

SOCIETY and CLUBS

By Janet Wray Smith

Miss Kirtley Home After Orient Visit

Miss Josephine Kirtley returned home this morning from the north after having spent the greater part of the summer traveling in Japan. Miss Kirtley was one of a group of several women from the United States who were guests of the Japanese government.

The group of teachers and instructors were invited to visit Japan in the interests of promoting good will and mutual interest between that country and this. Miss Kirtley being one of two Oregon teachers selected to represent this section of the Pacific coast.

Japanese officials arranged detailed and extensive trips to the most scenic spots of Japan for the visitors and made possible visits to numerous interesting and unusual places, besides entertaining at state dinners and other social functions. The visitors were shown every courtesy and found the cordial expression of welcome extended everywhere a delightful phase of the trip.

Patrons Leave to Make Home 12 South

Mrs. Warner Patton and three children, Helen, Kenneth and Billy left by motor this morning for Berkeley, Calif., where they will make their home for the ensuing year. Miss Doris Patton, another daughter, is visiting friends here for the next fortnight before joining her mother in the south.

The Misses Doris and Helen Patton will continue their studies at Mills college this winter. Mrs. Patton expects to return to Medford and the valley sometime next summer, although her plans are not definite. Her departure is much regretted by many friends.

Surprise Party Saturday Evening

Capt. H. T. Meiring was the honor guest at a surprise party arranged by Mrs. Meiring in honor of his birthday anniversary Saturday evening. Mrs. Meiring invited a few friends for cocktails to their home, the group then driving to Gold Hill for dinner.

Following dinner, the party returned to the Meiring home for an evening of bridge, scoring honors going to Maj. and Mrs. G. R. Owens.

Guests of the evening were Maj. and Mrs. G. R. Owens, Capt. and Mrs. E. W. Gruhn, and Capt. and Mrs. Albert T. Anderson.

Returns After Summer Vacation

Returning to her home here this morning was Mrs. Esther Church Leake, who has spent the summer with her husband in Portland and in Oregon vacation spots. She will spend the winter months here.

Gun sights to fit all guns. Sims Bros., 23 N. Fir.

Crafts Back From Extensive Travels

Returning to Medford this morning with two months of extensive traveling behind them were Lieut. and Mrs. Roy D. Craft, who arrived on the morning train from the south. The Crafts left Medford the latter part of June on a tour of the United States and Europe.

Objective of Lieut. and Mrs. Craft was the 11th Olympiad last month in Berlin, Germany, where they spent two weeks. En route to Berlin, they stopped at several points between here and New York, sailing from New York city on the Queen Mary to London, where they made a short stop. They also visited briefly in Paris, Munich and Vienna before proceeding to Berlin.

From Berlin, the Crafts went to Italy, stopping at Italian cities for short periods and sailing from Genoa for home several days ago. Their travels have been of much interest to their many friends here who were welcoming them home today.

State Chairman To Speak Thursday

Dr. Clara Ingham, of Portland, state W. C. T. U. health chairman, will address the W. C. T. U. bi-county institute to be held here Thursday during the afternoon program.

Delegates from Grants Pass, Ashland, Medford, Reese Creek, Rogue River and Prospect will join the Medford union Thursday morning for the all day session in the First Methodist Episcopal church.

A large crowd is expected as many interesting features have been arranged for the program. Mrs. Ellen Thrasher, of Grants Pass, vice-president, will preside.

Mrs. Holmes Is Visiting Parents

A visitor in the valley for the past few weeks has been Mrs. R. H. Holmes, of Spokane, Wa., who has been the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Strang. She will be remembered here as Miss Helen Strang.

Mrs. Holmes was joined by her husband Sunday and the two expect to return home next week-end.

Mrs. Holmes has been greeted by a large number of old friends while here and has been entertained by a number of other relatives during her stay.

Card of Thanks.

The family of Mrs. Annie E. Looker wish to express their thanks and appreciation to the many friends for sympathy extended in their bereavement and for the beautiful floral offerings.

The Virginia state department of agriculture published an agricultural economics bureau report predicting a smaller meat supply in 1937 than 1936 and "probably" as small as in 1935.

HOODED LEGION'S AIMS SUMMARIZED AS TRIAL OPENED

First 200 Members Were Klansmen Who Dyed Robes After Bickering Broke Out Among Leaders

DETROIT, Sept. 1.—(P)—The Black Legion was described by the Oakland county grand jury today as a terrorist organization with political ambitions which far outran the abilities of its members.

The report, prepared by Circuit Judge George B. Hartick, of Pontiac, was submitted as 12 men went on trial here for the Black Legion "execution" of Charles A. Poole.

"As conceived the Black Legion was a clan with a vengeance, organized to accomplish its objects by force and violence, if necessary; it was a black clan," said Judge Hartick's summary of the findings of the Oakland county grand jury investigation.

The report named 86 state, county, and city employes as members of the hooded order, but said:

"The grand jury has been unable to find any evidence that the Black Legion is an organization of fascist character. . . . No evidence of foreign money to finance the Black Legion has been found."

"Certain it is that the men who are listed as officers of the Black Legion in Oakland county are not possessed of even average intelligence upon governmental affairs, and the ordinary concerns of life. They do not possess the qualities necessary to attract men to their command."

"They are not leaders, nor even worthy followers."

The report declared that "hysterical or unthinking action will not cure the curse of bigotry, prejudice and 'playboy' antics which lead adult men under the moon at night, in hood and robe, to tinker with the constitutional safeguards which our forefathers vouchsafed nearly 150 years ago."

Judge Hartick, who has been conducting hearings for several weeks, said that the Black Legion in Oakland county was disrupted by the dickerings of politicians who sought to gain votes.

"The first 200 members were klansmen who dyed their white robes black."

Board of directors of Medford chapter of the National Aeronautic association will meet in the Jackson County Chamber of Commerce at 5 o'clock Thursday night.

Purpose of the meeting is to consider a program in observance of national aviation week, September 6 to 13, and to discuss future activities of the chapter.

Officers and directors of the recently formed chapter are Max Peirce, president; H. S. Deuel, vice-president; H. A. Banwell, secretary-treasurer; Tom A. Culbertson, W. H. Fluhrer, Chester Hubbard and George R. Johnson.

Harry Coffey of Portland, state governor of the national association, will come to Medford the latter part of the month to install the chapter officers and formally present a charter to the local unit, Mr. Peirce said.

The Medford chapter has been growing steadily in membership since its recent formation, new members coming into the unit voluntarily as no kind of membership campaign has been undertaken, Mr. Peirce stated.

The brothers, John H. Britte, 36, and Coke T. Britte, 34, vanished after the killings early Sunday.

Visiting the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Britte, former Tennessee mountaineers, the brothers said they had thought they were being attacked when the officers and a former navy officer, on vacation, visited their camp at Horse Creek to serve assault warrants.

Claim Hearing Recalled.

The brothers said they were beaten before they began to shoot. Their father advised them to hide out until threats of lynching had abated.

Police members watched the vicinity of the Britte home at Salt Gulch, a mile and a half from the scene of the shooting, in the belief the fugitives might return for food and treatment of their wounds.

Some residents of the mountain region quietly expressed sympathy for the brothers. One said they were "good boys when they were not drinking, but it didn't pay to 'cross' them when they were drunk."

Friends, it was believed, may have permitted the brothers to "hole in" until the fever of the season died.

Charles Baker, who brought the assault charge and escaped when the shooting began, was warned to leave his home, near the 125-acre Britte homestead, but he declared he "would stick around."

Benevolence armed.

The brothers are believed to be armed with a pistol and a rifle.

Sheriff Chandler synchronized the work of his 104 possemen with the Oregon state police from Klamath and Jackson counties. Oregon men were guarding four main roads leading into the Siskiyou mountains and trails where the brothers might emerge.

In California, Sheriff Chandler, aided by dogs, was searching through the valleys and over the ridges. Indian woodsmen, acting as scouts, went five miles ahead of the main groups of searchers.

Mrs. Britte wrote an appeal for her sons to surrender, in which she said: "The sheriff has promised a square deal and I am sure he will keep his promise."

Mother Urges Surrender.

Near their stand, 65-year-old husband, A. J. Britte, a former Tennessee mountaineer, who earlier announced he had advised his sons to hide out until the lynching talk died down.

Mrs. Britte, who signed "Mom" to her appeal, declared: "I guess they oughta give themselves up, but if it comes to shooting they can take care of themselves. They won't never lend themselves to no lynching."

The father, called "Pop" by his sons, smoked his clay pipe as he expressed belief "the boys must have been intimidated into actin' like that."

Both injured.

Britte disclosed that his sons, who visited the parents' home before fleeing early Sunday, were both injured. John, he said, had three head cuts and a slashed arm and Coke a twisted leg and gash in his head.

State and county authorities promised full protection against lynching for the two suspected slayers of Deputy Sheriff Martin Lange, 48, Constable Joseph Clark, 65, and Fred Seaborn, 50, a former navy officer.

"There must be no lynchings in California," Governor Merriam said at Sacramento. The governor said he would call out the national guard if necessary to prevent violence.

OFFICERS CIRCLE COUPLE SOUTH OF BLUE LEDGE MINE

(Continued from Page One)

cific highway and the Ashland watershed roads and trails was also discontinued late yesterday.

YREKA, Calif., Sept. 1.—(AP)—Belief that friends may be concealing two brothers sought as the slayers of three men, or that the fugitives have escaped through rough mountain country into Oregon was expressed by posse members today.

The brothers, John H. Britte, 36, and Coke T. Britte, 34, vanished after the killings early Sunday.

Visiting the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Britte, former Tennessee mountaineers, the brothers said they had thought they were being attacked when the officers and a former navy officer, on vacation, visited their camp at Horse Creek to serve assault warrants.

Claim Hearing Recalled.

The brothers said they were beaten before they began to shoot. Their father advised them to hide out until threats of lynching had abated.

Police members watched the vicinity of the Britte home at Salt Gulch, a mile and a half from the scene of the shooting, in the belief the fugitives might return for food and treatment of their wounds.

Some residents of the mountain region quietly expressed sympathy for the brothers. One said they were "good boys when they were not drinking, but it didn't pay to 'cross' them when they were drunk."

SUSPECTED YEGG KILLED IN CHASE NEAR TILLAMOOK

(Continued from Page One)

scription of the machine in which the safe-blowers escaped.

Patrolling the highways south of here, they saw the machine pass them in an opposite direction. Swinging about, they pursued it.

"We sounded the siren several times," said Kearney. "The driver speeded up and several times tried to wreck us. We saw the driver flash a gun from his side of the car and we fired, trying to hit the tires."

Driver Escapes.

"All of a sudden the machine slowed down and the driver leaped out, heading into the woods. We found his companion bleeding from a head wound and he died en route to a hospital."

The dead man was said by Deputy Coroner Ben Coleman to be in his thirties. He was dressed in light tan canvas trousers, a blue shirt and tweed coat and was slightly bald with sandy hair and dark brown eyes. His body was heavily tattooed and he had a mustache.

In his pockets, Coleman said, dynamite caps, one with a fuse attached, were found. There was no other clue to identification.

Capt. Gurdane said state police and deputies were patrolling the wooded regions south of here in hope of running down the driver of the machine.

REBEL WARPLANES DROP DEATH, RUIN ON COAST CITIES

(Continued from Page One)

Four government planes retaliated late today by bombing rebel ranks at insurgent land forces pushed a slight advance against defenders on the summit of Mount Turtiarte, just outside Irun.

The government artillery shelled rebel positions ceaselessly.

A rebel shell fell in the French town of Behobie, but caused no damage.

Explosions of bombs on the Spanish side of the frontier shook houses in Hendaye.

Fascist bombing planes also dropped a number of bombs again upon Madrid, but a preliminary survey showed only slight damage.

The capital was aroused by screaming sirens. Searchlights swept the skies. Anti-aircraft batteries and machine guns roared out against the aerial raiders.

The bombardment lasted for almost three-quarters of an hour. Then small groups of frightened citizens began to emerge from subway stations, basements and lower floors of their homes.

Later, the ministry of war reported officially the air raid had been repelled successfully by anti-aircraft units, and that the rebel planes were forced to flee.

No one was injured and no important damage caused, the announcement stated.

Sub Repels Planes

A similar air raid at Bilbao was said by the government to have been frustrated by a government submarine, which fired from the dock where it was being repaired.

Madrid's citizenry, now accustomed to the thundering explosions of aerial bombs and the blast of anti-aircraft pieces, walked quietly about the streets after today's raid.

There was much grumbling, however, over loss of sleep.

Reorganization of the socialist Spanish cabinet to include one communist member was reported under consideration today.

SOLENN THROG PAYS LAST HONOR TO DERN IN SALT LAKE RITES

(Continued from Page One)

hearse from the station, accompanied by Gov. Henry H. Blood. Then they retired to a hotel to permit the public to pay respects before the funeral at 3 p. m.

President Roosevelt, who interrupted a drought tour to come here for the rites, remained aboard his train behind drawn blinds.

Leaders had made plain the chief executive, mourning the death of one to whom he had been close since

AERO CHAPTER BOARD WILL MEET THURSDAY TO PLAN FOR FUTURE

Board of directors of Medford chapter of the National Aeronautic association will meet in the Jackson County Chamber of Commerce at 5 o'clock Thursday night.

Purpose of the meeting is to consider a program in observance of national aviation week, September 6 to 13, and to discuss future activities of the chapter.

Officers and directors of the recently formed chapter are Max Peirce, president; H. S. Deuel, vice-president; H. A. Banwell, secretary-treasurer; Tom A. Culbertson, W. H. Fluhrer, Chester Hubbard and George R. Johnson.

Harry Coffey of Portland, state governor of the national association, will come to Medford the latter part of the month to install the chapter officers and formally present a charter to the local unit, Mr. Peirce said.

The Medford chapter has been growing steadily in membership since its recent formation, new members coming into the unit voluntarily as no kind of membership campaign has been undertaken, Mr. Peirce stated.

CANADIAN WOMEN IN AUTO SMASHUP

The Canadian car which was reported yesterday to have got out of control eight miles north of Medford when the driver became distracted by a bee, was driven by Miss Alice Peet of Vancouver, B. C., city police announced today. Miss Violet E. Peet, 22-year-old sister of the driver, sustained a badly bruised and possibly chipped knee cap.

Miss Peet reported to police that she had just passed another auto while heading south, and the bee, or wasp, got into the car through a side window. In an effort to chase the insect out of the car, she lost control of the machine, swerved off the road, careened into an embankment, and then ended by crossing the highway again, she said. The sisters were en route to California.

The poetic and sentimental legend that birds sleep with their heads under their wings is not true.

GUARANTEED RELIEF FROM CONSTIPATION

Common constipation is usually due to meals low in "bulk." Pills and drugs give only temporary relief. The sensible thing to do is to put "bulk" back into your meals.

Millions of people get this needed "bulk" in a delicious cereal: Kellogg's ALL-BRAN. Its "bulk" is much like that in leafy vegetables. Within the body, it absorbs moisture, forms a soft mass, gently cleanses the system.

Some years ago, an investigation was made among thousands of ALL-BRAN users. One per cent found it satisfactory. Only 2 per cent had the type of constipation that would not respond to ALL-BRAN.

ALL-BRAN is guaranteed. Try it a week. If not satisfactory, your money will be refunded by the Kellogg Company.

Just eat two tablespoonfuls daily, either as cereal or in cooked dishes. ALL-BRAN is sold by all grocers. Made by Kellogg in Battle Creek.

ASK CHANGE OF VENUE IN SUIT TO TEST LAW ON LABOR INSURANCE

(Continued from Page One)

Under the usual court procedure an affidavit of prejudice is granted without consent.

Attorney George M. Roberts, representing the packing concern, said it was his impression, the attorney-general's office would represent the unemployment commission, and had written the attorney-general to clear up this point.

The packing plants filed suit ten days ago attacking constitutionality of the jobless insurance law, upon the grounds it was "discriminatory," contrary to both the federal and state constitutions, that many of the workers coming under the law were transient, seasonal workers, and that the packing plants came under the "agricultural exemption" clauses of the unemployment insurance law.

LOYALISTS RETALIATE

Four government planes retaliated late today by bombing rebel ranks at insurgent land forces pushed a slight advance against defenders on the summit of Mount Turtiarte, just outside Irun.

The government artillery shelled rebel positions ceaselessly.

A rebel shell fell in the French town of Behobie, but caused no damage.

Explosions of bombs on the Spanish side of the frontier shook houses in Hendaye.

Fascist bombing planes also dropped a number of bombs again upon Madrid, but a preliminary survey showed only slight damage.

The capital was aroused by screaming sirens. Searchlights swept the skies. Anti-aircraft batteries and machine guns roared out against the aerial raiders.

The bombardment lasted for almost three-quarters of an hour. Then small groups of frightened citizens began to emerge from subway stations, basements and lower floors of their homes.

Later, the ministry of war reported officially the air raid had been repelled successfully by anti-aircraft units, and that the rebel planes were forced to flee.

No one was injured and no important damage caused, the announcement stated.

Sub Repels Planes

A similar air raid at Bilbao was said by the government to have been frustrated by a government submarine, which fired from the dock where it was being repaired.

Madrid's citizenry, now accustomed to the thundering explosions of aerial bombs and the blast of anti-aircraft pieces, walked quietly about the streets after today's raid.

There was much grumbling, however, over loss of sleep.

Reorganization of the socialist Spanish cabinet to include one communist member was reported under consideration today.

ASK CHANGE OF VENUE IN SUIT TO TEST LAW ON LABOR INSURANCE

(Continued from Page One)

Under the usual court procedure an affidavit of prejudice is granted without consent.

Attorney George M. Roberts, representing the packing concern, said it was his impression, the attorney-general's office would represent the unemployment commission, and had written the attorney-general to clear up this point.

The packing plants filed suit ten days ago attacking constitutionality of the jobless insurance law, upon the grounds it was "discriminatory," contrary to both the federal and state constitutions, that many of the workers coming under the law were transient, seasonal workers, and that the packing plants came under the "agricultural exemption" clauses of the unemployment insurance law.

LOYALISTS RETALIATE

Four government planes retaliated late today by bombing rebel ranks at insurgent land forces pushed a slight advance against defenders on the summit of Mount Turtiarte, just outside Irun.

The government artillery shelled rebel positions ceaselessly.

A rebel shell fell in the French town of Behobie, but caused no damage.

Explosions of bombs on the Spanish side of the frontier shook houses in Hendaye.

Fascist bombing planes also dropped a number of bombs again upon Madrid, but a preliminary survey showed only slight damage.

The capital was aroused by screaming sirens. Searchlights swept the skies. Anti-aircraft batteries and machine guns roared out against the aerial raiders.

The bombardment lasted for almost three-quarters of an hour. Then small groups of frightened citizens began to emerge from subway stations, basements and lower floors of their homes.

Later, the ministry of war reported officially the air raid had been repelled successfully by anti-aircraft units, and that the rebel planes were forced to flee.

No one was injured and no important damage caused, the announcement stated.

Sub Repels Planes

A similar air raid at Bilbao was said by the government to have been frustrated by a government submarine, which fired from the dock where it was being repaired.

Madrid's citizenry, now accustomed to the thundering explosions of aerial bombs and the blast of anti-aircraft pieces, walked quietly about the streets after today's raid.

There was much grumbling, however, over loss of sleep.

Reorganization of the socialist Spanish cabinet to include one communist member was reported under consideration today.

ASK CHANGE OF VENUE IN SUIT TO TEST LAW ON LABOR INSURANCE

(Continued from Page One)

Under the usual court procedure an affidavit of prejudice is granted without consent.

Attorney George M. Roberts, representing the packing concern, said it was his impression, the attorney-general's office would represent the unemployment commission, and had written the attorney-general to clear up this point.

The packing plants filed suit ten days ago attacking constitutionality of the jobless insurance law, upon the grounds it was "discriminatory," contrary to both the federal and state constitutions, that many of the workers coming under the law were transient, seasonal workers, and that the packing plants came under the "agricultural exemption" clauses of the unemployment insurance law.

LOYALISTS RETALIATE

Four government planes retaliated late today by bombing rebel ranks at insurgent land forces pushed a slight advance against defenders on the summit of Mount Turtiarte, just outside Irun.

The government artillery shelled rebel positions ceaselessly.

A rebel shell fell in the French town of Behobie, but caused no damage.

Explosions of bombs on the Spanish side of the frontier shook houses in Hendaye.

Fascist bombing planes also dropped a number of bombs again upon Madrid, but a preliminary survey showed only slight damage.

The capital was aroused by screaming sirens. Searchlights swept the skies. Anti-aircraft batteries and machine guns roared out against the aerial raiders.

The bombardment lasted for almost three-quarters of an hour. Then small groups of frightened citizens began to emerge from subway stations, basements and lower floors of their homes.

Later, the ministry of war reported officially the air raid had been repelled successfully by anti-aircraft units, and that the rebel planes were forced to flee.

No one was injured and no important damage caused, the announcement stated.

Sub Repels Planes

A similar air raid at Bilbao was said by the government to have been frustrated by a government submarine, which fired from the dock where it was being repaired.

Madrid's citizenry, now accustomed to the thundering explosions of aerial bombs and the blast of anti-aircraft pieces, walked quietly about the streets after today's raid.

There was much grumbling, however, over loss of sleep.

Reorganization of the socialist Spanish cabinet to include one communist member was reported under consideration today.

ASK CHANGE OF VENUE IN SUIT TO TEST LAW ON LABOR INSURANCE

(Continued from Page One)

Under the usual court procedure an affidavit of prejudice is granted without consent.

Attorney George M. Roberts, representing the packing concern, said it was his impression, the attorney-general's office would represent the unemployment commission, and had written the attorney-general to clear up this point.

The packing plants filed suit ten days ago attacking constitutionality of the jobless insurance law, upon the grounds it was "discriminatory," contrary to both the federal and state constitutions, that many of the workers coming under the law were transient, seasonal workers, and that the packing plants came under the "agricultural exemption" clauses of the unemployment insurance law.

LOYALISTS RETALIATE

Four government planes retaliated late today by bombing rebel ranks at insurgent land forces pushed a slight advance against defenders on the summit of Mount Turtiarte, just outside Irun.

The government artillery shelled rebel positions ceaselessly.

A rebel shell fell in the French town of Behobie, but caused no damage.

Explosions of bombs on the Spanish side of the frontier shook houses in Hendaye.

Fascist bombing planes also dropped a number of bombs again upon Madrid, but a preliminary survey showed only slight damage.

The capital was aroused by screaming sirens. Searchlights swept the skies. Anti-aircraft batteries and machine guns roared out against the aerial raiders.

The bombardment lasted for almost three-quarters of an hour. Then small groups of frightened citizens began to emerge from subway stations, basements and lower floors of their homes.

Later, the ministry of war reported officially the air raid had been repelled successfully by anti-aircraft units, and that the rebel planes were forced to flee.

No one was injured and no important damage caused, the announcement stated.

Sub Repels Planes

A similar air raid at Bilbao was said by the government to have been frustrated by a government submarine, which fired from the dock where it was being repaired.

Madrid's citizenry, now accustomed to the thundering explosions of aerial bombs and the blast of anti-aircraft pieces, walked quietly about the streets after today's raid.

There was much grumbling, however, over loss of sleep.

Reorganization of the socialist Spanish cabinet to include one communist member was reported under consideration today.

PEACHES and PLUMS! ARE Cheap!

Make more and better Jams and Jellies this year with M.C.P. Liquid PECTIN 15¢ Makes 22 6 oz. Glasses

CONTENTS OF EACH CAN FILLS A STANDARD 8 OZ. MEASURING CUP

SPARK Gives You Both CIRCULATING & RADIANT HEAT

SPARK, the ONLY oil heater especially designed to meet Western heating problems, is really a two-in-one heater. It gives you both CIRCULATING heat and RADIANT heat, because both types of heat are necessary for satisfactory heating in the average Western home. That is why Spark is so much more efficient and more satisfactory in Western homes. Another important feature is the patented Spark "Air-O-Mix" Burner, which was designed and perfected especially for use with Western oils.

SPARK PATENTED OIL BURNING HEATER

Instead of sending its heat out through the top, Spark has a FRONT heat discharge grill, which sends an instant flow of gentle, healthful, CIRCULATING heat out into the "living zone" of your rooms. In addition to the circulating heat, Spark gives you direct, RADIANT heat through its bright, cheerful fan-shaped flame, which warms the floor in front of the heater, just as an open fireplace would do.

In TWO BEAUTIFUL FINISHES: FULL PORCELAIN ENAMEL, SEAL GRAIN FINISH, AND BAKED ENAMEL, CRYSTOLAC FINISH.

TERMS TO SUIT PEOPLE'S ELECTRIC STORE

214 W. MAIN PHONE 252

$1. Special By the Kennell Ellis Studio

For a limited time only—Any child accompanied by a pet will receive 1 lovely 5-7 enlargement in folder for just $1.00.

Age limit: Nine years of age . . . children must be accompanied by parent.

Appointments necessary to keep dogs and cats apart . . . bring in any pet . . . just one picture to a child . . . selection of proofs.

Kennell Ellis Studio
32 No. Central Phone 329

Did We Remember—

To tell you about SNIDER'S NEW BUTTER-FLAKED butter milk? Now is your chance to try and to like a butter milk that far surpasses anything in Southern Oregon today. Rich in nutrition, tasty with all the goodness that makes it better, and so economical, too.

Snider DAIRY & PRODUCE CO.
PHONE 203 N. BARILLET ST.