

Grants Pass Merchants to Invade Miljus Boys' Diamond Sunday

BASEBALL PUPILS FACE FIRST TEST WITH LEAGUE NINE

Tungate and Erickson in Form for Mound Duty — Hardy Expected to Do Flinching for Climate Team

The Grants Pass Merchants, heavy hitting squadron of stars from the Climate City, will invade Medford for the first time this year to tangle with John Miljus' outfit at the Senior high school field at 2:30 Sunday afternoon. Grants Pass finished second in the southern Oregon league scramble.

The game will be the first for the locals with any league team, and Miljus is anxious to test the strength of his club against the invaders. His two star choppers, Ray Tungate and Ray Erickson, he believes to be in better condition than they have been for several weeks, and the game is expected to be fast. The school team started the season with an impressive string of victories, but has lately gone into a minor slump, from which they expect to emerge Sunday.

Lack of practice, since many of the locals are now working, has crippled the hitting of the Medford team, and the added handicap of no regular catcher is believed to have aided the slump. Two regular catchers, Bayless and Calvert, are out of the city. Last week Russell Acheson, Junior high school coach, worked behind the plate, and may be called to service again Sunday. Acheson has been working nights and finds it difficult to play in the afternoons. His catching was outstanding last week. Hartman, who covered backstop duties for the locals against the Convicts Tuesday is regular at first base for Grants Pass. Rickert, who played third for Medford in the Convict fray, is Grants Pass' leftfielder. Miljus was not ready to state today who would pitch for his squad. He said he might start Tungate and hold Erickson in reserve, or vice versa. The remainder of the local lineup will probably find Bob Lewis on first, Hess on second, Dick Smith on short and either Leever or John Smith on third. Sakrada will cavort in center field, and Coas will roam the right garden.

Grants Pass has not yet announced a lineup, but it is believed their ace pitcher, Hardy, will probably start. In one league game this year the former Ashland high school star whiffed 17 batters, an impressive record.

BEAVERS, SEATTLE CONTINUE LOSING

By the Associated Press
The unpredictable coast league race, with six teams playing better than 500 baseball, was further snarled today.

Three teams remained a game and a half out of first place as the league-leading Portland Beavers dropped their third in a row to Los Angeles 10-4, and second place Seattle took its third consecutive licking from the San Francisco Seals 4-2.

Oakland and San Diego moved up on victories over the San Francisco Missions and Sacramento by 2-1 and 6-1, respectively.

Collapse of their pitching staffs brought defeat to Portland and Seattle. Bill Fowdell yielded eight runs before he was chased by Los Angeles, and Hobo Carson had to finish. Meanwhile, Joe Berry held the Beavers hitless in seven out of nine frames. John Bottarini hit a homer and two singles to lead the Seraph attack.

Ed Wells yielded the Seals hits in every inning.

ELIMINATION PLANNED TO PICK LEVIN'S FOE

PORTLAND, Aug. 21.—(AP)—Promoter C. L. McPherson yesterday announced that a fifteen match elimination tournament will be held next Wednesday to determine who will oppose Dave Levin in a world-championship exhibition here next month.

Participants will include such luminaries as Stranger Lewis, Sander Fombe, Chief Little Wolf, Hans Steinko and Stanley Pinto.

McPherson plans to run eight first round matches, the winners to meet in the second eliminations, and so on until only one is left.

Sixteen grapplers will take part in the first elimination bouts. The winning eight will tangle next, then the winning four, and finally the last two survivors.

ELEANOR NOT GOING PRO; WILL CONTINUE DRINKING

By George Kirksey
United Press Staff Correspondent.

NEW YORK, Aug. 21.—(UP)—Eleanor Holm Jarrett, America's greatest backstroke swimmer and world record holder who was barred from the Olympic team for drinking returned home today aboard the Bremen determined to retain her amateur standing.

Nervously facing reporters and cameramen the pretty brunette mermaid declared:

1.—She will not turn professional.

2.—She will not quit drinking champagne.

"I want to retain my amateur standing," said Mrs. Jarrett. "I plan to appeal to the Metropolitan A. A. U. for reinstatement, and I believe I'll get it as they are all my friends and I've done nothing wrong. Regardless of what happens I do not intend to quit drinking champagne. I like it."

That was just what caused Avery Brundage and the other members of the American Olympic committee to dismiss Mrs. Jarrett. She denied she was "drunk" or participated in an all night drinking party that ended with a poker game in the men's lounge.

"Those things are untrue," she snapped. "I drank champagne on the boat all right, but never more than six or seven glasses. The committee didn't have any control over the team, but I'm not going into that. I want to let the whole thing drop. I'm not going to sue anybody and I'm not going to do anything to lose my amateur standing."

Mrs. Jarrett described her experiences abroad as "heartbreaking."

"They didn't give me a chance," she said. "I was the goat. They never gave me an official warning at any time. It was a well known fact that I drank champagne. I never tried to keep it secret."

Without directly mentioning Avery Brundage, Mrs. Jarrett said she would never forgive him.

Told that the A. A. U. had suspended Jesse Owens for failure to compete in a post-Olympic meet in Sweden, she asked:

"How can they do that? They can't just suspend you because you don't compete every place they want you to."

INDIANS 'DOG IT' CLAIMS KLEPPER

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 21.—(AP)—Charging his Seattle Indians with listless playing, President William Klepper asked waivers on nine regulars and threatened to finish the season with young players.

"If they don't want to give me the best they have, I don't want them on the ball club," Klepper said. "The Indians have lost three games in a row to the seventh-place San Francisco Seals."

The Seattle head man said he referred to pitchers Ray Lucas, Paul Gregory, Don Osborn, J. Millard Campbell and Wells; outfielder Mike Hunt; shortstop Bill Smith; catcher Mickey Duggan, and infielder Bill Michael.

"We're right in the thick of the pennant race and stand a fine chance to win but we will lose all chances the way some of my players are going about their work," said Klepper.

JACOBS, FAYAN GIVEN NUMBER ONE RANKING

BROOKLINE, Mass., Aug. 21.—(AP)—The national women's doubles team, Helen Jacobs and Mrs. Sarah Palfray Fayyan, received number one ranking today on the seeded list for the national doubles tournament opening at Longwood bowl here next week.

Following them on the favored list were Mrs. John Van Ryn, Philadelphia; and Carolin Babcock, Los Angeles; Dorothy Bundy, Santa Monica, Cal.; and Dorothy Workman, Los Angeles; and Mrs. Maynard M. Johnson and Katharine Winthrop, both of Brookline.

FISHING LESSENS; BERRIES AT PEAK; FIRE DANGER HIGH

The following recreational bulletin was issued today by Karl L. Janouch, supervisor of the Rogue River national forest:

"Fishing in general is falling off on account of late season and low water. Diamond lake and North Umpqua and tributaries are classed as fair. Rocky Point and Lake of the Woods continue good for silverides, bass and perch. Fish lake and its outlet to the bridge and Big Elk road are now closed.

In Four-Mile lake the silverside fishing is very good by still fishing with worms. The water from the lake has been shut off; the road is very rough but passable. Fishing is poor in Big Butte and lower South Fork, while Upper Middle Fork and Seven lakes remain good. Upper South Fork and Blue Canyon are fair.

"In the Little Applegate and Glade forks fishing is fair and quite a few are being caught in Elliott creek. The swimming facilities at the new McKee bridge campground on the Applegate river past Star ranger station are proving very popular, although all the improvements at this campground are not yet completed.

"The huckleberry crop is now at its height. There are approximately 60 camps at Huckleberry City and pickers are averaging about three gallons a day. From 10 to 12 thousand gallons of berries will be taken from this vicinity this season. A special forest guard is now stationed there to direct pickers to berry patches and to desirable camping spots. On the Umpqua divide berries may be found at Huckleberry lake and Long Prairie. In the Butte Falls district the crop is only fair because many of the berries are turning white with fungus. Scattered patches may be found at Blue Rock, Blue Canyon, Parker Meadows, upper South Fork, Wickiup and Seven lakes.

"This year's fire record on the Rogue River national forest continues to be excellent, there having been only one fire during the past ten days. This fire was caused by a careless camper leaving his fire unattended, and while it was luckily discovered in time to be put out before any damage resulted, it might easily have burned many acres of timber. At this time of year, when the forests are extremely dry, great care with cigarettes and campfires is necessary."

MEANIE GRAPPLE WILL CAUSE FANS TO REVISE IDEAS

If there remains a skeptic in southern Oregon who still clings to the old notion that wrestling is a game in which the participants do little besides grunt, how dramatically and grovel on the canvas, that skeptic seems due for a rough shock Monday night if he happens to be at the Armory.

For on that evening four of the country's ace meanies will ply their nefarious trade. Bob Montgomery, who never grovels on the canvas if he can get his opponent there first with a lusty kick to the slats, and Cherokee Ike, bugle mouthed Oklahoma Indian, meet. The aborigine has the same unorthodox notion of wrestling that has infected Montgomery, and he would apparently rather get heated out of the arena onto his skill than apply a standard grip. The nearest the two get to the old kind of grappling is that they both sweat, profusely, with the added innovation that they both bleed handsily.

AMERICAN SWIMMERS TRIM POLISH STARS

RIEJSKO, Poland, Aug. 21.—(AP)—American Olympic swimmers swept the main races in an exhibition meet against Polish stars today.

Peter Pick of New York amazed the fans by sprinting the 50 meters free style in 25.2. Ralph Flanagan, Miami, and Jack Medina, Seattle, finished one-two in the 400-meter free style, Flanagan winning in 4:59.8 and Medina finishing in 5:11.1.

Art Lindgren of Los Angeles won the 100-meter free style in 1:01.6, and was trailed by John Macdonis of Philadelphia, who was clocked in 1:04.4.

Al Van De Weghe of Newark took the 100 meters backstroke in 1:11.2, and Taylor Dredzale of Detroit was second in 1:12.0.

BAER BROADCASTS WILLINGNESS TO GO AGAIN WITH LOUIS

PORTLAND, Aug. 21.—(AP)—Joe Louis can't get a fight? "That story makes me sick," Max Baer, former heavyweight champion and one of Joe's victims, said today.

Baer, here to box six rounds at Multnomah stadium next Tuesday night with Cecil Myatt, Californian negro, added:

"Say, I'd like nothing better than a return bout with him. "Yes, I know he beat me before and did a neat job of it. But I learned a lot in that fight and Schmelling proved that Louis can be hit and isn't an invincible super-man."

STEELE FLATTENS ALDARE IN SECOND WITH HARD RIGHT

TACOMA, Wash., Aug. 21.—(AP)—Using a blow that split his glove from fingertip to wrist, Freddie Steele, world's middleweight champion, won his first battle as a champion here last night.

He knocked out Jackie Aldare, of Brooklyn, New York, 61 seconds after the second round in a scheduled 10-round non-title fight began. Steele came into the ring at 160½, Aldare at 162.

Aldare was a beaten fighter from the moment he stepped into the ring. Less than 30 seconds later, he was on the floor for a nine count after taking a series of hard lefts and rights to the body. He managed to hang on the rest of the round, making Freddie a pair of right uppercuts to the face and getting in an effective blow or two himself.

In the second, he showed a momentary aggressive streak, covered quickly when Steele drove into his body again, then flopped to the canvas a second time from a long swinging right. He rose to his knees once, at the count of eight, looked around and sank back to be counted out. The blow split Steele's right glove.

The fight, which drew some 3,200 persons, was held to fulfill a promise Steele made to George Shanklin, veteran promoter, before the Tacoma fighter took the middleweight title from Eddie (Babe) Iliako in Seattle last month. Shanklin, who gave Steele his first professional fight, was told Steele would make his first appearance as a champion under the same promotion.

DIZZY POINTING FOR BEST YEAR

By Associated Press
Whether Dizzy Dean's "workhorse" set saves the pennant for the St. Louis gas house gang, it appears to be pointing the great one toward the best season of his big league career.

Old Diz is turning in those victories at the rate of two a week, and at his current pace may come close to hitting the 35-mark in games won for the campaign.

His strikeout and bases-on-balls records for the season so far compare favorably with his best year, 1934, when he won 30, lost seven, fanned 95 batters and walked only 75.

His record for the current campaign is 21 won against eight lost. He has a winning streak of six straight, and he has his eye on the Giants' coming road trip, when he'll be tearing down to end the threat of Bill Terry and company on the National League lead.

HERMAN LOCATED AFTER WALKOUT

CHICAGO, Aug. 21.—(AP)—Floyd "Babe" Herman, deserting outfielder of the Cincinnati Reds, today was still nursing the idea of placing his contract square before Kneass Mountain Landis, commissioner of baseball, for settlement.

The lanky outfielder, missing since he quit the Cincinnati club last Tuesday with the avowed intention of coming to Chicago to consult Landis, was located yesterday, lifting apprehension concerning his whereabouts.

HERMAN LOCATED AFTER WALKOUT

CHICAGO, Aug. 21.—(AP)—Floyd "Babe" Herman, deserting outfielder of the Cincinnati Reds, today was still nursing the idea of placing his contract square before Kneass Mountain Landis, commissioner of baseball, for settlement.

The lanky outfielder, missing since he quit the Cincinnati club last Tuesday with the avowed intention of coming to Chicago to consult Landis, was located yesterday, lifting apprehension concerning his whereabouts.
