

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

On Vacation—John Redden, civilian clerk at Medford CCG headquarters, is spending a week's vacation in Crescent City, Cal.

Goes North Today—Mrs. R. E. Whitney, Jr., of Long Beach, Cal., who has been visiting in Medford, left this morning by train for Albany.

At Lake Resort—Karl L. Janouch, supervisor of the Rogue River national forest and H. C. Obye, assistant supervisor, spent yesterday at Lake of the Woods.

Grass Fire—Fire department's chemical crew was called yesterday afternoon to put out a grass fire in a vacant lot at McAndrews road and Broad street. No damage was done.

Attend Bank Meet—Richard Strauss, Gold Hill and S. S. Abbott of Central Point were passengers on today's Shasta, en route to Spokane, Wash. They are to attend a meeting of the federal land bank in that city.

Alford at Prospect—Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Alford of Medford and their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Herb Alford of Portland, are spending this week vacationing at Prospect. The Herb Alford formerly resided here.

Motor to Eugene—Mrs. Maud Ender and Mrs. M. W. Clemenson motored to Eugene Saturday where they were guests of Miss Mary Snider and Mr. and Mrs. Larry Clemenson. They enjoyed a picnic celebrating Larry's birthday anniversary.

Hotels Vacating—Mr. and Mrs. Bert Rostel, who recently sold their interest in the Broadway Groceries at Yreka to Cliff Jackson, are vacationing at coast resorts and in Portland. They left here by motor Thursday afternoon.

Roof Work Starts—A large truckload of Washington cut sandstone arrived this morning for the new wall to be constructed atop the federal building. The crumbling pillar wall is to be replaced by the solid sandstone slabs. William Grenbemer of Ashland is the contractor.

View Siskiyou Route—On a recreational trip Saturday, two truckloads of CCC boys from Camp Prescott journeyed to the new Siskiyou highway, which is now under construction. En route back to Medford the enrollees, most of whom are from the eastern states, spent some time at Lithia park in Ashland.

Utilize Airport—Arrivals at Medford municipal airport yesterday included Lieut. L. S. Straubel, en route from Fort Lewis, Wash., to Oakland, Cal., in a Fokker transport; Lieut. L. J. Halvorsen, en route from Fort Lewis to Hamilton field, Cal., in a Douglas observation plane; H. B. Hanson, en route from California, Cal., to Seattle, Wash., in a Waco cabin ship; Roy Cusick, who came from Visalia, Cal., in his Travelair to spend a week with friends here; and Cal Callahan, en route from Visalia to Seattle in a Travelair. Mr. Callahan remained here overnight, continuing north this morning.

Portland Wheat

PORTLAND, Aug. 17.—(AP)—After showing weakness the entire wheat market turned strong today. On the Portland futures market with sale of 1000 bushels, September closed with an advance of 1 1/2c, while December with no trading was up 1c and May gained 1/4c bushel. On the sample cash market local wheat advanced 2c bushel.

Table with columns: Wheat, Open, High, Low, Close. Rows for May, Sept, Dec, Cash wheat, Barley, Corn, Argentine, Millrun, Barley.

Chicago Wheat

CHICAGO, Aug. 17.—(AP)—With almost 10,000 bushels of corn needed in Chicago to meet September delivery contracts and little on hand here, corn prices shot skyward today.

Execution of stop loss orders to buy corn became a feature, as crop deterioration reports flooded in, especially from the southwest and west on account of intensified drought. Highest prices in more than 10 years were a result.

After a maximum rise of four cents a bushel, corn closed buoyant at the day's top level, three cents to four cents above Saturday's finish, Sept., $1.11 1/2-1.12; Dec., 98 1/2-99 1/2.

Table with columns: Wheat, Open, High, Low, Close. Rows for Sept, Dec, May, Corn.

Gentner Girl Now Out of Danger Is Doctor's Report

Police that she had just passed another car and was slowing to normal driving speed when the machine hit a rough spot on the highway and something seemed to break and I had no further control of the car. The machine was brought to Medford by a wrecker, Miss Mitchell was back at work today.

At 3:00 a. m. Sunday a Ford coach driven by Raymond Clinkinbeard of Hillsborough, Cal., crashed into the rear of a Plymouth sedan driven by Roy Watkins of Central Point, on the Midway road north of the airport road intersection. The Watkins machine was knocked onto its side, but no one was injured in the crash. The two cars were damaged, although not greatly.

Cars driven by Foster Thompson of Ashland and A. L. Curry of Jacksonville collided north of Eagle Point on the Crater Lake highway before midnight Saturday. Thompson's Chevrolet receiving considerable damage to the front end, and Curry's Oldsmobile coupe turning turtle into the ditch. Reports state that no one was injured.

Augustus P. Mouglin of Algoma, near Klamath Falls, driving a heavy Studebaker sedan on the Crater Lake highway five miles north of Union Creek, crashed and badly damaged the car, and injured a woman passenger. The woman was reported taken to an out-of-town hospital, but a check up today failed to disclose where she was taken or the extent of her injuries.

A Chevrolet coupe belonging to S. G. Riskey of Grants Pass, while parked near the Natatorium Saturday night, was crashed into by an unidentified auto. The Riskey car received a dented fender and a sprung wheel.

Two other motor accidents that did not involve crashes were reported. A broken spindle caused a front wheel to drop from the sedan driven by George III of Medford, five miles above Butte Falls. The fender of the car was damaged in the resultant drop, but the machine did not heel over. Charles H. Thompson, also of Medford, reported that a rear axle on his sedan had broken on the Butte Falls road, and the wheel dropped off inflicting minor damage to the car.

The Lewis Super-service garage alone totaled in eight casualties over the week-end.

Barbara Stanwyck Delights Audience In Craterian Film

Sparking with a highly individual brand of humor, "The Bride Walks Out" scored a laugh hit at the Craterian theater yesterday.

Barbara Stanwyck, heretofore known for dramatic performances, surprised by revealing herself as a comedienne of exceptional ability, and swags laughs and cracking repartee on even terms with such merrill-makers as Gene Raymond and Robert Young, her rival leading men, and Ned Sparks and Helen Broderick.

"The Bride Walks Out" is a light-hearted, gay story of love on a budget. It deals with the futile efforts of a newly-married pair to get along on the surveyor-husband's $35 a week. Miss Stanwyck and Raymond are the newlyweds. Young is a giddy playboy with an embarrassing devotion to the bride, and Sparks and Miss Broderick are an acid-tongued married pair who have a sour outlook on matrimony.

The interwoven conflicts that go on among this group, along with external disturbances supplied by Billy Gilbert as an installment collector, Hattie McDaniels as a colored maid and various purgative policemen who are always dragging Raymond off to the housewife for one reason or another, comprise the plot of the picture—and from a laugh standpoint it's a knockout.

Walt Disney's famous cartoon character, Mickey Mouse, stars in honor on the bill, appearing in "Mickey's Rival," in which Disney introduces a new character—Mortimer Mouse—bringing the triangle into Mickey's romance with Minnie.

Dramatic Film On Rialto Screen

Humphrey Bogart and Beverly Roberts are co-featured at the Rialto theatre tomorrow and Wednesday in "Two Against the World," the shocking drama of a fatal kiss which killed a mother and father and almost wrecked the life of their daughter.

Bogart, of "Petrified Forest" fame, again has a role where death is concerned. Others in the cast are Henry O'Neill, Claire Dodd and Hobart Caynaugh.

Buckingham Home May Be Sold For Commercial Use

LONDON (UP)—Buckingham Palace, home of England's kings and queens for many years, may be sold as a building site for $15,000,000.

Valuers have surveyed the palace and its 40 acres of grounds, and, if it is decided to sell, part of the latter will be preserved as a public pleasure ground. It is understood a London syndicate is interested in the scheme.

Owing to the changing character of the neighborhood, the possibility of giving up the palace as a royal residence first was considered by the late King George. He announced that he was prepared to the sale of the site for building purposes.

It is well known that King Edward was settled down to regular living at this time while those that have grown weary of each other and desire a change are "still childish."

Married couples who have "grown up" according to Dr. Lindeman, have settled down to regular living at this time while those that have grown weary of each other and desire a change are "still childish."

Stukel Mountain Fire Controlled

KLAMATH FALLS, Aug. 17.—(AP)—Although technically under control, the Stukel mountain fire continued today to receive the attention of a considerable force of men, ready to resist the advances of the blaze in the vicinity of ranch property.

Fifty men were sent from Camp Klamath, of the CCC, to work the Fox valley side of the fire. Several dry land ranches lie on the slopes of the ridges on that side, and will be in danger if the wind sweeps the fire in that direction.

The Stukel fire continued to run over grass and brush-covered areas Sunday, but was held within bounds. This fire started from a farmer's activities in burning brush and weeds on his land, according to officers. The farmer, Wayne Barry, pleaded guilty in justice court to permitting a fire to escape, and will be sentenced some time today.

Ancient Human Bones May Shed Light Upon Early North Citizens

DUTCH HARBOR, Alaska, Aug. 17.—(AP)—Dr. Alex Hrdlicka, physical anthropology curator for the Smithsonian Institution, was en route south today with a collection of prehistoric human bones, which he said may indicate two types of ancient culture settled the neck of Alaska which nearly joins Asia with the new world.

He dug them despite the handicaps of Bering Sea winds and fogs, along the chain of islands from Kodiak to Attu and said he found two distinctly different burial customs.

In some cases, he said, the ancient peoples buried their dead in their villages; in others, the skeletons were found, far from the village ruins, in crevices of rock.

He sought to ascertain if a different and higher culture preceded the ancestors of today's Aleut Indians. Scientists state they believe such was the case on Kodiak east of here.

He sought to determine what diseases carried off these mysterious "first settlers."

He sought to determine if the islands, and the North American mainland was settled by waves of immigration, from Asia via the Aleutian stepping stones.

The bones, he believes, may help him to solve these puzzles.

Ban on Bank Night Faces Court Fight in Marion County

SALEM, Aug. 17.—(AP)—Suit probably will be filed in circuit court here late today to prevent Sheriff A. C. Burk from closing theater bank night operations in Marion county.

A complaint was prepared in San Francisco and brought here today by J. W. Ehrlich, San Francisco, and L. R. Boch, Denver, attorneys for the bank night operators. The lawyers later for Ocean lake on the coast to confer with Ralph E. Moody, special gambling prosecutor for the county.

The theater owners took action after Moody issued an order directing the sheriff to eliminate all marble boards, pin ball games and bank nights. A temporary restraining order left the games free to operate until a hearing could be held in September.

Moody later countermanded his order closing the bank nights until the expected suit could be filed. The complaint will hold that the bank nights do not constitute a lottery.

Robert Frye, Victim of Auto Accident, to Be Buried in Medford

Funeral services for Robert Dale Frye will be held at the Conger chapel at 2 p. m., Wednesday with Rev. Wire, of Ashland, officiating. Interment will be in the Siskiyou Memorial Park.

KLAMATH FALLS, Aug. 17.—(Sp.)—Hurled through the top of his automobile as it careened down a bluff-like embankment, Robert Frye, manager of a motor truck freight line here, was killed Sunday night near Dorris, 20 miles southwest of here. The wrecked car with the body hanging on the car's top was not discovered until this morning, when two children came upon it.

Frye had come to Dorris on business last night and left there about 9:30 o'clock. A farmer living near the scene of the accident said he heard a crash about that time. Tracks showed that the machine plunged along for some distance off the road before it took a 45-degree turn and tumbled down the steep embankment, coming to rest about 100 feet from the road.

Frye was a son-in-law of Marion Barnes, sergeant of state police, in this district.

His brother, also engaged in the truck transportation business, was killed at Anderson, Cal., a few months ago when his truck burned.

Portland Produce

PORTLAND, Aug. 17.—(AP)—While there was no change in the price on extras during the late crop, butter trade on the produce exchange today, the loss of 1c each by standard and prime first indicated a generally easier feeling.

Desire for greater profit on cold storage or standard large eggs brought about an advance of 1c effective for the week's opening session.
