By JANET WRAY SMITH

Large Crowd Guests Of Valley Club For Dance Last Evening

A pleasing combination of sporting and social activities was the dance arranged last evening at the former Town club house by the Rogue River Valley Golf club in compliment to visiting golfers competing in the annual Southern Oregon-Northern California golf tournament.

The affair was a major event of the week-end, with a large crowd of golfers, their friends and guests gathering informally to renew acquaintances made at former tournaments and to chat of the day's happenings. Several small dinner and cocktail parties preceded the larger dance.

In charge of the affair were W. L. Beeny, chairman; and Harold Johnson, Cecil Stevens, of Portland, and Harry McMann. The dance is considered as adding much to the spirit of the annual tournament.

Between 75 and 100 couples were guests of the club.

Medford Couple Wed In Ashland

ASHLAND, Sept. 5.—(Sp.)—At a quiet wedding service at 9:30 p. m. Thursday in Ashland, Miss Clara Hanscom, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Hanscom of Medford, was married to Joseph L. Pader, also of Medford, by Rev. D. E. Nourse at the Congregational manse.

The bride was attractively dressed in a street length aqua-blue silk suit, and wore a shoulder corsage of roses. They were unattended.

Those present at the short ceremony included Mr. and Mrs. Hanscom, Cecil Hanscom of Medford, and Miss Ruth E. Hanscom of Ashland.

Mr. and Mrs. Pader graduated from the Medford high school in 1934, and from the Southern Oregon Normal school in 1936. Mr. Pader was the editor of the Stikvily, Normal school during the year 1935-1936. They will make their home near Milton, Ore., where Mr. Pader has accepted a position as principal of the school.

Young People of Church Entertained

A wienie roast out-of-doors was arranged to entertain members of the Young People's society of the Church of God Monday evening at the J. W. Gustafson home on the Jacksonville highway. Games provided diversion during the evening.

Observe Golden Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Job, of Phoenix, who were honored Tuesday evening with a large party in observance of their fiftieth wedding anniversary.

61 Guests Gather To Honor Couple At Phoenix Home

Congratulations and gifts from friends throughout southern Oregon poured in on Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Job at their home in Phoenix Tuesday on the occasion of their fiftieth wedding anniversary.

The Phoenix home of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd V. Bell, daughter and son-in-law of Mr. and Mrs. Job, was the setting Tuesday evening for a large gathering of relatives and friends of the couple, 61 guests going present.

Relatives present were Ona E. Job, son of the honored couple, and his son, Dale, and daughter Irma, of Stockton, Calif.; Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Aboud, daughter and son-in-law, and children, Leora, Alice, Sheari and Grace and Vernon, also of Stockton, Calif.; Mr. and Mrs. Floyd V. Bell and children, Doris, Darrell and Marion; Mrs. Katie Liles, a niece of Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Job, of Eugene; and Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Liles and son, Charles, also of Eugene, he being a nephew of the Jobs.

Included in entertainment of the evening were two piano solos played by Doris Bell and readings by Alice Aboud and Virgil Liles. Refreshments were served late in the evening.

Mrs. Job was born in Illinois May 18, 1866, and came to Oregon in 1882, where she married Mr. Job September 1, 1886 at Eugene. Mr. Job was born near Eugene May 21, 1881, when Oregon was still a territory.

Look Forward To College Openings

As September opens, the fancy of both young men and young girls turns to thoughts of college and, although summer vacations are very nice, not many are sorry to exchange school books and classrooms.

Old students returning are already looking forward to greeting old friends and planning football excursions and campus activities while those entering for the first time find the prospect of campus life the most exciting thing in view.

Oregon State college and the University of Oregon of course claim the larger share of valley students, but many will trek to distant camps in neighboring states or prefer the smaller Oregon schools. Those who remain at home find time to plan active week-ends and vacation periods for home-coming students.

Dancing Teacher Reopens Classes Following Study

Of interest to those artistically inclined, was the return during the past week of Eve Benson of the Benson Studio of the Dance after two weeks in San Francisco and Los Angeles securing material for the coming season from various studios and schools of dancing, among them the celebrated Panchon Marzo school.

Talented pupils who desire to specialize in dancing as a career will be carefully coached and prepared for an audition at this famous school, which will be the outlet provided by the Benson studio for Medford pupils sufficiently qualified.

Some very interesting phases of the dance will be taught this season in group and solo forms, states Mrs. Benson, who has announced reopening of her studio September 8. Ballroom classes and private instruction will be resumed for juniors and adults, and the kindergarten will also be reopened.

The return to "swing music" and the more gracefully rhythmic dance forms in the ballroom is lending definite interest to the approaching social season in the larger cities, says Mrs. Benson, an interest which she hopes to bring to local circles.

Pupils of Mrs. Benson's studio will perform in a short program at the Craterian theater between shows Monday night.

W.C.T.U. Planning Meeting Program

Plans are being completed by those in charge of the monthly session of the Women's Christian Temperance union announced for next Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock in the parlor of the First Presbyterian church.

Business affairs will feature the meeting, with devotions to be in charge of Mrs. E. Iverson. Rev. Sherman L. Divine will address the group on a phase of citizenship. Of particular interest will be a letter recently received from the Children's Home in Corvallis, a reading and discussion of which is also to be part of the program.

A welcome is to be extended to new members and all old members are particularly urged to be present for this. A cordial invitation is issued to anyone interested.

Miss English Bride Of Richard Wilson In Simple Ceremony

Miss Virginia English, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. V. English, became the bride of Richard B. Wilson in a quiet ceremony solemnized at 4 o'clock yesterday evening at the home of the bride's parents. Mr. Wilson is the son of Mr. R. H. Wilson.

The ring service was performed by Rev. Sherman L. Divine in the presence of only immediate members of the families, twelve being present. The bride, given away by her father, wore an afternoon dress of blue net over taffeta and a corsage of gardenias and tiny rosebuds. Giddioli and other seasonal blooms in soft autumn shades made a colorful background for the wedding party.

Following the quiet ceremony, an informal buffet supper was served to the guests, bride and groom leaving soon after for a several days' wedding trip in the south. Upon their return, they will be at home at 242 South Holly street.

Both bride and groom have spent the greater part of their lives here, graduating from Medford high school. They are receiving the congratulations of a large number of friends here.

Out of town guests here for the wedding were Mrs. D. O. Horr, of Spokane, Wis., aunt of the bride, and Mr. and Mrs. Luke Lange, of Yreka, Calif. Mrs. Lange is a sister of the bridegroom.

Former Resident Guest of Friends

Among recent visitors in Medford and the valley was Miss Celeste Slau-son, now of Hackensack, New Jersey, and who formerly lived here. Miss Slau-son was connected with the library here for some time several years ago and has a number of friends in southern Oregon.

Miss Slau-son was accompanied on her visit here last week-end by Miss Josephine Garafalo, also of Hackensack, who was making her first trip to the western coast. The two were guests of Mrs. D. W. Luke and Miss Elizabeth Burr at their home on the Old Stage Road during their stay here and were greeted by a large number of friends.

Among those entertaining for them was Mrs. Una B. Inch, Miss Fay Woolsey, Mrs. Leland Metzger and Miss Burr also arranged an informal outing for the visitors at the Metzger summer home on Rogue river.

Also a guest of Mrs. Luke and Miss Burr last week-end was Miss Geraldine Davis, of Lanford, North Dakota, who stopped en route home after a trans-continental tour. She was also entertained by friends in Ashland.

The W. C. T. U.

Among those appearing on the morning program at the annual bi-country convention held at the First Methodist-Episcopal church here Thursday was Mrs. Marietta Pratt, of Grants Pass, whose topic was "Fellowship." Election of officers, reports and appointments of committees took up the morning hours. The noonday prayer was offered by Mrs. Minnie Sams, of Rogue River. Dr. Clara Ingham, of Portland, state W. C. T. U. health chairman, addressed the assembly during luncheon as an guest speaker.

Mrs. Eva Patrick, of Ashland, conducted the afternoon devotional period, which was followed by a vocal solo by Mrs. A. E. Lyman, "Jesus, Redeemer." Mrs. Rozella Douglas, of Grants Pass, was appointed parliamentarian for the year. The first of the principal addresses of the afternoon was that of the president, Mrs. Ellen Thrasher, whose topic was "Forces and Field."

Mrs. Thrasher discussed the officers and their duties and membership; and presented a map of Jackson and Josephine counties showing organization, present and future. Reports of the work of different unions included: Medford—temperance teaching in Sunday schools and vacation Bible schools; Light Line union; girls to the C. F. Home; baby budget; Ashland—placing of Young Crusader in grade schools and girls to C. F. Home; Prospect—W. C. T. U. union and Youth's Temperance council, organized by Mrs. Neels Buck during her recent visit.

Other work reported was: Reese Creek—two quilts to C. F. H. and organization of Y. T. C. expected today. Grants Pass and Rogue River—budgets raised and work along varied lines.

Rev. Rozella Douglas, of Grants Pass, also addressed the group, speaking on "The Cigarette—A Burning Question." She pointed out the loss of property from fires caused by smokers and sketched evolution of bill-board advertising of cigarettes. She also stated that authorities are alarmed over the increasing use of marijuana.

Mrs. Ellen Thrasher, of Grants Pass, was elected delegate to the state convention to be held in The Dalles, Sept. 29 to Oct. 2.

Resolutions presented by the committee were: (1) We recommend more strict enforcement of drunken driving penalties; (2) no liquor to be sold to anyone under 21; (3) no person under 21 years of age, with or without guardians, be allowed in places where intoxicating liquors are sold; (4) the teaching of harmful effects of alcohol and narcotic drugs be brought to the attention of teachers; (5) W. C. T. U. will stand behind all candidates for public office who advocate prohibition.

In closing, the courtesy committee expressed thanks of the assembled delegates for the use of the church and hospitality of the city and to the press for cooperation.

Modern art will form the subject to be studied this year, with all topics to be related. Plans now under way call for the appearance of outside speakers, the direction of research in libraries, and other information sources and other phases of the study.

Sub-topics to be taken up will be as follows: 19th Century Painting and Sculpture; Romanticism of Belgium, Holland and Scandinavia; Spanish Painting; Romanticism in France; The Baroque School; Romantic Schools of English Painting; Pre-Raphaelite Brotherhood; American Art; and American Landscape.

Beers-Axland Rites Solemnized Tuesday

Miss Goldie Beers, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. U. Beers, of Mapleton, Ore., became the bride of Harold G. Axland, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Axland, of Newark, Ill., in a quiet ceremony last Tuesday morning.

The ceremony was solemnized at 10 o'clock in the Lutheran church, with Rev. H. H. Young reading the service. Attending the young couple were Mr. and Mrs. Victor Marshall, of Medford, and Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Crafts, of Eugene.

The bride wore a yellow traveling suit with matching accessories and a corsage of pink rosebuds. Bride and groom left immediately after the service for a few days' honeymoon in California, returning to make their home here.

The bride has lived in Medford for the past year, coming here from Eugene. Mr. Axland has been a resident of the city for about two years, and both have many friends here. A number of pre-nuptial showers honored Mrs. Axland.

Zuleima Temple to Convene in Ashland For Initial Meeting

Even without the weather to guide us, there can be no doubt of the definite wanting of summer as social and club groups once again prepare for a season of increased activity after the usual lapse during summer months.

Important among the first of fall meetings to be scheduled is that of Zuleima temple, Daughters of the Nile, which has been announced for next Saturday. Ashland will be the hostess city and the session will open at 2:30 o'clock in the Ashland Masonic temple, to be preceded by luncheon at 12:30 o'clock in the temple dining room.

This first September meeting is always much anticipated following suspension of sessions during July and August, and a large group is expected from Medford, Grants Pass and Ashland; the three cities included in the temple.

Among features of the afternoon program will be the report to be presented by Mrs. Charles L. Wood, queen of the temple, who was a delegate to the supreme session held in Denver, Colo., in June. Mrs. Woods will discuss both business and social phases of the convolve.

Florence Graves, accredited piano instructor, Studio 220 No. Oakdale.

Garden Center At City Librarys Announced by Club

Establishment of a garden center by the Medford Garden club, cooperating with the public library, was announced this week by Miss Jane Smedicor, Garden club president. The center is located at the library, where a special effort is being made to provide flower fanciers with adequate reading material.

A table will be located near the library door for display of garden books. A box, containing cards, envelopes and pencils, will be there for the convenience of those who wish to leave questions, dues or contributions. Contributions received in this manner, will be used for the purchase of more Garden books. A locked box is provided for such deposits.

Anyone wishing to become a member of the Garden club, enjoying this service, is cordially invited to do so. The club is anxious at this time to obtain donations of flower seeds and books. Miss Smedicor stated yesterday. The books may be left at the library, with the librarian or with any member of the library committee, which is composed of Mrs. Alfred S. V. Carpenter, Mrs. L. E. Williams and Mrs. W. W. Aldrich, or the club president. A tray for receiving gift seeds will be added to the garden center soon.

The next regular meeting of the club has been announced for Thursday evening, September 10.

Luncheon Meeting For Wenonah Club
Mrs. F. C. Martin was hostess for this week's meeting of the Wenonah club entertaining the members at luncheon preceding the business session. Assisting in hostess duties were Mrs. O. V. Hayes and Mrs. H. Rammin.

Return Home After Extended Motor Tour

Called home by the return of fall are many Medfordites who bring recollections of delightful vacations during the summer months. Among them are Mrs. Susan Nason and her daughter, Miss Margaret Nason, of the Old Stage Road, who returned this week-end.

The two have spent the past two months motoring through the western states and stopping at various scenic spots. Among resorts visited were Glacier national park and Swan lake, where they spent the greater part of their time away.

Doctors tell us that a startlingly large proportion of Americans are Colonies! And yet—most of them don't know it! People who are badly constipated usually know it—but thousands who are partially constipated all the time never give the subject a thought. They struggle on day after day, jaded and out of gear, NEVER SUSPECTING for a moment that they are VICTIMS OF SECRET and REGULAR POISONS.

That's what makes a Colony—a person whose whole system constantly absorbs irritating poisons that induce all kinds of diseases and troubles that one would never dream came from UNSUSPECTED CONSTIPATION. That's the baffling thing about SEMI-CONSTIPATION—it's so hard to detect!

Because some elimination does occur fairly regularly we are inclined to think that the LARGE INTERESTINE is doing its vital work satisfactorily. BUT WASTE MATTER REMAINS too long in the body and forms poisons and toxins that work havoc on the entire system.
