YANKEES STAGE BATTLES TO WIN 18-4

News Behind The News
By PAUL MALLON
(Copyright, 1936, by Paul Mallon)
WASHINGTON, Oct. 2.—The crop insurance idea sounds just about perfect. Both presidential candidates are for it. Congressional candidates are stumbling over each other to get on record in favor of it. Nobody is against it. The government is working out the actual details for it. It seems like a sure thing — yet do not be too sure. There is another side of the story which has not been fully developed.

The plan, under the Wallace conception, would work like this: A wheat farmer, taking out insurance, would be required to pay premiums only in years of excess production. When his yield per acre was average for his community, he would pay nothing. But in bumper years he would pay a portion of his excess production, say two-thirds, to the government. And he would pay in wheat.

The government would take this wheat and store it, paying the storage charges. If drought, rust or grasshoppers came along next year and the same farmer's yield per acre fell below average, the government would pay a portion, say three-fourths, of his deficiency. But this payment probably would not be made in wheat. The government would have to sell its storage grain and pay off in cash.

The theory seems to be flawless, but when you start applying it to wheat farmers as a whole you run into difficulties. In the first place, it will require some system of production control, else the government might accumulate more grain than it could ever dispose of. While federal control has been outlawed by the supreme court, some means of getting around the court decision will have to be found. In fact, they may have "storage in the hand" — by not planting it, or by planting alfalfa instead.

But then there is the question of the wide variation in winter wheat from year to year. In some sections, farmers get only two normal crops every five years. In the wheat region, as a whole, bumper crops have been coming no more than two or three years out of ten. In the best areas, if the premium is fixed on an annual actuarial basis, the rate would be almost prohibitive. And in the best areas, the farmers might not

SLUGGING OUTFIT SETS NEW RECORD FOR RUNS SCORED

Lazzeri Homes in Seventh As Climax of Seven-Run Rally — Five Giant Pitchers Fail to Stem Tide
By EDWARD J. NEIL
(Associated Press Sports Writer)
POLO GROUNDS, NEW YORK, Oct. 2.—(AP)—The full might of the Yankees' slugging attack, climaxed by Tony Lazzeri's home run with the bases full in the third, fell upon the Giants today in full view of President Roosevelt and 43,649 other fans, crushing the National league champions, 16 to 4, evening the civil war of Manhattan at one game all and setting a new series record for runs scored in a single game.

Lazzeri's belt into the right field stands in the third climaxed a seven-run rally that blew the ball game apart as Frank Crosetti, Red Rolfe and Ed Dimaggio trotted home ahead of him. The feat has been accomplished only once before in world series history, Elmer Smith landing one in the stands for Cleveland under the same series with Brooklyn 16 years ago.

A walk to Gus Mancuso, singles by Travis Jackson and pinch hitter George Davis filled the bases and set the scene for Bartell in the fourth.

He sent one run in with his base on balls and Bill Terry drove Jackson and Davis across with a single to center.

Lazzeri Tries Again.
Frank Gabler, a right hander, started the fifth for the Giants, with Tony Jackson leading off. Gabler got Powell singled to right with two gone and Tony Lazzeri drove Hank Leiber almost into the center field clubhouse to drag down his long bid for another home run.

The game became a travesty as the Yankees continued piling up runs, scoring six in the ninth when Bill Dickey homered with two on, to set a new series record for scoring runs with a total of 18.

When Lazzeri drove in a run with a long fly in the seventh, he surpassed the previous record for runs driven in by a single player in one game, sent his count to five for today. The previous record, held by several players, was four.

The previous high scoring record was 13 runs, set by the Giants, Yankees and Athletics.

TONY LAZZERI

BILL DICKEY

Tony Lazzeri, Yankee second baseman, blew the roof off the Giants' defense in the second game of the world series today with a booming homer in the third inning which cleared the loaded bases and climaxed a seven-run rally. Lazzeri went on to drive in a run in the seventh to set a new series record for runs driven in by a single player in one game. Bill Dickey, Yankee catcher, also chucked up a home run in the ninth.—(A. P. Photos.)

FOG ALONG COAST SETS DAMPER ON FIRE RECURRENCE

MARSHFIELD, Ore., Oct. 2.—(AP)—Welcome fogs filled the air with fire-killing moisture today as southwestern Oregon prepared to go ahead with the normal mode of living disrupted by flames spreading from Bandon, taking eleven lives and bringing days of danger to other cities in this section.

Eliminating the ever-present possibility of emergencies and sudden flare-ups in the brush and timber, the threat of further destruction was virtually at an end.

While Bandon continued with its program of rebuilding with a model city, Brigadier-General Rilea, personal representative of Governor Martin in charge of the fire zone, issued permits for logging operations in areas where fires had been extinguished.

Indicating that fires still might break out anew along the coast, Governor Martin yesterday accepted further aid offered by C. J. Buck, regional forester. The forestry department ordered 500 additional men sent to Coos Bay section, bringing the forest service manpower alone to 1000. One hundred of the men are from the CCC camp at Glacier, Wash., and the other 400 from CCC camps in Oregon.

World Series Play By Play

Yankees—Crosetti up; Schumacher's first pitch was made for the purpose of giving the ball to the president as a souvenir. Crosetti lined a single to center on the first pitch. Rolfe up; Rolfe walked, the fourth pitch low and inside. Dimaggio up; Dimaggio bunted down the third base line and was safe for a base hit, as he best Jackson's throw and filled the bases. Gehrig up; Gehrig lifted a fly to Ott and Crosetti scored after the catch. Rolfe ran to third. Dimaggio remained at first as Ott made the throw to the plate.

FLORENCE, Ariz., Oct. 2.—(AP)—Roland H. (Jerry) Cochran, former U. S. marine who bravely faced death in the service of the government during the Nicaraguan rebellion, calmly and smilingly went to his execution in the lethal gas chamber at the state penitentiary at dawn here today in payment of a $2.40 holdup slaying.

GROWING INCOME INSURES BUDGET SAYS ROOSEVELT

Present Rate of Increase Will Balance Books Without Additional Taxes, Pittsburgh Hearers Are Told
By D. HAROLD OLIVER
Associated Press Staff Writer
ABOARD ROOSEVELT SPECIAL TRAIN EN ROUTE TO JERSEY CITY, Oct. 2.—(AP)—President Roosevelt resumed his eastern campaign jaunt today after leaving in industrial Pittsburgh an assertion that the federal budget would be balanced in a year or two without additional taxes if national income "keeps on rising at the present rate."

A morning speech at Jersey City in dedication of a federally-financed medical center and a similar afternoon engagement at the breaking of ground in Long Island City for the Queens-Midtown tunnel under the East river, with a world series date in between, was the heavy schedule he faced before reboarding his special in New York city for Hyde Park.

He will spend the week end at his upstate home on the Hudson and return to Washington Monday or Tuesday for a day or two before striking out on his first campaign invasion of the west.

It was a regular world series crowd that jammed Forbes field last night in Pittsburgh to hear the president make his half-hour talk on finance and relief. The home grounds of the Pittsburgh Pirates, at which he compared "boom scoops" of the past and present administrations, were filled by a wildly cheering capacity throng that flowed by the thousands out into the field. Park officials said the stands themselves seat 35,000.

Contending his administration had "much to show" for increasing the national debt by a "net" $8,000,000,000 to help pay for relief as an "investment in the future of America," the campaigning chief executive asserted President Hoover had "little to show" for his administration.

CITIZENS SOURRY FOR REGISTRATION

Final rush of Jackson county voters to get under the wire before the registration books close tomorrow was under way today. There was an almost constant stream of citizens filing into the county clerk's office yesterday and today.

Registrations to date have been heavy from both city and rural precincts. Clerks report there are fewer changes in political faiths than before the May primary and that there are quite a number of new voters who have moved here either from other states or counties. There is also a considerable registration of Jackson county residents who have moved to another precinct the past two years.

For the accommodation of workers and others, unable to get to the court house during the day, the clerk's office will be kept open tonight and tomorrow night from 6 to 8 o'clock. Saturday is the last day to register.

Under Oregon law, no voters are sworn in upon election day, so those not registered will be unable to vote at the general election November 3, when a president and state and county officers will be chosen.

CAMPAIGN OF FEAR ADDED TO FORCE FALL OF MADRID

Artful Fascists Plan to Bombard Suburbs in Effort to Panic Inhabitants — Moors' Advent Adds Fear
By Richard G. Massock
(Copyright, 1936, by the Associated Press)
TOLEDO, Spain, Oct. 2.—(AP)—Artful fascist commanders added a whispering campaign and the balletic roar of cannon to their military drive against Madrid today.

Insurgent officers disclosed Gen. Francisco Franco hopes to substitute "fear for force" in the onslaught against the capital toward which three fascist columns are pushing.

The high command is maneuvering its forces close to Madrid, on both the north and south sides, in an attempt to place artillery batteries near the suburbs, the general staff declared.

Once in position, the gunners would bombard the outskirts, the officers predicted, to throw suburban residents into a panic and start a general movement into the city.

Coupled with the barrage—which might be more noisy than deadly—would be a whispering campaign that "the Moors are coming," the lieutenants of the fascist military commander said.

They asserted fear over a projected invasion of the capital by the Moorish legionnaires in the insurgent columns was growing daily in Madrid.

M'FADDEN DIES OF HEART ATTACK

NEW YORK, Oct. 2.—(AP)—Death has silenced the voice of Louis T. McFadden, whose 20 years as an outspoken representative in congress included two unsuccessful attempts to impeach President Hoover. A heart attack proved fatal last night to the 60-year old former Canton, Pa., banker. He had been suffering from intestinal grippe.

He began his congressional career in 1915 and in December 1932, introduced a 4,500 word resolution in the house, demanding the impeachment of Hoover for "high crimes and misdemeanors."

Central Pointer Earns High Grade

PACIFIC UNIVERSITY, FOREST GROVE, Ore., Oct. 2.—(Sp.)—Roy Hensley, son of Robert H. Hensley of Central Point, was one of the freshmen receiving the highest grades in English placement tests conducted for freshmen at Pacific university last week. His grade of A, won in the exam, exempts him from the freshman English course, usually required of all freshmen.

Hensley is a member of the largest freshman class ever enrolled at Pacific, the class numbering over 150.

The Talent pear and tomato show, after week of preparation, got away to a good start this afternoon with a big crowd in attendance. Regular kitten ball and other athletic events, in addition to a donkey baseball game, were in progress this afternoon, with the main program to swing into action tonight.

The main features of this evening's program will include the crowning of Queen Opal I, escorted by the Ashland Kilty band, dances and vocal numbers, starting at 8 o'clock. An hour earlier the pear peeling race for ladies will get under way.

Wagner Gulch, midway for the show, will be open from 9 o'clock until 12 tonight. Dancing will be from 9 o'clock until 2 a. m.

Tomorrow is to be Medford day, and it is expected that several thousand from this city will attend.

Dempsey Protege To Battle Lewis

CHICAGO, Oct. 2.—(AP)—Clarence Burman of Baltimore, Md., Jack Dempsey's young protege, faces his big opportunity tonight against John Henry Lewis, world light heavyweight champion, in a 10-round non-title bout opening the Chicago stadium fall and winter boxing program.

Burman, who has won four straight battles here, relied largely on a body attack and should be drawn with or without the Phoenix, Ariz., littleholder, probably would find himself in line for a match with Detroit's sensational heavyweight, Joe Lewis.

INSTALL SAWMILL IN OLD CANNERY BUILDING, TALENT

California Men Expect to Start Plant by Nov. 1 — Will Employ 12 to Start — Will Add More Workers
Construction of a sawmill, which when completed will saw 45,000 feet of lumber per 8-hour shift, is now underway on the old Bagley canning plant property in northeast Talent. The project is being undertaken by Alfred Graham, formerly of Lomita, Cal., and his three sons, Edmund, Ralph and Theodore, who have leased the property with option to buy. The mill will begin operations about November 1.

The old cannery building is being renovated and new construction will include engine rooms and smaller units for the mill. A mill pond, with an opening capacity of 100,000 feet of logs, which is expected to be increased to 500,000 by spring, is to be part of the plant and will be located north of the building, which stands close to the railroad.

Timber Options.
Options have been taken up by the Grammas on 115,000,000 feet of timber in the Little Applegate district. The stands are of pine, fir and cedar, which will all be sawed. Graham and his sons have operated a small mill on Thompson creek for the past two months to supply timber for construction of the Talent project.

At the beginning of operations, the mill will employ about 12 men, but by spring Graham expects to increase that number to 16 or more. All operations of the mill are expected to have increased in scale by spring, Graham said. At present, work is going on daily in construction of new buildings and rebuilding of the old cannery plant, which is to constitute the main mill building.

Before moving to California, Graham was in the lumber business in Spokane, Wash., for 40 years. Edmund and Ralph Graham both have families and they, with Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Graham, expect to build homes in the Talent district sometime this year. At present, all members of the family are residing in Medford.

BABY SWALLOWS SIX-PENNY NAIL

ROSEBURG, Ore., Oct. 2.—(AP)—With the point of a six-penny nail apparently puncturing the lung dangerously near the heart, Ben Mouchette, three-year old son of Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Mouchette of Glendale, has been taken to Doernbecher hospital in Portland.

When the child swallowed the nail while at play Thursday afternoon, he was taken to Grants Pass, where an X-ray examination revealed the nail to be pointing directly toward the heart. Bleeding indicated a puncture.

AIMEE, DAUGHTER UNABLE TO AGREE

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 2.—(AP)—Aimee Semple McPherson said her daughter, Roberta Semple, met last night in a vain effort to reconcile their differences. Mrs. Minnie (Ma) Kennedy, mother of the evangelist, said today.

Mrs. McPherson presented a type-written list of terms for settlement of the dispute over management of Angelus Temple, said Mrs. Kennedy, and Miss Semple rejected it, leaving in tears.
