LOCALS DEFEATED 3 TO 2 IN TIGHT PITCHING BATTLE

Grants Pass baseball fans saw a whirlwind finish to the 1936 season Sunday as the Medford baseball school squad succumbed to the three-hit pitching of Hardy and went down to a 3-2 defeat. The game was declared by many to have been the best of the year. Tungate, twirling outstanding ball for Medford, let the enemy down with only five hits.

The southpaw Hardy won his own game when he slammed out a long homer in the eighth with the score knotted at 2-2. The drive was directed down the first base line into right field, and was thought by many to have been a foul ball. Hardy had ticked five of Tungate's offerings before he landed for the long hit. Tungate fanned seven, and Hardy turned in the almost unbelievable trick of whiffing 17 opposing batters.

The Climate City team was trailing by one run until the sixth, after Flanagan had scored from third on Stoddard's center field wallop in the second frame. In the sixth Lanning went to second when Flanagan dropped his long fly in left field and Hardy drove him home with a single.

Ricker again put the locals in the lead in the eighth when he got in on a single and then stole second. Hardy tried to catch him off base and overthrew second and the Medford third sacker romped home with yards to spare. In the last half of the eighth inning Lanning made second on a long hit that Sakraida almost caught, and was knocked in from there by Hardy's homer.

Medford turned in two double plays. One came in the fifth with Chief McLean on first. Reible attempted a bunt but knocked a short pop fly which Stoddard snagged, whipping it to Smith on first to put both men out. The second was in the eighth after Hardy's homer. McCarthy singled and stole second, and Neider walked. Hartman then stepped into the double play. Lewis scooping up his grounder and tossing it to Neider on second. A fast pop to Smith on first nulled both runners.

SPILLED JOCKEY RETURNS TO WIN

SALEM, Sept. 8.—(AP)—A spill to the dust in the first race at the Oregon State fair failed to daunt Jockey Jimmy Dillea yesterday and he booted his second mount to victory in the next contest before 7500 thrilled spectators.

The youth went down when Betsy Boozer stumbled while in the lead on the home stretch, and when attempting to crawl to safety he was grazed by another runner, knocking him unconscious. Upon revival he insisted entering the second race and brought in Velsen for the top money.

The closest finish, the $300 Labor Day handicap, was marred by a controversy when the chestnut gelding from the Frisco stable, Bourbon Whiskey, was ruled off temporarily pending the outcome of a recent ruling on the Longacres track in Seattle when he was alleged to have been suspended. He won in a dead heat from Prince Boozer by a scant nose. The purse was held up, but the participants were declared legal.

The heat pay-off under the state's mutual racing law was in the sixth race when the one-two horses on the Quinsela paid $61.82.

53-POUND SALMON WINS PORT ANGELES DERBY

PORT ANGELES, Wash., Sept. 8.—(AP)—A 55-pound 4-ounce salmon pulled out of the bay off Edis hook here yesterday won the Port Angeles salmon derby and a new automobile for Chris Jacobson, Bremerton hardware clerk.

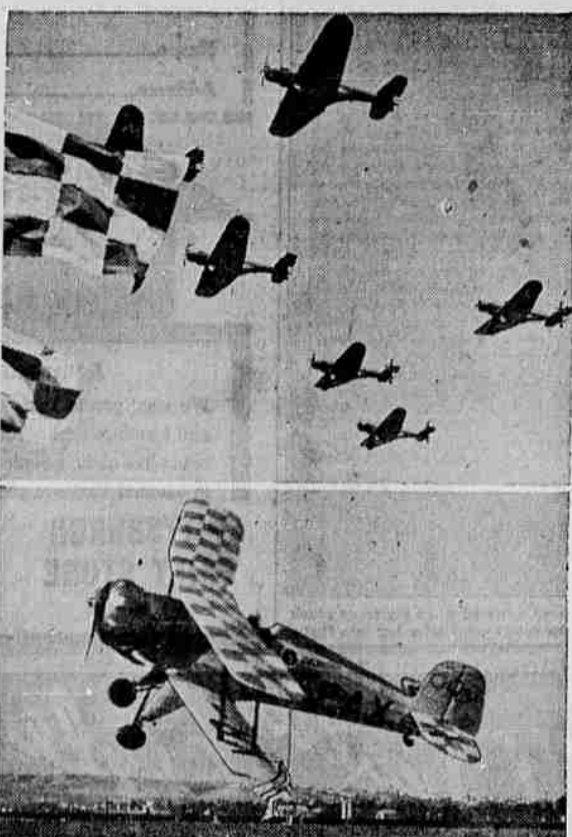

The Port Angeles Salmon club sponsors of the two-day derby, said it was the biggest salmon ever caught in this district.

CAMP HEMLOCK CCC TAKES TRACK MEET

VANCOUVER, Wash., Sept. 8.—(AP)—Camp Hemlock (Stevenson, Wash.) CCC track team won the Vancouver CCC track meet here with a total of 47 points. Ed Johnson, Camp Hemlock, took individual honors with 21½ points. About 125 athletes from 34 camps participated. Runners-up to Camp Hemlock included: Camp Goldendale, 21½; Camp Moro, 19; Camp Trask, 9.

COLLEGE GRIDMEN WIN 7 TO 6 OVER CHICAGO'S BEARS

DALLAS, Tex., Sept. 8.—(AP)—The college football ranks boasted loudly today of their first victory over a professional eleven—a 7-to-6 whipping handed the Chicago Bears here last night by the Centennial All-Stars before 25,000 fans.

Heroes of 1935 from the south and southwest featured the mid-season thriller played in 90-degree heat at the Texas centennial exposition's cotton bowl.

It took a blocked goal off the toe of Jack Manders, who had missed only three of his last 150 attempts, to gain the triumph.

The All-Stars scored first in the third quarter. Ranged Jim Lee Howell, great University of Arkansas athlete, intercepted a dangerous flat pass Gene Rozant. Bruin halfback, tossed on his own 25-yard stripe and headed goalkeeper Raymond caught him a foot from the goal.

Stucky Abe Michal, Louisiana State's triple threat marvel, bounced across on the initial try. Husky Taldon Nanton, Texas Christian fullback, planted his try squarely between the posts.

The Bears took but three minutes to score. A punt exchange left the collegians on their 13-yard line. George Musso, giant Bear tackle, charged in to block Michal's attempted punt and recover on the two-yard stripe. Bronko Nagurski, king of professional backs, whirled across. But Bob Reynolds, giant Stanford tackle, blocked Manders' try for point.

MRS. THOMPSON WINS LADIES TOURNAMENT OVER ROGUE COURSE

Mrs. Belle Thompson yesterday won the hastily organized ladies' tournament at the Rogue Valley golf course, downing Mrs. Dorothy Black of Livermore, Calif., 5 and 4, on the 18 holes.

To Mrs. Thompson went the handsome Orr trophy, put up by Bert Orr of Medford. He also presented each lady in the tourney a new golf ball.

King Bryon, Portland golfer who entered in the Southern Oregon-Northern California men's tournament, put up a dozen balls to be played for in a tournament for ladies that moved under way this morning and will continue until Thursday. Eight of the balls will go to the winner, with four to the runner-up as consolation.

The regular weekly ladies' tournament will be incorporated into the present one, instead of waiting until Wednesday. The tournament was to have ended tomorrow, but registration has been so brisk it is believed the final rounds will not be played until Thursday. Fifteen were entered in Monday's rounds.

ROSENBLUM, PALMER BATTLE CANCELLED

SYDNEY, Australia, Sept. 8.—(AP)—The light heavyweight bout between Maxie Rosenbloom, former world champion, and the Australian, Palmer, was cancelled last night because the promoter was reported to have failed to provide for Palmer's guarantee. Rosenbloom said he would sail for the United States September 19.

IRISHMAN'S TRICK FLATTENS SOOS IN OPENING GRAPPLE

Irishmen are usually known for their lack of guile, but Pat O'Brien, scrawny Emerald Islander, last night produced a stratagem to protect his pocket $50 that would have made an Arab sneak-thief glow with pride.

While Soos had him plastered against the muslin, O'Brien reached up from behind and slapped the bow-legged one on the back. Glowing with justifiable pride, Soos stepped off and started nodding and smiling to the crowd, watching hawk-like for developments.

Developments developed rapidly enough for anyone. O'Brien stalked up behind his prey and swung a blustery round-house that knocked Soos sprawling and sent four front-row customers home for their topcoats, in the belief that a winter wind had sprung up. The Iberian then scraped Soos off the mat and gave him the benefit of several flying jares off the ropes to end the party. Joe Hubka had given O'Brien the only other fall on a foul when Soos had batted the substitute referee on the chops for interfering with the game. A highlight of the ostle came when Soos got thrown out of the ring and came back in armed with a stout board. O'Brien took it away from him and administered a spanking for the unfair tactics.

Hubka, returning to participate in the middle event, nanded Bob Montgomery the second thrashing he has had here. The match was a wild one with Montgomery doing more wrestling than he has before shown.

The bell saved the men from several bad airplane leg scissors in the first round, but Hubka took the first fall early in the second frame with a Mexican deathlock. Montgomery took the second fall in the third round with a Boston crab having a hard time making the grip stick. In the last round it looked as though Montgomery had the advantage when he flying-maired his enemy four times but the Nebraskan ended the threat by leaping into a body scissors for the fall.

It took Duke Chick just 24 minutes to eliminate George Craig in the main event, with an airplane spin for the only fall. At the end of 14 minutes Craig got a Boston crab, but Chick refused to give up and finally wormed his way out. At the end of 22 minutes Craig unfurled his feared anvil flip, but Chick also survived that. The final merry-go-round came when the copperncher ducked out of a short-arm bar. Craig exhibited one of the strongest headlock attacks seen here since the departure of Frankie Peck.

Where it appeared Kay was unfortunate in being in Miss Jacobs' bracket at the start of the tournament, the fact now seems to her advantage. She probably will meet Queen Helen in the semi-finals Friday before the hand, injured in a fall yesterday when the champion was practicing with John S. McDermott, has had much chance to rest.

Miss Jacobs' match with Mrs. Virginia Rice Johnson of Brooklyn, Mass., was postponed because of the injury but after her thumb was examined by physicians, the champion said she would play today.

In the quarter finals today with the youthful Miss Stammers were two other young players, Gussie Raegner of San Francisco and Carolin Babcock of Los Angeles. Miss Raegner's conquest of Mrs. Mary Greel Harris, eighth-seeded player from Kansas City, 7-5, 6-7, was one of the most interesting developments of the tournament. She will meet Miss Jacobs next if the champion is successful against Mrs. Johnson.

After his magic performance in beating Gene Mako of Los Angeles, 6-0, 6-3, 6-0, England's Fred Perry dominated the men's tournament more completely than ever.

"He would have beaten anybody in the world today," said Ellsworth Vines, the professional star, after the match. Perry agreed it was one of the best days of his career. He made shots through sheer speed that probably no one else in the game could have reached. His ability to hit the corners at top speed was simply unbelievable.

Perry's next opponent is Henry M. Cuiley, Santa Barbara, Calif.

The other quarter final match in the upper bracket will pair Bryan (Bills) Grant of Atlanta and Johnny Van Ryn, former Davis cup star from Philadelphia.

INJURY TO THUMB PERILS CROWN OF TENNIS CHAMPION

As if this injury were not disquieting enough, the champion sat in the marquee yesterday and watched Kay Stammers, England's hope, play one of the most perfect matches that has been seen on the center court in many a day.

Air Show Thrills Astoria Throng

ASTORIA, Ore., Sept. 8.—(AP)—Thirty planes, including six navy bombers, gave 8000 air-minded spectators a variety of thrills here at the formal dedication of Astoria's new $50,000 airport.

During a brief lull in the aerial maneuvers, M. J. Ryan of Seattle, acting commander of the northwest coast guard division, gave the dedicatory address.

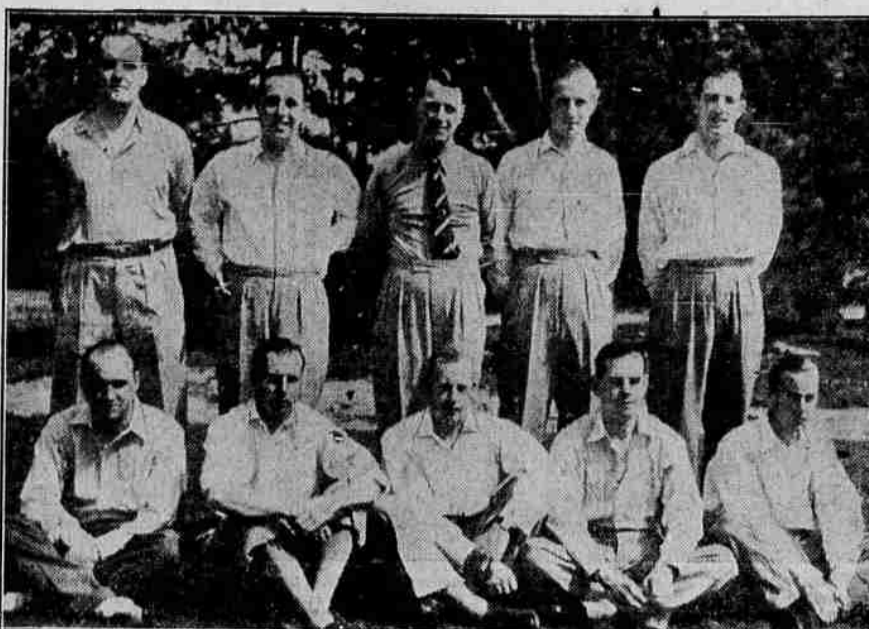

Runways and ramps for hydroplanes are included in the federal airport project, started two years ago by the CWA and completed by the WPA.

LEADERS IN MAJORS EXTEND MARGINS BY WEEK-END WINNINGS

Just when it appeared the leading teams in the National league didn't know the meaning of "consistency," the New York Giants righted themselves and as the result today enjoyed the biggest lead they have yet held in the pennant race.

Over the week-end the combined efforts of the Giants, Cardinals and Cubs produced only one victory. Yesterday, however, Bill Terry's men rallied, swept a double header with the Phillies and took five and six-game leads, respectively, over the Cardinals and Cubs, who continued their backsliding by losing two games each.

While the Giants were whipping the Phils 6 to 2 and 14 to 11, the Yankees all but clinched the American league pennant as they turned back the Athletics, 4 to 3 and 8 to 3. The twin triumph placed the Yanks in a position where they need win only one more victory to nail the flag to the post at the stadium.

Either the Chicago White Sox, Detroit Tigers or Cleveland Indians can still tie but they need take all the remaining games while the Yanks drop all their contests.

The All-stars, pick of last year's senior gridiron heroes, encounter the New York Giants, eastern champions of the National league before an expected crowd of 50,000.

The collegians battled to a 7-7 tie with the Detroit Lions at Soldier field last Wednesday.

5 Good Reasons Why You Should Buy a John Deere Spreader

THE SPREADER WITH THE BEATER ON THE AXLE

- EASIER TO LOAD—Low-down box—only 36 inches from ground to top of box.
- LIGHTER DRAFT—Easier on your horses. Drive wheels are 4 to 8 inches higher than others. Beater is mounted in roller bearings. Revolving rake prevents churning.
- DOES BETTER WORK—Beater and important working parts are mounted on the axle—beater is near the ground—manure is not thrown high into the air.
- EASIER TO OPERATE—Simple beater drive gears are enclosed and operate in bath of oil. There are no adjustments to make.
- LASTS LONGER—Simplicity and stronger parts make it more durable.
