LONDON TO CONFER WITH ROOSEVELT

News Behind The News
Copyright, 1936, by Paul Mallon
WASHINGTON, Aug. 21.—President Roosevelt scolded his diplomats completely when he decided the Spanish crisis was so critical he would have to cut short his drought trip.

His lads in charge of this end of the Spanish snow had not heard of anything going to happen in Spain between September 3 and 11 which would require Mr. Roosevelt's presence at his desk.

You would think in a situation like that they would run around and try to find out what was up, or, at least, put on their gravest faces. All they did was to sit around and laugh.

The Spanish crisis was so dire two weeks ago that State Secretary Hull decided to take a vacation. Recent developments have been so alarming that, upon the day the president made his announcement, Mr. Hull's office said the secretary planned to remain away another week, lolling in the beautiful hills of western Virginia.

Likewise, modern communications methods keep the president just about as well informed in mid-ocean, or at Hyde Park, as in the White House. Wired and wireless telephones are kept constantly open. In the Ethiopian crisis, he made his major move, in the form of the arms embargo, from a battleship in the Pacific. Earlier, he made his historic statement, breaking up the unsatisfactory London economic conference, from a yacht in the Atlantic.

Observers closest to the diplomatic inside also agree that Under-Secretary Phillips will probably handle any Spanish crisis no matter where Messrs. Roosevelt and Hull are. He has been handling it right along.

The rumors now current that the president has information indicating a general European crisis early in September, therefore, do not appear to be justified.

The way the lads at the helm size up the situation is this: Mussolini might be madman enough

TO EXPLAIN GRADING OF BOSCS TOMORROW
A demonstration of Bosco pear grading will be given at 10:30 tomorrow morning at plant 4 of the Pinnacole Packing company, it was announced today by the Rogue River Valley Trade Association. All growers and shippers are invited to attend.

The demonstration will be given by A. R. Beckman, federal fruit inspector at San Jose, Cal. He will show how Bosco grading is done in California under the No. 1 grade system which differs from that used here.

GRACE MOORE HAZY ON BREED OF HER CHICKENS
NEW YORK, Aug. 21.—(AP)—Grace Moore arrived from Europe today and said she told the King of Denmark that she got one cent a pound more for her chickens than did Maurice Chevalier who had a farm next door on the Riviera. Asked what type of chickens she owns, the opera and movie star said: "I don't know they've got little ruffles around their necks."

G. O. P. CANDIDATE WILL MEET RIVAL IN IOWA, SEPT. 1ST

Governors Iowa, Nebraska, Missouri and Oklahoma Also Invited to Parley On Drought Relief Program

OMAHA, Neb., Aug. 21.—(AP)—Gov. Alf M. Landon said today he would accept President Roosevelt's invitation to a drought conference at Des Moines, Ia., September 1.

As his train pulled out of Omaha after an overnight stop, the Republican nominee was advised of President Roosevelt's announcement. "As I said before," Landon told newsmen, "I will accept."

It will be the second meeting between Mr. Roosevelt and the Kansas-Landon attended an oil conference in Washington in 1933.

HYDE PARK, N. Y., Aug. 21.—(AP)—President Roosevelt today dispatched an invitation to Governor Landon of Kansas, Republican presidential candidate, and the governors of Iowa, Nebraska, Missouri and Oklahoma, to meet him September 1 at Des Moines for one of a series of drought conferences.

Similarly worded invitations went to 11 other governors for conferences at other points. Senators of the states concerned also were asked to attend.

The president will leave Washington about midnight next Tuesday and return to Hyde Park Saturday morning, September 5.

ALL QUIET IN PORTUGAL SAYS OFFICIAL DENIAL OF REVOLUTION REPORT
LISBON, Portugal, Aug. 21.—(AP)—Government officials tonight described reports abroad of a revolution in Portugal as "totally unfounded."

They said nothing whatsoever had occurred to justify the report.

Commander Jayme Athias, general secretary to the president, said President Oscar Carmona was "quite well and happy."

LONDON, Aug. 21.—(AP)—Reports that a revolution had broken out in Portugal and that President Oscar Carmona had been killed are unfounded, a dispatch from Lisbon declared today.

The country was quiet, according to the dispatch, which apparently had not been censored.

The earlier message from the capital also reported that a French newspaper correspondent had been arrested for sending alleged tendentious news about Portugal from the country.

Gibraltar, Paris and London made futile efforts to establish communication with the country. It had been impossible to telephone Portugal for 10 days.

The Lisbon radio station, which ordinarily broadcast frequent bulletins on the civil war in neighboring Spain, was silent throughout the night.

MOTORIST'S THROAT CUT BY HURLED MELON RIND

Mrs. J. N. Marsh of Medford is lying in the Ashland Community hospital today, her left anterior jugular vein severed and her throat laid open by flying glass, injuries received when a chunk of watermelon rind was hurled through the windshield of the car she was driving south near Talent last evening.

Police are working feverishly today in an effort to run down the several persons believed to have been riding in the attacking car. All six victims varied in their descriptions of the auto. The only thing they all agreed upon was the fact that the car was a sedan or a coach. Police have no other clues, and to date have no suspects.

Mrs. Marsh was driving south on the Pacific highway. About a mile and a half south of Talent, at about 5:30, a piece of rind was hurled at her Dodge pick-up from a speeding northbound machine. The missile hit directly in front of the driver and tore a gap 10 inches long and five inches high from the glass. Jagged bits flew directly back at Mrs. Marsh's throat but mainly missed a passenger in the pickup, Mrs. Bertie H. Cody of 832 West Twelfth street, Medford.

With blood spouting from her torn throat, the wounded woman managed to bring the car to a halt at the side of the road without crashing. She leaped from the car and ran wildly along the highway for almost 200 feet before she collapsed, bleeding profusely. Mrs. Cody ran to her assistance, and the Rev. Leonard Weston, pastor of the Full Gospel church in Medford, leaped from a passing car and rushed to give her first aid.

She was taken to the Ashland hospital in an ambulance from that city. An examination by Dr. Woods showed that, besides the severed jugular vein she was suffering from two deep gashes on the throat, one lacerating the thyroid gland on both sides. There was also a deep gash on her left arm. She was unconscious when received at the hospital, with no perceptible pulse.

An emergency blood transfusion was administered, and an hour after she was received she showed signs of rallying. She was reported slightly improved this morning, with a good chance of recovery.

Franklin Clark, 310 North Bartlett street, Medford, was one of the others who reported a watermelon rind attack against him. A O. Ford, Consolidated Truck line driver, also reported a similar experience, and Dale O'Hara of Ashland was the fourth victim. The names of two others was not learned.

Four of the attacks occurred before the one against Mrs. Marsh, and one was reported as having happened later, or further north on the highway. In all of the cases except the Marsh one, the missiles did no damage other than denting fenders, splashing against the cowlings or tops, or splattering into the radiators.

One victim reported that he believed five young men, between the ages of 20 and 25, and one girl, were passengers in the assault car. State police, on the chance that persons of such description, possibly under the influence of liquor, may have been driving a warren on a roadside stand or other store are tracing all possible leads today, and will remain doing so until all leads are exhausted.

JEANETTE MacDONALD TO WED GENE RAYMOND
HOLLYWOOD, Aug. 21.—(UP)—The film colony today acquired a new romance with the announcement that Jeanette MacDonald, singing screen star, and Gene Raymond, blonde actor, will be married "within a few weeks."

Time and place of the wedding was not set.

4-H CLUB WILL TRY LIVESTOCK JUDGING

22 BLACK LEGION LEADERS INDICTED AS SYNDICALISTS

National Chief of Hooded Order Among Men Named by Detroit Grand Jury - Will Fight Extradition

LIMA, O., Aug. 21.—(AP)—Virgil P. Effinger, named by Precursor Duncan McCrea of Detroit as national chief of the Black Legion, said today that he would fight extradition to Michigan to face an indictment charging criminal syndicalism.

Informed that he had been indicted with 21 others today, Effinger laughed and said he was not sure he knew the definition of the charge.

Effinger, who has denied any connection with the legion, once said, however, it had more than 6,000,000 members.

DETROIT, Aug. 21.—(AP)—Virgil P. Effinger, of Lima, Ohio, described by Prosecuting Attorney Duncan C. McCrea as the national head of the Black Legion, was indicted with 21 others today on charges of criminal syndicalism in connection with activities of the hooded order.

The indictments were returned by Circuit Judge James E. Chenot, conducting a state grand jury investigation. The indictment accused Effinger and the others with advising or teaching "crime, sabotage, violence or other forms of terrorism as a means of accomplishing industrial political reform."

FEHL'S WIFE CARRIES APPEAL FOR RELEASE INTO SUPREME COURT

SALEM, Aug. 21.—Appeal of the habeas corpus proceeding filed by Electa Fehel to obtain unconditional release of her husband, Earl H. Fehel, from the state penitentiary, was in the state supreme court today.

Fehel, ex-Jackson county judge, was recently conditionally paroled from the prison after serving two years and four months of his maximum four-year term for ballot theft.

Judge McMahon in Marion county circuit court held against the plaintiff in the habeas corpus proceeding.

The complaint charged that Fehel had served his maximum term, less good behavior credits and was entitled to unconditional release, in accord with the common practice of releasing prisoners under the Oregon indeterminate sentence law.

Judge McMahon held there was no authority for such automatic release without a parole or pardon by the governor. His decision upheld an opinion previously written by Ralph E. Moody, assistant attorney general, at the request of Governor Martin.

The habeas corpus proceeding was filed by Mrs. Fehel subsequently to her husband's release from the prison under conditional parole. The condition provided that Fehel should not return to Jackson county until his four-year term had expired.

ELKS BAND PLAYS IN PARK TONIGHT
The third open-air band concert of the year, and the first for the mid-summer season, will be presented by the popular Elks band in city park starting at 8 o'clock this evening. The public has been invited free of charge to listen to the wide range of pieces.

TWO FOUND ALIVE ARE TAKEN FROM CAVED-IN SHAFT

Remaining Two Died Soon After Entombment Last Tuesday - Crowd Cheers Wildly As Rescue Made

MOBERLY, O., Aug. 21.—(AP)—The first of four men trapped since Tuesday afternoon in a coal mine near here was brought out alive by rescue crews at 2:40 p. m. today. The fate of the other three was not immediately learned.

A second man of the four who were buried by a cave-in last Tuesday was carried out alive a few minutes later.

Dr. Jesse Maddox, Randolph county coroner, coming out of the mine, announced: "A. W. McCann is alive and in good shape."

"Demmer Sexton is alive and in bad shape. Both Edward Stoner, Jr., and George T. Dameron, negro, are dead and apparently have been dead for a long time."

McCann 50 and unmarried, was the first to be brought to the surface by the rescue crews. The crowd set up a wild cheering as he emerged from the narrow shaft and was rushed to an ambulance. The car sped toward a Moberly hospital, three miles distant.

Sexton, with Stoner part owner of the mine, was in a serious condition, but Dr. Maddox did not elaborate on his statement.

"This is one of the saddest things I ever went through," said Coroner Maddox.

"My son, a doctor, went down into the mine with me. We found the men in a room. One man, McCann, came out in perfect shape. He tells us one of the men died two hours after they were hemmed in."

DANIEL PEARCE, 52, APPLAGATE RANCHER, PASSES IN PORTLAND
Daniel M. Pearce, 52, well known Applagate rancher, died in a Portland hospital Wednesday after an operation. He went to Portland for surgical treatment two weeks ago. He underwent a major operation and was progressing satisfactorily when a second and minor operation was performed. He failed to rally from the second operation.

Funeral services will be held at the Pearl chapel at 3:30 tomorrow afternoon. Interment will take place in the Log Town cemetery near Ruch.

Mr. Pearce was born at Sterling on December 16, 1884. He resided in Jackson county all his life and was prominently known throughout the valley. He operated a stock ranch on Thompson creek.

He was a member of the Seventh Day Adventist church and was known as a faithful Christian, esteemed by all who knew him.

Mr. Pearce is survived by his wife Pearl, and three children: Edoline and Edsel, twins, and Donald Keith. Also surviving are a sister, Grace V. Pearce of Klamath Falls, and three brothers, Floyd of Eagle Point and Paul and George of Jacksonville.

Bodies of Giant Sloths Found Intact in Cavern

PASADENA, Calif., Aug. 21.—(AP)—The anomaly of entering the cave of a prehistoric animal and finding it as unchanged through the ages that its long-dead inhabitants apparently had perished but recently was described today by Dr. Chester Stock.

Dr. Stock, California Institute of Technology professor, was one of three scientists who examined the remains of two giant sloths found in a cave in Arizona's lower Grand Canyon.

FASCIST FORCES MARCH SATURDAY TOWARD MADRID

PAMPLONA, Spain (By courier to French frontier), Aug. 21.—(AP)—The "big push" on Madrid was launched by the rebel northern army at dawn today.

Military headquarters at Pamplona said three rebel columns stop the Guadarrama mountains northwest of the loyalist capital had opened their long-awaited drive.

REBEL HEADQUARTERS, Burgos, Spain, Aug. 21.—The one-eyed founder of the Spanish Legion, General Miguel Primo de Rivera, reviewed 2,000 (capped) fascist followers today and ordered them to march on the Somosierra mountain front tomorrow.

That front is in the Guadarrama range north of Madrid.

The youthful "Falangists," composed of the fascist troops of Jose Primo De Rivera, son of the late dictator, and others, were well equipped and well disciplined.

Rebel leaders said they numbered only 20,000 in mid-July, but now there were 200,000 in the northern provinces alone.

They include many pretty young girls, dressed as men.

The general staff, secretaries and clerks of General Emilio Mola, the northern commander, were quitting the city in a caravan of automobiles.

Southern rebel columns, advancing on Madrid from Seville and Granada, were reported to have effected a junction at Loja, west of Granada.

Rebel leaders said the troops met "enthusiastic manifestations" along the way, establishing full communication for the first time between the two cities in the south and the armies in the field.

A fresh Moroccan battalion, meanwhile, was reported to have moved toward the city.

STERN MEASURES THREATENED FOR MOLESTING SHIPS

All British Craft to Be Protected From Interference - Action Independent of Reich Warning, Is Word

WASHINGTON, Aug. 21.—(AP)—Hope for an early termination of hostilities in Spain was coupled today by the United States government with a re-affirmation of determination to remain "scrupulously" aloof from the bitter revolutionary struggle there.

These expressions were set forth in a note dispatched last night by Acting Secretary of State William Phillips to J. Richlid, Uruguayan minister to Washington, rejecting Uruguay's proposal that the nations of the Americas join in a move to mediate the Spanish crisis.

U. S. to Hold Aloof.
WASHINGTON, Aug. 21.—(AP)—The Spanish government, patiently anxious to avoid international complications from the civil war, refused comment today on warnings from Berlin and London that the rights of foreign ships must be respected.

"We have nothing whatever to say," a high official of the state department asserted.

By Roger D. Greene
Associated Press Foreign Staff
LONDON, Aug. 21.—(AP)—Great Britain, adopting a policy similar to that of Germany, today announced "firm measures" would be taken against any interference with her shipping in Spanish waters.

Authoritative quarters said in the event a British ship was fired upon, it would return three warning shots ahead of the offending craft and then "we shall aim."

The Madrid government, these quarters said, would take similar action.

HOOVER VISITING ON OREGON COAST

MARSHFIELD, Aug. 21.—(AP)—Herbert Hoover laughed today over reports that he was returning to the location of a mining engineer.

Interviewed over his breakfast coffee the former president declared he would take an active part in the presidential campaign which, he said, would begin in September, stating that August was a quiet month for politics.

The Hoovers, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Van Antwerp, of Palo Alto, Calif., left this morning for a short vacation journey through Oregon. They will probably continue to Eugene today, then over the Cascades to Bend and south to California, perhaps fishing en route.

"The itinerary, Hoover said, was being "set by the women."

Chamber Mystery Ended by Hussong It's A Solpugid

The mystery bug on exhibit at the Jackson County chamber of commerce was identified today by Prof. E. M. Hussong as a solpugid, one of the arachnids closely related to the spider, scorpion, tick and mite. It was its resemblance to both a spider and a scorpion that baffled attaches of the chamber.

Solpugids are modest creatures and do not present themselves to public view if they can possibly help it, said Prof. Hussong, teacher of biology at Medford high school. They are very intelligent, he added significantly.
