

SOCIETY AND CLUB NEWS OF THE WEEK

By JANET WRAY SMITH

Notice
Press correspondents or publicity chairmen of all clubs, lodges, church circles and other organizations are requested to call the society editor at 78 during afternoon hours as soon as possible. Co-operation in this matter will be greatly appreciated.

Kansas spent $28,500,000 for operation of its state schools in 1935.

$300 IN PRIZES!
Register Your Child Now In The SHANGLE BABY SALON
And listen to our Exclusive Baby Music Program over KMED.
P. M.
Mondays.....8:00 to 8:15
Tuesdays.....1:15 to 1:30
Wednesdays.....5:30 to 5:45
Thursdays.....4:45 to 5:00
Fridays.....1:30 to 1:45
Saturdays.....6:30 to 6:45

125 Entertained at Annual Luncheon of Missionary Society

Outstanding among events of the week was the annual luncheon of the Missionary Society of the Presbyterian church Tuesday afternoon, when 125 guests were entertained.

Guests were seated at 12 tables, brilliant fall flowers and foliage and fruits decorating the tables. Presiding as hostesses were Mesdames E. Iverson, J. W. Merritt, Dolph Phipps, Walter P. Brown, D. W. Luke, Verl Walker, W. W. P. Holt, F. Hodgkins, Frank Ray, E. J. White, Frank Hagerty and A. J. Hanby.

Miss Chloe Ellenburg was presented in piano solos during the musical program for the luncheon hour. Mrs. E. Iverson introduced Mrs. Sherman L. Divine who spoke to the group. Also appearing on the program was Mrs. E. F. McFarland, of Phoenix, a former missionary to Korea, who related numerous incidents of her work and outlined results at the present time. Color was added to her exposition by the display of handwork of the people and description of their folk-habits and home life.

Miss Laura Bailey, vice-president of the society, announced the appointment of Mrs. Maynard Putney as president to fill the unexpired term of the former president, Mrs. George Oliver, who recently resigned her resignation was greatly regretted by the society.

It was also announced that plans are being completed for the annual state synodical to be held in Medford Oct. 15 and 16. Over 100 delegates are expected to attend from all parts of the state.

Winters' Entertain
For Guests Thursday
Host and hostess Thursday evening were Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Winters, who invited friends for dinner in honor of their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Winters, of San Francisco.
Guests for the evening were Mr. and Mrs. Wendel Meyers, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Weighill, Mr. and Mrs. William Bishop and the honor guests. Guests were entertained at bridge during the evening.
Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Winters have spent the past week visiting his parents.

New Resident in Medford

Mrs. William A. Barker, the former Miss Susan Hurley, of Eugene, who arrived last week-end with Mr. Barker to make their home here. Their wedding, an event of Sept. 17, was among the most prominent of the season in Eugene.

Delphians To Study German and Russian Painters at Meeting

Continuing their study of art, members of the Delphian club will take "Nineteenth Century Development in German and Russian Painting" as the topic for discussion at this week's meeting Thursday morning at 9:30 o'clock at the Girls' Community clubhouse.

Mrs. J. A. Grigaby will have charge of the session and will present current events. A review of Ayn Rand's "We, The Living" will be given by Mrs. T. E. Knackstedt.

Individual topics to be reported are: "The Nazarene Group", Mrs. Dwight H. Findley; "Munich School", Mrs. O. A. Alexander; "Russett", Mrs. H. M. Walshear; "Landscapes and Travel Painters", Mrs. George Coddling; "Genre Painters", Mrs. Gerold Barr; "Menzel and the Portrait Painters", Mrs. F. C. Cone; and "Russett's Painters", Mrs. C. L. Hopkins.

Past Chiefs Occupy Chairs at Meeting

Past chiefs Mrs. W. L. Wilson, Mrs. Ethel Haertle, Mrs. H. C. Dooms and Ed Shackel occupied the chairs at Friday evening's session of Pochontas lodge.

Observance was made of birthdays of Mrs. R. J. Rinabarger, Mrs. John Wenzel, Mrs. G. J. Armstrong, Mrs. F. L. Rush, Jack Dooms and M. Peck. The attendance prize went to O. A. Hubbard. During the evening of cards which followed, scoring awards went to Mrs. F. A. Purdin, Mrs. Charles Dooms, Jack Dooms, Fred Purdin, Mrs. Ethel Haertle, Mrs. H. Hammin, Henry Dooms and Ed Shackel.

Gibsons Back From Visit in Vancouver

Returning to Medford Friday evening were Rev. and Mrs. Oscar G. Gibson, who spent the greater part of the week as the guests of relatives in Vancouver, Wash.

Accompanying them when they left last Monday were Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Averill and daughter Lucina, of Ashland, who stopped in Corvallis for a visit with friends and relatives.

Meeting Postponed By Wenonah Club

Announcement has been made that the October covered-dish luncheon being planned by the Wenonah club has been postponed until October 15. Hostesses to the group for a recent season were Mrs. O. V. Hayes and Sarah Tolle who were assisted by Mrs. F. P. Watkins and Mrs. L. S. Hicks.

Many Present at Bridge Club Affair

A large number of guests were entertained by the Building Bridge club Thursday afternoon, with Miss Katharine McIntosh acting as hostess, assisted by Mrs. J. Hunter and Mrs. W. E. Clarkson, Sr.

Seven tables were in play with scoring awards going to Mesdames Rose Singler and A. V. Graves. The next party was announced for next Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. J. W. Young, 518 South Cascade avenue, with dessert luncheon to be served at 1:30 o'clock. All members and friends are issued a cordial invitation.

Patriotic Talk Is Heard by Group At Recent Session

Mrs. H. E. Armstrong was hostess to Crater Lake chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution at a recent meeting at the country home of her sister, Mrs. B. H. Wilcox.

The business session was followed by a discussion of communism, presented over by Mrs. C. G. Murray, regent. O. H. Benington addressed the group on the Constitution in observance of Constitution Day, describing the early history and purpose of the document.

Miss Mary Anne Gates, well known young vocalist of the city, sang a group of songs, "L'Amour, T'oujours, L'Amour", "Stars in My Eyes" and "To You," by Speaks. She was accompanied on the piano by Miss Mary Beth Foley.

Guests for the day were Mrs. S. L. Divine and Mrs. R. H. Wilcox. Assisting Mrs. Armstrong in hostess duties following the program were Mrs. M. J. Morris, Mrs. Walter Frazer Brown and Miss Clara Wood.

Federation to Hold Annual Fall Rally

Gathering for the annual fall rally, members of the Women's Missionary federation of Medford and vicinity will meet Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock in the South Methodist church.

Ladies of the Nazarene missionary society will have charge of the program and South Methodist members are to serve refreshments at the close of the program and during the social hour.

The affair is expected to attract a large crowd, and those in charge have announced that plans for a united fall campaign will be presented. Mrs. E. Iverson, newly-elected president will have charge of the business session preceding the program.

Outstanding on the program will be the address by Rev. Fred M. Weatherford on "Palestine and the Missionary Concept." Rev. Weatherford will display a collection of Palestine antiques such as pottery, tapestries and other art forms as a preliminary to his address.

Each society is requested to bring literature for the exchange table.

F. L. Club
The F. L. Club will meet at the home of Miss Marian Mellin, 40 Cottage street, for regular session Monday evening.

The Longines Watch
"The Observatory Watch"
Awarded 10 Grand Prizes for Accuracy
Awarded 26 Medals, Supreme in Aviation
Chronometers classified First at International Observatory of U. S. Navy at Washington, D. C.
NOW ON SALE
Two Weeks Only — Very Special Prices
Lawrence's
Carrying the same High Class Merchandise to be found in the Best Stores in Larger Cities.

THE FALL SENTENCE — "They Must Hang!"

EVERY Fall as the leaves begin to fall, the housewife holds court, and curtains are sentenced "To Be Hung."
BUT first, they should be cleansed safely. Women who know will tell you that we can launder even your finest curtains safely. We guarantee all the work we do.
Ask your neighbor!

Rough Dry No Starch 8 lbs. 56c
7c each additional pound

AMERICAN LAUNDRY
TEL. 873 132 SOUTH CENTRAL

WATCH THE Manufacture of A FUR COAT
In Our Show Window
7:00 to 9:00
Every Evening
This Week
ARISTA
Holly Theatre Bldg. 228 W. 6th

THERE'S THE RUB
and that's why Sterling Inlaid is needed
The worn spots you often see on the back of bowls and handles of ordinary silverplate are caused by rubbing. That's why Holmes & Edwards Inlaid is needed.
SOMETHING MORE THAN PLATE
protects the two wear points of the most used pieces with sterling silver invisibly inlaid. This is your assurance of enduring loveliness.
SERVICE FOR SIX Only $32.75
Brophys' JEWELERS MEDFORD, ORE
Exclusive Holmes & Edwards Dealers

Program Planned For Garden Club

Plans are being completed for the program to be presented at this week's meeting of the Medford Garden club, which has been announced by Miss Jane Suedlor, president, for Thursday evening at 7:30 o'clock in the Hotel Medford.

Program arrangements are in charge of Mrs. Curtis Darby. Appearing will be L. G. Gentry, who will speak on "The Control of Earwigs." Another speaker, to be announced later, will also address the group.

Each member attending is requested to bring flower seeds gathered during the season.

Illinois Guests
At Luke Residence
Visitors in the valley last week included Mrs. Nettie Million, Miss Stella Cunningham and Harold Cunningham, all of Jacksonville, Ill., who arrived by motor Thursday.

They were guests at the home of Mrs. D. W. Luke on Orchard Home Drive during their stay here. They motored to Crater Lake and other scenic spots of southern Oregon Friday and continued south to California yesterday, traveling via the Redwood highway.

Report Presented At Club Meeting

Among matters of interest coming before the meeting of Pythian Sisters Monday evening was a report of the supreme temple convalesce in Detroit, Mich., by Ella Wortman, past supreme representative.

Discussion of pertinent business took up the greater part of the session. Important business matters are to come before the meeting Oct. 6. It was announced, and all members are urged to be present at that time.

Auxiliary to Have First Fall Meeting Tomorrow Evening

Mrs. William Ellenburg, newly elected president of the American Legion auxiliary will preside for the first time at the initial meeting of the new auxiliary year which has been announced for Monday evening in the hall at the rear of the Baldwin piano shop.

Included on the program of the business session will be reports of the convention held last month in Roseburg together with highlights of the meeting, to be described by delegates.

A musical program is being arranged by Mrs. C. O. Larson, music chairman to be included in the social tour, which will follow the business session beginning at 8 o'clock.

Members are reminded of the joint installation of Ashland post and auxiliary Oct. 3 at the Community club at 8 o'clock. Dancing and supper will follow installation.

LADIES! Bartlett's Fur Shop Now Open for Business 42 South Central

Smucker's BUTTER
IN GOOD TASTE

Return to Work
MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., Sept. 26.—(AP)—Union employes of the Archer-Daniels-Midland company, involved in a labor dispute which for nearly a month has tied up nine elevators and a linseed mill operated by the company, late today voted to return to work.

LUSTROUS
Your hair will have greater lustre and beauty after one of our Special
Olivoil Permanents
Reg. $5.00 waves. The perfect permanents for hair dried by summer sun
$3.75
Murray's Beauty Salon
2nd Floor Mann's. Tel. 363

Save your Energy and Time!

Added Hours of Pleasant Recreation Are In Store For The Woman Who Has a MAYTAG It Puts An End To Worry And Laundry Costs

MAYTAG

Should Take The Place of Your Worn, Out-of-Date Washer

SPECIAL TRADE-IN ALLOWANCE ON YOUR OLD WASHER NOW!

Just Check These Features:

- One-piece, square, cast-aluminum tub.
- Counter-sunk Gyrator—fast, gentle washing action.
- Roller Water Remover, with enclosed, self-reversing drain.
- Sediment trap that keeps the water free from loosened particles of dirt.
- Auto-type shift lever — to start or stop washing action.
- Quiet, oil packed, enclosed power drive. Handy hinged lid.
- Non-splash crown on tub.
- Adjustable legs to suit your height.
- Large, easy-rolling rubber casters.
- Every part finely built of quality material.

MODEL 30

A BRAND NEW MAYTAG MODEL IS NOW ON DISPLAY An Outstanding Washer at a Sensational Low Price

C. D. BEAN, Inc.
Temporary Location in Hansen Hardware North Bartlett Street. Phone 497

MAYTAG