Business Visitor—H. L. Moore of Ashland was among out of town residents making business visits here Wednesday. Other Ashland residents here Wednesday included Mr. and Mrs. T. D. Pryor.

Class Resumes Study—The S. O. S. class of the Baptist church will resume the study of Exodus Sunday morning. Subject will be "The Shattering Blood" and the lesson text is the 12th chapter of Exodus, the picture book of redemption. Mrs. E. N. Warner instructs the class. All who are not attending any other school or class are cordially invited to attend. Children of those attending will be cared for during the study period, the announcement said.

"The Great Ziegfeld" Here Sunday

There is comedy, ably supplied by Frank Morgan, in "The Great Ziegfeld," which comes Sunday to the Craterian theatre with William Powell in the title role and Myrna Loy as his wife, Billie Burke. But comedy is but a small part of this mammoth show that was two years in production and occupies three hours on the screen. So long is it, that there will be but two shows daily—one in the afternoon and one at night. But to accommodate the crowds that are expected to see the attraction at popular prices, it has been decided to also have one evening show Sunday at the Holly theatre.

Featuring a cast of famous names from stage and screen, "The Great Ziegfeld" tells the story of the man whose Polka became known throughout the world as the last word in extravagance. Beautiful girls play an important part in the show—just as in Ziegfeld's real life story—and there are hundreds of the most beautiful show girls of Hollywood and New York. Twelve song hits, spectacular production numbers, glitter and the glamour surrounding the life of the man who "glorified the American girl" are all to be found in the picture.

To Los Angeles—Valeria Whitney was among those leaving on the Shasta last night, her destination being Los Angeles.

Food Sale—Oak Grove Extension unit today announced a food sale all day tomorrow at Boyd's market. Public support was invited.

Dance Tomorrow—The Redman lodge today announced a dance for tomorrow evening at its hall on Apple street for members of Redman and Peacocks lodges and their friends.

Mining Congress—It is expected that several persons from Medford will attend the regional mining congress to be held in Roseburg on October 3. So that sufficient accommodations can be provided by the Roseburg Chamber of Commerce, those planning to attend from here are requested to notify the Jackson County Chamber of Commerce, Gov. Charles H. Martin is to address the congress which will convene at 9:30 a. m. A luncheon is to be held at the Hotel Umpqua and as the dining room accommodations are limited to 100 persons, the Roseburg chamber is anxious to know how many will be present. The region to be represented at the congress includes Jackson, Josephine, Curry, Coos, Lane and Douglas counties.

Boost For Yreka—A sub-committee of the inter-city visitation committee of the Jackson County Chamber of Commerce today went to work in earnest on behalf of Yreka's Gold Rush which opened this morning for a three-day celebration. Members of the committee visited merchants and advertised the California city's festival by giving out Gold Rush badges and urging all they met to attend the celebration tomorrow or Sunday. It was expected that a large delegation would go to Yreka for the last day of the festivities when the Crater club will join in the celebration and its uniformed unit will participate in the big parade scheduled for 1 o'clock. Members of the chamber's sub-committee which distributed badges today were Dr. W. F. Roney, Frank Gray and Dr. Lelloy C. Jensen.

Detective Mystery

With Westerner on
Rialto Double Bill

Edmund Lowe and Constance Cummings head the cast of "Seven Sinners," which plays at the Rialto theatre today and Saturday on the double-bill program with "Ride 'Em Cowboy."

The story of "Seven Sinners" deals with the efforts of a criminal investigator—an American—to discover the reason for the wreck of a French train in which he is riding. His clues carry him and a girl insurance investigator into an amazing series of adventures.

In "Ride 'Em Cowboy," which stars Buck Jones, Buck portrays a happy-go-lucky cowboy who is forever getting himself into trouble. He escapes from a sheriff who wants him for one of his pranks, when he agrees to drive an auto in a race. Switching from his horse to a mechanical steed, Buck finds the high speed contraption buck jumping sun-fishing, rolling, pitching and raring into the next county.
