Many Guests Here From Out-of-Town For 5 o'clock Rites

At five o'clock this afternoon, Miss Clara Mary Fuson will become the bride of Russell Dezell Davis at the William Taylor residence on West Main street. Rev. E. S. Barham will read the ceremony before approximately 130 guests.

Bride and groom will be attended by Miss Anna Mae Fuson, sister of the bride, and Raymond Davis, of Seattle, brother of the groom.

A number of out-of-town guests have arrived for the ceremony, among them Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Dezell, William Dezell, Jr. and Charles Dezell, all of Portland. Mrs. Dezell has been a house-guest for the past week of her daughter, Mrs. Don Newbury.

Mrs. J. A. Maddox, mother of the groom, and Mr. Maddox, of Klamath Falls, are also here for the ceremony, as is Miss Jennie Dezell, of Klamath Falls. Mrs. Don Newbury and Mrs. T. A. Dezell, of this city, are entertaining the out-of-town members of their family. Arrival of so many members of the Dezell family has made the week-end assume characteristics of a family reunion, many having not seen each other for some time.

Also guests at the wedding will be Mr. and Mrs. Alma D. Katz, of Portland, and Mrs. Mary Wood, of Ashland, grandmother of the bride-elect.

Miss Fuson has been the center of much entertaining since the announcement of her engagement several weeks ago. Latest hostesses complimenting her were Mrs. Frank Perl, who entertained with a bridge tea and shower Monday afternoon, and Mrs. Charles Barnes, who arranged a similar event Thursday.

DeMolay Mothers To Meet Tomorrow

Announcement has been made of the social meeting of the DeMolay Mothers club tomorrow afternoon at two-thirty at the Girls' Community clubhouse.

Refreshments will be served and all members are particularly urged to be present. A very cordial invitation is issued to all mothers of DeMolay who are not yet members of the club.

KIDDIES FLOCK TO EGG ROLL

Thousands of Washington youngsters flocked to the White House grounds for the traditional egg rolling on the day after Easter. Here is the hostess, Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt, as she paused to greet three-year-old Jean Doering. (Associated Press Photo)

Officers Installed At Formal Banquet Held Last Evening

With extensive and elaborate ceremonies, newly elected officers of the Medford branch of American Association of University Women were officially installed at a formal banquet at the Hotel Medford last evening.

Heading new officers is Miss Carl Degermark, president. Others are Mrs. Wilson Watt, vice-president; Mrs. Kenneth Denman, secretary; and Miss Gertrude Butler, treasurer. Here for the installations were Mrs. Virgil Earl, state president; Eugene; Miss Betty Holt, state vice-president; of Salem; Mrs. L. T. Merwin, regional director, of Portland; Mrs. G. A. Johnson, regional fellowship chairman, of Portland; Mrs. A. MacDuff, president of the Eugene branch of A.A.U.W.; and Mrs. Kate Jamieson, dean of women at Oregon State college and president-elect for the state.

All visiting officers spoke to the group, discussing various phases of organization activities and explaining aims and accomplishments of members.

Among visiting members were Mrs. Robert Thompson, of Klamath Falls, who was last year president of that group. She and Mr. Thompson are spending the week-end at the guest of Mr. and Mrs. A. Bender.

Also an out-of-town guest at the affair was Mrs. J. W. Alvig, of Urbana, Ill., who has been a guest of her sister, Miss Vera Humphrey, for the past week. Mrs. Alvig is an officer of the Urbana branch and is also president of the League of Women Voters of champagne county, Ill. She left for her home today.

Several musical numbers, arranged by Mrs. William McAllister, were included on the program. Mrs. Robert Hart was general chairman for the affair.

Music Week Plans Are Being Arranged By Medford Groups

Club and music circles throughout southern Oregon are making plans for music week, scheduled for May 1 to 8. Providing an impetus to activities will be the Southern Oregon Normal May music festival starting Friday, May 1, and continuing through the week-end in Ashland. Many Medford people participate in this annual festival.

Miss Louis Woodruff, music director for the normal, is in charge of all arrangements for the festival. Medford music circles are planning a number of activities for the national week, which will be observed in communities throughout the nation. Special programs in schools, churches and homes are being arranged, the week's activities to be climaxed with the Gleeman's concert the evening of May 8. A number of local groups and artists will assist on the Gleeman program. It is believed by Medford musicians that current enthusiasm and plans are indicative of an unusual interest in the observance, and hope that the 1936 week will prove to be outstanding.

The W. C. T. U.

The W. C. T. U. will hold a tea in the Presbyterian church parlor, 3 to 5 P. M. on Thursday, April 23. Mrs. Minnie Bryant is in charge of the meeting, the subject being "Temperance and Missions." Speakers representing the missionary societies of several churches will give addresses: Mrs. Weatherford of the Nazarene group; Mrs. Myrtle Wilson, Baptist; Mrs. Taylor, South Methodist; and others will be heard.

The Presbyterian ladies will conduct devotional exercises. A group of the First M. E. church ladies will present a playlet "White Ribbon Tour." Mrs. Augusta McCormick will speak on "Why we have temperance and missions." Fine musical numbers will be given.

The program is to commence at 2:30 and all ladies are invited, with a special invitation for all interested in missionary work. Proceeds of the tea will be used for missionary and to send the Union Signal to a mission station.

Junior Hi P. T. A. Elects New Heads

Mrs. C. L. Hopkins was elected president of the Junior High P. T. A. at the monthly meeting in the school auditorium Friday afternoon. New officers elected were Mrs. Hopkins; Vice-president, Mrs. M. Richter; secretary, Mrs. N. Culy; treasurer, Mrs. Lyle B. Thurman.

Mrs. Fred Purdin conducted the meeting in the absence of the president, Mrs. N. Culy. Mrs. Jack Heyland reported on a recent meeting in Grants Pass.

Grants Pass Woman Elected President at Relief Corps Meet

Mrs. A. E. Zana, of Grants Pass, was elected president of the Women's Relief corps of southern Oregon at the second district meeting which convened here Thursday at the armory.

Other officers elected were Mrs. Ethel Weed Medford, senior vice-president; Mrs. Mary Mudge, Grants Pass, junior vice-president; Mrs. Elsie Meade, Grants Pass, secretary-treasurer; Mattie Smith, Central Point, chaplain; Mrs. Teltha Pickel, Phoenix, conductor; and Mrs. Norah Payne, Ashland, guard.

Members convened Thursday morning. Following the welcome by the Medford corps and response by the Ashland group, the convention officers, with Mrs. Emma Gleason, of Central Point, senior vice-president in the chair, took charge of the meeting at ten-thirty.

Routine business was conducted until twelve o'clock when luncheon was served the sixty-three members in attendance. After luncheon, officers were elected and initiatory work was exemplified by Grants Pass, balloting by Central Point and re-instating by Ashland.

The afternoon program closed with a general discussion of corps work with different district officers instructing. Members adjourned with the belief that everyone in the organization was greatly benefited by the convention and that strength and efficiency of the corps are increased by the gathering.

Ashland was selected as the hostess city for the 1937 meeting.

Convention officers announced that thanks and appreciation are extended the newspapers of the city for courtesies which they stated helped make the convention a success.

County Leaders Will Hear Program Tues.

Mrs. Margery Pena, captain of the Gold Hill Girl Scouts, will appear on the program being arranged for the meeting of Girl Scout leaders Tuesday evening at seven-thirty at headquarters.

Mrs. Pena's topic will be "Girl Scout Games and Songs." Miss Vera Humphrey, chairman of the court of awards, will outline the program for the coming year scheduled for May 16, and will also give details on the new course in child nursing which she has prepared.

Mrs. Mabel Sims, local secretary, will explain coming scout activities, which are of particular interest to leaders. An invitation is extended to all leaders of Jackson county.

Leaders from Rogue River will make up the committee in charge of social arrangements for Tuesday evening.

Degree of Honor Entertains Thursday

Hostesses Thursday evening were members of the Degree of Honor club, who entertained with a card party at the P. O. E. hall. They report a very large number of guests.

Prizes were awarded to Ethel Spitzner, Louisa Parker, Mrs. Ida M. Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. Bradshaw and Mr. Deuman. Refreshments were served by Mrs. Peter Dietrich and Frances Bentley.

Many Artists To Appear April 24 At Evening Event

An unusually fine and outstanding musical program, featuring southern Oregon artists, will be presented by the Thursday Morning Study club on the evening of April 24 at the Baldwin recital hall. The musicale will begin at eight-fifteen. Chairman for the affair is Roberta Ward Bebb.

A particularly interesting part of the program will be a Shakespearean characterization by Angus L. Bowmer of the Southern Oregon Normal school. Mr. Bowmer has gained national attention through his presentation of summer Shakespearean festivals in Ashland and for such recent productions as "Emperor Jones" and "Candida." Indicative of the interest such activities have aroused is the recent invitation received by him to present "Candida" at Reed college in Portland today.

Another feature of the evening's program will be the appearance of the Medford Gleeman, under the direction of James Stevens. The group has been rehearsing steadily for some time for their approaching spring concert and are said to have a smooth performance to offer.

Vocal solos, in costume; an elaborate French two-piano arrangement of Mendelssohn's "Rondo Capriccioso"; by Roberta Ward Bebb and Sebastian Apollo; and violin solos by Miss Marcia Van Dyke of Grants Pass, one of southern Oregon's most promising young artists, will be included on the program.

Members of the club, their husbands and guests are anticipating the concert with much interest.

Officers of the club are: President, Mrs. Frederick Johnson; first vice-president, Mrs. Jack Spaulding; second vice-president, Mrs. Myron Root; and secretary-treasurer, Mrs. Charlie Lemery.

Wenonah Club Plans Last Party in Series

Mrs. Nellie Purdin was hostess to the Wenonah club Thursday afternoon when club members met for an afternoon of cards. High scores were achieved by Mrs. Amy Finch and Velma Blinger. Special guests for the afternoon were Mesdames Finch, Seltzman and Chase.

Assisting the hostess were Maude Abbott, Helen Keese and Florence Rush. It was announced that the next meeting will be held May 7 at the home of Dorothy Dickey, 727 Boulevard, Ashland.

Friday evening the club entertained with another in the series of public card parties, arrangements being made by Dorothy Dickey and Florence Rush. Scoring prizes went to Carrie Milnes, Jack Dooms, Esther Dooms, Mrs. Henry Mason, O. A. Hubbard, Evelyn Stag and Bill Milnes.

Refreshments were served by Gladys Dooms, Esther Dooms, Norma Martin, Velda Dahlke, Elva Gentry and Evelyn Stag. The last in this series of parties is scheduled for May 13.

Visiting Officers Will Be Guests

A welcome will be extended tomorrow night by Crater Lake auxiliary, V. F. W., to Hazel Walton, department president, and Cecile Porter, chief of staff, both of Portland, who will make their official visit to the local group.

The usual business meeting will be called to order in the P. O. E. hall at eight o'clock. After business has been disposed of, members will gather for an evening of informal greetings and exchange of views with the honor guests.

Dorothy Wandrey is general chairman for the affair, and will be assisted by Mesdames Lenore Wall, Augusta Hill, Ethel Ludwig, Florence Hall and Childie Fraiser. Refreshments will be served to members and guests of the auxiliary and post.

A number of guests from Walter A. Phillips post and auxiliary in Ashland will drive down for the event.

Advanced Pupils to Be Heard April 27

Rosa Blackmore Willett has announced Monday evening, April 27, as the time for the first of three pianoforte recitals planned for the spring. The recital is to be presented in the Baldwin Piano Shoppe.

Eight of the most advanced and gifted pupils will appear on the program, which is expected to be most interesting, as all the young people are among the valley's well known artists.

Appearing will be Doris Mae Ghorke, Norma Weill, Jim Linn, Jr., Bob Long Bill Lonigan, Jr., Fritz Gustelaff, and Mrs. Lydia Gustelaff.

A cordial invitation is extended the general public. The program will be announced later.

Wednesday Study Club

In the absence of the president, the vice-president, Mrs. C. A. Menker presided at the regular meeting of the Wednesday Study club, held in the Girls' Community club rooms, April 15th. Honoring "Pan American Day,"—now generally observed throughout the United States—the first number on the program was a talk on "Pan America" by Mrs. Harold Grey, chairman for the afternoon.

Mrs. Grey brought out much of general interest in affairs concerning the southern republics, the all-American peace conference to be held in Buenos Aires, and the Pan American Union, which was organized in 1896. This society is a strong influence for the promotion of good will, a better understanding, and more amicable trade relations between the government of the United States and those of Latin America.

Mrs. J. F. Lawrence continued her series of discussions of "Vital European Problems," with a brief resume of the ever-changing conditions in those countries now most in the public eye, and spoke of the inevitable effect on the civilization of the world, if the present mad race for armaments continues.

The next meeting will be held on May 6th, with Mesdames L. E. Williams and E. A. Moore, in charge of the program.

Academy Plans Benefit Party

One of the largest events of the spring season will be the benefit card party being planned by St. Mary's academy for Monday, April 27. Contract, auction, pinocle and five hundred will be featured during both the afternoon and evening hours.

Chairman of arrangements for the affair is Mrs. J. C. Boyle. Place of the party will be St. Mary's academy auditorium.

Neighborhood Club Honors Recent Bride

Mrs. Clara Clark was hostess to the Oak Grove Neighborhood club at her home this week, entertaining her guests out-of-doors. A special guest was Mrs. W. Knips, Jr., nee Miss Ethel Slagle, who was presented with a wedding gift from the club.

Mrs. Lewis Clark was also a guest of the club. It was announced that the next meeting has been scheduled for May 8 in the evening at the school house.

Varied Program Is Presented to Club At Monday Meet

Mrs. D. W. Luke and Miss Elizabeth Burr were among hostesses this week, entertaining members of the Travel Study club Monday afternoon at their home on Orchard Home Drive. Guests were impressed with the beauty of the countryside and house grounds which added to the pleasure of the afternoon.

Miss Laura Bailey, a guest of the club, read a paper on Paraguay, presenting an account of the country and its people. Uruguay was the subject of a similar report by Mrs. C. L. Purry. The audience found both papers to be interesting and instructive.

Mrs. A. R. Clement reviewed "The Lady of Godeys," a biography of Mrs. Sarah Joseph Hale, who was editor of Godey's Ladies' Magazine. Mrs. Hale was one of the first women to become an editor. She believed earnestly in co-education and was an outstanding pioneer in the movement to interest women in public activities.

Miss Ruth Reid, Medford Student, Honored at O.S.C.

Appearing on the cover of the current issue of the Oregon State Monthly, college magazine, is Miss Ruth Reid, of this city, in a group of twelve young women listed as Oregon State's "leading ladies," the twelve being considered the outstanding women students on the campus.

Miss Reid is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Homer Reid, and will complete her senior year this spring. She is vice-president of the senior class and is serving her second year as president of Sigma Kappa sorority.

Miss Reid, who is majoring in dietetics, recently was notified of her appointment to Johns Hopkins university in Baltimore for a year of work following graduation. The appointment was made as the result of recommendations by college instructors and academic records. It is considered an unusual honor.

The appointment climaxes an active college career for Miss Reid.

Eagle Point Group Entertains Thursday

Members of the Eagle Point Civic Improvement club entertained Thursday afternoon with a surprise shower for Wilda Darnelle in the club rooms. Ladies of the P. T. A., Home Economics club, Mrs. D. O. Fredricks, Mrs. Blaine Shirley and Mrs. George Franks, of Medford; Mrs. Octavia Shaw, of Portland; and Mrs. Wallace Dinmore, of Eureka, made up the forty-three guests.

Dorothy Young sang preceding the presentation of gifts. The long tables, which were revealed about four-thirty in the afternoon, were decorated with apple and almond blossoms and apricot. Pink and white candles completed table decorations.

Mrs. Golden Here for Stay

Arriving yesterday was Mrs. Eugene C. Golden, of Oakland, Calif., who joined her husband here. Mrs. Golden will spend an indefinite time in the city.

Departing Miss Is Honored at Shower

Miss Jean Ferguson, who is leaving today for Portland, was complimented Thursday evening with a handkerchief shower arranged by Mrs. Katherine Hutness and Mrs. Moore Hamilton.

Cards and informal visiting took up a large part of the evening, with Mrs. Ernest Rostel presiding at the buffet table. Miss Ferguson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Ferguson, is leaving to make her home in the northern city, and her absence will be greatly regretted by her many friends here.

Guests for the evening were Mesdames Lee Bussey, Frances Bare, Herb Grey, Herb Brown, Eino Hemmilla, Myrtle Blakeley, Ernest Rostel, E. C. Ferguson and the Misses Lois and Alta Lindsey, Audrey Van, Bernice Sears, Mary Jane Beebe, Edith Sage, Geraldine Latham, Audrey Lofland, Barbara Schmidt and the honor guest.

Luncheon Honors Officers of Club

Mrs. C. L. Hopkins, supervisor and Mrs. Jerry Barr, president, were honored by Chi Delta chapter, Delphian, at a no-hostess luncheon which followed the bi-weekly meeting Friday morning at the Girls' Community club room.

Before the luncheon, Mrs. Al Hagen presented a brief talk and presented the honorees with corsages of Tom Thumb roses. Arrangements were in charge of Mrs. J. A. Walsh, Mrs. H. M. Welshaar and Mrs. Al Hagen.

Program Planned For Council Meeting

Mrs. E. M. Drysdale will be hostess to the city council, P. T. A., at her home, 1123 West Main street, entertaining with a one o'clock luncheon Tuesday afternoon. All members are requested to be prompt.

On the program will be Mrs. I. E. Schuler, who will speak on the "summer round-up" and Dr. L. D. Inskip will discuss immunization and vaccination. An open period of discussion and questions on Dr. Inskip's topic will follow his paper.

Jackson school members will act as hostesses for the afternoon.
