WASHINGTON, April 15.—The republican brain trust is going to be a big help, but it is not yet clear to whom.
The first-born brain child, offered by one of the new appointees to an old-line political informant a few days back, has caused inner appreciations.
Said the new republican brain trust to the old-line republican politician:
"I'm thinking about this thing, and it seems to me our trouble is that our men in congress are not on their feet enough. The republican congressmen do not debate enough. I think we should pick out a few of our best men up there and prime them."
The politician: "I think you have something there. Whom do you have in mind?"
The R. B. T.: "Well, what about these fellows Tydings?"
Note—As all conscious persons in Washington have known for years, Mr. Tydings is the able democratic senator from Maryland, who has been on his feet considerably lately, praising President Roosevelt.
Nary a flicker of laughter or dismay showed on the frozen face of the politician, as he responded:
"You are absolutely right. What you ought to do is to get Tydings on his feet, along with Joe Robinson, Pat Harrison and the rest of our good men in congress."
The R. B. T. was pleased and indicated he would like the matter up at the first meeting, but by that time the politician was outside doubled up in a paroxysm. He now fears that the R. B. T.'s will abscond with the R. B. T.'s as chairman at that first meeting.
President Roosevelt's first regret, upon his return from his fishing trip, is that he had not taken Messrs. Ickes and Hopkins with him this time.

Knox Distances Borah As Illinois Preference; Nebraska Upset Seen

CHICAGO, April 14.—(AP)—Col. Frank Knox lengthened his lead over Senator William E. Borah today in the first man-to-man test of Republican aspirants. With more than half the state's precincts reported in yesterday's Illinois primary elections, the publisher of the Chicago Daily News increased his margin over the Idahoan to 67,000 votes.
Returns from 4,108 of the state's 7,426 precincts gave Knox, consistent critic of the New Deal, a total of 353,779 against 186,139 for Borah. Knox gained a big margin in Cook county (Chicago). There, 2,781 of 3,676 precincts gave him 157,582 to 90,222 for Borah. Downstate, Borah held a growing advantage. The senator gathered 95,916 in 1,327 of 3,750 precincts with 89,197 for Knox.
Has 130 Delegates.
Former Senator George Moses of New Hampshire estimated Knox now had substantially 130 delegates to the Republican national convention, including Illinois' group.
It was indicated Democrats had outvoted Republicans two to one in the statewide primary. Their party cast a record vote—attributed by the bitter battle for the Democratic gubernatorial nomination between Gov. Henry Horner and Dr. Herman N. Bundenes, Chicago health commissioner. In the comparison was available, President Roosevelt, unopposed in the Democratic preference primary, outpolled Borah and Knox combined by a 3 to 1 margin.
But C. O. P. leaders asserted many Republicans had voted in the Democratic primary to get into the fight between Horner and Bundenes.
Horner to Fore.
Horner, who failed to get the endorsement of the regular party organization, passed Bundenes—the candidate backed by Mayor Edward J. Kelly and National Committeeman P. A. Nash—in a sensational spurt early today.
With reports for 4,975 precincts over the state, Horner had 316,105 against 513,077 for Bundenes. Great strides downstate, where Horner got 204,982 to 57,238 for his rival in 1,895 precincts, put the embattled governor in the van. In 3,090 Cook county precincts, Bundenes secured 453,839 against 311,123 for Horner.
Horner claimed re-nomination in a "victory for good government."

MAIN ASPIRANTS DERIVE COMFORT FROM PRIMARIES

WASHINGTON, April 15.—(AP)—Supporters of the new deal and of all three leading contenders for the Republican presidential nomination took satisfaction from results in yesterday's Illinois and Nebraska primaries.
While a Landon spokesman at Kansas City was counting 93 delegates instructed for, or endorsing the Kansas governor among delegates so far elected, backers of Col. Frank Knox of Illinois claimed his Illinois victory in the preference primary would bring his delegate list to 130.
Only 391 of the 1,001 delegates, who will make up the Cleveland convention have been elected so far, and these are "uninstructed" for the most part.
With 21 of the 24 Wisconsin delegates behind him, Senator Borah made a showing in downstate Illinois which could help him. His headquarters called the result in the state "a moral victory."
The extent of the "write in" movement for Landon on the Nebraska ballots pleased his followers.
The administration paid special attention to the way votes for the president on the Democratic tickets in both states far exceeded the Republican counts. Indications were he would get over 40,000 more than Knox and Borah together in Illinois.
Wishes of the Roosevelt organization for a preferential primary in Georgia were met to an extent, meanwhile by the state committee headed by the anti-new deal Governor Talmadge. It will be held June 3, with each candidate having to pay a $10,000 entry fee. If only one qualifies, the primary will be called off and he will have the right to name the delegation to Philadelphia.

Chicago 'Big Bill' Meets Defeat In Campaign Effort

CHICAGO, April 15.—(AP)—The emergence from political retirement of William Hale (Big Bill) Thompson, former mayor of Chicago, appeared today to have been in vain, for Thomas V. Sullivan, his candidate for the Republican nomination for attorney general, trailed 11th race.
With more than half the votes counted, Charles W. Hadley of Wheaton was in the lead with 192,846, followed by Sullivan with 188,097.
Thompson broke a long silence to campaign for Sullivan, asserting that the only way to keep the Democrats from "stealing" the Chicago vote was to elect Sullivan.

DU PONT, RASKOB AIDED TALMADGE WITNESS AVERS

Raskob is a former chairman of the democratic national committee. Du Pont is a prominent contributor to the American Liberty league.
"I saw Mr. Raskob on the 80th floor of the Empire State building in New York and I saw Mr. Du Pont at Wilmington," Muse testified, standing as he talked.
He said the money was contributed last December.
"We were interested in the Macon meeting and I asked those two men to help me," Muse said.

FRANCE ATTACHES 'IF' TO PROMISE OF AID TO BRITAIN

Agrees to Aid British Fleet if Attacked in Mediterranean, Providing Lone Hand Is Not Attempted
PARIS, April 15.—(AP)—Official quarters said tonight a French agreement to aid the British fleet if it is attacked in the Mediterranean "does not hold if England plays a lone hand against Italy."
This warning to Britain was published in the newspaper Le Temps, and was confirmed in official quarters.
France, along with several Mediterranean nations had assured Great Britain that if she were attacked in the Mediterranean by Italy they would come to her aid.
France favors the lifting of sanctions from Italy in order to be assured of her aid against Germany, while Britain reportedly favors increasing the sanctions if current league peace negotiations are not fruitful.
Premier Albert Sarraut declared France may be forced to quit the League of Nations if her "faith in collective security" is broken by Geneva's failure to pursue those who "frustrated international agreements."
The premier, referring to Germany's denunciation of the Locarno treaty, said France is strong enough to take care of her own security if the league collapses.

No Release Today
