Democracy Out of Picture When Uprising Finally Quelled Is Expert Opinion; Revolutionary Trend Cited

(Editor's Note: With a communist or fascist dictatorship the probable outcome of the civil war in Spain furnishes another example of the violent changes in the type of European governments since the World war. Dewitt MacKenzie, who for more than 20 years covered foreign fields for the Associated Press, describes how these changes have taken power away from the people.)

"What a Money-Saver Dodge Is!"

By MRS. MARY RANSON SMITH, Felham, New York.

I'm delighted with our new Dodge. In the first place it's such a gorgeous-looking car, I doubt whether we could find greater riding comfort in any other car...

...It handles like a dream...so easy to steer and shift gears—and the brakes are marvelous...and what a money-saver it is...

We haven't had to add any oil between regular changes... What's more, our Dodge is giving us at least 7 more miles to the gallon of gas than our old car. No wonder they call it the Money-Saving Dodge!

DROUGHT HATCHES QUEER PROPOSALS FOR RAIN MAKING

Fleet of Balloons or Airplanes to Carry Water From Great Lakes to Parched Area One Suggestion

WASHINGTON, Aug. 13.—(AP)—The drought has caused a flood in Washington—a deluge of suggestions for "making it rain."
Piled on a desk at the weather bureau today were a hundred letters. Each contained some scheme for moistening the parched areas. They were received by the President, Secretary Wallace and the weather bureau.

Phoenix

PHOENIX, Aug. 13.—(Spl.)—Mr. and Mrs. Charles McTavish and daughter of Oakland, Calif., called on several friends in Phoenix last Saturday. Mr. McTavish left here approximately 35 years ago; his father having built the present Noah Chandler place. This was his first trip back to the scene of his childhood and many pleasant memories were shared with the friends he visited, who included Mrs. Lily Blackwood, Mrs. Lillian Coleman, Lloyd Colver and H. W. Reames.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Force and two daughters, formerly of Gold Hill, now reside in the Malgreen apartments on First and Church streets.

Miss Irene Steadman returned Saturday from Chiloquin where she spent a week's vacation with Mr. and Mrs. Riley Nyawaner.

The two local packing houses are now in operation with a good run anticipated by both.

Miss Elva Caster will be hostess to her Sunday school classmates at a lawn party at her home Thursday evening.

Mrs. Leo Purry returned Sunday evening from a short visit in Tacoma, Wash.

Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Reedy have established their home at the Purry residence on Third street. Mr. Reedy was appointed to succeed Mr. Whitman as professor of the Phoenix schools. The community extends them a hearty welcome.

Mrs. Ben Compher and Mrs. Bob Watterman entertained at a delightful chicken dinner Friday of last week at the home of Mrs. Watterman in West Phoenix.

Full Villa Carpenter, McMinnville, Ore., Aug. 13.—(AP)—Lem King, 63, carpenter and painter, fell 35 feet to his death while he was shingling a barn on the McMinnville-Dayton road.

and Miss Helen Hughes are leaving for Glendale, Cal., today.
Miss Wanda Coe of Medford visited with her father Sunday.

Tolo

TOLO, Aug. 13.—(Spl.)—Miss Marjorie Davis returned to her home here recently after a two week's visit with friends at Klamath Falls. Miss Leona Kiefer and Maynard Mills came over with her. They were overnight guests at the Davis home and returned to Klamath Falls.

Mrs. T. A. Muse, sons Al and Glen, and daughter Mary, with Mr. and Mrs. George Wright and C. A. Thorpe and family, made the trip to Crater Lake August 6. They took pictures and fed the bears, but said the time went entirely too fast.

Word from Tracy, oldest son of Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Muse, says he is confined in the hospital at Fort Douglas, Utah. He had his shoulder dislocated while wrestling and has suffered intensely ever since. His greatest regret is to be unable to go with his company on a long march and target practice.

Mrs. J. F. Krueger and daughters, Wanda and Margaret, visitors here from Wellington, Kansas, were honor guests at dinner Sunday at the C. E. Lofftus home. Other guests were Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Green, parents of Mrs. Krueger, also Mr. and Mrs. P. G. Tracy and daughters, Arlene and Ernestine.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Miller of Gold Ray made a trip to Lake of the Woods Sunday to take their daughter Catherine for the girl scouts ten-day encampment there. Mr. and Mrs. Miller and son Jimmie returned home that night.

Mr. and Mrs. Vaughn Beer and Betty have moved to Medford. Mr. Beer, who was operator at the electric power plant at Gold Ray, will be with the metre department for Copco. They will be sorely missed as Mr. Beer was a member of the school board here and all were willing and active workers in the school circle.

Ray Ward, who will take Mr. Beer's place at Gold Ray, moved in Monday with Mrs. Ward and little daughter.

Mr. and Mrs. Ross Linsion and small son, Joe, have moved to Medford. Mrs. Linsion was Alvin Jones and is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Jones. Her brother, Morgan, is spending this week with them.

Miss Arlene Inman will stay with the Linsions while packing lasts at Seobel & Day's.
