STUDENT REPORTERS

By Kathryn Mead

Initial meeting of the Latin club was held yesterday to begin the year's activities. With Edith Whillock, the new president, in the chair, the business of the club was transacted. A complete treasurer's report revealed that at present the organization has $4.88 to begin business with.
In the near future the S. P. Q. R. will take in new members and initiate them. Also the constitution of the organization is to be thoroughly enforced this year with roll call at every meeting. Any student who misses more than two consecutive meetings with no excuse will be dropped from membership.
The executive council of the club, composed of Miss Demmer, advisor; Edith Whillock, president; Muriel Stocks, vice-president; Evelyn Shaffer, secretary; Roger Henselman, treasurer; Kay Nakagiri, program chairman; and Ray LeFevre, point chairman, will conduct all routine business for the coming year so that a special meeting will not be needed.

Manx Hotel Enjoys Return Of Throngs With Prosperity

At the beginning of the year Harvey M. Toy, managing owner of the Hotel Manx in San Francisco, predicted prosperity ahead. This has come true and to a greater degree than his astute mind envisioned, as he says the hum and buzz around the spacious Manx Hotel lobby has the familiar ring of the days before the depression struck. He is very confident of a continued trend toward better business of every kind, and especially the hotel business, until those who have been hard hit will have retrieved much of their losses.
Mr. Toy hopes that all Californians will make it a point to see and enjoy the convenience of the San Francisco-Oakland bay bridge, the opening of which will be celebrated in November.
The Hotel Manx is a familiar landmark in San Francisco, but it has kept pace with modern improvements and is today, as in the past, regarded as one of the finer hotels of that city. Hospitality and good service are two of the many outstanding features which make the Manx extremely popular from coast to coast, and particularly in our own California.

The Grange

Live Oak Grange
Live Oak Grange met Monday evening. The Grange will hold an open meeting "Booster Night" Sept. 30. All interested in grange work are invited to attend. All officers are urged to be present. A very interesting report was given of the Gold Hill fair in which our grange was represented. We tied with Sams Valley for second place on grange booths. The few members who put this work on are well satisfied with their returns.

Jacksonville Grange.
Jacksonville Grangers are reminded that there will be no meeting this week, but are all urged to attend "Boostera' Night," Sept. 30 beginning with a covered dish supper at 7:00 sharp. Be on time and bring your friends and enjoy a social evening together.

Grants Pass Quits City Change Plan

A contemplated change to the manager type of municipal administration for Grants Pass today was abandoned and a special meeting of the council scheduled to consider the proposition tonight was cancelled.
A straw poll indicated that Grants Pass citizens had slight interest in changing the form of administration and the council, by an informal vote, decided to abandon the matter for the present. The council was to have decided tonight whether or not to submit the proposition to voters in the November election.
