

SPEAKER OF G.O.P. WHACKS NEW DEAL IN LUNCHEON TALK

Medford Republicans Told Administration Trying To Overthrow Existing Government—Lincoln Quoted

Vigorously denouncing what she termed the "New Deal's efforts to overthrow the existing form of government by circumvention of the constitution."

Mrs. Evans addressed the Republican national committee, addressed men and women of the party at a constitutional luncheon at the Hotel Medford this afternoon.

Mrs. Evans opened her address by quoting from Abraham Lincoln as he spoke of the makers of the constitution: "They were the best, and nobly they performed it, to possess themselves, and through themselves, of this good land and to improve upon it."

"Our American system of government," continued the speaker, "is built to protect this liberty. The New Deal, in the entire history of its legislation, has consistently endeavored to destroy equal rights and individual liberty."

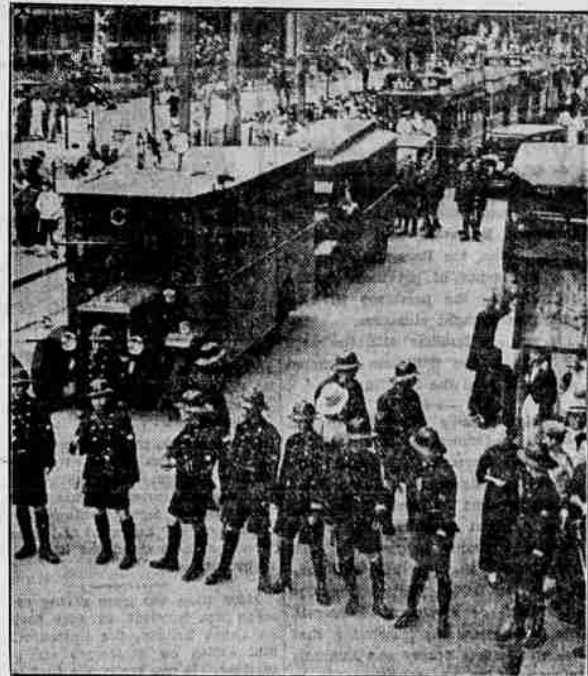

Definite Plan Seen Mrs. Evans stressed the belief that this unconstitutional legislation does not come about by accident—that it is planned to be unconstitutional and is part of a definite program of government.

The 10 supreme court decisions affecting New Deal legislation indisputably record the fact that the New Deal is purposely trying to change our form of government. In 8 out of 10 cases, the court ruled that a violation of the constitution had been made.

These decisions show that a communistic effort is being made to disregard and control individual affairs. The New Deal is trying to follow Russia into communism.

Constitution Must Stand Closing her address, Mrs. Evans repeated the words of Congressman Fuller, Democrat from Arkansas, spoken on the house floor: "I want to tell you, my friends, that any attempt to amend or revise the constitution to satisfy the demands of so-called braintrusts or communists is going to meet with its just regard at the hands of the people of the United States in every state in the union."

To this, Mrs. Evans added, "Thousands of Jeffersonian Democrats are joining the Jeffersonians in a fight to preserve the constitution and safeguard the American system of government."

Mrs. Elizabeth Pettinger, of Portland, vice-chairman of the Republican state central committee, also spoke briefly, making a plea for concerted and unceasing efforts on the part of women workers for a Republican victory in November.

Speakers were introduced by Mrs. Claude M. Hurd, Jackson county chairman of Pro America, and Don Newbury, of the county central committee.

SIMMONS SHOOT SUB-PAR GOLF TO RECAPTURE TITLE

four hole with Rossen one stroke over Simmons, leaving the Medford star eight up and only seven holes to play. A huge gallery followed the two, and cheered both players as they executed exceptional shots.

Second Cup Possession The big cup emblematic of the championship goes to Simmons for the second time, he having taken it with splendid golf in 1933. Trophy for runner-up goes to Rossen. Simmons was also medalist for taking low in the qualifications.

Simmons' remarkable victory came as a surprise to many, including Rossen, who watched the last few holes of the battle Sunday in which Rossen moved through the highly rated Hammond. "I thought I was beat before we started," Simmons said today, "but decided to concentrate on my short shots and putts. That was the only chance I had—to beat him on the green. He's a great golfer, and he had some tough luck," he added.

In the first flight Leonard Hough turned in excellent golf to down Harold Johnson 3 and 1, and A. S. Mansfield, formerly of this city but now of Portland, defeated John Koke of Eugene 3 and 1 in the second flight.

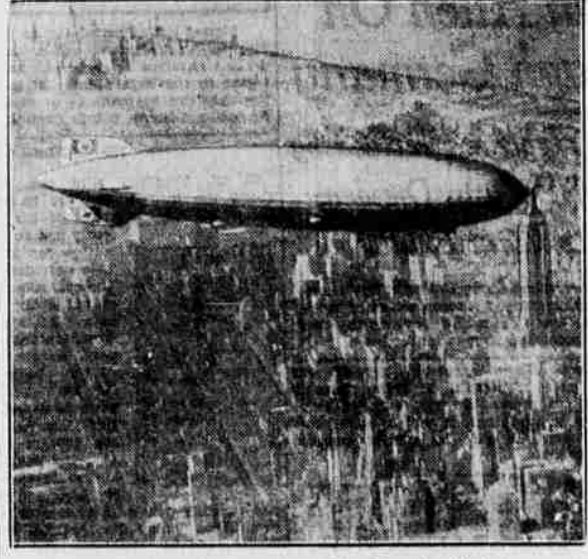

Lee Watson eliminated R. B. Hammond 1-up on the 18th after a hot battle to take the third flight, while Dr. Harvey Woods, Ashland physician, was downing Dick Hatfield of Medford, Cal., 5 and 4 in the fourth flight. The fifth flight saw George Henselman defeat Joe Gravelle of Portland 7 and 6.

Bob Kelly defeated Red Littrell of Grants Pass 3 and 2-to-go to take the sixth flight crown, and Jack Bierma mowed down Earl Leever of Ashland 8 and 6 in the seventh flight. Jean Eberhart, Ashland Normal athletic mentor, downed A. E. Orr 5 and 4 in the second consolation, and Bill McAllister eliminated Reginald Parsons of Seattle 5 and 4 in the third consolation. Winners and runners-up in all flights and consolation rounds received prizes.

Bentley Rounds Driver H. B. Bentley, winner of the tournament last year, won the long distance driving contest with a wallop that almost carried the first green. Judging was made by dead reckoning, and no measurements of the shot were taken. In the afternoon Scotch foursome battling, Bob Hammond and Orin Schenck with a net 70 won the first prize of nine new balls each, while Harold Raviza and George Swartz with a net 71 tied Richard Black of San Francisco and Ralph Stevenson with the same score to win four balls each. Prizes were donated by Alfred and Leonard Carpenter.

Tourney Great Success With a registration of 118, the tournament was declared the most successful ever held here. Players from Portland, Eugene, Klamath Falls, Ashland, Grants Pass and other Oregon cities, and from Yreka, Medford, Eureka and Arcata, California, swelled the tournament, which has been increasing steadily in popularity since its start in 1929. attraction: a ladies' tournament to be held on the last day. With no preliminary announcement other than word-of-mouth, 18 ladies entered for competition this year, and interest was strong. It is believed that with an advance announcement as many as 50 will be present if such a program is offered next year.

DER FUEHRER BOASTS GERMAN SOVEREIGNTY OF ARMS IS RESTORED

NURNBERG, Germany, Sept. 8.—(AP)—Adolf Hitler told a joyous throng of Nazis tonight he had "restored full arms sovereignty" to the German nation.

Der Fuehrer, here for the fourth annual convention of the national socialist party which he founded in the setting of obscure Munich beer halls more than a decade ago, spoke at city hall, after accepting priceless, four-century-old drawings of Nurnberg. In a three-minute speech, he told the assembled thousands: "This gift, with its plans for the city's ramparts and defenses, reminds me of this most difficult period in my life—when, in the past year, I restored full arms sovereignty to the nation."

In that period the reichschancellor renationalized the Rhineland, defying post-war treaties, and further increased Germany's armed forces.

Coinciding with the Nazi convention for which Nurnberg, Germany, was placarded with posters proclaiming "World Enemy No. 1—Bolshevism," Russia made no secret of its bristled back.

SALEM, Sept. 8.—(AP)—Two proposals looking toward creation of people's utility districts in Linn and Marion counties will appear on the November ballot. Completed petitions from Linn were filed with the hydro-electric commission today and Marion county petitions were to be filed later.
