COUNTY BRIEFS

Reese Creek

REESE CREEK, Aug. 19.—(Spl.)—Sunday school and church services were well attended Aug. 16. There was no Young people's meeting in the evening as they gave the time to A. J. Anderson, missionary of Central America, who brought a most wonderful message. He will have charge of services Sunday evening, Aug. 23. Everyone is invited.

Mr. Anderson is on furlough and is accompanyied by his wife and two little daughters, Virginia and Lenora. He is working in the Central American Bible Institute in Guatemala City under auspices of the Central American mission. He gave a splendid outline of the religious situation in Central America in general.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Braack have taken out adoption papers for Frances and Lois Maranet and wish it known that they will be known as Frances and Lois Braack.

Bobby Albert is spending a few days with Eldred Jack this week.

Priscilla Cox spent the past week visiting Alice Bilderback in Medford.

Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Watson of Pacific Grove, Calif., Mr. and Mrs. L. Rittenhouse of Santa Cruz, Calif., close friend of the family arrived Aug. 10 for a two weeks' vacation visiting relatives and friends. Mr. and Mrs. Watson were residents of the Butte Falls community years ago. They visited Mr. and Mrs. Edward Cowden and son Robert, the two ladies being sisters. Then they motored to Butte Falls where they visited Mrs. Ella Smith, Mrs. Watson's mother. Wednesday evening they all came back bringing Mrs. Smith to Mr. Cowdens, then all families included called at the W. R. Lamb home and spent the evening. They and Mr. Lamb were old-time friends of thirty years ago. Mr. Cowden played the violin, he being quite an artist, having played for several months over the radio.

Many old songs were sung and many pleasant memories renewed. Mrs. Cowden played with Mr. Cowden on the piano. All left at a late hour after an evening well spent. Thursday they went to Crater lake, Diamond lake, and Klamath Falls and visited a brother and family, Mr. and Mrs. Lester Smith and sons. From there they went to Huckleberry mountain for a few days. Mrs. Watson is a bookkeeper for Automotive shop at Monterey, Calif.

Dick Leigh visited David Vestal Aug. 12.

Charles Humphrey, has the wood in the shed for the coming school year, having received the contract from the school board.

Frances Davidson of Eagle Point spent the week-end with her sister and family, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Merritt.

Mr. and Mrs. James McDowell and little daughter Marilyn were dinner guests Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred Jack and family.

Grandmother Vestal spent the past week visiting Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Pullen.

Mr. Frace, Gordon Schrader, Priscilla and Carl Cox, and Maurice, and Evelyn Jack have been picking pears at the Tessitore orchard.

Harry Powell, has accepted the position of foreman in the electrical shops at the Lava Beds, under the government park service.

Mrs. Wilfred Jack, spent the past week with Mr. Jack at the syphon, she also spent Friday visiting her niece, Mrs. Ernest Albert, of Butte Falls.

Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Jennings, of Dunsmuir, Calif., and their two granddaughters, Lois and Patsy Ruth Jennings, of Hollywood, Calif., were over night guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Lamb, Aug. 13.

Frank Strahan, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Homer Martin, and sons, Hollis and Stanley, spent Aug. 16 at Crater lake. While there they made the drive around the rim road.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Lamb called at the W. R. Lamb home Sunday evening. Friends of Robert Lamb their son will be pleased to hear that he is getting along fine at Schofield barracks in Hawaii. He writes most interesting letters home and sends such beautiful pictures of scenes over there.

Leo Rusho spent the week-end with his family on the Crater Lake highway.

Jacksonville

JACKSONVILLE, Aug. 19.—(Spl.)—Word has been received that Daniel Shuss, who left here some time ago on a visit to Idaho, has been stricken with paralysis and is quite ill there.

Axel Lungren who has spent some time in the east returned to his home here last week.

A brush fire near town Sunday made the air smoky and caused considerable speculation as to its exact location. State fire crews extinguished the blaze.

Jacksonville I. O. O. F. held its regular meeting the evening of August 15, with a good attendance.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Smith recently enjoyed a trip to Klamath Falls, where they visited relatives.

Jacksonville Grange held its regular meeting August 14, preceded by a covered dish supper.

Robert Forbes, former Jacksonville resident, while on a week-end fishing trip at Four-Mile lake was involved in an accident while boating. He received a deep gash on his chin which necessitated several stitches.

Roger Card was one of a party going to Klamath Falls Sunday and returning the same evening.

WINDOW GLASS—We sell window glass and will replace your broken windows reasonably. Trowbridge Cabinet Works.

Williams Creek

WILLIAMS CREEK, Aug. 19.—(Spl.)—The county road scraper has widened and leveled the road at the new bridge across Clapboard creek and is widening the road on the Warner hill cutting away the bank which obstructed full view ahead and making it so two trucks can pass without crowding.

Alfred Larimore and Frank Wright have completed their logging contract on Thompson creek and will now cut pine on Williams creek. Jess Spicer is hauling their logs to Spaulding's mill in Grants Pass.

The 4-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Mae Olsen was taken seriously ill Thursday and was taken to Grants Pass. Mr. Olsen, who is working at Glendale, was called home.

Miss Laura Heise, of Junction City, is visiting her aunt, Mrs. Joe Boat.

Mrs. Frank J. Miller is employed in the cannery at Ashland.
