

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

From Butte Falls—Mrs. Everett Moore of Butte Falls transacted business and called on friends here yesterday.

Kelly North—Col. E. E. Kelly, Medford attorney, left by train last night for the north, expecting to make a short business visit in Salem.

To Sacramento—Walter J. Reine-man was among passengers leaving on a southbound train last evening, his destination being Sacramento, Cal.

From Ashland—The Misses Willa, Roberta and Marilyn Nourse and Ralph Bricey, all of Ashland, were visiting friends here today.

Tillamook Visitor—Recently arrived in Medford is Miss Ila Davidson of Tillamook, who is visiting at the home of Mrs. Helen Ebinger for several days.

Traffic Manager Here—G. B. Smith, western traffic manager for the C. B. & Q. railroad, returned to San Francisco headquarters last night after transacting business here yesterday.

Here on Business—W. G. McLaren, general agent for the Toledo, Peoria & Western railroad, arrived from his Portland office this morning to transact business with local agents.

Visiting Here—Out-of-town visitors in Medford today included Ernest Olson, Jacksonville; J. P. Collins, Apple-gate, and Mrs. M. L. Edwards, Ashland.

Tonsils Excised—John Conlon of route 4 and Jacquelyn Morris of Klamath Falls underwent operations for the removal of their tonsils in the Osteopathic hospital this morning.

Through on Shasta—Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Brundage, formerly of this city but now making their home in Roseburg, passed through Medford Tuesday on the Shasta, en route to Dixon, Ill.

Visits Friends—Miss Ellen Galey of Ashland called on friends here yesterday. She received her master's degree at Iowa State university in July and is visiting her parents in Ashland for two weeks.

Pioneer Woman Passes—Sarah Ellen McGrew, 80, pioneer Oregon resident and wife of Lincoln McGrew, Grants Pass chief of police, died at her home in Grants Pass yesterday afternoon. She had been ill for several months.

Back from Funeral—Mrs. P. L. Randias has returned to her home here from North Bend where she had gone to be with her father in his last illness. Her father, Anthony McGrew, died there August 22 and was buried in Bandon. Mrs. Randias was Mr. McGrew's oldest daughter. Two others, living at Blackfoot, Idaho, and Portland, survive, as do several grandchildren. Mr. McGrew was a frequent visitor in Medford and had many friends here.

Quick Service—A telegram requesting bonds from Washington, D. C., was dispatched from Ashland Tuesday morning at 9 o'clock by Postmaster John Fuller. At 7 o'clock the next evening the bonds were delivered to the Ashland postoffice, having arrived in Medford via airmail at 2:30 p. m. Total hours elapsed between request and delivery were 33, establishing a notable record of speedy and efficient service.

Back from Trip—The Rev. Dr. Sherman L. Divine, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, and Mrs. Divine returned last night from a 1,500-mile trip through Oregon and Washington. During the four-day journey they visited in Portland, Olympia, Seattle, Spokane and Walla Walla. Dr. Divine said today that crops in the two states were abundant, business in general was good and everyone seemed busy. Hitch-hikers, he related, were few as there were jobs available now for everyone who wanted to work. He described travel as being at a peak, with accommodations in tourist camps practically impossible to procure after 6 p. m.

Robinson On Air For Democrats

NEW YORK, Aug. 28.—(P)—Close on the heels of Governor Landon's swing through the east, the Democrats are unlimbering one of their biggest guns tonight in the form of Senator Joseph T. Robinson. Senator Robinson will go on a WABC-CBS coast-to-coast hookup at 9:45 to discourse for 15 minutes on "tax takes and budget bunk."

Communists will inaugurate an eight-program series on WEAF-NBC. Earl Browder, communist candidate for president, will talk at 9:15.

PORTLAND SWELTERS IN YEARS HOTTEST DAY

PORTLAND, Aug. 28.—(P)—Summer, after a late start, warmed up here today and sent the thermometers to the highest mark of the year, 93 degrees at 3 p. m., with indications of a higher temperature later in the day.

The reading was two degrees above yesterday's previous high of 91.

PRIZES AWARDED AT FIRST JUNIOR FLOWER EXHIBIT

A colorful display of cosmos, marigolds, nasturtiums and zinnias was arranged by the Jackson County Chamber of Commerce this morning as the first annual children's flower show sponsored by the Medford Garden club. The exhibit will be left at the chamber until tomorrow night, the public being invited to inspect it. Flower show prizes were announced as follows:

Cosmos—First prize, Stella Schultz, 805 West Main street; second, Philip Gates, 830 Minnesota street.

Marigolds—First prize, Ann Van-Valsah, 19 Elm street; second, Peggy Riddle, 824 West Second street.

Nasturtiums—First prize, Dixie Bishop, 807 South Peach street; second, Philip Morgan, Peach street.

Zinnias—First prize, Florence Chandler, 1037 Court street; second, Donald Menter, 703 West Second street.

Judges were Mrs. L. G. Gensler and Mrs. T. M. Kurtz.

Awards made yesterday for the best junior gardens were announced as follows: First prize, Philip Morgan, Peach street, student at Washington school; second, Lowell Fleer, 714 Sherman street, Roosevelt school.

Honorable mention, Ann Van-Valsah, 19 Elm street, Washington school, and Betty Wahl, Biddle road, Lincoln school. Judges were Mrs. Carl Fichter and Mrs. Orin Schenk.

Flower and garden seeds are given to the children by the Medford Garden club which also supervises the work by the young horticulturists lending aid and encouragement.

"We are very much encouraged by the results obtained," said Miss Jane Smedcor, club president. "The children did splendidly and we are inspired to continue the work as a regular feature of our program."

OFFICIALS WILL JOIN IN MOURNING JOURNEY FOR FUNERAL OF DERN

WASHINGTON, Aug. 28.—(AP)—Cabinet officers and other government dignitaries arranged today to join the funeral train in a mourning journey to Salt Lake City for the last rites next Tuesday in honor of the late George Henry Dern, secretary of war.

Across the country today military honors were paid to Dern, with salutes fired at half-hour intervals at all army posts, from dawn to dusk.

The funeral train will leave Washington Saturday afternoon immediately after services to be held in the Mount Pleasant Congregational church, under plans worked out today by the war department and members of the Dern family.

Three veterans of the World war were mentioned prominently in speculation over the probable successor to the late secretary.

They were Frank Murphy, state commissioner to the Philippine Islands; Paul V. McNutt, governor of Indiana, and Florella Laguardia, mayor of New York.

Feldman Says Norge Stars Make A Hit

There are five stars that make a hit: Shirley Temple, Norge roller refrigerator, Norge range, Norge ironer and Norge washer, according to E. J. Feldman of the Feldman Electric, local Norge dealer.

In commenting on Shirley Temple in her new picture, "The Poor Little Rich Girl," now playing at the Craterian theater, Mr. Feldman said: "Shirley, the idol of millions, soon fame on performance. So, too, with Norge refrigerators, washers, ironers and ranges—performance has made them favorites in homes everywhere."

Rialto To Feature Musical Westerner

"Guns and Guitars," starring Gene Autry and a large cast of supporting players, including Dorothy Dix and Smiley Burnette, plays at the Rialto theater tomorrow night. This fast-action picture presents Gene and Smiley as musical members of a traveling medicine show who land in the midst of a Texas cattle war. Garner, master psycho-analyst and miracle man, closes his week's engagement at the Rialto theater tomorrow night.

The "Great Pyramid" is believed by many students to be a record of prophecy, and not a tomb.

Coming Sunday

The thrill that comes only with a great discovery awaits patrons at the Rialto theatre with the showing Sunday and Monday of "Let's Sing Again," starring the sensational child vocalist, Bobby Breen, with Henry Armetta (shown above with Bobby) in a featured role.

Radio fans were thrilled at his marvellous voice over the air as Eddie Cantor's "adopted son" in his weekly programs. Great is the only word to describe this talented young performer. He has been called a "nine year old Nelson Eddy" . . . a miniature Allan Jones with a little bit of Al Jolson mixed in for good measure.

Others in the cast of "Let's Sing Again," are George Houston, Grant Withers and Vivienne Osborne.

Two Fatalities.

SALEM, Aug. 28.—(AP)—There were two fatalities due to industrial accidents in Oregon during the week ending August 27, the state industrial accident commission reported today.

The victims were Edward Blaine Harris, Portland, rigging man, and John Maki, Empire, bucker. There were 899 accidents reported to the commission during the week.

Warner Baxter in Sunday Role

Together again, Warner Baxter and Myrna Loy will be at the Craterian theater Sunday in "To Mary—With Love." Claire Trevor, shown in the above scene with Baxter, is included in the supporting cast along with Ian Hunter and Jean Dixon.

Adapted from Robert Sherman's widely read and much discussed Saturday Evening Post story of the same name, "To Mary—With Love," has Baxter and Miss Loy as husband and wife, together rising in social and financial security, only to have the world come toppling down about their ears—as Ian Hunter, former close friend of Miss Loy, almost wins her back when Baxter starts playing around with Claire Trevor. The stock market crash is the solution to their troubles as they face the world and start again together from the bottom.

Tar Party Victims On Witness Stand

SANTA ROSA, Calif., Aug. 28.—(AP)—Two victims of a Santa Rosa tar and feather party last fall told dramatic stories on the witness stand today in the preliminary hearing of 20 citizens accused of kidnaping.

Silva M. A. Green, a sign painter, testified he and Sol Nitzberg a rancher, were reviled, beaten, threatened with lynching and given a coat of black oil and feathers by an angry mob which branded them as communists stirring up trouble during a strike of agricultural workers.
