

STRICKEN BANDON TAKES NEW HOPE; TENT CITY RISES

Steady Stream of Trucks Bringing Supplies — Mills Summon Crews to Labor — Comb Ruins for Bones

BANDON, Ore., Oct. 1.—(AP)—Residents of this fire-stricken scene, no longer a city, breathed in an atmosphere of new hope today as a tent city grew steadily.

A mill whistle called several score men to work. A steady stream of trucks brought in all manner of supplies. Many of the 1,500 residents returned to the ruins of their homes.

Three other mills are scheduled to resume tomorrow.

Long chimneys were being pulled down and streets cleared of debris. The ruins of hundreds of homes were combed for human bones.

Many Wild Rumors.

Foresters, residents, state police, CCC boys and volunteers from nearby towns labored together as city officials pondered plans for reconstruction. An emergency county committee awaited action on rehabilitation surveys before swinging to support of the city.

Many wild rumors of incendiaries continued, but state police denied they had made any arrests.

Hundreds of women and children were milling around relief headquarters, discussing the tragic deaths and exchanging stories, including the apparently authentic report Miss Ida Hill lost her life when she was trapped inside her house as she tried to push a washing machine through the door.

Women Save Homes.

Several houses of the community proper, across the river from Bandon, were still standing due to women climbing roofs and stamping out sparks while the men fought in the forest nearby.

Contrary to coals, a few persons actually fled to Coos Bay Sunday and have now returned. Others who packed belongings are putting them back in place.

The same situation is true in Coquille and North Bend. Most of the Coos Bay mills were open today.

LIONS GIVE $125 TO FIRE VICTIMS

Medford Lions club Wednesday moved wholeheartedly to the aid of the fire-stricken Bandon-by-the-Sea, and collected $125 in cash to be sent to the sufferers immediately. The subscription was raised in a few minutes after the motion had been put on the floor, and will substantially swell the avowed $1,000 to be given by Lions over the state of Oregon.

The money will be wired to the Coquille Lions club, to be administered from that front, where the officials of the lodge are familiar with the needs of the refugees.

Mrs. Effie Yeoman Kurtz, music instructor, and Alice Brill, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Brill, played the violin to Mrs. Kurtz' accompaniment on the piano.

J. L. Daly of the Abbey Motor company was a guest at the meeting. Deputy District Governor Carrol Hays, recently returned from a meeting of district clubs at Bend, reported on activities there.

President Verne Shangle of the Medford club yesterday wired the Lions International headquarters seeking aid for the stricken city but received word in return that the Bandon club had recently disbanded and it would be impossible for the home organization to extend aid under the circumstances. Shangle said that the Medford club would contact members of the disbanded organization and urge them to obtain a new charter so aid could be given.

Holy Land in Turmoil Over Jewish Immigration; Britain Sends Troops

Danger of General Uprising Endangers Long Mandate Granted by League Nations; No Peaceful Solution Seen

(Editor's Note: Martial law is ordered for the Holy Land as Great Britain strives to end the terrorism of the Arab's war against Jewish immigration. Edward J. Neil, Associated Press war correspondent, on his way from covering the Italo-Ethiopian conflict, spent two months in the Holy Land with both British and Arab forces and in the following story gives a picture of the Arab-Jewish background as gathered first-hand.)

By EDWARD J. NEIL, Associated Press Staff Writer

NEW YORK, Oct. 1.—(AP)—Nineteen years have passed since Field Marshal Allenby stormed Jerusalem with British and Arab forces, bringing Turkish domination of centuries to an end. Today martial law culminates the 16 years of Britain's mandate over the Holy Land. Outwardly the world war might still be on three.

Troops, some 15,000 of Britain's finest regiments augmented by thousands more arriving daily, with the finest of equipment; hundreds of machine guns, field pieces and squadrons of airplanes, are striving to make the mandate workable.

They are fighting not only a comparative handful of desperate Arabs, raiding from the barren, rock-strewn hills and the desert country around the Dead Sea, but to preserve as well Britain's empire chain through the Near East into Africa.

General Uprising Feared

Overhead hangs the danger of a general uprising of the millions of Moslems of the east, and particularly of the dreaded Bedouins of Transjordan, where money judiciously spread among the chieftains has kept 100,000 of the world's fiercest fighters on the sidelines.

Worse still is the threat to Great Britain of another humiliation in the east to match the loss of prestige suffered in the failure to stop Italy in Ethiopia.

She may be called before the League of Nations at any time for an accounting of the mandate given her 16 years ago. Today the country is in greater disorder than ever before.

Martial law is the new law, terror the normal state of all inhabitants.

patron in the world war, freedom would be his.

Today the Jews number 400,000 in Palestine, but own about one-third of the tillable land. The Arabs, numbering 700,000, live mostly in poverty.

Most of the land has been sold to the Jews by wealthy absentee Arab owners and the Arab peasants who worked the land for centuries have been dispossessed.

BISHOP EDWIN F. LEE OF SINGAPORE WILL SPEAK HERE FRIDAY

Tomorrow evening Bishop Edwin F. Lee, of Singapore, will speak in the main auditorium of the First Methodist church. Bishop Lee's area of supervision covers much territory, including an exceedingly difficult and fanciful set of races to work among.

Singapore at the tip of the Malay peninsula, is a vast city with a polyglot population being situated at a veritable cross-roads of the world. Aside from the Malay peninsula the bishop supervises the work in the great islands of Sumatra, Java, Borneo and the Philippines.

His subject will be "America's New Challenging Frontiers."

On Sunday evening Dr. P. W. Keys of Inhamhane, Portuguese, S. E. Africa, will speak at both the Epworth League services and the worship service of the church. The Medford church is much interested in the Inhamhane mission, being one of the sponsors for that field.

Dr. Keys has done a great work in Africa and will bring a fine message.

ELK MASSACRED BY STOCK OWNERS OF CENTRAL UTAH

Animals Stamped Over Cliff's Revelation of Forest Officials — Facts Are Hushed to Prevent War

SALT LAKE CITY, Oct. 1.—(AP)—An elk massacre — kept secret for months by fear "guerrilla warfare might crop out against the killers" — came to light today with an announcement that information would be laid before a federal grand jury.

Evidence will include motion pictures of 31 dead elk, their crushed bodies in a ghastly pile at the bottom of an 800-foot cliff. United States forest service officials said.

State Game Commissioner Newell B. Cook said charges would be sought against seven stockmen for the alleged stampeding of the animals last December over the cliff on North Horn mountain in Emery county, in wild south central Utah.

Elk which did not leap to their death were shot at the top of the cliff and their bodies left to rot. Cook asserted, adding:

"The purpose of the massacre, the worst game atrocity ever committed in this state, was not to secure meat. The motive was much more shameful—to kill animals accused of consuming forage needed by the stockmen."

"But these animals were killed on forest land, on the public grazing domain. Stockmen as well as sportsmen were stunned by the brutal deed. That's why we've kept it secret so long—we didn't want any guerrilla warfare to crop up against the killers."

Information gathered in the nine-month investigation has been placed with T. M. Talbot, forest service attorney, for presentation to a grand jury, Cook said. Penalty for the offense includes a heavy fine and loss of grazing privileges.
