RITUALS, FASHION MARK EASTER IN WORLDS CORNERS

(Continued from Page One)

jammed. An estimated 40,000 witnessed the Moravian rites at Winston-Salem, N. C. More than 2000 participated in a similar ritual at Bethlehem, Pa. A congregation of 25,000 gathered in the Hollywood, Calif., bowl, 7000 assembled in the Los Angeles coliseum and another throng visited at Mt. Rubidoux at Riverside.

A chorus of 10,000 voices rang through the Garden of the Gods at Colorado Springs. An estimated 100,000 persons viewed a dramatized version of the resurrection near Lawton, Okla. Down in Gainesville, Ga., the faithful knelt in storm-battered churches to offer thanks that they had been spared in the tornado that resulted in the death of more than 200 of their neighbors earlier in the week.

MARINE MONSTER ON DISPLAY HERE

A giant whale, 55 feet long and weighing over 60 tons, is on exhibition at the Southern Pacific siding at Main street today. Unlike most such marine monsters, the exhibit of the Eureka Whaling company of Long Beach has been so embalmed that there is no perceptible odor about the carcass.

In conjunction with the whale is a complete show of other marine curiosities including an octopus, swordfish, and other interesting exhibits. Live penguins are also with the show, as is a flea circus. The tiny trained fleas do practically everything, from fan dancing to playing football. They are held with tiny wires so that the leading lady won't elope into the spectator's beard, it was stated.

The big exhibit, housed in the longest railroad car in the world, over 100 feet long, will be on display this evening and tomorrow until 11 p. m.

Two Arrested Here Face Dyer Charge

Two men, Robert Hilt, 24, of Los Angeles and Pat Welch, 48, of New York City, are in the county jail held for California authorities on a charge of auto theft. They were arrested on the south Pacific highway about midnight last night, driving an auto allegedly stolen in northern California. According to state police who made the arrest, the two have admitted the theft. They are liable to prosecution under the federal Dyer act for transporting a stolen auto across a state line.

Million Returned To County Jail

H. L. Million, arrested by state police several days ago on information from Burns and subsequently released when the signed warrant failed to arrive, has been re-arrested and is held in the county jail for Burns authorities on a charge of larceny in a dwelling. Bail has been set at $500. Authorities from the eastern Oregon city are expected to arrive shortly to take the man into custody.

Award Contracts On Cement Supply

WASHINGTON, April 13.—(AP)—The reclamation bureau today announced the award of two cement contracts, one for 10,000 barrels for the upper Snake river project, Idaho, and the other for 31,300 barrels for the Arrowrock dam, Boise, Idaho, repair project.

The former went to the Idaho-Portland Cement Co., Inkom, Idaho, at $25,000, and the latter to the Oregon-Portland Cement Co., Portland, Ore., at $77,905.

TONITE AT 8
YOU HAVE THAT DATE WITH
MENTICULTURE
(SEE PAGE 4)

Society and Clubs

By Janet Wray Smith

Charter Members and Klamath Club Guests At Saturday Session

Members found the affair honoring charter members of the order and the Nile club of Klamath Falls, arranged Saturday in Ashland by Zuleima temple, Daughters of the Nile, to be one of the most enjoyable parties ever given by the temple.

Table decorations of pink and white sweet peas, Easter eggs and Easter favors featured the luncheon at 12:30, first event on the day's program. In charge of the luncheon were Mesdames P. R. Hardy, J. H. Hardy, W. H. McNair and A. J. McCallen of Ashland, hostess group for the day.

As each guest arrived, she was presented with a corsage of spring flowers and a special table was arranged for the guests of honor.

Following the afternoon session, Mrs. P. B. Herman of Grants Pass, who was second queen of the temple, told of the organization of Zuleima temple and some of its early history.

The patrol, dressed in the costume of the early day, entertained with an Easter parade. Mrs. Leoda Early sang the refrain and those participating were Mesdames A. E. Peasley, H. T. Hubbard, L. P. Wilcox, Ralph Woodford, L. P. Older, J. R. Mansfield, A. P. Butler, and J. A. King of Lakeview.

Mrs. O. D. Frazee, captain of the patrol, presented Mrs. Charles Woods, queen, with an Easter lily, as a gift of the patrol. Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Day of Ashland also presented Mrs. Woods with an Easter lily, and the temple with bonbons.

Business of the day included the discussion of plans and appointment of committees for the spring ceremonial to be held May 9.

Young Couple Wed At Home Yesterday

In a simple home ceremony at 10 o'clock yesterday morning, Miss Viola Swisher became the bride of Curtis Donahue at the Swisher home near Phoenix.

The couple took their vows before a fireplace, the room made spring-like with numerous blossoms and greenery. Rev. N. D. Woods performed the ceremony.

The bride wore a grey suit with navy accessories and carried a bouquet of narcissus. Attending the couple were Miss Nancy Johnston of this city and Jack Breedlove of Klamath Falls.

After the ceremony, luncheon was served out of doors. Covers were laid for Mr. and Mrs. Jack Breedlove, Rev. and Mrs. N. D. Woods, Miss Nancy Johnston, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Swisher, Benjamin Swisher, Mrs. John Gettich, Mrs. Ruby Downing of Phoenix and the bride and groom.

The young couple left after luncheon for a honeymoon in the north. After April 20 they will be at home at 222 Scott avenue, Bend, Ore.

Club Planning Benefit Party

Ladies of the Mistletoe club announce a benefit card party and dessert luncheon tomorrow afternoon at the Girls' Community club. Luncheon will be served at 1:30.

In play during the afternoon will be bridge, pinochle and five hundred, scoring prizes being awarded for each game with the addition of a door prize.

A large attendance of over thirty featured a recent meeting of the club at which time plans for tomorrow's party were made. It has also been announced that the next meeting of the club is planned for April 22. Mrs. Ora Manning will be hostess at that time at her home on the old Pacific highway. A covered dish luncheon will be a feature of the meeting.

Business Women To Elect Officers

Election of officers will be the principal business to come before the dinner meeting of the Business and Professional Women's club this evening at the Hotel Medford at 6:30.

Due to conflicting dates, the meeting was changed from the usual Tuesday night session.

Appearing on the program will be Mrs. J. L. Lawrence, who will present a paper on international relations.

Rotary Women Lunch Wednesday

Announcement has been made that the Women of Rotary will meet Wednesday afternoon for a no-host luncheon at the Hotel Medford at 1 o'clock.

April Frolic Will Be Held Friday By Jackson Group

An annual affair much looked forward to by school patrons of the city is the Jackson school April Frolic, which has been announced for this Friday evening. Place of the affair is the school house, and elaborate preparations are going forward to make this year's frolic outstanding.

Mrs. Charles Thompson is general chairman of all committees, and announces that work by committee members has been progressing for some time.

Included in the entertainment fare for the evening will be dinner, programs by the children, concessions and booths and special features. A carnival atmosphere will prevail, accentuated by paper hats, serpentine and traditional fun-making instruments.

The festival is planned each year to raise funds for needy children of the school. The committee states that splendid co-operation has been gained from city merchants.

Joint Session Will Honor State Officer

Mrs. Inez Glaisyer of Coquille, grand worthy matron of Oregon, will be honored tomorrow evening when Nevita chapter of Central Point and Reames chapter, Medford, O. E. S., meet in joint session at Central Point.

Members will convene at 8 o'clock. A number of visiting members from Grants Pass, Jacksonville, Ashland and other adjoining points will join with the hostess chapters in welcoming Mrs. Glaisyer.

The Medford group will be headed by Mrs. C. M. Houston, worthy matron of Reames chapter. The session will be impressive, and a large attendance is expected to be present at the affair, one of the outstanding of the year.

Miss Young Visits Parents

Easter vacationists in Medford included Miss Sybil Jean Young, who arrived by plane Friday evening to spend the week end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harvie Young.

Mrs. Young arranged an Easter breakfast for Miss Young and a group of friends yesterday morning. Guests were the Misses Nell Green, Ethel Chord, Jeanne Ferguson, Carol Dodge and Mrs. Robert Miksche.

Mis Young returned on the morning plane today for Portland, where she is associated with the resettlement administration.

Easter Party For Prospect Children

Master James Grieve and his little sister, Jeanette, of Prospect entertained a group of 12 young friends at their home yesterday with an Easter egg hunt and party. Dignity was forgotten as several parents joined their sons and daughters in the juvenile social event.

Recent Visitor From Los Angeles

A recent guest in Medford was Mrs. Martie Bowman, who spent a few days last week at the home of Mrs. Hattie Salter. Mrs. Bowman, an aviatrix, returned Saturday to her home in Los Angeles.

Slayer Of Wife Refuses Plead

SALEM, April 13—(AP)—Harry Leroy Walp, 32, refused to plead to the indictment of first degree murder for the slaying of his estranged wife two weeks ago and District Attorney W. H. Trindle directed a plea of not guilty be entered in Judge L. H. McMahan's court here today.

The trial of Walp, whose proposed plea of guilty to second degree murder with life sentence penalty mandatory was refused by the Marion county district attorney, was set for April 27.

Search Islands For Missing Fisherman

OREGON CITY, Ore., April 13.—(AP)—Sheriff's deputies and volunteers searched the islands in the Clackamas river today for a trace of Clifford W. Davis, Portland patrolman, missing since his boat was swamped in a swift current late yesterday.

William A. Barnett, also of Portland and Davis' companion on a fishing excursion, was found on one of the islands today. He was suffering considerably from exposure, but physicians said he would recover.

Hold Truck Driver In Hit-Run Death

ASTORIA, Ore., April 13.—(AP)—The sheriff's office held C. G. Straus, 42, a truck driver, in the county jail today in connection with the hit-and-run death of August Johansen, 72, a laborer, Sunday night.

Johansen's body was found on the highway by motorists. The victim had been thrown about 100 feet and was crushed, a sheriff's report said.

Bankruptcy Law Will Be Judged

WASHINGTON, April 13.—(AP)—The supreme court agreed today to pass upon constitutionality of another New Deal pact—the municipal bankruptcy law of 1934.

The measure was intended to help counties, cities, townships, irrigation districts, and other political subdivisions, to reorganize and refund their debts in federal bankruptcy courts.

Bids Opened For Hospital Annex

PORTLAND, Ore., April 13.—(AP)—The Dougan-Hammond Construction company of Portland entered the lowest bid today for the tuberculosis hospital annex and nurses' home at Salem. The bid was $81,780.

Dan Fry, secretary of the state board of control, said the contract probably would be let to the company at a board of control meeting at Salem later today

Notice

No bills payable only contracted by myself. (April 11, 1936.)
LESTER A. WILES.

Of the 24 national parks in the United States, only six now are closed to winter travel.

VOTES FOR WOMEN IN MEXICO

This pictures an historic moment for Mexican women. It shows them participating in an election for the first time since Mexico set up a government. Approximately 7,000 women, mostly government workers, balloted in the primary elections of the National Revolutionary Party in the federal district of Mexico City. (Associated Press Photo)

Fishermen Cease When Price Drops

ASTORIA, Ore., April 13.—(AP)—A one-cent drop in the price of salmon Sunday brought a tie-up of the Columbia river and Westport, Wash., fishing fleets of 400 vessels.

The fishermen, many of whose boats were iced and ready to depart, refused to sail after serving notice Saturday through the Pacific Coast Fisheries union that they would quit the fishing banks if the salmon price dropped below 13 cents a pound.

Problem of Pennies Solved

WEST NEWBURY, Mass. (UP) — Central High school has discovered a new way to breast hard times. The school needed a new broom, but there was no money available. So a benefit basketball game between girl students and faculty members was arranged.

Horse In Art Exhibition

MUNICH (UP) — "The Horse in Art," said to be the most comprehensive assembly of paintings and drawings of horses ever shown, will be opened here this summer. It is designed to coincide with the "Horse Olympiad."

Million Profiles Cut

TOLEDO (UP) — Over a period of nine years, Judd Budd-Jack has cut the profiles of 1,200,000 Americans. With scissors and paper as tools, he requires only 30 seconds for each silhouette. He goes around the country "snipping" for a living.

Squirrel Hunter Treed

MAMMOTH SPRING, Ark., (UP)—Charles McElroy, 32, chopped down a tree to get a squirrel he had shot. The tree fell on him. He suffered a compound fracture of the leg.

Silver Fox Shot

FINDLAY, O. (UP)—The silver fox is rare in Ohio, but Richard Kill cornered one in his backyard and shot it. He believed the animal a descendant of several which escaped from a fox farm near Findlay several years ago.

Churn Set Up In Hotel

TOLEDO (UP) — Just to show the old back-breaking down-on-the-farm way of making butter, too, Ohio Dairy Products convention delegates set up an old churn in the hotel where they met.

Chinatown Tunnels Found

MONTREAL—(UP)—An elaborate system of underground tunnels, linking 15 buildings, in Montreal's Chinatown, was found by police during a raid. The tunnels were used to hide stolen goods.

Snow Fund Spent

MONTREAL(—(UP)—City officials set aside $235,000 to spend on removing snow from the city streets during the winter. Last month, after battling three storms, they reported the fund was exhausted.

Edwardian Coins Delayed

OTTAWA, Ont. (UP)—Coins, postage stamps and bank notes bearing the portrait of King Edward VIII will not appear in Canada for at least another six months, it is learned here. It will take at least that long to prepare suitable profile, portrait and crowned-head views of the king.

Knox Hats
$5.95 to $12.75
ETHELWYN B. HOFFMANN

Talkie movies were recently made of native American bird voices in southern states.

CUE FOR CAMPAIGN DUE TONIGHT WHEN ROOSEVELT TALKS

(Continued from Page One)

banquet of the National Democratic clubs.

Before the national conventions he will go to the southwest to take part in centennials in Texas and Arkansas, and will dedicate the George Rogers Clark memorial at Vincennes, Ind.

Topping political interest tomorrow are the primaries of Illinois and Nebraska.

Knox, Borah Confident

Colonel Frank Knox, Chicago publisher, and Senator Borah of Idaho contest in Illinois in the first out-and-out struggle between candidates for the Republican presidential nomination. Supporters of both predict victory.

In the Democratic primary in Illinois, President Roosevelt is unopposed. He carried the state by a large majority in 1932. Political observers were watching the results with a view to comparison of the Democratic vote with the Knox-Borah total. Leadership in both parties worked to get out a record vote.

Other developments in the political scene included an announcement by Father Charles E. Coughlin, radio priest, that his National Union for Social Justice will hold its national convention in Cleveland, August 13-16.

Schilling
Buy pepper in the larger sizes.
Look what you save!
2oz. pepper 10¢
4oz. pepper 15¢
8oz. pepper 25¢

TONITE AT 8
YOU HAVE THAT DATE WITH
MENTICULTURE
(SEE PAGE 4)

TAKE THE WORD OF A LIFEBUOY USER! THIS SWELL LATHER K.O.'S "B.O." IT KEEPS YOU SAFER AND FRESHER LONGER! IT CLEANSES DEEP AND THOROUGH! AND IS LIFEBUOY SMOOTH!

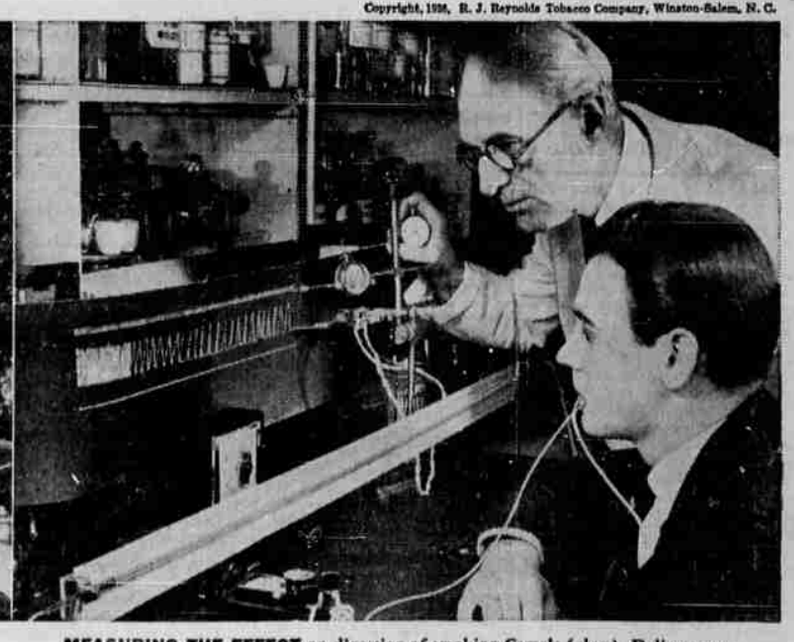
As a Friend Would Serve

The stress of bereavement creates an opportunity for service when it is most needed. The members of Conger's staff recognize this fact. And they sincerely strive to serve as a friend would, in relieving the family of the many details that arise. Their earnest endeavor is to make the final tribute both consoling and impressive.
Conger's policy of quoting moderate prices for complete services enables every family to avail themselves of our services regardless of their means.

CONGER
FUNERAL PARLOR
WEST MAIN AT NEWTOWN
Solicited for Membership in Order of Golden Rule and Declined

_for Digestion's sake...smoke Camels

Copyright, 1936, R. J. Reynolds Tobacco Company, Winston-Salem, N. C.



BARONIAL DINING at the Winter Place Tavern in Boston. Theodore Roosevelt, Enrico Caruso, Henry Cabot Lodge praised its famous fare. Here Camels reign supreme. Nick Stuhl (left), maitre d'hôtel, says: "Camels have the gift of making great dishes more enjoyable. Camels are the most popular cigarette at the Winter Place Tavern."

MEASURING THE EFFECT on digestion of smoking Camels (above). Delicate machines measure the flow of digestive secretions. The evidence shows that smoking a Camel increases the secretion of digestive fluids. The importance of this extra secretion in facilitating digestion is a matter of common knowledge. So smoke Camels... for digestion's sake...and for their costlier tobaccos. Camels set you right!

PARACHUTE JUMPER. Miss Uva Kimmey says: "My life depends on making no mistakes. I smoke Camels for digestion's sake. They encourage digestion in a pleasant way. Camels set me right!"

WORKING AGAINST TIME. Bob Duffey, steam-shovel operator, says: "Work comes first—eating, second. You grab a bite when you can. But trust Camels to make even a quick meal taste good and feel good."

Smoking Camels Promotes Enjoyment of Good Food and Stimulates Digestion

Our nervous modern life often affects digestion. Mental effort—physical rush—slow down the flow of the digestive fluids. Smoking Camels restores and increases this necessary flow.

Scientific research definitely confirms the fact that Camels encourage digestion in this pleasant way. Enjoy Camels as much as you like. They never frazzle your nerves.

Costlier Tobaccos!

• Camels are made from finer, MORE EXPENSIVE TOBACCOS—Turkish and Domestic—than any other popular brand.