

Record Entry List for U. S. Amateur Golf Meet

TITLE ABDICATED BY LITTLE GOAL OF 1,119 PLAYERS

Play Opens Sept. 14 On Garden City Course—Qualifying Rounds Start Tuesday.

NEW YORK, Aug. 22.—(AP)—For the third time this season a United States Golf association tourney has broken former records for total entries. A field of 1,119 players, the organization announced today, has entered the U. S. amateur tourney seeking to capture the crown which was vacated last year when Lawson Little, two-time winner, turned professional.

That field is 174 players larger than the record number of 945 entrants set last year. Other 1936 tourneys which set records were the U. S. open and National public links. Of the total entries, 210 will be eligible for championship match play which is to be held September 14-19 at the Garden City, N. Y., Golf club. Twenty-four of those players are exempt from qualifying in sectional play throughout the country. In which 29 players battled for six places—were held August 11 at San Francisco and Los Angeles. The remaining 1,099 entrants who must play 36 holes of qualifying medal play, will swing into action on 80 separate fronts next Tuesday seeking 180 other places. Ten members of the British Walker cup squad which plays the American team September 2-3 at the Pine Valley, N. J., Golf club are exempt from qualifying along with six other British players and eight former winners of the title.

The Walker cuppers are Dr. William Tweedell, H. O. Bentley, J. Morton Dyke, Cecil Ewing, G. Alec Hill, J. D. Langley, P. B. Lucas, Jack McLean, Gordon B. Peters and Hector Thompson, British amateur champion. Other British players are T. A. Torrance, A. R. Aitken, Lieut-Col H. A. Boyd, H. E. Taylor, Stanley Morrison and Henry Longhurst.

The former amateur champions exempt from qualifying are George T. Dunlap, Jr., winner in 1933; Charles Evans, Jr., 1916 and 1920; Jesse P. Guilford, 1921; S. Davidson Herron, 1919; Max R. Marston, 1923; Francis Outimet, 1914-1931; Jesse W. Switzer, 1932, and C. Ross Somerville of Canada, 1932. The six players who gained places in the west coast qualifying rounds were James B. McTale, San Gabriel, Calif.; Roger Kelly, Los Angeles; Winfield S. Day, Elinhurst, Ill.; Matias Palacio, San Francisco; Ernest Pieper, Jr., and Don Edwards of San Jose, Calif.

YANKEES WIN 13 INNING CONTEST FROM BOSTON, 3-2

NEW YORK, Aug. 22.—(AP)—Bill Dickey came through "in the clutch" today with a run-producing single to break up a 13-inning pitching duel and give Johnny Broaca and the Yankees a 3 to 2 victory over Lefty Grove and the Boston Red Sox.

Lefty Grove's 39th homer, with none on in the seventh, aided the Yankees' cause, and Jimmy Foss hammered out his 33rd to tie the score in the ninth. The winning rally in the 13th was slow in starting. With one out, Red Rolfe walked. Di Maggio's fly was the second out. Gehrig singled Rolfe along to third, and then, with two away, Dickey banged a single to right field sending the third-sacker over with the winning run.

CLEVELAND, Aug. 22.—(AP)—Johnny Allen held the St. Louis Browns to three hits today and marked up his fifteenth victory of the season as the Indians defeated the Browns, 6 to 0. Earl Averill, Cleveland outfielder, knocked out his 21st home run of the season in the third inning.

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 22.—(AP)—The Senators and the Athletics split a doubleheader today. Washington copped the first game 12 to 5 and the visiting Mackmen the second by a count of 7 to 6.

DETROIT, Aug. 22.—(AP)—Vernon Kennedy chalked up his 17th victory of the season today as Chicago evened the current series with Detroit by winning 9 to 3.

CHICAGO, Aug. 22.—(AP)—Joe Cronin, manager of the Boston Red Sox, asserted today the $1,000 fine imposed on Wesley Ferrell for walking out of the pitcher's box yesterday stands but denied there had been any previous rift between him and the club's ace right-handed hurler.

As to the suspension, Ferrell will come back whenever the club thinks he is ready," said Cronin. "But if the suspension lasts more than 10 days, then he'll have to appeal for reinstatement to Commissioner Landis."

"It is not true that Ferrell walked out on me before. There's also nothing to this story about Ferrell thinking I waded him off the mound. He knows I don't wade my pitchers off. If that were true, there wouldn't be anything to it and the case would be closed."

Skeet Shoot Will Be Coming Sunday There will be no skeet shoot at the Medford Gun club today, as was announced in Friday's Mail Tribune. The big shoot will be held on Sunday, August 30, one week from today. A few shooters will probably be on the grounds this morning for regular trap shooting practice but there will be no official club shoot, it was stated.

The game is expected to be fast, with Grants Pass having the edge in the betting due to their experience and a fast and flashy infield, as well as pitching strength.

CARDS GAIN GAME ON IDLE GIANTS, CUBS LOSE AGAIN

ST. LOUIS, Aug. 22.—(AP)—With the New York Giants idle because of rain, the St. Louis Cardinals were able to increase their National league lead to one full game today when they nosed out the Pittsburgh Pirates 4 to 3.

Jim Winford held the Pirates to six hits, allowing only two of them up to the eighth inning, when Pittsburgh scored its trio of runs. He had enough in reserve to check the rally and finish out the game a victor.

CHICAGO, Aug. 22.—(AP)—Good relief pitching by Ray Davis, plus homers by Lew Riggs and Babe Herman and a 12-inning, two-run pinch double by Gilly Campbell, gave Cincinnati a 6-to-4 victory over the Cubs before 18,793 fans today.

It was the fading National league champions' ninth defeat in their last 13 games. Gabby Hartnett homered for the Cubs, who got 10 hits. Chicago's observance of the National league's 60th anniversary preceded the game.

BROOKLYN, Aug. 22.—(AP)—The Dodgers belted three Phillies pitchers for 17 hits and a 12-to-0 victory today in the opener of their current series. The defeat dropped the Phils deeper into the National league cellar.

BIG BAD MEANIES FEATURE ARMORY WRESTLING CARD

Action of the kind that made the old Bowery in New York and the Barbary Coast in San Francisco famous, and action that has nothing to do with clean fighting is expected at the Armory Monday night with the greatest assortment of backstreet fighters that Promoter Mack Lillard could assemble.

The main event features two primitive souls who seem to enjoy slugging and kicking with a few bites thrown in, with Bob Montgomery meeting the Indian, Cherokee Ike. Montgomery has won all his matches here in four starts, and Ike has lost all his defeats the fact that he is by far the more vicious of the two.

Montgomery is a little more subtle in his gouging than the aborigine, doing most of his punching while the referee is not looking. Ike is less scrupulous and slugs at any and all opportunities.

Pat O'Brien, big Irish meanie, meets Joe Hubka, ex-footballer from Nebraska, in the middle event. Hubka is not a meanie, but has a splendid reputation for taking the starch out of those who are, and if the Hibernian starts any rough play it seems likely the Nebraskan will retaliate, since he always has under such treatment.

Hubka's lashing flying tackle has subdued many a hard-boiled gent who was deceived by curly blond hair and light blue eyes. The chunkster also packs an impressive right-hand wallop that he unvels upon occasion.

George Craig, the Tulsa Blacksmith, has drawn the task of taming the bullying Johnny Soos of Indiana in the opening torso twister. He believes his anvil flip and a few other holds that he did not have to use last week will be more than enough to calm the hot blood of Soos, and if they aren't he has announced his determination to resort to Soos' own dirty attack. The two have apparently met before, for Craig has no respect whatever for the bowlegged brute. Soos is one of the most unpopular of mean men to show here in months, judging by the wholesale vituperation unleashed against his name.

CALIFORNIA NET STARS FIRST IN NEWPORT JOUSTS

NEWPORT, R. I., Aug. 22.—(UP)—A trio of Californians swept the finals of the Newport invitation men's tennis tournament today when Robert Riggs of Los Angeles scored an upset victory in the singles and the Davis cup pair, Donald Budge of Oakland, Calif., and Gene Mako of Los Angeles won the doubles trophy.

Riggs, national clay court champion and seeded No. 1 in the tourney, upset the favored Frankie Parker of Spring Lake, N. J., in five sets, 6-6, 6-4, 8-10, 3-6, 6-1.

Then Budge and Mako downed Parker and Gregory Mangin of Newark, N. J., in straight sets, 6-1, 6-3, 6-4. Riggs played strategic tennis to beat young Parker. The Californian remained in the back court most of the time and depended upon long rallies to wear down Parker and jockey him into errors.

In pinches it was the Californian who came through with flawless play, rather than the No. 3 seeded Parker. Riggs beat the New Jersey player at the latter's own game. Parker specializes in the back-court game. Several times Riggs left him flat-footed with smashing kills and bullet-like cross-court placements.

In the doubles match, Budge and Mako had no trouble in disposing of Parker and Mangin. The ease and certainty of their victory indicated that the winners will be heavy favorites for the national title in the tourney at Longwood next week. They played with machine-like certitude, never giving their opponents a chance.

PORTLAND, Aug. 22.—(AP)—Greyhound racing will end for 1936 at Multnomah stadium tonight. Five records were broken during the 60 day season.

PICNIC, RING SHOW PLANNED BY ELKS ON SEPTEMBER 17

Medford Elks will inaugurate lodge activities for the fall and winter season with a big picnic and ring show to be held at the Elks' picnic grounds Thursday evening, September 17, with Walter W. Abbey, general chairman in charge of the affair.

According to J. F. Erickson, chairman of the fight committee, the ring card will be divided into two sections, comprising both boxing and wrestling. CCC amateur fighters, under the direction of Captain Ryan, will start the ball rolling with a series of at least four three-round bouts; the first of a series of elimination contests which will be held this winter to crown a district champion in each weight division.

CCC fighters are well-known to Elks and their friends, having put on many slashing bouts under auspices of the lodge. The boys are carefully matched according to experience and ability, as well as weight, and always pack their cards with plenty of action.

Later in the evening Mack Lillard, local wrestling promoter, will stage two wrestling matches featuring the best men available for that date. Lillard will draw upon the regular wrestling circuit for his talent, and promises a show that will satisfy even the most blood-thirsty addict of the grunt and groin art. The feed committee, under the chairmanship of P. C. Bigham, will deviate from the old reliable hot-dogs, and will serve a real old-fashioned barbecue lunch, with plenty of free beer to wash down the spit-roasted tid-bits.

According to Mr. Abbey, every effort will be made to make this fall picnic equal, if not surpass, the regular spring outdoor frolics, which have proven so popular in the past. Other committee chairman charged with the success of the affair are: Russell Seman, assistant general chairman; Leon B. Haskins, concessionaire; Wilson Wait, band; E. W. Winkle, games; W. E. Morris, parking; R. R. Ebel, tickets, and George T. Frey, finance.

MAMMY SINGER IS BOXER'S MANAGER

HOLLYWOOD, Calif., Aug. 22.—(AP)—Al Johnson, paying $10,000 to play real-life role of a boxing manager, is headed for New York today to clinch a fight with Tony Canzoneri for his new feather-weight, Henry Armstrong, St. Louis negro.

The stage and movie singer announced, "I'll offer $25,000 for the bout and try to stage it in Hollywood in November for the motion picture relief fund."

Armstrong's contract was bought last night from Wirt Ross for $10,000, Johnson said. The negro won recognition as California champion this month by outpointing Baby Arizmen-dil of Mexico.

BEAVERS REVIVE HOLD UPON LEAD

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 22.—(AP)—Portland revived its hold on the Pacific Coast league leadership today by routing Los Angeles, 12 to 5, as George Caster pitched his 22nd victory of the season.

Heavy-hitting Portland batsman knocked Jack Salveson, Los Angeles pitching ace, out of the box in the third inning and two more home runners were unable to stem the assault. P. Coccarart, Portland second baseman, got a home run, bringing in three runs.

Los Angeles, however, has won four of the six games in the series so far. A double header will wind up the series tomorrow.

At Oakland: R. H. E. Missions 8 14 0 Oakland 0 9 1 Stewart and Outen; Olds, Gould, Servani and Hartje.

At Los Angeles: R. H. E. Portland 12 17 1 Los Angeles 5 10 0 Caster and Brucker; Salveson, Joyce, Struss and Bottarini.

MEDFORD TO PLAY PASS TEAM TODAY

The Medford baseball team tangles at 2:30 this afternoon with the highly touted Grants Pass Merchants at the Senior high school field, in the first game of a Southern Oregon league team for the year.

Grants Pass finished second to Glendale in the league scramble, on a game that was tied 2-2 in the eighth inning. At that point in the game a dispute arose, and according to the Climate City team members, the Glendale squad, followed by the referee, stalked from the field. Grants Pass charges that Glendale then asserted that it had been Grants Pass that had left the field, and so told the league president who awarded the game to Glendale by default.

It was announced yesterday that Hardy, clever young southpaw, would start on the mound for the visitors, but it was not yet known here who would work the rubber for the locals, although it was considered likely that Tungate would start with Erickson held in reserve for relief duty.

The game is expected to be fast, with Grants Pass having the edge in the betting due to their experience and a fast and flashy infield, as well as pitching strength.

Westinghouse AUTOMATIC ELECTRIC RANGE

$65 for a new modern Westinghouse automatic electric range! Naturally, you are wondering how a good range can be sold for so low a price. Regularly, this same model sold for a great deal more money, and naturally we could not afford to sell any great number of these at this price. We did, however, obtain a small quantity in this special deal that makes it possible to pass the saving on to you as long as this particular lot lasts. This range has a white porcelain enamel finish; modern flat-top design; and a full-sized enamel lined, standard automatic Westinghouse oven; 3 standard Westinghouse surface plates, utility outlet and pilot light; standard Westinghouse switches and other Westinghouse exclusive features. You should by all means see these ranges at once before they are all gone. Our usual very easy terms apply.
