The sale of 550 tons of Bartlett pears—the last large block remaining in the Rogue river valley—to the Star Fruit and Products company of Portland, was announced today by their local representative, Court Hall. The Bartlett crop of the Frink orchard, in the Central Point district. The price was held 'confidential'. The prevailing canner prices are $27.50 for No. 1 grade, and $25 for secondary grades.

The Frink crop is regarded as choice, as the pears are long and thin, making them adaptable for choice canning grades.

Betrothal of Miss Blanche Runels to Ray Frisbie Told

The betrothal of Miss Blanche Runels, daughter of Phillip Runels, of Santa Maria, Calif., to Ray E. Frisbie, son of Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Frisbie, of Stockton, Calif., was announced Monday. Both Miss Runels and Mr. Frisbie are well known in the valley, and the announcement has created much interest among their many friends.

Miss Runels has been associated prominently with health work in the city and valley, being supervisor of Jackson county public health nurses. She has resided in Medford for the past five years, and is a graduate of the University of Oregon school of social service in Portland and has also studied in San Francisco.

Mr. Frisbie came to Medford from Albany about six years ago and is associated with the Union Oil company here.

Date of the wedding will be announced later.

Mrs. Banish Will Join Husband in North

Mrs. J. P. Banish and daughter Carol, are leaving Saturday morning for Pitt Station, Alaska, where Mrs. Banish will join her husband, who has been teaching in the north for the past two years.

Mrs. Banish and her daughter will go first to Portland, sailing for Alaska about September 1. They are at present guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. I. E. Schuler, where they will remain until their departure.

Owens Back After Vacation Motor Trip

Returning to their home here yesterday were Major and Mrs. G. E. Owens, who, with their son and daughter, Raymond and Dawn Elizabeth, have spent the past three weeks on a motor trip in the north.

The Owens went first to Mt. Rainier and Seattle, Wash., continuing north from there to Vancouver, and Victoria, B. C., stopping at numerous other Canadian cities. Returning south, they spent some time at Astoria and Seaside and other coast resorts before continuing home.

Missouri Guest Visiting Sister

An interesting visitor in the Rogue River valley is Miss May Belle Holden who arrived in Medford last week from Joplin, Mo., to spend the remainder of the summer at the house guest of her sister, Mrs. Roy Gill.

Curtis-Groening Rites Performed

Miss Lucille Curtis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Curtis, became the bride of Rhinehard Groening, of Klamath Falls, in a quiet ceremony at 6 o'clock last Sunday evening. The ceremony was performed at the home of the bride's parents, with Rev. Joseph Knotts reading the service.

The bride was attended by Miss Claudia Constable and Hoke Curtis, brother of the bride, acted as best man. The bride wore navy taffeta with white accessories and carried Cecil Bruner and Tallman roses.

Guests were intimate friends and close relatives of the bride and groom. Miss Genevieve Brown played wedding music on the piano.

An informal buffet supper for the young couple followed the ceremony, bride and groom then leaving for a week's honeymoon. They will make their home in Klamath Falls.

Miss Curtis is well known here, and has received the best wishes of a large group of friends in the valley.

Vacation Jaunts Entertain Visitors

The numerous vacation spots in southern Oregon and Medford vicinity provide an endless source of entertainment for house guests of valley residents, hosts of summer visitors finding jaunts to the various resorts much appreciated by their guests.

Miss Caroline Schiebler, of Los Angeles, is among the many being so entertained. Miss Schiebler arrived from the south Monday morning, and is the house guest of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Hanby. She is also spending some time at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Isaacson, of Central Point, and other valley friends.

Miss Schiebler will be the guest of the Isaacsons at Crater Lake, while the Hanbys are planning a trip to Oregon Caves for the visitor, when they will be accompanied by Mrs. C. E. Huling, of Marshfield, who is a guest of the Hanbys and of Judge and Mrs. Glenn Taylor.

Miss Schiebler will leave for her home in the south early next week.

Visitor Praised Oregon Scenery

Enthusiastic praise of the beauties of southern Oregon scenery has been voiced by Mrs. Alice Duley, who will leave by train this evening for her home in Los Angeles, Calif., after spending the past month in Medford.

While here, Mrs. Duley was the guest of her sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Frank DeSouza, and her hosts arranged a number of short trips to the various lake and mountain resorts which make south-

Gloria Stuart Coming to Rialto

Cold-blooded murder for the sake of a guilty love—or an act of compassion beyond the law? These are the questions local theater-goers will have an opportunity to sit in judgment on when they see "The Crime of Doctor Forbes," which plays at the Rialto theater tomorrow and Friday. Was this man a humanitarian or a murderer for putting to sleep by an act of kindness a man who had hours of torture ahead on the death bed.

Gloria Stuart and Robert Kent, as Doctor Forbes, are shown above in a love scene from the picture, Henry Armetta, J. Edward Bromberg, Sara Haden and Alan Dinehart are also in the cast.

ern Oregon a mecca for vacationists. En route home, Mrs. Duley will stop at Fresno, Calif., where she will be the guest of her daughter, Mrs. Neil Hees.

Miss Mary Vilas Vacations at Camp

Little Miss Mary Vilas, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Vilas, of Shanghai, China, arrived by plane last week-end from San Francisco to accompany Susan Vilas, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ned Vilas, in a week's stay at the Girl Scout camp at Lake of the Woods.

Mrs. George Vilas arrived in San Francisco from the Orient a few weeks ago, and will be joined by her husband in September. They are expected to visit here sometime during the fall. Both are well known in the valley and friends here anticipate their visit.

Miss Mary Vilas will return south early next week.

Visitors Leave After Stop Here

Recent visitors in Medford were Mr. and Mrs. Tom Finch, of Hoquiam, Wa., who left for the south yesterday by motor after spending the early part of the week as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Nichols.

While here, the visitors made trips to Crater Lake and Oregon Caves. They will go to Napa, Calif., for a vacation visit with relatives and friends.

BORAH, ROBINSON TAKE LEAD OVER TOWNSEND PAIR

were swept today by mounting Idaho pluralities toward a general election clash over the senate seat Borah has held three decades.

The 71-year-old dean of the United States senate ran up an apparently overwhelming lead in his race with Townsend-backed Byron Diefenbach, former gubernatorial candidate and state treasurer.

Diefenbach trailed with 7945 votes to Borah's 26,593 in returns from 498 of the state's 850 precincts. One Townsend-endorsed congressional candidate also lagged. Another was unopposed.

In 483 precincts Ross, the only governor to serve three terms, polled 19,881 votes to 15,745 for Carver.

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., Aug. 12.—(AP)—Slowly accumulating returns from Tuesday's Democratic primary boosted the majority of Senator Joe T. Robinson over two opponents today.

A tabulation of votes from 1340 out of 2156 precincts gave the veteran senate majority leader 80,783. Cleveland Holland, Townsend plan advocate, 19,608 and J. Rosser Venable, Little Rock, 11,825.

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., Aug. 12.—

(AP)—Charles C. Andrews of Orlando, Townsend pension advocate, won today the Democratic nomination for the post of the late U. S. Senator Park Trammell.

Nearly complete unofficial returns gave him a lead of approximately 3000 votes over former Governor Doyle E. Carlton, who conceded defeat.

NASHVILLE, Tenn., Aug. 12.—(AP)—A margin of 13 votes brought victory today to Richard M. Atkinson, 42-year-old Nashville attorney, in his primary race for the congressional seat held by the late Speaker Joseph W. Byrns for almost three decades.

The official count, completed last night, gave Atkinson 14,144 votes to 14,131 for Will T. Check, retired business man.

Atkinson had the support of the Townsend plan organization.

PRISONER USES HEAD IN ESCAPING POLICE AFTER LOCAL BRAWL

As Jones fled, Sloniker called to Peck, who as he approached was also butted in the abdomen, and Jones continued his flight.

The district attorney reported the city police "warily restrained" from firing any shots in an effort to stop the fugitive.

The complaint was sworn to by Officer Ray Sloniker.

Electric Fence Protects Crops

WILLIAMS CREEK, Aug. 12.—(Spl.) Arel Blodgett has protected his crops this summer with an unusual fence, which consists of a single barbed wire fastened to posts with insulators and charged with a slight electric current, generated by a small overshot waterwheel. It has proved very successful against both horses and dairy herds for both grain fields and garden, as one touch of the wire seems to be all they care to encounter.
