INDIAN SUCCUMBS TO BRAND OF DIRT DISHED UP BY BOB

The brand of dirt dished up by Bob Montgomery of Alabama proved a little more potent than the Oklahoma variety served by Cherokee Ike in an all-means main event wrestling match at the Armory last night. Nothing much happened in the first fall except that Montgomery threw the aborigine out of the ring twice and followed him out the second time to stamp him down with a few heavy jumps, and that Montgomery got hit twice, and retaliated by biting Ike's finger, and then pulled Ike's hair and got his eyes gouged for his efforts. He took the fall in 10 minutes with a punishing hammerlock.

The game spruced up a little in the second fall and the crowd got a little rough action for their money. Ike got another hammerlock which Montgomery broke by sloughing him in the short ribs with a hard right. He then made a run for the ropes and got tangled up in them like a three-toed sloth hanging from a jungle vine, and when he got loose the Indian kicked him in the slats. By way of revenge, the Alabamian lined his adversary up against the ropes and slammed him on the paws with six short, hard jabs. When he slumped ungracefully to the salicloth, Montgomery picked him off the resin and gave him the benefit of four or five shoulder butts and a Boston crash. Mr. Ike was unable to return for more.

Joe Hubbs, beautifully built ex-footballer from Nebraska, had his hands full in downing a leathery Irishman in Pat O'Brien, in the middle event. In general architectural outline the Hibernian resembled nothing so much as a collapsible canvas rowboat, with protruding ribs and sunken chest, but the activity he got out of that frame started the big crowd.

There was no fall in the first round and none in the second. O'Brien escaped a hammerlock in the first by a maneuver so intricate that few could follow it, and got out of an Indian deathlock in the second with a hand lock that forced Hubbs to break the deathlock. The third round, however, saw the Nebraska get a reverse figure-four scissors and four jolting slams and a somersault bottom-up as eripiel O'Brien that he was unable to return. During the match O'Brien exhibited a dead-pant lack of expression that gave his features a distinct Boris Karloff look that many in the crowd noted.

Johnny Soos, slimmer and faster than on his former appearances here, old beautifully in his first round against George Craig in the opener, while he remained clean. He made the error of going meanie in the second frame, which he took with elbow slams and by throwing Craig out of the ring before ending it with a Boston crab, but the blacksmith's anvil flips in the third and fourth rounds polished Soos off effectively. It was in this battle that Referee Ray Frisbie grabbed Soos so hard by the hair to halt a dirty attack that he pulled out a liberal handful of the hirsute. Soos charged after the match that Craig would never have got the second anvil flip if he had not choked Soos half to death following the first.

GENE O'GRADY ON MAX BAER'S CARD

PORTLAND, Aug. 25.—(AP)—The Baer family of California will show Portland boxing fans their wares tonight when ex-Champion Max and his brother, Buddie, will be featured in Promoter Harry Hansen's bill at Multnomah stadium.

The one-time Livermore playboy will attempt to climb another step up the comeback stairway against Cecil Myart, big Los Angeles negro, while the 220-pound Buddie will mix with Bill Devere, San Francisco. Both bouts will be for six rounds.

Myart will meet Baer with a record of 19 straight victories. Both men will tip the scales at about 220.

There will be six preliminaries with Gene O'Grady, ex-Ashland contender, fighting Halpa Norwood, Oakland, Cal., in one.

GRIDIRON PRACTICE OPENS EARLY FOR ASHLAND'S SQUAD

ASHLAND, Aug. 15.—(Spl.)—With the loss of only three regulars from last year's good team, Forrest "Skeet" O'Connell, Ashland high's new athletic coach, will call his 1935 Gridsilles together for the first time next Tuesday, September 1.

O'Connell, former Oregon State star, who was appointed to the position vacated by Don Faber when the latter accepted the Albany college post, will find himself early experienced men in but two positions—in the backfield and at one end. Nine returning lettermen lend strength to the local hope that this may be the best Ashland year for a long time.

Ken Schilling and Parker Hess backs, and Ray Barker, end, will be meeting, due to graduation, but several fine sophomore potentialities should enable the new coach to fill the gaps with little weakening of the team.

In the backfield, returning regulars will be Big Steve Fowler at fullback; Leonard Warren, end, and the sensational Walt Lee at the halves. A quarterback will have to be found to take Hess' place, and at this early date, the odds point to little Charlie Warren, not a letterman but seeing some action last year.

The line is intact from end to end with the exception of Barker, who held down the left wing post. Cliff Bromley, three-year letterman, and the huge Bill Wimer are the returning tackles. Bud Fitzweller and Richard Scheiderer will be back at the guards, and Bruce Demers at center. Don Getting will hold down his right end position.

Local dopeters, already figuring Ashland's chances, point to Medford and Klamath Falls as the two big hurdles toward an undefeated year.

Athlete Aged 40 Aspires To Play Tackle For Cal.

BERKELEY, Cal., Aug. 25.—(AP)—William Loane West, 20 years ago star right end on University of California's "wonder team," is back at school determined to play varsity football again.

The 40-year-old athlete, who says he is Cherokee Indian and Irish, stands six feet plus and weighs 225. He wants a tackle position.

West left the university as a sophomore to go to war and in recent years he toured the country lecturing on physical education. He registered from Savannah, Ga., as a junior student.

Coach L. B. "Stub" Allison said West has two years' eligibility. "I'll treat him like any of the kids," Allison said. "On my team the best man gets the first string position. West will be put in where he stacks up."

JESSE OWENS HOME; COLLEGE DEGREE IS MAIN CONSIDERATION

NEW YORK, Aug. 25.—(AP)—Jesse Owens, Ohio State's great negro athlete, winner of four gold medals in the Olympic games, arrived Monday from Europe on the liner Queen Mary and declared he had definitely decided only on one thing—that he would return to Ohio State for another year to get his degree in physical education.

Greeted by one of the biggest delegations that ever went down the bay to welcome a sports celebrity, Owens told reporters he had made no definite commitments along the professional lines.

Owens answered questions of 30 newspapermen almost as fast as he ran in Berlin.

"No, I have no hard feelings against the A. A. U. In fact, I haven't been notified that I was suspended. I was very tired over the Olympics and the past Olympic meets and I figured that, inasmuch as people pay to see track stars at their best, I had better stop running over there. I was too tired to do my best."

"No, I do not think Hitler snubbed me. Please remember that he is a very, very busy man. It seemed that each time I finished running, he was scheduled to leave. Once, he waved to me and smiled and I waved right back."

Thursday, Cronin said nothing about the $1000 fine which he imposed when he suspended Ferrell.

SIX COAST TEAMS IN RACE FOR TOP PLACES

By the Associated Press
Refreshed by a day's rest, Pacific Coast league teams resumed play today with six teams hot after four top places that will assure them a part in the shagness plan post-season play-off.

The contending clubs, in the order of their standing are Portland, Seattle, San Diego, Oakland, San Francisco Missions and Los Angeles. The sixth-place Angels are six games out of first place.

Portland, with its remaining three series on the home lot, is almost a certainty to get into the play-off. The Bearers tee off against the San Francisco Seals tonight, with Lefty O'Doul's injury-ravaged team ticketed as underdog.

KIDS HAVE FIELD DAY IN QUALIFYING ROUNDS OF WOMEN'S TOURNEY

SOUTH BEND, Ind., Aug. 25.—(AP)—The kids may not be around when they are handing out the cups Saturday night, but they had a field day in the qualifying round of the 30th annual women's western golf tournament.

Leading the younger brigade into the first of the match play rounds today was Patty Beng, the trecked-faced red-head from Minneapolis, who banged out an 80 in her qualifying round despite a badly blistered hand.

With her were 15-year-old Edith Estabrook of Dubuque, 15-year-old Hope Selgious of Detroit, 18-year-old Hilda Litwogod of Chicago, Shirley Ann Johnson, 19, also from Chicago, Beatrice Barrett, 19, Minneapolis; Eva Shorb, 18, Massillon, O.

Marion Miley, the defending champion from Lexington, Ky., who showed she was on her game by tying for the medal with a 79, might well be listed with the younger set. She's only 23 and objects strenuously to being classed with the veterans.

Tied with Miss Miley at 79, was Dorothy Gustafson, six times woman champion of South Bend.

The qualifying limit of 88—at which four ties had to play off for two places—was the lowest anyone could remember for the women's western.

BASEBALL STARS FORM NEW NINE

A group of Medford baseball stars, associated with city and southern Oregon league teams in the past few years, yesterday announced their intention of forming an All-Star squad and challenging John Miljus' baseball team.

Such heavy-hitting stars as Paul "Hootler" Hofstad, who led the Southern Oregon league in batting last year, Ivan Harrington, Virgil Swanson, Bud Conlin and others will make up the new team. They intend to challenge Grants Pass and Klamath Falls league teams as well.

Officials of the baseball school announced last night that their Sunday schedule is completed until well into September, after which most of their players will be in school, but that an evening game might be arranged.

Still Another Report On the "Caterpillar" RD4

Again the "Caterpillar" RD4 makes good in a big way. This letter from H. P. Faye, Ltd., gives you accurate facts on results obtained with the "Caterpillar" RD4.

EL DORADO RANCH (H. P. Faye, Limited)
Kuligins Landing, Yolo County, California
July 13, 1936

Weaver-Tractor Co.,
Sacramento, California
Dear Sirs:

On July 27, 1935, we purchased one of the first Caterpillar Diesel 50 Tractors, No. 1 E-23, in Yolo County. So pleased were we with the operation and economy of the engine that we immediately asked when a diesel would be offered to replace the "30" which had proved such a practical size engine for orchard work.

When your RD4 was announced we placed our order at once and took delivery of Engine No. 4 G 53 on March 3, 1936. It so entirely justifies the claims made for it we cannot help writing you about it.

The engine, operating on a clock, ran 608 hours in the first three months. It consumed in that period 1,197 gallons of diesel oil (cost $59.85) and 202 quarts of cylinder oil (cost $20.39) making a total fuel cost of $80.65. Translating the above into a 10-hour working day, the tractor consumed 11.14 gallons of diesel oil and 2.09 quarts of cylinder oil per day. The fuel cost per day being $1.16.

The tractor has operated with varying loads such as 28 feet of rollers in fourth gear, 10 1/2 feet cover crop disc in second or third gear and 8-12 orchard plow at 8 inches, second gear.

Sincerely yours,
H. P. FAYE, Ltd.

WEST COAST JUNIORS IN TOURNEY LIMELIGHT

BISMARCK, N. D., Aug. 25.—(AP)—The west coast held the limelight in the sectional American Legion junior baseball tournament here today, with Los Angeles and Seattle patred in the title game.

Los Angeles hammered its way into the finals yesterday with a 15-4 win over Omaha, while Seattle made the grade with a five-run attack in the last of the eighth to defeat Pierre, S. D., 8-3.

In first round games yesterday, Omaha defeated Louisville, 5-3, and Los Angeles eliminated Holdenville, Okla., 8-5.

BURLINGAME BOY LEADS AMATEURS

PEBBLE BEACH, Calif., Aug. 24.—(AP)—California's finest amateur golfers swung into the second round of 36-hole qualifying trials for the state championship today with 18-year-old Charley ("Bud") Flinger of Burlingame leading the field of 170 entrants by two strokes at the halfway mark.

One of the youngest entrants in the tournament, Flinger, state junior title holder, shot Cypress Point course in 70, two under par, to set the pace.

Such favorites as Jack Gaines of Glendale, defending champion; Roger Kelly of Los Angeles, low scoring amateur in the recent state open tournament, and many other scratch players trailed.

Stuart Hawley of Piedmont, 1934 champion, and runner-up last year, was off his game from tee to green to trail the leaders with a 79, while Frank Delp of San Francisco, twice western amateur, and Oregon champion, posted a 77.
