

OFFICERS UNABLE PICK UP TRAIL OF FLEEING HOYLMAN

No trace has been found of Raleigh H. Hoylman, 27, who last Friday night, on the eve of receiving a mandatory life imprisonment sentence, slashed and slugged County Jail Harry Ingling into submission and escaped. Hoylman had been adjudged an habitual criminal, under the Oregon law.

Sheriff Syd I. Brown said today he believed Hoylman was "holed up in this city," waiting for a chance to steal an auto. The authorities Saturday and Sunday questioned known friends of the fugitive, without obtaining a single clue. They also interviewed men who had served time with Hoylman in the state prison at Salem.

When Hoylman escaped from the state police and city police last January, he hid for two days in the rear seat of an auto stored in a local garage before dashing for another area. On this trip he stole an auto belonging to J. P. Naumes of this city, and was captured at Kirby, by CCC men, while trying to steal gasoline.

On another flight from the law, Hoylman enlisted in a Josephine county CCC camp and found a haven for two months. He departed after stealing all available money.

Hoylman attacked Jailer Ingling, with a pair of shears in one hand and the jail visitor's book in the other. A man of athletic type and powerful physique, the prisoner flailed at his keeper, with curses, and threats, "I will kill you." In the fierce struggle Jailer Ingling was subdued and locked in a cell block, while Hoylman departed with the main door key.

Jailer Ingling in the grapple, grabbed the scissors and sustained a severe cut on the hand, that required 21 stitches, when Hoylman wrenched the weapon loose. The scissors were used in the jail barbershop.

Hoylman, according to the authorities, as heretofore returned to the scene of his crimes. His kin live at Merlin, in Josephine county.

REGISTRATION BRISK AS DEADLINE NEARS

Briskness marked the registration Saturday and today at the clerk's office for the May 15 primary. The registration period closes Tuesday afternoon at 5 o'clock.

Citizens who have not voted in the past two years, who have moved to another precinct, or have become residents of the city or county or state in the same period, are required to register to vote at the primary.

FUGITIVE PAIR ROUNDED UP IN CRESCENT AREA

negro in a futile effort to wrest the gun from him. Ford held his custodian, the six passengers and driver at bay while the bus traveled about six miles, then made off into nearby woods, accompanied by his reluctant co-prisoner.

When the bus reached Crescent City, Sheriff Austin Huffman was notified and a posse formed. All roads were blocked and the sheriff said the prisoners' recapture would be but a matter of hours because of the rugged terrain and sparsely settled country.

Cut Handcuff Links.

Meanwhile, Dr. Flint gave himself up to the sheriff, explaining the handcuff links were severed with a hatchet obtained at a deserted camp. He turned over the pistol taken from Sheriff Howell, saying Ford agreed to its return to ameliorate punishment in the event of recapture.

Blood stains on the weapon's stock he ascribed to injuries Ford incurred in an attempt to shoot the links apart.

Ford, he said, had taken flight southward.

Two hours before midnight last night, Undersheriff Frank Blackberry and Deputy Ray Plaster of Del Norte county espied Ford walking along the highway. He submitted readily, and said he had had nothing to eat for 24 hours.

Both prisoners remained here overnight and continued their northward journey today in Sheriff Howell's custody.

Officers said Dr. Flint once had been a physician at a CCC camp near Medford, Ore. His father once was president, pro tem, of the state senate. He now is in his home at Hollister.

SPOT WONDER CAR CLOSE TO C. OF C.

Commander Cole Holmes of Medford post, American Legion, announced today that the U. S. marine corps "wonder car," traveling museum will be located near the Chamber of Commerce and open to the public from 9 a. m. to 10 p. m., Tuesday and Wednesday. The legion is sponsoring the local visit of the huge auto.

The car, 53 feet long, contains approximately 1000 exhibits selected with the assistance of the Smithsonian Institute, the national museum at Washington and the Lee Museum of Gettysburg. The display includes many items of historical interest.

Because of its educational nature a large number of school children will visit the museum car and for this reason Commander Holmes requests adults to make their visit at some other time than between 3:30 and 5:30 when most of the students are expected.

Commander Holmes points out that the Legion is bringing the car here as one of their community service projects, without thought of profit and the small admission fee is necessary to defray traveling expenses of the car. The admission price is shown in a small advertisement in this paper.

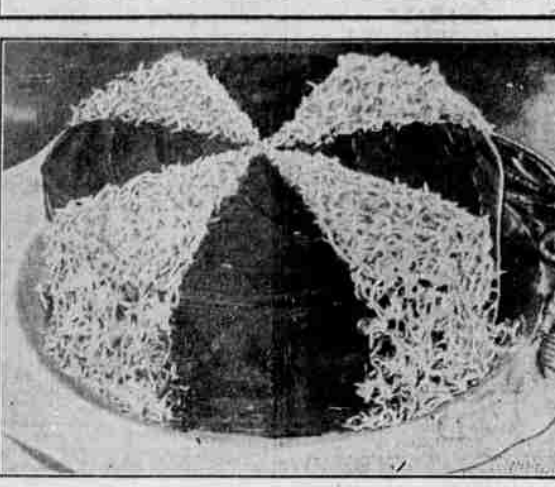

NURSE SUCCEUMBS TO CRASH INJURIES

PORTLAND, Ore., April 13.—(AP) Death of Lillian Hill, 26-year-old nurse, brought to 28 the number of traffic accident deaths in Portland for the fiscal year beginning Dec. 1, last. Miss Hill was injured April 1 in a crash on a bridge here which also resulted fatally to J. A. Johnson, 30.

Easter Sunday accidents sent eight persons to hospitals for injuries ranging from broken legs to fractured skulls. Automobiles figured in the injuries of six and the others were hurt in falls.

One victim, Barney Master, 23, fractured his skull when he fell against a bumper while pushing a stalled automobile. Another casualty was O. H. Fay, a deaf mute, whose legs were seriously bruised when he was struck by a hit-and-run driver, the second time he has been hurt in this manner.

Smiles Beam 'Round and 'Round When You Bake "Windmill Cake"

ISN'T it heart-warming to hear murmurs of admiration when you bring a handsome, eye-filling cake to the table? Don't such tributes repay you royally for the time you took to decorate your cake?

And you can vary this decoration: You can frost this cake with white frosting and tint the coconut pink before you apply it; you can tint the frosting pink and decorate either with white or toasted coconut.

Windmill Cake

3 cups sifted cake flour
2 teaspoons double-acting baking powder
1/2 teaspoon salt
1/2 cup butter or other shortening
1 1/2 cups sugar
1/4 cup milk
1/4 cup water
1 teaspoon vanilla
1/2 teaspoon almond extract
3 egg whites, stiffly beaten

Sift flour once, measure, add baking powder and salt, and sift together three times. Cream butter thoroughly, add sugar gradually, and cream together until light and fluffy. Add flour, alternately with liquid, a small amount at a time, beating after each addition until smooth. Add flavoring; fold in egg whites quickly and thoroughly. Bake in two greased 9-inch layer pans in moderate oven (375° F.) 20 minutes. Spread chocolate frosting between layers and on top and sides of cake. While frosting is still soft, mark off in eight sections. Sprinkle moist, sweetened coconut on alternating sections, beginning from top center and work out and down on sides.

To Toast Coconut: Spread coconut in thin layer in pan or baking sheet. Place in hot oven (400° F.) or under broiler. Toast until delicately browned stirring frequently to prevent burning.

BECK, CRITIC OF NEW DEAL, DIES

WASHINGTON, April 13.—(AP)—The sudden death of James Montgomery Beck, former solicitor general and noted constitutional lawyer, brought expressions of regret in the capital today.

The 75-year-old veteran of many battles at the bar, in congress and on the orator's rostrum suffered a heart attack shortly after his Easter luncheon in his home here yesterday and died within a short time.

Although Beck had been vehement in his denunciation of new deal policies, administration leaders paid tribute to him today.

"His sudden death," said Solicitor General Stanley Reed, who as Beck's opponent, argued some recent new deal cases in the supreme court, "is a great loss to the nation."

Beck was born in Philadelphia, and was graduated from Moravian college at Bethlehem, Pa.

He began his political career as a Democrat, being appointed by President Cleveland as federal attorney in Pennsylvania. Disagreeing with the platform of William Jennings Bryan, he switched to the Republican party.

WATER MAIN JOB BEGUN IN ASHLAND

Work started today on the replacement of 8000 feet of water pipe on Oak street from the Southern Pacific tracks to the sewage disposal plant in Ashland. It is a WPA project involving an outlay of $12,000. About 25 men taken from other public jobs were available for the work today. It will take at least eight weeks to complete the project, Elmer Biegel, city superintendent, said.

The present steel pipe is to be replaced with cast iron pipe, guaranteed for more than a century. The steel mains were laid less than 30 years ago but are badly in need of replacement. Mr. Biegel stated, "Six inch pipe will replace the present three-inch mains with the exception of the strip from Nevada and Helman streets to the sewer plant where a two-inch pipe will be laid."

Regulation fire hydrants will be installed to replace two-inch goosenecks which have served as "the only fire protection for the lower Oak street area. The new equipment will bring a material reduction in fire insurance rates, Mr. Biegel said.

VICTIM OF ANEMIA RETURNED TO HOME

SALEM, Ore., April 13.—(AP)—Mrs. Milton R. Mitchell, who appeared at Salem police headquarters Saturday in a confused state of mind and unable to remember her name, has been returned to her home at 1602 Willard street in Eugene, police reported.

Police here were told Mrs. Mitchell disappeared from her home in Eugene last Friday. The cause of her lapse of memory was not learned here.

STUDY OF FOODS TO BE CONTINUED

Home extension units of Jackson county will continue the study of foods and nutrition projects throughout the month of April, according to Mabel C. Mack, home demonstration agent. These projects include a study of food habits and diets for various ages and member of the family, emphasizing particularly food at forty and food for the young child.

The demonstration on food at forty will be given by the home demonstration agent Tuesday, April 14, at Central Point. This meeting will be held at the First Christian church, commencing at 10 a. m. A covered dish luncheon will be served at noon. The Jacksonville home extension

Did you marry a cook stove?

The DICTATOR

Combines New Beauty with Amazing Economy and Convenience

During the gay 90's many a bride who believed she was marrying the catch of the town, discovered later that she had really married a cook stove. She usually saw her husband at meal time, but all her waking hours were spent in the kitchen toiling over an old-fashioned fuel range.

Today's bride will never lose her temper or her good looks toiling in the kitchen. Her electric range will do the cooking so accurately, so easily and so economically that even the most inexperienced, new housewife could not fail to be a success.

Just now we are offering this exceptionally fine range at $50.00 below its regular price. No description of ours could possibly convey a correct idea of the exceptional beauty of design and finish, the symmetry of line, the masterly way in which this range is designed and built. Be sure to see it today. You will scarcely believe the price could be so low. Astounding as it may seem . . . TOTAL PRICE ONLY $39.75 CASH, or $5.00 down and very easy monthly terms, if desired.
