

SHOT PARALYZES PRISONER'S LEGS IN JAIL FRAGAS

Harold Foughty, 20, of Longview, Wash., wounded Saturday morning in an attempted jail-break, by a shot from the weapon of Jailer Harry Ingling, was "resting easy" according to the report of the attending physician, Dr. L. C. Jensen. Foughty, however, faces the possibility of paralysis of the lower limbs, a condition they are now in.

Foughty, with Buff Marshall, also of Longview, in an attempted jail-break, assaulted Jailer Ingling and Albert Cowan of Jacksonville, a trusty, and a fierce fray ensued. The two prisoners sought to reach the jail office, and the key to the outside door. Cowan, held in the county jail, awaiting action on a charge of an assault upon the Jacksonville marshal last summer, was praised by Sheriff Syd I. Brown for his assistance.

Foughty was shot after he had failed to heed the commands and warnings of Jailer Ingling.

Four charges rest against Foughty and Marshall, who a month ago launched a crime flurry at Phoenix, holding up three people, and stealing two autos. They were arrested at Redding, Calif., the following day. Both signed statements admitting guilt and waived grand jury action.

Marshall was scheduled to appear in circuit court this week for sentence. According to Sheriff Brown, Marshall was badly frightened by the wounding of his companion.

BUDGET DRAFTERS FACE TWO PLEAS

First sessions of the 1936 Jackson county budget committee, composed of George E. Dunn of Ashland, Stewart Weeks of McLeod, George T. Frey of Medford and the county court, are scheduled for early next week—no definite dates being set.

Only two new matters loom for budget committee action. County Judge Earl B. Day said today. One is the request for a $5000 appropriation for a weed control campaign in this county the coming year, by Grange and rural residents. The county judge said he "was convinced something had to be done along this line. The star thistle, according to County Agent Robert G. Fowler, is the most pestiferous of Jackson county weeds.

The second matter has to do with the appropriating of between a $12,000 and $15,000 deficiency in the high school tuition fund, for the past two years. The payment is mandatory, according to an opinion given by the district attorney.

REGISTRATION TO CLOSE SATURDAY

Registration for the general election will close Saturday, October 3. Voters not registered on or before that date will not be eligible to vote at the national election, Tuesday, November 3.

A number of voters appeared this morning at the county clerk's office to register, and a rush is expected this week.

Registrations to date, according to clerk office workers, has so far been evenly divided between the two major parties, with but few changes in political faiths.

Citizens who have not voted in the last two years, who have moved to another precinct, or from another state, or have changed their name by marriage, are required to register.

BARBERS IN CHARGE CONVALESCENT HOME

Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Barber have resumed management of the Ashland Convalescent Home after a year spent in rest and travel. The home has been successfully operated under lease by a trained nurse during their absence. The Barbers are old residents of Ashland, coming from North Carolina over twenty-six years ago. They bought property on Granite street, and when the park was created and little water played in, opened their home to people who were not sick enough for hospital care or well enough to live in hotels, thus filling a much-needed want. From this small beginning an institution has grown that is a credit to Ashland and a real help to invalids.

Maxwell Field, home of Uncle Sam's 800,000 tactical school near Montgomery, Ala., once was used by the Wright brothers in their early airplane experiments.

Divorced nearly 50 years ago, Miss Farnelle E. Burgess and William Abbott re-married at the age of 72 and 77, respectively. Their home is Livingston, Tenn.

"Dan," mule owned by D. K. Christensen of Stewart, Ala., has pulled the same planter each season for 35 years.

LONDON LEADING 3 TO 2 IN POLL

Landon leads Roosevelt by slightly more than 3 to 2 as returns are announced from 21 states in this week's tabulation of the Literary Digest's nationwide presidential poll.

Landon is shown receiving 293,979 votes to Roosevelt's 185,495 and Lemke's 19,632 out of a total of 539,099 votes reported.

First returns are tallied from eight states and more returns are announced from the 13 states included in last week's report.

The early returns from California show Landon leading with 17,006 votes to Roosevelt's 16,018 and Lemke's 1053.

Scattering early returns from Colorado indicate approximately a 3 to 2 lead for the presidential aspirant from the neighboring state of Kansas.

Kansas gives its favorite son better than a 5 to 4 lead over Roosevelt in the initial tally of the sunflower state.

The early ballots from Nebraska totalling more than 3000 also give Landon a ratio of slightly less than 3 to 2.

North Dakota shows the Republican candidate leading with a scant majority of the state's poll vote. Lemke, whose home state it is, receives more than 7 per cent of the first small batch of ballots.

In the other three states reporting first returns, Alabama, Florida and Georgia, Roosevelt leads by almost overwhelming pluralities.

CCC EQUIPMENT RUSHED TO HOUSE FIRE SUFFERERS

H. Martin and on the authority of the corps area commander, the equipment was issued and loaded on the national guard trucks dispatched here late yesterday from Salem.

Captain Franklin H. Canlett and Captain Chauncey L. Pierce were sent to the Bendon area yesterday to work with authorities in co-ordinating the emergency work. Meanwhile, as fire fighting continued, officers and sergeants from all parts of the district were being sent into the danger areas to administer the fire camps and keep the CCC men in the best possible condition for their work under technical agencies who have charge of the actual fighting on the fire lines.

Doctors to Scene Captain William C. Ryan was in command of the fire camps in the Gold Beach area, while Captain Rupert T. Gilbert had command of the camps on the northern front in the Coquille area. All available surgeons and officers were drawn from the eastern Oregon companies and sent to the fire line, only those being retained who were absolutely necessary in administering the regular camps.

The national guard convoy carrying the 1200 sets of bedding and equipment rolled out of Medford early this morning for the coast, where it is, meanwhile, hundreds are homeless. Meanwhile, Medford national guardsmen who stood by last night and loaded the truck convoy were returning to their homes but were ready to reassemble at a moment's notice should they be further needed.

Despite the drought and grasshoppers, two and one-half tons of grapes per acre were grown on the Missouri state experimental farm near Mountain Grove this year. The grapes brought $125 per acre.

"Cover crops" are divided into two main classes: Small grains such as wheat, oats, rye and barley, and winter legumes such as clover, vetch and Austrian peas.
