"GROCETERIA GOODNESS"

The Labor Day Outing is another example of how well known is "Grocery Goodness." You've heard much about "Grocery Goodness" at parties and other functions where women are gathered. Now we want you to notice the picnickers who may be near you when you take your double holiday outing.

Watch the sacks and packages and see where nearly everybody buys their foods for special occasions. Should you by chance stop where others have been and left sacks—boxes or paper behind them—note the preponderance of Grocery wrappings. You will learn that "Grocery Goodness" and Grocery Economy are so well known that nearly everybody trades at the Groceries.

To materially cut your living costs yet get the full enjoyment of "Grocery Food Goodness"—follow the crowds to the Groceries.

SUPER MEAT MARKETS

"Grocery Goodness"

Whether at home or on an outing you will want "Grocery Goodness" to add to the comfort and enjoyment of the double holiday.

For the picnicker we've planned for every meal. For breakfast—Armour's Star Ham—Morrell's Pride Bacon—Farm Style Sausage with real country seasoning—and freshly roasted and ground Z-Mor-U Coffee.

For dinner—Swift & Co. Milk Fed Fryers—Fancy Steer Steaks to broil over the camp grid—potato salad and a host of other good things to add to picnic delight.

For those who stay at home—Tender Steer Beef roasts—steaks and all the good things that make the cooking easier and the food better.

Suggestion—Cook a large Beef Roast on Sunday and serve cold on Labor Day. That gives the cook a chance to enjoy the holiday.
