ETHIOPIANS DESERT ADDIS ABABA

News Behind The News
 By PAUL MALLON.
 (Copyright, 1936, by Paul Mallon)
 WASHINGTON, April 20.—A congressional authority is digging up data of rumor factories. He intends to have one of the congressional investigating committees look into the matter. Also it would not be surprising if he gets some help from the justice department soon.

His advance information indicates there are no fewer than three or four organizations which will start a malicious rumor over the country for you at a price. Two of these outfits are said to maintain respectable fronts. They were originally organized for merchandising purposes and got into rumor mongering as a sideline.

One of the groups is supposed to have started that malicious whisper about a certain brand of cigarettes some months back. Their latest products are fantastic whistpers that there was something wrong about the deaths of Governor Ritchie, James M. Beck and one or two other prominent opponents of the New Deal who have died recently. They seem to have avoided President Roosevelt as a subject the last few months.

Proof against them is very hard to get, but there are now inner indications that they will not be in business long.

To show you how foolishly people follow rumors:
 The securities and exchange commission now is pursuing a financial bureau and 14 co-defendants for hiring agents to go around the country circulating rumors about a certain stock. The agents received $10 to $25 per 100 shares to make a market for the stock merely with whispers. They went to different cities and spread what a good thing it was. Quillible persons increased the daily volume of purchases six times over and drove the price up 50 per cent so the big shots could get out at a profit.

At least this is the government side of the story, and it has been done before.

Business men seem to know more about politics now than they did before and during the depression. More of them seem to have an understandable knowledge of practical prospects.

For instance, one of the top-notchers, who cannot be quoted, has this practical slant on the political outlook:
 If business fights hard, Mr. Roosevelt can be beaten, but if it temporizes, he will win.

With some improvement in business and some modification of extreme New Deal policies, this business man, as an anti-New Dealer, starts that his punches and lose interest.

A new kind of model campaign speech is that of Senator Logan, entitled "Why Kentucky is for the new deal."

It was inserted in the Congressional Record.

FOREIGNERS CAMP WITHIN LEGATIONS AS ITALIANS NEAR

Capital City Virtually Deserted — Defenders Plan Retreat to Hills—Bandits Ready to Pillage Town

(Copyright 1936, by United Press)
 ADDIS ABABA, April 20.—(UP)—Emperor Haile Selassie's capital, sprawling under groves of dripping eucalyptus trees, was a scene of wild confusion tonight with Italian flying columns reported moving swiftly towards occupation of the city.

Copyright, 1936, by Associated Press.
 ADDIS ABABA, April 20.—Rumors that Italian troops were nearing Addis Ababa precipitated a rush of natives from Ethiopia's capital today, but most of the foreigners encamped in the big yards of the legations.

The city was virtually deserted, with only the government offices, the post office, the customs house and the bank among the few establishments carrying on activities.

The British legation was best equipped for defense, and was besieged by hundreds of persons of many races, calling for protection.

Captain Del Valle, a Cuban attached to the Ethiopian army in the north, who reached the capital yesterday in a torn, begrimed uniform, declared:

"If the Italians take the capital, it does not mean the end. We'll fall back to the hills and fight as long as the emperor remains in the field."

All able-bodied men, even those working for Europeans, were formerly exempted from service, were declared under compulsion to help defend the empire.

STEVENS, FALLEN BOTH IMPROVING

Hope that Tim Fallen and Claude Stevens, Medford men injured in an auto crash north of Central Point on the Pacific highway Saturday afternoon, would completely recover was held out today by the attending physician. Both men were improved, both a good thing in the 36 hours since the crash. He is suffering from a fractured skull and severe internal injuries, but has rallied so strongly since the smash up that the physician said, "It is highly probable that he will recover."

Stevens, who received a fractured pelvis and broken vertebrae as well as lacerations, recovered consciousness soon after being admitted to the Community hospital, and was resting as well as could be expected this afternoon. The physician stated that he would be confined to his bed for a long period but would very probably recover fully.

The two men were injured when their light Willys sedan crashed into a trailer filled with racing dogs, and turned over three times.

POSSES CLOSE ON HOYLMAN'S TRAIL AT PATRICK CREEK

GRANTS PASS, April 20.—(AP)—A man believed to be Raleigh Hoylman, fugitive from Medford, where he escaped jail, was seen at 3 a. m. yesterday at Patrick Creek, Calif., reports from state police said today.

It was reported a cook saw Hoylman when he went outside to empty some garbage and flashed his light on the man.

A concentrated hunt for Raleigh Hoylman, fugitive adjudged habitual criminal, facing life imprisonment, by a posse of 100 men was underway today in the wilds of Josephine county near the California state line. Authorities regarded his capture as "reasonably certain," and he has been trailed to one definite area. Every road, trail, and cabin in the district is under guard.

PREDICT ARREST 'REAL KIDNAPERS' IN NEAR FUTURE

Chicago Lawyer Claims Lindbergh Ransom Cache Found—Solution of Case Near—Number in Plot

CHICAGO, April 20.—(AP)—Arrest of the "real kidnapers" of the Lindbergh baby "within several weeks at the most" was predicted today by Bernard J. Finnigan, young Chicago lawyer, who said he was taking part in Governor Harold G. Hoffman's investigation of the case.

After flying home from the east Sunday with a claim to discovery of a hidden cache of $5000 of the kidnap "ransom money," Finnigan declared "solution" of the case "may be only a few hours away."

"Any one of several expected breaks may precipitate the case at any moment," he said in an interview.

Finnigan asserted Gov. Hoffman of New Jersey now has evidence showing that Bruno Richard Hauptmann, executed for the child's death, was "a positively innocent man."

"A number of other people" were the kidnap plotters, the lawyer added, explaining he "couldn't say why" he thought so "without saying too much."

Finnigan said he "could not say" whether the "real kidnapers" were underworld characters, or what their motive was.

He insisted, however, that the "ransom money" he said he uncovered in "New York state" with the aid of a client, Stephen Spitz, would "unquestionably" lead to a clean-up of the case.

Spitz, a former convict who left jail here to seek the money, said he had "bought" it in Trenton, N. J., for 40 cents on the dollar, Finnigan said. It was "available" to Hoffman. He said "a lot more" ransom bills "will be produced."

Due to Josephine county cases requiring more time than anticipated, Circuit Judge Harry D. Norton will not return here before the middle of the week. A circuit court session was scheduled to open here this morning.

Harvey Wilson, charged with receiving stolen goods, 500 pounds of cheese belonging to the Eagle Point cheese plant, scheduled to appear for trial, on return of the judge from Grants Pass, will be the first case heard.

Sentencing of Boyd Hamilton, Applegate district resident, convicted of larceny of livestock, is also due the coming week. Hamilton still maintains his innocence, despite the jury's verdict. It is understood friends will seek clemency.

Roy I. Brown, charged with polygamy, is also scheduled to appear for sentence. Brown married a Central Point district woman before he had obtained the final divorce decree from his first wife in the Washington state courts, it is alleged.

Earlier Easter Boosts Demands For Advertising

CHICAGO, April 20.—(AP)—Aided somewhat by the fact that Easter came earlier this year than last, retail advertising in newspapers of 65 cities during the week ended April 11 was 2.9 per cent above the corresponding week of 1935, Advertising Age reported today.

For the year to date retail advertising was 1.8 per cent ahead of the corresponding period of 1935, Advertising Age reported. In the 65 cities the total to date was 234,346,131 lines.

BABY BUGGY FIREBUG TRIES HAND AGAIN IN NEW YORK TENEMENTS

NEW YORK, April 20.—(UP)—The "baby buggy" firebug is on the loose again and last night detectives and fire marshals filtered through the tenement districts of the Bronx watching for the pyromaniac who set fire to six crowded apartment houses early today.

The firebug's technique is to shove a lighted newspaper into a baby carriage inevitably found under the stairways of old fashioned "walk ups." The flames eat rapidly into the flimsy perambulators and leap up the stair wells, many of which have wooden stair rails with multiple coats of inflammable paint applied through the years.

It was shortly before 3 a. m. when a tenant in the four story tenement in the Morrisania district smelled smoke. Under the stairway was a flaming baby carriage. But by the time he sent in an alarm, the flames were shooting up the stair well.

While firemen fought the blaze, which burned through the roof, other fires were discovered in the near neighborhood.

ELKS '49 FROLIC IS HUGE SUCCESS

Over 100 of those present were rigged out in old-time costumes, adding much to the color of the occasion.

JOHNSTOWN, Pa., April 20.—(AP)—The second Allegheny mountain air tragedy in a fortnight marked up as victims today Frederick H. Harvey, 45, city business executive, and his wife.

The 41-year-old vice president of the Harvey railway eating house system and Mrs. Elizabeth Harvey, 31, died yesterday in the flaming wreckage of their airplane on a rocky hill-top 15 miles from Johnstown.

Sixty miles to the southeast, near Uniontown, the big air transport Sun Racer fell in the mountains April 7 and took the lives of 10 passengers and two pilots.

HEARING ON FEHL HABEAS CORPUS IS SLATED SATURDAY

Petition Filed by Wife of Former Jackson County Judge Is Set for Argument Before Salem Court

SALEM, April 20.—(AP)—Circuit Judge L. H. McMahan today set Saturday morning at 10 o'clock as the time for hearing of arguments in habeas corpus proceedings filed to secure the release of Earl H. Fehl from the state penitentiary.

The petition was filed late Saturday by Fehl's wife, Electa A. Fehl, in an attempt to secure the prisoner's outright release after he had refused a conditional parole offered by Governor Martin.

Fehl's attorneys contended that Oregon's statutes on paroles have so interpreted that his release was a matter of right. A general opinion by the attorney recent held that a prisoner, upon serving his minimum term with time off for good behavior, was entitled to release only through parole.

Fehl, former Jackson county judge sentenced to a four-year term for bailot theft, completed his minimum sentence of 33 months last Wednesday.

The parole, proffered by Governor Martin, stipulated that Fehl should not return to Jackson county.

CHAMBER BANQUET SPEAKER IS HERE

Dr. Henry J. Berkowitz, rabbi of Congregation Beth Israel in Portland, arrived here this morning to rest for two days preparatory to giving the principal address at the annual banquet of the Jackson County Chamber of Commerce in the Hotel Medford at 6:30 tomorrow evening.

Dr. Berkowitz was met and escorted to the Hotel Medford, where he registered, by M. N. Hogan and Bert Nollitt. His two hosts then took him out to the country for a day of leisurely fishing.

It is expected that more than 300 persons will attend the banquet. Reservations must be made not later than 10 o'clock tomorrow morning, it was announced. Dr. Berkowitz will speak on "A United Community."

END OF PARTIES TOWNSEND'S AIM

WILMINGTON, Del., April 20.—(AP)—Dr. Francis E. Townsend, originator of the Townsend old age pension plan, says one of the major aims of his organization is to end both the major political parties.

"Vote this administration out," he urged in an address here yesterday, "then vote the next administration out, until we get enough strength to put our plan into effect."

Dr. Townsend predicted the November elections would place his organization in control of the house of representatives. He outlined the pension proposal and declared it could be financed as easily as the present relief program.
