.

Although the Trojan victory was expected, even the optimistic Cromwell was astonished by the margin piled up by his young athletes, many of whom are among America's leading prospects for the Olympic games.

Injuries and accidents helped spoil California's chances, and then, when he saw all hope of victory gone, Coach Brutus Hamilton held out his stars in the closing events to save them from injury.

PETE AND PRINCE TO MATCH GRIPS ON ARMORY CARD
When Pete Belcastro, Pacific coast junior heavyweight wrestling champion, and Prince Mihalik, Arabian nobleman, clash on the main event of Monday's wrestling card at the Armory, two of the fastest and most deceptive grapplers ever seen here will be in action. The tricky Italian champion, aware of the fact that he is in for one of the momentous struggles of his career, has been doing strict road work in Klamath county in preparation for the clash.

Mihalik, who has slashed his way through all opposition in this district, is also making his preparations, and plans on tapering off his training regime with some swimming in the icy waters of the Rogue river this evening.

The bout has attracted as much interest as any since the battle royal held here last year, and Promoter Mack Lillard foresees one of the largest houses in recent months.

KIT BALL SEASON TO OPEN MONDAY
The soft ball league swings into action Monday night, with interest higher than at any time in the past few years, according to Sam Colton, manager of the league.

A new system of starting the playing will be used this year, with all of the eight teams of the league assembling at VanBooyce field. Four teams will be drawn and these will oppose one another in the two games. After the initial drawing the remainder of the season schedule will be made out, with two games to be played each night except Saturday and Sunday.

The initial game will start at 6 o'clock. The first leg of the schedule will continue for one month, after which the schedule will be re-arranged for the last stretch, which is expected to end about June 10.
