

Lions Earn 7-7 Tie With College All Stars By Last Period Drive

PROS GET CHANCE WHEN COLLEGIAN FUMBLES PIGSKIN

All-Stars Have 9 to 5 Advantage in First Downs — Lions Able to Complete Only One Pass in Five

By WILLIAM WEEKES Associated Press Sports Writer. CHICAGO, Sept. 3. — (AP) — The prestige of professional football, defended by the National league champion Detroit Lions, was still intact today — but badly bent by an inspired band of former college stars.

Last night before a throng of 76,381 at Soldier Field, the Lions, led by their ace, Earl (Dutch) Clark, had to stage a desperate last period drive to earn a 7 to 7 tie with the all-stars of 1936.

Stars Score First. The All Stars gave the crowd its first big thrill in the second period of the third annual battle, by scoring the first touchdown.

A break, a heartbreaking fumble by one of the heroes of the All Star drive, Alphonse (Tuffy) Leemans of George Washington University, early in the final session, gave the Lions an opening, and with Clark setting the tempo, the tying score was not long in coming.

Clark drop-kicked the extra point. The All Stars started their first attack drive early in the second period, with Vernal (Babe) Le Volr of Minnesota and Leemans collaborating in taking the ball to the four-yard line where it was lost on downs. Frank Christensen kicked out to the Lions' 20. Leemans tossed a pass to Frank (Dutch) Loeb of Purdue, for 20 yards, and on the next play, Le Volr took the ball from a Minnesota teammate, Sheldon Heise, on a reverse and hustled the last 17 yards over the goal line. Wally Fromhart of Notre Dame, placekicked for the extra point.

Drop Kick Falls. Clark missed a 35-yard dropkick attempt in the first period, and a few minutes later, Glen Pressnell, Lion halfback, failed on a place-kick try for 25 yards out.

The All Stars had a 0 to 5 advantage in first downs, and outgained the pros, 184 yards to 126, by all methods. The Lions, however, largely through their last period attack, outgained the collegians from scrimmage, 124 yards to 117. The Lions' passing game, highly successful in league battles last year, completed only one drive out of five, while the All Stars connected on four out of eight.

The spectacle, delayed a day by rain, drew a gross gate of $130,146, the profits from which will be turned over to Chicago charities.

CARDS CASH IN ON GIANTS HARD LUCK

(By Associated Press.) Lady Luck has given Bill Terry the cold shoulder. She turned her back on him yesterday for the first time since his astonishing Giants started their drive to the top of the National league heap, and just about handed the Cardinals a 4-3 win over the New Yorkers, cutting their lead to three points.

For more than a month the Giants haven't run up against a single bad break. But in the opener of one important two-game set with the gas-house gang, the abc's was on the other foot. With the Giants out in front 2-2 in the seventh inning, second-sacker Burgess Whitehead collided with young Stu Martin and suffered a deep cut under his right eye.

Terry had to call on the erratic fielding Mark Koenig for replacement. The first two fielding chances Koenig had he booted. And the card cashed in on the errors for three runs and the ball game.

With the Cubs also winning yesterday—downing the Dodgers 4-0 behind Tex Carleton's seven-hit pitching—the red-hot race still remained a three-way fight down the stretch. The rest of the league was rained out.

SONNY WALKER KAYOS ERWIN SECOND FRAME SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 3. — (AP) — Sonny Walker chalked up a second-round knockout over "Moose" Erwin of Los Angeles on his victory list today.

The aggressive Phoenix, Ariz., heavyweight flattened his foe with a terrific right-hander to the jaw shortly after the second frame opened here last night.

Madcap Gets Rematch

Above is Johnny Soos, mad-cap wrestler, who kicked weakened old Pat O'Brien in the ribs in their last match and then had to make a slide for life down a rope from a second floor window to keep the shillalah-fisted shambucker from beating him with a folding chair. The two have been rematched for the Labor Day opener, with the Hibernalan posting $50 to be given to charity in the event he should lose to the meanie again.

ANGRY IRISHMAN GETS CHANCE TO AVENGE BEATING

Last week when Johnny Soos, bow-legged ruffian from Indiana, kicked Pat O'Brien of Ireland in the ribs after taking the final fall, the Hibernalan became so wild-eyed that he chased Soos to his dressing room armed with a chair. Soos fled out a second story window, letting himself to the ground on a fire-pole rope, and changed his clothes in his hotel room two blocks away.

O'Brien is still wild-eyed about the slat buffeting, and is so anxious to tangle again with Soos that he has agreed to forfeit $50 to some charity if he falls to pin back the meanie's ears. Lillard, knowing the acuffie would be one of the best on the card, wanted to make the event a top spot, but the other muscle chewers on the program refused flatly to appear under Soos. "Soos in the opener, or else," they told the promoter, so the most promising battle of the century will be the opener on the three-pley card.

Dude Chick, giant ex-cowpuncher, whose larlat spins and other devastating holds have accounted for wins in every match he has appeared in here, with one exception against Ken Hollis, will meet the Tulsa Blacksmith, George Craig, in the main event, which will be the only clean match on the bill. Craig, originator and only master of the anvil flip, a combination of chin lift and tight flying mare, hopes to use his specialty in downing the cowpuncher. Ruggedly built, fast, and a clever wrestler, Craig will undoubtedly give Chick a struggle, but few can be found who think he will be able to muster the range rider.

Probably the best match on the bill will be between Joe Hubka, blond football star from Nebraska, and Bob ("Bully") Montgomery. Montgomery has lost but one battle out of six here, going down before Chick last Monday, and Hubka has won all of

START QUALIFYING FRIDAY AFTERNOON IN GOLF TOURNEY

More Out-of-Town Entries Received Today — Rain Leaves Rogue Valley Course in Fine Condition

Out-of-town entries for the big Southern Oregon-Northern California Championship tournament are still coming in fast, with six more received this morning, it was made known. Qualifying rounds will begin tomorrow afternoon, with that the last day for registrations.

Local registrations, too, have been coming in rapidly, with the assurance that this, the eighth annual event of its kind, will be the biggest and best tourney held to date. One arrangement that is appealing to all is the method of handicap arranging. Players of like handicaps will be paired, so that high handicap players will not be thrown against ace golfers in the first rounds.

Many tournaments are arranged by blind drawing of opponents, often resulting in the early elimination of the average players. The system being used in this tourney is expected to result in added interest among all the players.

Interest is high among local golfers and followers of the game, in the chance of a local man walking away with the plum. With the annual event bringing in increasingly large numbers of first flight players from all parts of the state and northern California, the chances are becoming smaller for the local shot makers. Local aces have one decidedly strong advantage—they know every inch of the course and have learned to avoid the cleverly concealed traps that lure the ball of the novice.

Several Medford men are given an excellent chance of taking the prize, among them being the two-time winner, Bob Hammond, Hammond's terrifically long driving and deft short work should earn him high ranking. Leland Clark, Eddie Simmons and Tom Emmons are others who have either won the tournament or been medalists in the past few years. Don Clark, father of the event, is also rated better than an average chance. Among the outside registrations to-

AMERICANS SCORE SHUTOUT IN FIRST WALKER MATCHES

2 to 0 Victory Chalked Up by Yanks in Scotch Foursomes—Singles Matches Today Complete Tourney

CLEMENTON, N. J., Sept. 3. — (AP) — Routing its British foes with decisive victories, the United States today won the Walker cup, emblematic of international team golf supremacy.

Victory in the fight never lost since the amateur series was started in 1922, was clinched by Charley Yates of Atlanta, who furnished the winning point with an 8 and 7 triumph over J. Morton Dykes.

Reynolds Smith of Dallas supplied the largest margin of victory, routing Alec Hill, 11 and 8. Behind him came Johnny Fischer of Cincinnati, who whalloped Cecil Ewing of Ireland, 8 and 7, and Scotty Campbell of Seattle, who finished with a sub-par rush to defeat the crack Scot, Jack McLean, 5 and 4. With the two points scored in yesterday's Scotch foursomes, the United States had a total of six points out of a possible 10.

SBABO SHOWS LEWIS FIRST WIN NO FLUKE

PORTLAND, Sept. 3. — (AP) — Sandor Szabo proved his recent victory over Ed "Strangler" Lewis was no fluke last night by taking two out of three falls from the Glendale, Cal., grappler on the main event of a mat card here.

The 220-pound Hungarian lost the first fall to Lewis, who weighed in at 238, in 20:10, but came back to take the second on a foul in five minutes and the third with a suplex in 2:13.

Chief Little Wolf, 215, Trinidad, Colo., won a fall in 41:55 from Pat Fraley, 220, Minneapolis; Vincent Lopez, 225, Los Angeles, threw "Rusty" Westcott, 220, Honolulu, in 2:10 of the fourth round.
