Banquet Last Night Honors C. A. Pickels

Among the many affairs arranged during the past two weeks honoring the coming golden wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Pickel tomorrow was the banquet last night whose hostesses were members of the Past Noble Grand club.

The golden note was carried out in decorations of the banquet hall and rooms of the I. O. O. F. hall, scene of the affair, by the use of yellow and white flowers. Yellow candles and gold wedding bells formed appropriate table decorations. Central attraction of the room was the small table holding a wedding cake, set against a background of yellow tulips and candles.

Mrs. Georgia Hess presented the honor guests with a sterling set from the club.

A mock wedding, with the actors dressed in the costume of 50 years ago, followed the banquet. Principal participants were Kathryn Daniels, Maud Stiekel, Daisy Douglas, Mae Stuart, Ethel Pease and Ella Gould. The wedding party was chartered as the ceremony closed.

Games and cards completed the evening. About sixty-five guests were present, including husbands of members. The committee in charge of arrangements consisted of Ella Rogers, Daisy Douglas, Julia Gregory, Edith Prescott, Katharine Daniels.

PRODUCTION BOOST HITS BUTTER PRICE

SAN FRANCISCO, April 17.—(AP)—Butter prices went lower along the Pacific coast Thursday as production went higher.

Top grade butter, which dropped 3 1/2 cents here Wednesday, went down another cent yesterday to 30 cents a pound wholesale. Prices also weakened at other Pacific coast market centers, largely in response to the Chicago market's sharp break.

With Midwest production rising swiftly as weather conditions improve, the trade here looked for possible lower prices until it becomes attractive to store for later consumption. Observers said they did not look for any significant storage until the price gets down around 28 cents.

POLISH DISORDER BLAMED ON REDS

LWOW, Poland, April 17.—(AP)—The main streets of Lwow presented a scene of desolation today as rioting which caused deaths estimated as high as 16 and several scores of injuries was halted by police.

Communists were blamed for starting the riot and many of them were arrested.

The rioting began yesterday afternoon as mourners sought to change the official route of a funeral procession for an unemployed man slain in Tuesday's demonstration.

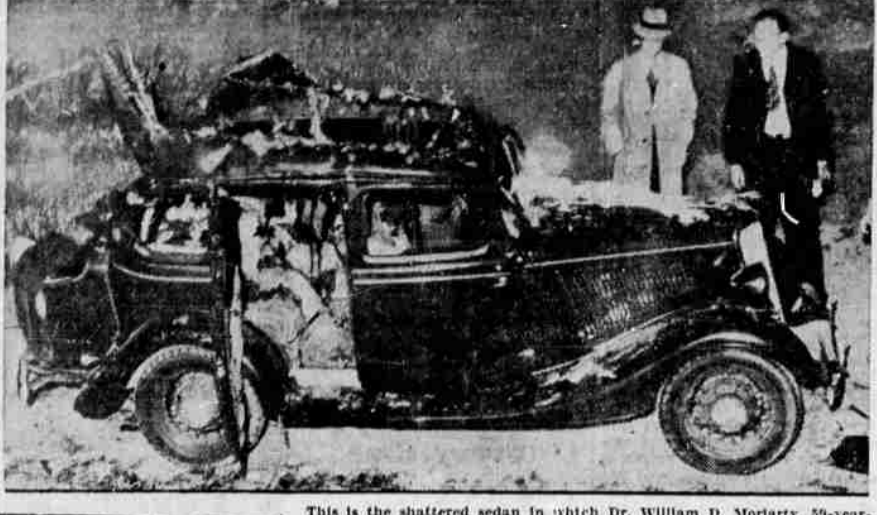

Rioters, liberally supplied with pistols and ammunition, overturned automobiles and street cars for barricades, and also used supplies of kerosene they carried in an effort to start fires.

The Lwow city council, sitting in a special session, demanded credits at government banks for public works on a large scale to reduce unemployment, which was declared responsible for driving many workers to communism.

where they will be picked up by cars driven by troop committee women. Any Girl Scout who is a member of troop 2 and has not been contacted by her patrol leader, is reminded to come to headquarters Saturday morning equipped with her lunch and hiking clothing.

S. F. STEVEDORES BACK LEADERS IN HIRING HALL FUSS

SAN FRANCISCO, April 17.—(AP)—San Francisco longshoremen solidly backed their leaders today, increasing tension in the city's latest waterfront crisis.

Faced with an employers' refusal to deal with the "radical, subversive and communistic" leadership, the International Longshoremen's association local in a closely guarded meeting late last night again endorsed its officers who were elected by overwhelming majorities.

They agreed they would accept employment only through the joint hiring halls established in the arbitration award which ended the protracted and bloody coastwise strike of 1934. Earlier in the week employers decreed no more gangs would be taken from the hiring halls.

The meeting delegated Harry Bridges, president of the local and key figure in the present clash, to address a mass meeting of waterfront workers in Portland, Ore., Sunday. Another speaker will be sent to speak tomorrow at a meeting in San Pedro, Cal.

Camera Club Told About Art Effects

Members and guests of the Camera club met at the Art association studio last evening for an instructive program. Lighting effects for portraits, demonstrated with lights and a model, with reference to character portrayal, were shown by T. J. Radcliffe. A general discussion, led by Lowell Dupray, ranged from landscapes to movie camera work. Fred Einkopf explained various types of art work displayed on the walls to visitors.

ULTERIOR MOTIVE SEEN IN SMITH'S THREAT TO 'WALK'

WASHINGTON, April 17.—(AP)—A statement that Alfred E. Smith made his "take a walk" speech to clear the American Liberty League of "financial taint" was introduced today before the senate lobby committee.

Chairman Black (D. Ala.) read a memorandum by a worker for the Sentinels of the Republic, C. A. Berry, respecting a conversation Berry had with Thomas L. Chadbourne, New York lawyer. The memorandum said:

"In passing it might be noted that Al Smith refused one invitation to speak to the league at Mr. Chadbourne's insistence, but accepted the second invitation with the comment that the league needed him to help clear it of its financial taint and that he felt he was sufficiently known by the country to be able to use any board to spring back into the public eye."

Kurt Grunwald, Russian-born American who defiantly refused to answer senate lobby committee questions, today was excused from testifying without any action against him.

The committee instead turned to the Sentinels of the Republic and brought out that some contributors to that organization, such as Trench Du Pont, have been prominent supporters of the American Liberty League, new deal critic. There also was correspondence regarding a possible merger of the Sentinels and the League.

Grunwald was brought to the capital from Nebraska for questioning about his activities as an organizer for the Farmers Independence Council, anti-AAA organization. At his home in Bayport, Long Island, N. Y., he operates an acre and a half farm.
