

AL SMITH'S WALK WINDS UP IN CAMP OF LONDON, KNOX

Former Democratic Candidate Declares Remedy for All Ills of Country Is Election of Republicans

By R. H. HIPPELHEUSER (Associated Press Staff Writer.)
NEW YORK, Oct. 2.—(AP)—Alfred E. Smith joined hands today with Gov. Alf M. Landon in the presidential campaign, going all the way in his opposition to the re-election of his one-time friend and political associate, Franklin D. Roosevelt.

from today is the election of Alf M. Landon."
In completing his break with the president, Smith said: "I have no grudge against the national administration or against anybody connected with it. My fault with them is that they have betrayed the party."
Claim Communists Welcome.
After declaring that the Roosevelt administration gave the "strength and the power of the so-called Democratic administration" to candidates of other parties so long as they supported the New Deal, Smith declared: "Why, even a communist with wire whiskers and a torch in his hands is welcome so long as he signs on the dotted line."
Smith's declaration of support for the Kansas governor came at the end of his half-hour speech. He said: "I am an American before I am a Democrat, before I am a Republican or before I am anything."
"I have never in my long public career, ducked, dodged or pussyfooted. I have never found fault with anything unless I was prepared to suggest a remedy; and while I may differ on matters of traditional party policy, I regard these things in the crisis of today as merely my own."
"I am satisfied as to the basic and fundamental needs of this country," he said, "and I can be relied upon to cherish and preserve the great principles upon which the country was founded and without which, in my belief, it cannot endure."

"I firmly believe that the remedy for all the ills that we are suffering from today is the election of Alf M. Landon."
Smith's sallies at the New Deal brought frequent rounds of laughter from the audience, which filled the 3,000 seats in Carnegie hall.
Hecklers interrupt.
Thrice, hecklers interrupted the address.
"Would you explain why you did not agree with the people that turned against Roosevelt?" shouted a man in the second row, when Smith pictured himself as having defended Roosevelt when "almost every other leader in the state was against him."
Some shouted threats to throw the heckler out bodily; but Smith replied: "That is a rather complicated question. You had better put it in better English. I don't get it. One minute I have the platform. After I get finished you can get up here and have as much as you want to say."
Just as Smith's declaration for Gov. Landon was being applauded, a heavy-set man in the left center of the orchestra shouted that former Mayor James J. Walker had shown he could "take it" with more grace than the once "stappy warrior" Smith's radio time was ended, and he made no reply; but the shouting crowd headed for the heckler.
There was no actual violence, however.

Strength Essential Theme New M.J.B. Advertising Series
Scheduling larger advertisements than last year, M. J. B. Co. recently launched their 1936-37 sales campaign in 159 newspapers throughout their wide western and mid-western markets.
The new advertising features M. J. B. coffee and its now famous "strength essential," together with the universal grind that makes M. J. B. perfectly adapted to any method of coffee-making. To strengthen this last point in particular, every advertisement promises: "Your money refunded by your grocer if any tin of M. J. B. coffee doesn't satisfy you perfectly in every way." An unconditional guarantee.
The campaign is strikingly illustrated with "human interest" photographs and presents most of its story in testimonial form, material being selected at random from the unsolicited letters now on file at the M. J. B. Co. office.
A slight change of pace is effected in some of the advertisements by a largely pictorial presentation of the fundamental M. J. B. sales story: "At any strength, for any person, by any method of brewing M. J. B. makes better coffee."
Copy, both testimonial and straight, tells the housewife in no uncertain terms that she can make a more flavorful cup of coffee, either mild, medium or strong, with M.J.B. and by whatever method she may prefer. By drip, percolator or glass coffee maker, positive and uniformly satisfactory results are assured by M. J. B.'s scientifically correct universal grind, designed for each and all these methods.
The "strength essential," of course, receives its well-deserved share of attention. A never varying blend of the world's finest coffees, plus a richer roast, insures a constant richness of flavor in every coffee grain and flavor developed to a point never accomplished before. It is M. J. B.'s "strength essential" that gives more flavor to every cup.
This new coffee campaign is supported in many markets by outdoor showings of 24-sheet posters. The newspaper advertising of Tree Tea, another M. J. B. Co. product, will continue in all originally selected markets.

BALL OF GAS IN STOMACH! LADY NEARLY FAINTED

"I Took Soda Constantly to Get Relief from Stomach Gas," Says Mrs. Baldwin, Widely-Known Oregon Lady. Now Van-Tage Has Ended Her Misery!

Gas and bloating after every meal! Some folks suffer in this horrible way for YEARS, literally afraid to eat for the misery they suffer afterward. But at last, thousands of Oregon people have found BLESSED RELIEF with the soothing, medicated herbs of Van-Tage. According to druggists at Young's Drug Store, no other medicine has ever created so great a sensation here, and a flood of testimonials is pouring in from every part of the state.

"I am GLAD to endorse Van-Tage!" says Mrs. Joseph Baldwin, Whose Amazing Statement About the Great Relief It Gave Her Is Published Below.

One of the many Oregon people who testify to the great power of Van-Tage is Mrs. Joseph Baldwin, Jefferson, Ore. (photograph above). Read Mrs. Baldwin's remarkable statement:

Bloated with Gas

"All the food I ate seemed to turn sour and form gas which bloated me up. At times I could hardly get my breath because of this awful gas pressure, and I had to take baking soda almost constantly. My bowels were sluggish and constipated, too, and I always had a heavy, depressed feeling in the lower part of my stomach and intestines.

"I had just about given up hope when I heard about Van-Tage, and what was being done for others, so I made up my mind to get some and try it. I can truthfully say this Great Medicine has done more for me than anything else I've ever tried. Now I can eat just about anything I want, and no gas or bloating afterward. I am more than glad to endorse Van-Tage for what it has done for me."
