Don't Miss It

THE local Chamber of Commerce is to be congratulated upon securing Dr. Henry J. Berkowitz, of Portland, as the principal speaker at the annual dinner, the evening of April 21st.

It was Rabbi Berkowitz who gained national reputation, by organizing the Inter-Faith movement in Portland, designed to bring all religious sects together, to work in harmony for the spiritual and cultural benefit of the community.

In the direction of civic service, the achievements of Dr. Berkowitz have been equally noteworthy, particularly in organizing and sustaining, the Portland Symphony orchestra, the Junior Symphony, and arousing support and enthusiasm for the Portland Community Chest.

In addition to his rich experience in practical and constructive development of his community, Dr. Berkowitz is recognized as one of the most interesting and eloquent speakers in the state, and will have a message for Medford, of unusual timeliness and importance.

The Parole Disgrace

HOW many times, during the past few years have you read a news item like the following:

TORONTO, Ont., April 10.—Herbert E. Wilson, ex-convict and parolee murderer, and Donald T. Halliday, also an ex-convict and parolee here following conviction for a $100,000 swindle.

Wilson was a well known coast gang leader, convicted of cold-blooded murder, and yet was released after ten years!

Our system of criminal jurisprudence has two main purposes: First punishment, as a crime deterrent; second, as a protection, through incarceration, to society.

But the parole system as administered in nine cases out of ten, makes punishment a travesty, and protection to society a farce.

THIS paper believes in the parole system when properly administered. First offenders, victims of social and physical maladjustments, should be carefully observed, during imprisonment, and every intelligent effort made to prevent their degeneration into confirmed criminals, and if possible develop them into law-abiding and useful citizens.

BUT the parole system ISN'T properly administered. Not in Oregon, not in California, and as far as we know, not in any other state.

In fact today it represents one of the most serious obstacles to success in the struggle of this country, to put down the crime wave, and establish a condition at least approaching the decent maintenance of law and order.

If the parole system can't be reformed, can't be brought up to date, placed on a scientific and intelligent basis; as far as the welfare of this country is concerned it might better be abolished.

It Should Be Unanimous

SENATOR McNARY is working to secure funds to complete the Pacific Highway over the Siskiyou.

Senator McNary is fighting to secure funds, to save the Crater Lake highway from desecration—to preserve the present forest strips of timber from Rogue River to the park boundary.

When we want something in Washington, nine times out of ten, McNary is the man we ask to get it. And also nine times out of ten that is precisely what he does.

But the senior senator from Oregon is not only invaluable as a "go-getter,"—a man constantly alive to Oregon's material interests, who day after day and year after year, delivers the goods.

He is also a statesman. He is a man of vision, liberal spirit, and practical idealism. His prestige and influence in Washington, and in his party today, exceeds that of any Republican senator in the Upper House.

IN about a month the primary election will be held,—the Republicans will go to the polls to decide whether or not Senator McNary will represent that party in the national election this fall.

It is UNTHINKABLE that any considerable body of Republicans,—here or anywhere else in the state,—will CONSIDER marking the ballot for anyone else!

In fact the verdict should be unanimous. It won't be of course. But on any rational basis of justice, enlightened self interest and common sense, Charley McNary should not only get a majority of the votes, he should get ALL of them!

Communications

Alien Is Over Alarmed. To the Editor: Like many another, Mr. A. C. Allen is taking the assault on the taxpayer's dollar too seriously.

The point aimed at by the Veterans of Future Wars, Gold Star Mothers of the Future (who demand a trip to Europe to view the graves of their sons not yet conceived) and the Gold-diggers of Future War Protesters, is to "tout out war with ridicule."

Among the thousands of letters which come daily to Major Bowes, radio impresario, was one which suggested that he enter the presidential race. The major replied he "didn't have time."

Personal Health Service

By William Brady, M.D. Signed letters pertaining to personal health and hygiene not to disease diagnosis or treatment will be answered by Dr. Brady if a stamped self-addressed envelope is enclosed. Letters should be brief and written in ink.

IN ARTHRITIS IS A DEFICIENCY DISEASE? Acute inflammation of a joint or joints (acute arthritis) is a widely an infectious condition, that is, the trouble is due to invasion of the joint tissues by bacteria.

Formerly only the most outpoken deficiency diseases were recognized by physicians in this country, and then not until the victims were in a serious state. Only a year ago one of the staff of a much publicized "clinic" had the temerity to come out bluntly with the opinion that physicians with large practices rarely see cases of vitamin deficiency.

What the skillfully touted clinic's writing man should have said is "We old timers have not yet learned enough about vitamin deficiency to recognize everyday deficiencies when we see them." But never mind that.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS Lump of Fat I have a lump about two inches wide just below my temple. Doctors say it is a fatty tumor and want to lance it. One specialist says he can dissolve it with diathermy.

Answer—If it is a fatty tumor or perhaps a sebaceous cyst (wen) the only satisfactory treatment is surgical removal, which may be done under a local anesthetic without detaining you more than an hour or two.

Guests Please advise how to get rid of cockroaches which literally overrun our flat. (P. H.) Answer—Send 10 cents coin and stamped addressed envelope for booklet "Unbidden Guests," which deals with roaches, bedbugs, cotes, flies, fleas, ants, hookworms, tapeworms, ringworms, round worms, pin worms, mosquitoes, moths, chiggers and what have you.

Acne I think you said some time ago that all normal young people have some pimples. But my face is a sight with constant eruptions of blackheads and angry pimples.

Ed. Note: Persons wishing to communicate with Dr. Brady should send letter direct to Dr. William Brady, M. D., 265 El Camino, Beverly Hills, Calif.

NEW YORK DAY BY DAY

By O. O. McIntyre NEW YORK, April 11.—Now and then turning out a column is like a plunge into a clear, cool pool.

The passing of Sidney, Ziegfeld's valet, in Hollywood several weeks ago, removed a Woodhouse gentleman's gentleman in real life.

The roaming S. Jay Kaufman has drifted finally to London where he intimates he may remain. It was in London years ago that, while doing a seasonal Fleet street apprenticeship, he met the late Arnold Daly.

What pleases me greatly in looking back across the latitudes is this: If I knew what I know now and was thresholding a career, columning would be my choice.

Jean Patou, dying broke in Paris, symbolizes the shopping evacuation by Americans. His rambling establishment in rue Florentin, a few steps off the Concorde, was the most interesting of the dressmaking salons at least for the dog-trotting husband who trails his wife to such places.

Comment on the Day's News

By FRANK JENKINS JEFF RIDDLE came first to the Klamath country he tells this writer, in 1869: He came with his father, Frank Riddle, and his mother, Wilma.

THE ferry, as he remembers it, was run by a man named Mechem (pronounced Meekum, Jeff thinks). It was located at about the site of the present highway bridge.

flat-bottomed scow and the cable by which it was negotiated back and forth across the river was a rawhide rope.

THE old Brick Store (referred to so often in these chronicles during the past couple of weeks) was built in 1877 or 1878, Jeff thinks, for Thatcher & Worden.

NOT only were the bricks made locally, according to Jeff Riddle, but the lime for the mortar was also a local product, being burned from a good quality of limestone found nearby.

He recalls an amusing incident in this connection. An Indian named Wild Bill, seeing lime asked for the first time, had a bright idea. The bubbling lime looked like white paint, and it occurred to him that it would be a slick trick to paint his face white with it and fool his friends.

As the hot lime touched his hands and then, before he could stop, his face, he let off a yell that echoed from the surrounding hills, and bolted from the spot.

By the time the lime stopped smarting and burning, Wild Bill was quite a little wilder.

WHEN Father first came here," Jeff said to this writer, "there were antelope all over the flats to the south of what is now the city of Klamath Falls, and the sagebrush was full of wild hens.
