A group of 4A mothers will act as hostesses for the afternoon. It has been announced that the committee in charge of hot lunches has requested that this meeting be a "pound" party for the school kitchen.

Among items listed as being needed were rice, white beans, lima beans and macaroni.

Principal speaker on the program will be Professor Irving Vining of Ashland. Miss Blanche Rinnels will present a paper on psychiatry and Mrs. Robert Hart and Mrs. W. H. Fluhrer will report on the recent meeting of the Oregon State Tuberculosis association in Portland, which they attended as representatives of the local unit.

The Medford group will serve tea late in the afternoon.

Mrs. Johnson spent much of her time as the guest of her daughter, Mrs. Leonard Brown, at her home in Visalia, and also visiting her son, Dr. George Johnson, in Los Angeles. She reports a most enjoyable month.

Northwest Is Seen As Literary Field

Portland, Ore., April 16.—(P)—Harold Latham, vice president of the Macmillan Publishing company, told interviewers here the Pacific northwest is proving a fruitful field for literary talent. He said "I got four books out of last year's visit" and commented he had received several manuscripts which look hopeful during his present trip.

TOWNSEND HEAD SAYS TROUBLES WILL END SOON

PORTLAND, April 16.—(AP)—James Logan, state manager of the Oregon Townsend pension plan, said today that "two or three men are not speaking for the 1100 members of Portland club No. 7," whose president, Martin K. Wighton, defied state headquarters.

"Things will be ironed out in a couple of days," said Logan, whose action in ousting Luther Eggersten as a Townsend speaker brought down the anger of Wighton.

"I am leaving the matter to Mr. Weir and we expect to have a meeting with the executive board of the club shortly," said Logan.

John Weir, trouble-shooter from national headquarters, was sent here to heal a breach between various state leaders. After Logan deposed Eggersten, Weir sent a representative to take his place at a meeting of No. 7 earlier this week, but Wighton refused to recognize him and kept Eggersten on the program.

"I live near the district where those club members live and they know me," said Logan. Asked whether he knew the reason for the statement of J. W. Rounds, club secretary, that his name was "poison" to the club members, Logan said "I might," but indicated he did not believe he was regarded as Rounds asserted.

Jury Bribe Offer Ends Plot Trial

KAHOKA, Mo., April 16.—(P)—A mistrial was declared by Circuit Judge Walter A. Higbee today in the criminal conspiracy trial of Mrs. Nellie Tipton Muench and three co-defendants after a juror testified he had been offered $100 to hang the jury.

The juror, Charles Long, said the offer was made to him by Harry Spangler, a surveyor, who had represented himself as acting for Joseph L. Gutting, one of the defense attorneys.

Collier Returns—Don Collier, who has been confined to the Veterans' hospital in Roseburg for the past four and a half months, has returned to his home here. While in the hospital he underwent two major operations, but is now regaining lost weight and is well on the road to recovery.

COMMISSION ACTS TO REMOVE MORE HIGHWAY HAZARDS

PORTLAND, April 16.—(P)—The program to reduce the highway death toll went forward here today when the state highway commission opened bids on two more grade crossing elimination projects.

Bids were opened on 12 projects totaling around $416,000, and more will be opened tomorrow. Awards on today's bids will be announced at 4 p. m., after the bids have been tabulated and checked.

One overcrossing will be on the Pacific highway near Roseburg, and the other on the Warm Springs highway in Jefferson county.

Numerous delegations came before the three commissioners to request road improvements.

Chairman Henry F. Cabel said the commission probably would discuss today or tomorrow the date for starting the removal of snow from the blocked McKenzie highway between Eugene and Bend.

Projects and low bidders include: Douglas county: Shady overcrossing on Pacific highway near Roseburg, Mountain States Construction company of Eugene, $32,980; eight miles regrading and surfacing on Wilson Ranch-Umpqua highway, Warren Northwest, Inc., Portland, $63,755.
